Men in van tried to abduct children

By Simon Firth

Police are hunting two men who tried to abduct groups of children from the streets of Malaga City.

In two separate incidents the men tried and failed to entrap children while playing unsupervised.

According to police, the men are using a van, described as dark green in colour.

One apparently drives slowly down the street while the second man walks a short distance behind.

In the first incident, a teenage boy playing in a park was approached by a man who tried to take him to his van.

But when other people noticed the man he left the boy alone and drove off.

In the second incident

two days later six youngsters noticed they were apparently being followed as they walked home.

They described one man being in a van on the phone while a second man followed behind.

At some point the van began to speed up and the children started running, according to reports.

The children, said to be aged between seven and 14, ran to the house of one of their relatives.

The National Police were alerted but could find no trace of the two men in the van.

Officers then encouraged the families of the children to make formal statements about what had happened.

So far there have been no further reports of the men or the van.

LOCAL NEWS

Scrum deal

MARBELLA rugby fans could be left without somewhere to enjoy their favourite sport as the local club has had its accounts frozen by the tax office. A report in local Spanish daily Diario SUR revealed that administrative proceedings had been launched against Marbella Rugby Club for an amount of €140,000 in outstanding IBI property taxes.

New digs

MIJAS wants to build a new Guardia Civil barracks, preferably in La Cala. If built, the new facility would see the police force finally have the bigger space it was first promised back in 2010, with many officers currently forced to work out of a small building in Fuengirola.

Melon mayhem

A TRUCK chock-full of watermelons capsized on a Cala de Mijas beach. Smashed fruit was strewn across the shore and the driver had to be rescued from the wreckage by firefighters. Traffic was delayed until 8am while police dealt with the considerable mess, while the driver was transferred to the Costa del Sol hospital.

A new year begins

By Eleanor Hawkins

ALTHOUGH it adopted the Gregorian calendar in 1912, the Chinese New Year, one of the most important events of the year for the Chinese community, is still calculated using the ancient Chinese lunar calendar.

Falling on the second new moon after winter solstice, the Chinese New Year falls on a different date every year and this month, the Year of the Rooster and 4,715th year of the traditional Chinese calendar begins on January 28.

The new year sees a long period of festivities which last until the Festival of the Lanterns on the 15th day of the new month. Traditionally the Chinese sweep their houses with old brooms which are then thrown away for luck, and pending tasks and debts must whenever possible be dealt with before the beginning of a new year.

In Spain, given the large Chinese community which has taken up residence in the country, the new year is honoured in many places with parties, fireworks and various events. In Madrid, for example, City Hall organises almost two weeks' worth of events centred around the celebrations. Things kick off on January 28 with a street parade and last until February 12, which will see traditional Chinese customs displayed at Plaza de España.

Hammer attacker sentenced

A MAN accused of battering a gambling hall worker to death with a hammer has been sentenced to 24 years in prison.

The 39-year-old accused had been playing slot machines at the store in Malaga when the murder took place.

The employee was alone behind the counter when the defendant allegedly struck, hitting the 40-year-old woman with a hammer.

He then rifled through the till taking more than €5,700.

Documents presented to the court claim the accused then went to the bathroom to clean off the blood but returned and hit his victim again to ensure she was dead.

As the man, a Chinese national, left the premises he hit out at the camera surveillance system in an attempt to prevent his identification.

Burned out car found

OFFICERS of the National Police were called through the emergency number 112 as a car was said to be on fire in the dunes in Cabopino and once it was extinguished the body of a man was discovered inside.

It appeared that the dead man was Spanish, in his 70's, and had also suffered a head wound and may have been shot.

It is believed that a flammable liquid had been used to set the vehicle on fire.

The results of a post-mortem examination are awaited.

Cash machine blown up

THIEVES using explosives have blown up a cash machine at a branch of the Unicaja bank.

The gang struck on an industrial area between 2am and 3am taking the money from the machine without entering the branch itself.

The attack in Antequera mirrors a number of those carried out throughout the Malaga Province which have continued despite the arrest of two Britons in November.

Although units of the National Police were quickly on the scene the gang had fled.

Hi big spenders

AN American investment group, HIG Capital has closed a deal to buy 430 holiday flats in Estepona's Valle Romano area.

The sale, rumoured to have been agreed at a price of €32 million, includes 390 garage spaces, storerooms and 12 commercial premises.

At the moment, 290 of the flats are managed by Melia group under the name Tryp Estepona Valle Romano Golf and HIG has left the door open for the group to take over running of the rest of the complex in the future.

Managing director of HIG London, Riccardo Dallolio, said this is the firm's seventh purchase in Spain in the last three years and explained that the country is a key part of its European strategy.

Estepona is attracting increasingly large numbers of visitors and investors as its popularity increases.

SPANISH FACTS OF LIFE... 1

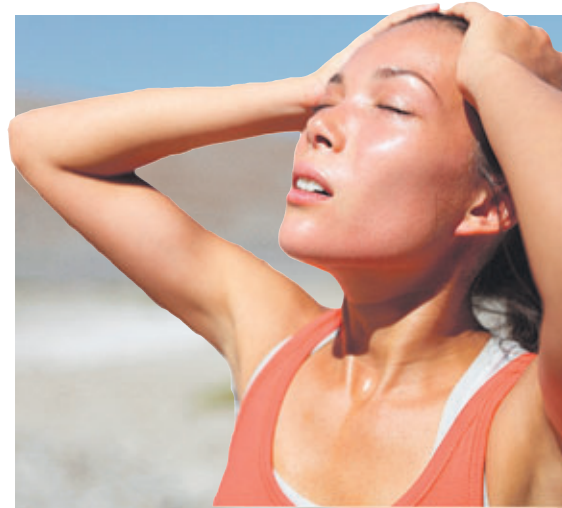

Despite the at times Arctic-like temperatures in recent days, last year was the hottest since world records began in 1880. And local weather is set to change more up to the year 2100 than it has in the last 10,000 years, according to experts.

Things are hotting up

TEMPERATURES in Spain could increase up to 5°C by 2080, with 30 per cent of the country becoming a desert should the most severe predictions play out.

Climate change has already warmed Spain 1.3°C in the last century, 0.3°C more than the global average. As a result, parts of the Bay of Biscay coastline could become submerged by the end of this century.

September 6 was the hottest day in Spain last year with 45.4°C recorded in Cordoba and 38 provinces experienced temperatures above 40°C. Meanwhile, 21.4°C in Cuenca on December 26, 2016 was the hottest for the month in Spain since national records began in 1955.

In the future, extreme summers and heat waves are likely to become four times as common.

8 AT-A-GLANCE SURPRISES

■ Rainfall in Spain could decrease 10-20 per cent over the next 30 years, with water shortages affecting up to 60 per cent of residents.

■ Spain's tourism industry could suffer if it becomes too hot to comfortably visit during summer.

■ The Pyrenees lost 75 per cent of their glacial ice from 1980 - 2012.

■ Spring in Spain has moved forward two weeks in the last 30 years, with almond trees now blossoming in late January.

■ Large wildfires are expected to increase.

■ Olive and grape production will be hit if Spain warms by over 4°C.

CONCERNS: Higher temperatures could hit olive productions and lead to a more arid landscape.

■ Spain lost 15 per cent of its fresh water resources between 1996 and 2005.

■ With half of the EU's biodiversity found in Spain, 70 per cent of its species will need saving as the climate warms.

Taken for a ride

COUNCILLORS in Malaga are desperately trying to bring an ambitious bike lane plan back to life. The mayor signed a deal worth €17 million to transform the city into a cycling paradise two years ago. Since then nothing has happened.

The investment was supposed to see the construction of 69km of bike lanes in the Costa del Sol capital. A two-year deadline was established for all the work to be done. That deadline elapsed on January 22, 2017 without even a solitary centimetre of cycle lane being built.

Carer held after cash taken

A WOMAN has been arrested after four withdrawals totalling €1,200 were made from the account of a man who had hired her as a carer.

The man, who uses a wheelchair, had given the woman his PIN number on an earlier occasion because he has difficulty getting to a cash machine.

Police said that a few days later the man checked his account himself and noticed four separate withdrawals carried out in Granada for €1,200 in total.

Costa breaks hotel record

FOR the first time ever the hotels of the Costa del Sol have received more than five million travellers in a year.

Overnight hotel stays are also at a record high.

The number of hotel guests in 2016 was 5 per cent up on 2015.

Postscript to ponder

75.3m

SPAIN attracted more foreign tourists than ever in 2016, smashing the previous record set in 2015 by almost 10 per cent. In 2002 the figures stood at 51.7 million.

Love-struck pensioner nods off

A PENSIONER taking part in a popular Spanish dating show fell asleep while the programme was live on air. The hapless contestant had taken a sleeping pill to stave off nerves and instead of finding love, she ended up falling asleep.

The presenter of Canal Sur's Andalucía-based show asked technicians to turn off the lights when the show had finished, leaving this particular sleeping beauty still in slumberland. The woman, known as Eloisa and from Almería, was then told the footage had been seen by around three million people.

Presenter Juan Y Medio was on hand to help wake her up, but Eloisa is still without a partner.

Radioactive

SPAIN'S intention to stockpile nuclear waste less than 100 miles from the Portuguese border has angered its neighbour.

The plant is to be built at the Almarez complex, but Portugal has filed a complaint with Brussels.

It claims it should have been consulted when 'transborder' issues potentially affect the environment and says this was not done.

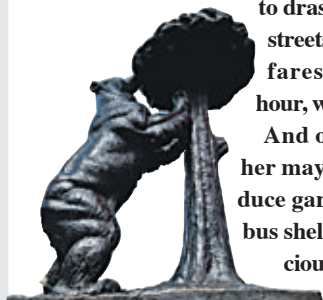

Postcard from

MADRID

WHILE many motorists refuse to use the metro and continue to drive on the city's main and frequently clogged roads, Mayor Manuela Carmena wants to ban all vehicles from many main streets by 2019.

With her term of office due to end in two years' time she is keen to drastically reduce the pollution levels in streets that at present are daily thoroughfares for thousands of vehicles every hour, with the Gran Vía one of the busiest.

And other changes are also planned as her mayoral hope is to additionally introduce garden areas on the tops of buses and bus shelters as a boost to her aims to "deliciously pedestrianise" the capital.

Statistics reveal that the city of 3.2 million boasts one car for every two citizens. Given its high ground location, vehicle fumes are in part blamed for the smog that can grip it during winter months, affecting daily life for tens of thousands of families.

While the mayor's schemes have been criticised and even ridiculed by some, around 2,000 people die annually in Madrid from the effects of polluted air.

Underground arms stash

WEAPONS including machine guns, pistols and thousands of rounds of ammunition have been seized in the Basque country.

Police uncovered a sophisticated underground workshop where arms were reconditioned before being sold to criminal gangs.

The haul is estimated to be worth €10 million on the black market.

Topless tumult

A TOPLESS female protester grabbed a waxwork of US President Donald Trump by the testicles in a protest in Madrid.

The woman rushed past security guards, grabbed the statue and shouted "grab patriarchy by the balls."

Her statement was a reference to a leaked recording of President Trump when he spoke about grabbing women by a part of their anatomy.

Cop reborn

ONE of the most enduring characters in Spanish fiction and equally famous on television is set to reappear on the nation's screens. The original creator of much-loved Detective Pepe Carvalho, novelist Manuel Vázquez Montalbán, died 13 years ago.

Now Carvalho is set to make another appearance with the publication next year of a new novel which will be televised. Poet and writer Carlos Zanón is the man charged with reigniting Spain's love for the iconic detective.

€14,200 'to kill a husband'

A MAN accused of hiring a professional hit-man to kill the husband of his partner has been arrested by police in southern Spain.

Acting on information from Interpol and police in Bolivia, officers swooped on their target in Algeciras.

The man is wanted in connection with a murder in 2014 when the then husband of his current partner was shot dead in Santa Cruz. South American police claim the hit-man received $15,000 (€ 14,200) to carry out the killing and are now seeking his extradition.

Copper Heeler brings relief from arthritis

MANY people have suffered with arthritis over the years, finding no long-term solutions, turning to strong medication to try and ease the pain, and thus putting up with a lesser quality of life.

Malcolm Landsman, who had studied magnetic and copper therapy for years, realised he may have hit on the solution to easing the joint pain that so many people experience. Copper Heelers are a simple accessory placed inside the heel of the shoe that gives arthritis sufferers incredible results within weeks. This works by means of replacing the copper in the body that arthritis sufferers lack. We all need certain metal elements in order to thrive and one of those key elements is copper, it is an essential part of the minerals within the body. There are 25,000 sweat glands in the foot alone, and so this is a prime area to absorb copper and utilise its healing properties.

Copper also prevents inflammation around the joints, so there is a feeling of well-being all round. Malcolm has been marketing the Copper Heelers in Spain for more than five years now, and he has satisfied customers spreading the word about their change of life since using them. One lady from Las Siesta wrote to Malcolm only last week to say: "I have suffered for 10 years with the agony of arthritis, but since I have bought the Copper Heelers and worn them, my arthritis has improved in only five days!" This miracle insole has brought joy to many who have been restricted with movement in the past.

For more information on the Copper Heelers, please visit the website at www.copperheeler.es or call Malcolm on 966 763 770.

Rinse and repeat

By Eleanor Hawkins

A WAVE of attacks on parked cars has been driving the police to distraction in San Pedro Alcantara in recent weeks.

Car owners have been taking to social media on a daily basis to report the latest crimes, posting photos of their vehicles' broken windows and in some cases reporting what had been stolen.

A sharp increase in November and December in this type of crime led the police to up surveillance on the streets and in December alone nine arrests were made. Although not responsible for all the attacks, three people have been identified and arrested numerous times.

However, no matter how many times they arrest them and hand them over to the courts, the authorities complain the thieves are released and return to their activities shortly afterwards.

"The police can't do much if the judges keep letting them go, sometimes the law can be an obstacle," said deputy mayor for San Pedro Rafael Piña.

"We're working with the Local Police and the chief has informed us that they have put five marked and one unmarked police car on patrol in the area. What more can we do? Post an officer on every corner?" Piña said.

OUR VIEW

Looking forward

NOW that we have a general idea of Theresa May's strategy for handling the matter of Brexit and the EU's immediate response it is clear that what she wants and expects could be quite difficult to achieve.

Anyone who has gone through a personal divorce knows how awkward the other party can be and in this case Britain is divorcing not only a huge federalist organisation which wants to look after its own best interests but also 27 spouses.

Whilst there will be any number of points to discuss, the two most important and probably the greatest hurdles will be over Britain's intention to control immigration and to leave the customs union.

From a point of view of expatriates in Spain, we certainly don't want to be thrown out with the dishwasher and sincerely hope that our position (and by definition those of EU nationals in the UK) is made clear as soon as is possible so that we can prepare for the future.

From a purely parochial point of view, those receiving British pensions will also be hoping that sterling doesn't take a further beating as the final divorce approaches.

Now we want to hear your views.

Founder rewarded

By Eleanor Hawkins

GLOBAL GIFT FOUNDATION founder Maria Bravo has received an honorary award at the We Are One Gala in Stockholm.

Before an audience of 15,000 people, Bravo collected her award and thanked the gala organiser, Michel Issa, for his support. The philanthropist spoke of her pride in the work her foundation does helping women, children and families in need: "Eva Longoria, Alina Peralta and I dreamed of helping these people and today we're in eight countries improving malnutrition and helping provide education and hospitals for thousands of women and children."

Bravo also received a surprise in the form of a recorded message from actress Eva Longoria, who had wished to say a few words on Global Gift Foundation and Maria Bravo.

“Congratulations to the foundation, you do an extraordinary job!”

Longoria, who acts as hostess of honour at most of the Global Gift Foundation's events and created the Eva Longoria Foundation, said: "Congratulations to the foundation, you do an extraordinary job! I can't think of anyone who deserves this prize more than you do. What you do is magical and I'm very pleased you have been honoured."

A very lucrative future

MARBELLA invited all the mayors of the Costa del Sol to its special gala presentation of the city's brand at the International Tourism Fair in Madrid.

But Estepona's invitation was apparently lost in the mail. Mayors from Benalmadena, Mijas, Ojen and Torremolinos did take up Marbella's offer.

Both the city and the wider

Costa del Sol are celebrating after a hugely successful fair. Now in its 37th year, it is one of the leading tourism events in the world, attracting thousands of professionals.

Tourism president of the Costa del Sol, Elias Bendodo, said important connections with entrepreneurs and global business will help the region flourish for years to come.

Marbella and Malaga have separate stands at the fair and both were jubilant afterwards.

The cities have successfully transformed themselves from sun and beach destinations to cultural and culinary hotspots in their own right.

THE port of Malaga will embark on an ambitious project to reduce its carbon footprint. It joins a select group of European ports who will combat pollution by shaking up their cruise traffic systems.

The project is named Locations, will last for three years and includes ports from Spain, Italy, Portugal and Croatia. As the gateway to the Costa del Sol, Malaga is today one of the busiest ports in the entire Mediterranean.

Cruise traffic is a major source of income for the city and boosts its global profile. But a lack of strategy means coastal waters are more polluted. The fishing industry is affected and chaos ensues when thousands of tourists swamp the city simultaneously.

The Location plan will see different techniques used to help even out the tourist flow. Cruise ships will be rescheduled to ensure arrivals don't clash. Passengers will be educated on pollution and the port area itself will be cleaned up to improve local quality of life.

Weapons and drugs gang held

POLICE have broken up a gang of arms traffickers accused of selling weapons for drugs.

The arsenal seized included four grenade launchers, a machine gun and an AK-47 assault rifle.

The arms were exchanged for drugs which were then sent to the Netherlands, according to the Guardia Civil.

Police have revealed details of the operation, codenamed Rocket, after surveillance lasting more than a year. In all, 16 people have been arrested in raids on homes and properties in Mijas, Marbella and Estepona. Several vehicles and 10kg of marijuana and cocaine were also seized.

A link with terrorist groups was subsequently ruled out by officers who initially found the weapons wrapped in Dutch newsprint.

Concerns were raised that there might be a terrorist link following attacks in France and Belgium.

After extensive surveillance this was rejected. It was discovered the weapons were being exchanged for drugs to be shipped to Holland.

Marbella's a city of film

By John Smith

MARBELLA was proud to host no less than 70 different film and video companies from Spain and across the world during 2016 as they shot part or all of their productions thanks to the assistance of the Marbella Film Office.

"One of the main objectives of Marbella Film Office is to position Marbella as a shooting destination not only because it brings a positive benefit to the local economy, since each team is staying in the city an average of four to five days, but also because it represents an extraordinary free publicity for the city" commented Tourism councillor Javier Porcuna

With feature films, documentaries, music videos and commercials, Marbella Film Office exists to encourage production companies to work in the city and to assist in finding suitable locations as well as obtaining obligatory filming permits.

As many of the directors and crews are from outside of Spain, the office also assists in advance planning and helping them overcome any language barriers as well as the occasional unexpected bureaucracy which can crop up in Spain.

The geography of the city means there are a whole range of locations suitable for use, especially as sites in North Africa and Turkey become more problematic.

There may be trouble ahead

ONE year after the biggest earthquake to rock the Costa del Sol in ages, seismologists are still struggling to predict when the next major tremor will take place. Teams have been working around the clock since to identify possible patterns.

On January 25, 2016 a 6.3 magnitude quake was recorded at depth of 45km in the Alboran Sea, roughly 162km from the North African coast. It was felt in Morocco, across almost all of Malaga Province, and even in Granada and Cordoba.

Between January 21 and 31 last year there were 1,322 seismic events recorded underneath the Alboran Sea. Across the year there were roughly 3,200 tremors, the vast majority under magnitude two.

Researchers are reduced to working out complex probability frameworks with hugely complicated margins of errors. All that seems certain is if there is another minor earthquake it may soon be followed by a larger, more substantial one.

Marbella mourns model

By Eleanor Hawkins

MODEL and actress Bimba Bose, who moved to Sotogrande seeking peace after being diagnosed with breast cancer, has died in hospital in Madrid at the age of 41.

“She was a frequent visitor and could often be seen at events.

Bimba, Spanish pop-star Miguel Bose's niece, was a frequent visitor to Marbella and could often be seen at events along the coast.

Her first public appearance in the city was at her uncle's performance at Starlite festival in 2012, when the two sang a duet on the stage at Nagueles quarry.

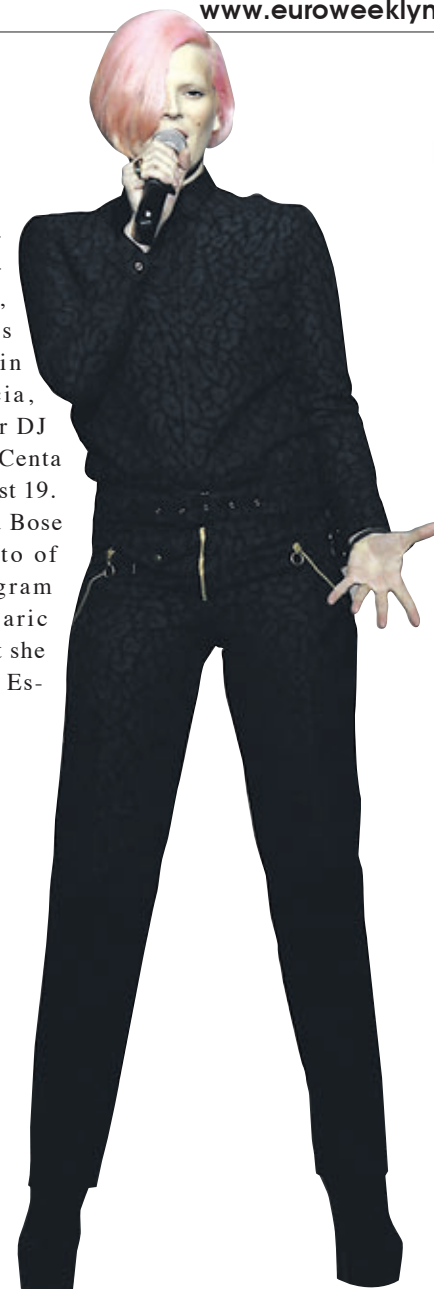

In April 2015 the model was seen at a Women's Secret presentation at Marbella Club hotel, where she said the weather and atmosphere were a gift and promised to return to the city. The lingerie firm had chosen Bose to promote their swimsuits for women with breast cancer.

The model was also a muse to her great friend, Marbella-born fashion designer David Delfin and often modelled his clothes at shows, the last being Madrid Fashion Week in February last year.

Her last work appearance in Marbella was at Nao, Olivia Valere's son's restaurant in Nueva Andalucia, where she and her DJ boyfriend Charlie Centa performed on August 19.

Days beforehand Bose had posted a photo of herself on Instagram during a hyperbaric medicine treatment she was undergoing in Estepona.

Will all be worth it in the end

ALHAURIN DE LA TORRE Council has apologised in advance for the inconvenience of traffic diversions but stressed that it will be worth it once the work is done.

As of Monday January 23, improvement works to the road connecting the town centre to El Romeral district via La Huertecilla have led to traffic being diverted for safety reasons.

Work includes demolition of an old, disused bridge, widening of the road itself, resurfacing and building pavements of almost three metres in width.

Local Police officers will be in the area for the first few days of the job, which is expected to take until February 7, to inform drivers of the alternative routes to enter and exit El Romeral.

Traffic and Road Safety councillor Salvador Herrera said that although the diversions will cause some inconvenience to drivers for a couple of weeks, the improved conditions of the road will mean it will be more than worth it once the work is finished.

Kickboxer's vote-for-me plea

WORLD and Spanish champion kickboxer Victoria Lomax has achieved almost everything in her sport and she is still only 26.

The Fuengirola-based K1 star, who describes her sport as kickboxing with knees, or Muay Thai without the elbows, now has her sights on another target.

The company behind a TV reality fighting show are offering to send the winner of their internet poll to Thailand for three weeks.

There Victoria would captain a K1 team and increase her exposure in a fiercely competitive sport.

"I have to get as many votes as possible," she said.

"It would mean the world to me to get on such a big show."

Enfusionlive are behind the poll and will send the winner to Thailand in May, but Victoria says she needs the votes of EWN readers to get there.

"If you go on the website and vote for me and I come first I think I would just burst into tears," she said.

Victoria, who has lived in Spain since she was 12, is coached by Spaniard Ilde Garcia.

She works out for technique at Spartans Gym in Fuengirola and trains for strength at Mike's Gym in La Cala de Mijas. If you want to send this Fuengirola fighter to Thailand, you can vote for her at <http://www.enfusionlive.com/realitycontest2017>.

Asian retail invasion

AUTHORITIES in Ronda have halted the construction of a Chinese megabazaar. Inspectors found that the site had only a minor work permit to build partition walls for toilets.

Instead the Centro Comercial Chino had set about adapting a huge 5,000 square metre space on the site of an old textile factory. Chinese businessmen planned to convert it into a mammoth clothes retail centre to rival others in Malaga and Marbella.

The decision to stop, or at least postpone, the site comes as more Asian businesses spread across Ronda. This has shone a spotlight on the town's planning permission schemes, which are tainted by various corruption allegations.

The Chinese centres have launched a trade war against more expensive shopping centres across the Costa del Sol and offer a far cheaper alternative.

Officers seize illegal firearms

By John Smith

ACTING as part of a pan-European investigation, with assistance from Europol, the Guardia Civil from its involvement in Operation Bosphorus has announced that it arrested 46 people, seized 247 firearms and more than 23,000 cartridges.

Supreme Court confirms parliament must be consulted over Article 50

By John Smith

THE Supreme Court has rejected the government appeal against the High Court decision requiring that parliament should vote on the triggering of Article 50 of the Lisbon agreement by eight votes to three on January 24.

In summing up the decision made by the majority of 11 Supreme Court judges, Lord Neuberger explained that the overall view was that whilst the government could make decisions of this sort under most circumstances, on this occasion, as the rights of the British people would be affected, that parliament must have a say.

In addition, the judges unanimously agreed that in the case of the devolved assemblies, there was no obligation to allow them to add their approval as this was a decision to be made by the government of the SUPREME COURT JUDGES: Decided parliament must have a say.

“ The overall view was that whilst the government could make decisions of this sort under most circumstances, on this occasion parliament must have a say.”

United Kingdom, supported or rejected by members of parliament representing all of the UK voters.

The immediate response from the Attorney General on behalf of the government was that it was disappointed with the decision but would comply with the ruling.

As Labour leader Jeremy Corbyn announced that he had no intention of voting against the decision to implement Article 50, there seems little likelihood of the government being defeated.

‘My new Maggie’ to meet with Trump

ALTHOUGH much was made of the fact that Prime Minister Theresa May was the 10th leader to be called after Donald Trump won the US presidential election, she has turned the tables and will be the first major world leader to meet him as president when she travels to Washington on January 27.

Whilst she was quick to explain to interviewer Andrew Marr on BBC TV that she would be confronting him on a number of matters including NATO, treatment of women and his policies with regards to Muslims and other minorities as well as Syria and terrorism, there is little doubt that a trade agreement will be uppermost in her mind.

Having suffered the embarrassment of losing the government’s appeal to the Supreme Court and being told in no uncertain terms by the European Union that she can’t pick and choose what she wants from any future negotiations on immigration and trade, she needs to be able to show that Britain can stand alone.

President Trump has sent Mrs May (who he refers to as ‘my new Maggie’) an indication that he wants the relationship between America and Britain to be as close as it was under the Reagan administration and that he would be happy to put a new trade deal in place quickly.

Unfortunately for Mrs May, under current EU rules, EU countries cannot make separate trade deals with non-EU countries so whilst she may be able to thrash out the terms, she can’t actually implement the agreement until Britain leaves or EU rules are changed.

Work planned to revamp San Pedro

By John Smith

AFTER issuing a tender in October of last year requesting quotes for remodelling of Avenida de Andalucia and Calle Marques del Duero in San Pedro de Alcantara, the council has confirmed that work will commence on February 6.

In a public meeting, the deputy mayor Rafael Piña explained the intentions of the council to create a better environment for residents and visitors to the town which would see the Avenida de Andalucia improved with better access but without reduction of road area and a redesign of the parking available in order to stop double parking.

As far as Marques del Duero is concerned there will be an overall improvement to the area with new street furniture, better lighting and paving as well as removal of street parking so that priority will be given to pedestrians who wish to visit the recreational facilities in the boulevard itself.

It is expected that the work will take most of 2017 but will be suspended for the Easter Holy week.

If the funds are available, additional building to other parts of the town will be considered for the future.

Foreign self-employed growth

ACCORDING to the ATA organisation, Malaga Province has the third highest number of newly registered self-employed foreigners in Spain beaten only by Madrid and Barcelona.

With 18,531 registered, 1,260 more than in 2015 it falls just behind the two main cities and Alicante which now has some 400 more foreign registered self-employed.

In previous years Chinese citizens were the growth population of self-employed but in 2016 they were overtaken by Italians and Romanians.

Spanish exports record growth in 2016

ALL-TIME HIGH: For Spanish exports.

By John Smith

THERE was some positive financial news as the Spanish government announced that the value of exports had hit an all-time high and the trade deficit had shrunk by 27.1 per cent in the period January to November 2016.

As imports fell by 0.9 per cent to €250.11 billion in the period under review, the trade deficit fell to €16.1 billion in one of the best years since 1977, beaten only by the result in 2013.

The positive performance of Spanish exports between January and November is in contrast to that of Spain's neighbours. In the Eurozone, exports increased slightly (0.2 per cent) while in the European Union as a whole exports shrank by 0.6 per cent.

Exports were up in Germany (0.8 per cent) and Italy (0.7 per cent), but less so than in Spain, and were down in France (-1.8 per cent) and the United Kingdom (-1.5 per cent), with figures for the USA (-4 per cent), China (-6.4 per cent), and Japan (-8.5 per cent) being far worse.

Main improvements in exports were seen in capital goods, the automotive sector, and food, drink and tobacco, although growth of imports was also seen in the same sectors.

Exports to the EU which amount to 66.5 per cent of all exports grew by 4 per cent whilst sales to other countries throughout the world saw some falls although Canada, China, Hong Kong and Morocco saw significant and welcome increases.

Spain's trade surplus with the EU stood at €1.71 billion in November 2016 compared to €554 million in November 2015 but the trade deficit with non-EU countries increased by 23 per cent over the November 2015 results to €2.96 billion.

Securing a significant return

Welcome to the weekly news from Hola Credito, Spain's leading short term lender. In our weekly column, we look at different financial products that Hola Credito offers and introduce our latest option which will earn investors 12 per cent interest per annum.

WE are still in the business of advancing loans against luxury items but we are also looking to offer a brand new service to investors in Spain by introducing peer to peer lending where we match lenders with borrowers.

The advantage of this service is that it allows investors to be involved in a secure operation which will generate much larger returns than can be obtained from banks or from traditional investments.

Very simply, we are offering those with spare resources the chance to purchase current pre-funded loans, with the security of the asset associated to the loan.

These loans are generally set at 50 to 70 per cent of the current value of the asset, so the element of risk is greatly reduced and in the event of a default, the item will be sold at auction.

Each loan is set for six months and will generate 12 per cent interest per annum plus investors can choose from a range of different loans which will already be in place.

What's more, every time a new loan is created, we will send details to our investing customers who will then have the opportunity to become involved by taking part in the loan.

You can invest in as many or as few of the loans as you wish and each will be in place for no longer than six months.

Some borrowers will repay the loan earlier and in that scenario, you will receive the amount of interest due up to the date of repayment and as soon as any loan is repaid, interest and the capital will be transferred to your bank account.

Naturally discretion is paramount and we will not pass any personal information about the other to either investors or borrowers.

People always need to borrow and here is an interesting chance for those with some spare cash to benefit from this financially appealing opportunity.

Generating much larger returns.

For more information about how you can be an investor or a borrower contact Hola Credito via WhatsApp on 672 381 908 by email info@holacredito.com or by calling 951 319 538.

Antony Wolfson wins an award

By John Smith

HAVING returned from a short tour of the USA where he visited a number of locations connected with Elvis Presley and gave some concerts by invitation, Marbella-based singer Antony Wolfson has revealed some good news.

His latest single A Touch of Heaven, that was originally intended for Elvis (but who never recorded it) and was given to Antony by hugely successful composer Mike Stoller, has won a prestigious award in the USA. The recording has been voted the best R&B/Soul song in the Akademia Music Awards in Hollywood.

This major music award, the second to have been given to Antony, saw his song chosen over thousands of entries in the annual competition.

According to the judges, "With a cool and vintage sound, taut groove and soulful vocal style, A Touch of Heaven by Antony Wolfson is an instant R&B classic."

R&B

The recording has been voted the best song in the Akademia Music Awards.

Following this success, he was also delighted to agree with Lander PR, one of the UK's top music PR agencies that they would be promoting the single from February 1 with the intention of obtaining major UK airplay on radio and television.

As media partner to Antony, Euro Weekly News expects to be able to release some very special news about the singer to readers within the next few weeks. To hear the single and find out more about Antony, visit www.facebook.com/antony.wolfson.

Cooking with Languages, a new concept in learning

By John Smith

IF you travel a little way along the road from Fuengirola to Mijas Pueblo, you might just catch sight of Arthur Apple, Klaus Kartoffel and Nerea Naranja, all characters created by local resident Lisa Sadleir and artist Emery Priest.

Having relocated to Spain some 25 years ago, first living in the Canary Islands and for the last eight years in Mijas, Lisa wanted to come up with a way of helping her young children learn Spanish and English to a very high standard.

She knew that youngsters like cooking and cartoon characters so she has come up with her own special concoction, Cooking with Languages and in her own words she wants to do for languages what Jamie has done for cooking!

For the last five years she has been in-involved in helping families relocate to Spain and one thing that she impresses on them is the importance of being able to speak Spanish, especially for youngsters to whom languages should be easier to assimilate but which will ensure that they can become part of the local community.

Cooking with Languages is all about hands-on fun as children make easy (and scrummy!) recipes, take part in games and other activities, and listen and repeat from audios recorded by Lisa's son Joshua and daughter Francesca, both bilingual in English and Spanish.

In order to be able to make the scheme cost effective, Lisa applied to the UK crowdfunding website and it was with great pleasure her project which looks to raise £5,000 (€5,750) was quickly chosen for their 'Jumpstart January' and is just £500 (€575) away from their target with the appeal closing on January 31.

Anyone who donates to the appeal has the chance to obtain some of the books at a discounted price and also vote for whether the next step should be to add French or German into the ingredients.

Diver dies in accident

A DIVER has died after getting into distress while underwater off a beach in Tarifa.

According to the emergency services, Daniel Acedo was brought to the surface by colleagues at Valdevaqueros beach.

Attempts to resuscitate the 25-year-old who was an experienced diver and underwater fisherman, were unsuccessful.

According to reports, Acedo was accustomed to the difficult currents in the area where he and a friend had been fishing.

He got into difficulties and his friend noticed he was taking longer than expected to come to the surface.

Two other men who were fishing nearby came to their aid and Acedo, who lives in Malaga, was found unconscious in the water.

Attempts were made to resuscitate him using CPR but a post-mortem examination later revealed a high concentration of carbon dioxide in his blood.

Tributes have poured in for the young diver who was also a lifeguard instructor and lived with his parents and sister in the Tiro de Pichón area of Malaga.

No cash for road works

THERE is insufficient funding available to allow improvement of the A-383 road which goes from the Higuera area to La Linea de la Concepcion according to the Junta de Andalucia.

Head of Development, Felipe Lopez blamed central government for not giving sufficient funds to the Junta as it would need €10m to double the road capacity with the opening of the new hospital which will attract patients from Castellar, Jimena and San Roque along currently poor roads.

Fire starter snuffed out

HAVING received an emergency call with regards to a fire in the Calle Llanos de San Ramon in Marbella, officers of the Local Police had to tackle the fire using the extinguisher in their car and then called out the local fire brigade.

Once the fire was under control they were advised by the owner of the property that he had been threatened with a razor by the person who had started the fire and the officers were pointed to a 35-year-old Romanian who was shirtless and had cuts in his abdomen which it appeared he had caused himself.

After arresting him, they took the man to the local health centre to have his injuries attended to and once it was found he was in reasonable health he was removed to the police station for interview.

“ Local Police tackled the fire first before calling the fire brigade.

HIDDEN CONTENTS: The cocaine discovered in shipping container.

Coke not cock in

By John Smith

THE Algeciras Customs Risk Analysis Unit made up by officers from the Guardia Civil and the Tax Agency, have found more than 445 kilos of cocaine hidden in a container in the port of Algeciras.

Using profiling methods, the unit concluded that the container which was travelling from Brazil to the United Arab Emirates via Algeciras should be investigated and when they opened it, they found the cocaine hidden amongst a consignment of frozen chickens.

According to the Guardia Civil report, this was an example of a 'blind hook' operation whereby illegal merchandise was added to a legal container without the knowledge of the shipper.

Officers concluded that two men, one from Algeciras and one from Malaga were involved with this illegal shipment and both have been arrested whilst the case remains open as investigations continue.

Driver jail term upheld

THE conviction of a motorist who ran into a mother and daughter after drinking heavily has been upheld.

The man struck the pair during a procession in Malaga in 2014 after losing control of his Seat car.

Court records show he hit a bollard before driving into an area reserved for pedestrians and hit the woman and her young daughter. Neither was seriously injured.

Local Police officers then managed to stop the car and the driver was breathalysed.

He was later found to be nearly four times over the legal limit. In court the man was jailed for a year and given a three-year driving ban which was upheld.

Potato prices stable

HIGH temperatures and a lack of rainfall have contributed to a fall in potato production, farmers’ leaders say.

Market prices are not expected to fall though because demand for the product remains high.

The main co-operative which brings together most of the producers in the Antequera region, expects output to hit 3.5 million kilos, around 25 per cent down on this time last year.

Although the prices in other areas of Spain are around 25 cents per kilo, farmers are expecting around 38 cents a kilo.

They point to the high quality of the product and continued levels of demand.

La Cala de Mijas Lions helping the community

WHAT a fantastic evening was had by all at the Legends Show Bar in La Cala de Mijas recently. Everyone thoroughly enjoyed the dancing and the excellent show from the Echoes of the 60's was amazing. With the raffle and the Legends donation, over €1,000 was raised for the charity fund of the local Lions Club.

The vice president of the Lions Club, Julie Barry, thanked everyone who attended for supporting the event, Wynson Beswick for organising the evening, and Paul and Andrea from Legends for their support. All the money raised will go principally to supporting the local community.

This year Lions International celebrates its 100th anniversary, so don't miss out on future events.

Age Care Association

AS part of the coffee morning at Calahonda which is held at the International Baptist Church every Tuesday between 11am and 1pm, clients and visitors were given an informative talk by Myra Azzopardi, the founder of Citizens Advice here in Spain. It was extremely interesting and she covered many relevant topics.

“ The talk was interesting and covered many topics.

The main area she talked about was new regulations on 'Plusvalia' which is basically the town hall taxes one pays on selling a property or the taxes due when a spouse or partner dies.

She also informed guests that dual nationality is not possible in Spain. To become a Spanish National one must renounce any other passport as well as a number of other pieces of helpful information.

Calanova Cancer Care

THE Calanova Cancer Care charity had their Christmas lunch at Mood Beach Restaurant in December which was a great success with everybody enjoying themselves immensely.

The Anita Baggaley choir from Benalmadena International College (BIC) were amazing and performed like the little angels they were. The children sang so beautifully with renditions of old and new carols that there was hardly a dry eye in the room and they really got everyone in the spirit of Christmas.

Identical twin brothers Philipp and Fabian Nusser also enthralled all with their piano recital, whilst their sister Dana played the recorder for the choir... a very musical family, their brother Erik played for the charity last year.

After a scrumptious Christmas lunch cheques were presented by Angela McGrath: €8,000 to Jaime Coll for ASPANOB the Children's Cancer Charity, €1,000 to Marie who received it on behalf of DIME Palliative Care and €1,000 to Krista for The Cancer Support Group.

Miss Shirley Bassey, aka Carlos, then entertained the audience with her fabulous voice and finally the party finished with dancing to the live music and songs of Sylvia and Marcela, two girls who got everyone going.

Thanks are extended to everyone who attended and to Margaret Whittiker and all at Mood Beach for making it such a memorable day.

The charity would like to remind everyone that the Calanova Cancer Shop now has a new shop dedicated to nearly new furniture just a few doors down the road at number 352 Joan Miro.

In the main shop there is a lot of really good skiing clothes, warm winter coats and sweaters, duvets, blankets and other things to keep warm now that the weather has changed.

A big sale on trousers and skirts started on Monday January 23 and continues with more goods in February which will include a number of carnival things and costumes being put on display at the end of the month.

A TOUCH OF CLASS: The group sing, dance and perform short skits.

Concert for cancer

By John Smith

THREE years ago, a number of former singers and dancers based in the Costa del Sol got together to form 'A Touch of Class' which now consists of 15 people of all ages who sing, dance and perform short skits for the pleasure of others.

They have in their short time together raised €12,000 for various charities and their latest concert to be held at the Casa de Cultura in Arroyo de la Miel at 7pm on February 6 and 7 is in memory of cancer sufferer and friend of the group, the late Ann Bowles.

Entitled 'Timeless,' entry to either evening will cost €10 where the performers will present a selection of tunes ranging from the 1920s to the 1970s with money raised being donated to the AECC cancer centre.

Tickets may be obtained by calling 952 026 811 or emailing touchofclasstickets@gmail.com.

Southern Soul Meets Southern Spain

For one night only!

The Son of the King of Soul 'Otis Redding' is going to be performing in the South of Spain.

Also named Otis Redding he delivers the very best versions of his father's classic soul songs, carrying on a family legacy. The Redding family are a musical talented family and are well-known for their father's hit "Sitting On The Dock Of The Bay" which sold millions of copies worldwide. The musical baton has been passed on to Otis Redding Jnr who continues to delight fans around the world with the timeless classics. He will be bringing Southern Soul to Southern Spain on the 24th of March 2017, 7:30pm at The Moonlight Lounge in Sunset Beach Hotel, Benalmadena, Malaga, Spain.

Also with him on stage will be Mr Maph & Simone Lisa who are renowned Soul & Gospel Singers on the Costa Del Sol who recently performed at the well-known O2 Arena in the UK with Otis Redding and others like Imagination, Shakatak, Rose Royce and Edwin Starr's brother who carries on in his brother's stead.

Mr Maph & Simone Lisa have also performed at many well-known venues such as the Puerto Romano Hotel, Marbella Club Hotel, Villa Tiberio, El Oceano. They also had the privilege of singing at weddings and corporate parties for companies such as Marbella TV & the Euro Weekly and many others along with Celebrities such as Ronan Keating and Mica Paris. This has led to them singing in many other countries around the world like Holland, Italy, Norway, Switzerland to name a few. Another string to their bow is their songwriting and recording credits which can be found on Warner Brothers, Pacha Music and Channel 4 in the UK.

Tell all your friends and family and make it a night to remember.

Royal British Legion Coin celebrates 11th birthday

TO celebrate the 11th birthday of the Coin branch of the Royal British Legion 47 members and guests gathered at 11am in Yates's Family Bar and Restaurant on January 18.

To mark the occasion, chairman Jo Taylor baked a fantastic fruit cake and Rosie Mahoney used her extensive icing skills to produce a culinary delight that both looked good and tasted delicious. For those who did not like fruit cake an enchanting chocolate log was served as an alternative.

After wishing the branch a happy birthday and leading a round of applause, Jo Taylor reminded everyone that not all the members were well enough to celebrate. She made special mention of vice chairman Jim Cross who was in hospital with bronchitis and Eris Wallis, the branch's oldest member, who has been struggling with his health in a particularly tough winter.

The branch has enjoyed many day trips to beautiful locations over the last 11 years and Jo summed up the branch's excursions as simply "a group of friends out for the day." The next trip on February 21 is to Bodega Quatro Vientos in the Sierra de la Contraviesa. The outing includes a tour of the bodega and museum, with samples, and a three-course lunch with wine. If anyone would like to join the group simply email tickets@coinrbl.info or call 633 157 776.

CONFERENCE: Includes 12 sessions for teachers to choose from.

English Language Teaching conference

ON Saturday February 4 in the Hotel Puerta Malaga, over 100 English language teachers will be meeting for the ACEIA Malaga third annual English Language Teaching (ELT) conference.

The conference offers the opportunity for ELT professionals from all over the region to get together and enjoy a morning of training workshops given by ELT professionals from all over Spain. This year's programme includes 12 sessions for teachers to choose from, covering a wide range of topics including young learners, motivation, technology and more.

This year, as a new addition, there will be three talks specifically for management and administrative staff (given in Spanish), dealing with current legislation and how to maintain the competitive edge in an ever-changing market.

The coffee break and post-conference canapés are also of course an excellent chance to mingle with like-minded colleagues and share ideas!

The conference is organised by ACEIA (Asociación de Centros de Enseñanza de Idiomas de Andalucía), the Andalusian Association of Language Teaching Centres, whose primary objective is to guarantee quality, not only for students but also for staff, in the private language education sector.

ACEIA member schools are committed to professionalism and transparency, currently numbering around 120 centres across the region.

To see the full programme of the conference and details on how to sign up, visit www.aceia.es.

EU on the Spanish deficit

By John Smith

A REPORT from the European Commission stated that Spain's budget for 2017 appeared to be in accord with EU rules concerning budget deficit, but it needs to be aware that it may need to take additional action if required.

As has been much publicised, Spain amongst other members has regularly missed deficit targets and risked significant fines or withdrawal of financial support unless it took drastic action to bring the economy into line with EU expectations.

Part of the ongoing problem was blamed on the lack of a government for so long, but now that the Partido Popular has been accepted to lead a minority administration, it is expected that it will take steps to rectify the situation.

The economy is currently one of the healthiest in the Union but it is

€1,166 billion

is the estimated debt that the Spanish government will carry forward at the end of 2017.

anticipated that the 2017 deficit will be 3.3 per cent of gross domestic product (GDP) - which is the difference between government income and expenditure - against a budget of 3.1 per cent and the forecast for 2018 is currently 2.8 per cent against a budget of 2.2 per cent.

In order to reach these figures, the government has been forced to make a number of major expenditure cuts as well as requiring businesses to pay certain taxes such as IVA much earlier.

Airline safety

AIR INDIA has announced that it plans to introduce women only seating sections on a number of its flights due to an increasing number of complaints concerning unwelcomed attention, sometimes physical from male passengers in adjacent seats.

The airline will wherever possible set aside the first six rows in the economy section for women travelling alone or in groups.

At the same time, Korean Air have reacted to criticism that it was unable to restrain an unruly passenger by inviting the world's media to visit a training event where airline staff were instructed on the use of Tasers.

Quote of the Week

"I am pro-sensible trade, not trade that is to the disadvantage of the American worker and to the American manufacturing community." Wilbur Ross, new commerce secretary in the Trump administration on protectionism.

Car production on the increase

NEW CARS: Contribute to the Spanish economy.

By John Smith

WHILST there is every reason to be pleased with results of car manufacture in Spain in 2016 which is up 5.6 per cent over the previous year, the manufacturers association ANFAC warns that Brexit may depress future results.

With just under 2.9 million vehicles produced together with 1.9 million engines and 1.73 million gear boxes, the situation was very good for the car industry which contributes a significant amount to the Spanish economy as more than 80 per cent of its production is exported.

Brexit fears however have already hurt the sector in the latter part of the year as the fall in the value of the pound has increased sales prices in the UK and if Britain takes a protectionist stance following Brexit, then it may become more difficult and more expensive for the Spanish industry to remain in that market.

» BUSINESS EXTRA

Vegemite returns

ICONIC and possibly addictive yeast food brand Vegemite will return to Australian ownership after several years of foreign ownership as Bega Cheese agreed to buy a range of well-known food brands in a deal worth €322 million.

Wage reductions

IT is calculated that once inflation is taken into consideration together with loss of certain long service and expenses benefits that of all civil servants, teachers and university professors have seen the largest drop in their personal income.

Building No 3

AS part of what appears to be an investment strategy in Madrid, British company Princeton Investments plc has purchased its third building in the city, this time from Telefonica for €25 million, with the intention of expanding further within Spain.

Bank staff leaving London

ON the day after Theresa May's Brexit speech, the heads of two international banks, HSBC and USB each announced that they intended to move about 1,000 jobs in their European investment divisions out of London.

HSBC expects to resite its staff in Paris whilst USB is most likely to move its people to Frankfurt, both cities being in the forefront of those trying to poach finance jobs from London post Brexit.

World Economic Forum in Davos

By John Smith

WHILST many conspiracy theorists comment on the fact that the World Economic Forum meeting held in Davos, Switzerland each year is a front for a small group dominating the world, there is no doubt that it attracts politicians from every continent.

“The Forum engages businesses in projects and initiatives to address industry, regional and systemic issues.”

In its own words, “the Forum provides a platform for the world’s 1,000 leading companies to shape a better future. As a membership organisation, the Forum engages businesses in projects and initiatives - online and offline - to address industry, regional and systemic issues.”

To some extent therefore there is little doubt that this organisation does help to shape future decisions as the members contribute so much to the economies of so many countries and whilst there are any number of public speeches and meetings, it would be naive to assume that no other deals take place in private.

This year saw the first visit from a Chinese leader as Xi Jinping addressed members with a thinly veiled message for President Elect Trump about the dangers of a potential trade war and the advantages of globalisation.

Theresa May rushed over to Davos following her Brexit speech at Lancaster House and explained her view of the future for Britain, Europe and the rest of the world and warned multinational organisations that they need to pay more tax to ensure fairer treatment for individuals.

As far as she is concerned, she believes “It is essential for business to show leadership - to show that in this globalised world, everyone is playing by the same rules.” In addition, she wants them to forget short term profits and invest in helping individuals and the community for the long term.

This view agrees with that of Christine Lagarde, Managing Director of the International Monetary Fund who has also called for fairer treatment for individuals where big business uses globalisation to reduce its tax obligations to the detriment of the economies of a number of countries.

Mrs May has also indicated that she intends to make Britain a world leader in free trade, although it would appear that she will be unable to negotiate any of these trade deals until such time as Britain has physically left the European Union, by which time there could well be less than one year before a new General Election in the UK.

Davos is an important event which also highlights the fact that so few women are involved in the forum that rules have been introduced (and sometimes ignored) that each member company should bring one woman for every four men who attend, whilst every organised discussion should have at least one woman on the panel.

Rolls-Royce agrees massive bribery fine

By John Smith

ROLLS-ROYCE HOLDINGS PLC which is responsible for the production of engines for the aeronautical industry has issued a public apology and agreed to pay fines totalling £671 million (€771 million) to Britain, Brazil and the USA.

This deal which is being made under the Deferred Prosecution Agreement (DFA) will save them from a number of proposed criminal prosecutions for what it admits was endemic bribery in order to win contracts over an extended period.

The main bulk of the fine, £479 million (€550 million) will be paid to the British government with a further £141 million (€162 million) being paid to the US Department of Justice, with the balance being paid to Brazil.

Introduction of the DFA system in the UK is relatively recent and this is without doubt the largest agreed settlement ever reached in Britain, but it is fairly common in the USA and has been in regular use with regards to agreed fines for banks who acted improperly in the run up and subsequent to the financial problems of 2008.

Sources suggest that the decision to reach these agreements now was in part due to fears that the new President might have been tempted to instruct the DOJ to take an even tougher stance

The investigation by the UK Serious Fraud Office (SFO) started in 2012 when certain information concerning the use of bribes to obtain business for the company was brought to its attention.

BA aircraft with a Rolls-Royce engine.

As investigations proceeded and with the full cooperation of what was effectively a new management team, it became clear that bribery was almost the norm rather than the exception for several years, with payments amounting to as much as $36 million (€34 million) being paid to ensure that contracts were obtained.

In some cases, the company ‘turned a blind eye’ to bribes being made by agents or intermediaries whilst in other cases it was complicit in the actual payments which were alleged to have been made to companies in Angola, Azerbaijan, Brazil, China, India, Indonesia, Iraq, Kazakhstan, Malaysia, Nigeria, Russia and Thailand.

The current management of the company will continue to give the SFO access to documents even though they have reportedly examined 30 million already and this agreement is seen as something of a triumph for the department which has seen many investigations fall down in the past.

Although the company, which is no longer associated with the car manufacturer owned by BMW, is safe from prosecution, the Crown Prosecution Service will be considering whether there is sufficient evidence to bring criminal prosecutions against any individuals involved at the time.

Manchester United makes a Super Rich fortune to top revenue table

By John Smith

THEY may be out of the Champions League this year but Manchester United have topped the revenue league table prepared annually by financial consultants Deloitte for the first time in 12 years.

If anyone doubts the value of top class football teams then the 10 most successful clubs earned €5.228 billion between them with five of the top 10 coming from the Premier League.

For the last 11 years, Real Madrid has been the most financially successful club followed by Barcelona with Manchester United in third place but this year, with income of €689 million, the British club has pushed Los Blancos (Real Madrid) to third position with Barcelona pipping them to second place by just €100,000.

Every club in the top 10 has seen an increase in income for 2015-2016, with the average increase being 12 per cent.

Although many smaller clubs around Europe are finding it difficult to generate sufficient income, those who are at the top consistently generate increased profits through tickets sales, TV rights and most importantly merchandising.

Deloitte forecasts that the next season could see another turnaround as United will not be in the Champions League, will face increased pressure on salaries and transfer fees due to continued Chinese expansion and may well also suffer from a weaker pound.

A very important part of the revenue stream for the Manchester club has been in respect of commercial and merchandising deals which have seen an additional €100 million in income, but other clubs are likely to learn from the Manchester United lesson.

THE international charity Oxfam has released a report to tie in with the World Economic Forum in Davos that states that eight men own as much wealth as the 3.6 billion people who make up the poorest half of humanity.

The report entitled 'An economy for the 99 per cent' suggests that the gap between the rich and the poor is actually getting greater and that the super rich, both corporate and individuals are using their wealth to screen themselves from paying taxes, for influencing politicians and driving down wages.

Whilst all of the eight richest people in the world are men and the majority come from the USA, there is one Spaniard, Amancio Ortega of Inditex and a Mexican, Carlos Slim.

Previously it was thought that the major wealth of the planet was held by 62 individuals, but this figure has been drastically reappraised following new data concerning poverty levels in China and India, both of which boast many millionaires although millions of people exist on meagre daily incomes.

Oxfam is calling on business leaders to play their part in building a human economy by ensuring their businesses pay a living wage and individuals around the globe can join the campaign at www.evenitup.org.

Losing mental capacity whilst living abroad

by Stone King

Charlotte Macdonald

Contact me at international@stoneking.co.uk

MANY UK expatriates living in Spain own properties in the UK and have pensions and investments in the UK. They rely on their UK assets to maintain their lifestyles (and those of their families) in Spain. If they can no longer manage their affairs in the UK due to a loss of mental capacity, it can cause many difficulties.

“ You can choose a person or people, who you trust, to act for you when you are no longer able. ”

The best way to avoid the legal and practical difficulties that can occur with the loss of mental capacity is to plan for it in advance by drawing up a document called a 'Lasting Power of Attorney' ('LPA').

An LPA must be made while you have full mental capacity.

What is an LPA?

An LPA is a legal document that enables you to appoint one or more attorneys to act for you when you are no longer able to act for yourself.

Your attorney can be a professional,

such as a solicitor or a family member or friend.

There are two types of LPA: 'Health and Welfare' or 'Property and Financial Affairs'

An LPA must be made while you have full mental capacity. It is therefore important to make one while you are in good health.

Why should you get an LPA?

You can choose a person or people, who you trust, to act for you when you are no longer able.

If you lose your mental capacity and do not have an LPA, then your family (or the authorities) will have no choice but to make an application to the Court of Protection to appoint a 'deputy' to look after your affairs, which can be time consuming and costly.

Will my LPA be recognised in Spain?

Unfortunately there is no international type of LPA which is guaranteed to work in both the UK and Spain.

The advice we give to our clients at Stone King, is that if you have assets in both Spain and the UK, your only safe option is to appoint attorneys in both jurisdictions.

Most exciting thing to happen

LEAPY LEE SAYS IT
OTHERS THINK IT

HOPEFULLY the cry of 'Donald Duck' won't be heard issuing from the lips of the new president's bodyguards for a while.

Although many of the dissenters would love to see the red spot appear between Mr Trump's eyes, I for one am delighted to see this largely unknown entity emerge as the leader of the free world. I found his inauguration speech particularly invigorating.

And you know why? Because, despite the waffling and his somewhat blustery style of delivery, you can't help feeling that he's speaking from the heart.

Gone were the old empty political cliches and lies, that glibly pour from the lips of the career politicians - irrespective of which party they represent.

In its place we heard a man, not bought by campaign backers, who use their puppet politicians

as a means to their own ends, but a man who used his own finances to attain his position and who owes no allegiance to those powerful companies and countries that manipulate and influence the limp-wristed leaders of our so called democratic societies. And the biggest plus of all?

He's a businessman. I've lost track of the amount of times this blurb has reflected that this planet is a business. To be a successful and fair place for all its inhabitants it must be run by business people, with boards of directors and decision makers, that have only the sweet smell of overall success to give them the enthusiasm and impetuous to make our world a better place.

Despite the waffling, you can't help feeling that he's speaking from the heart.

Well I for one, despite the vitriolic reactions I have received from a number of people! Can't wait to see what Corporation Trump has in store for planet Earth. Coupled with the freedom we are about to experience by casting off the shackles of the now mortally wounded, ego-riddled EU, I think the future we are about to experience is probably the most exciting thing that has happened to the human race since the conquest of space. Bring it on.

We are #BetterTogether

Marbella Moments

by Nicole King

OSCAR WILDE has been quoted as saying that "Imitation is the sincerest form of flattery that mediocrity can pay to greatness."

I'm sure Coca Cola, Apple and more than one or two of you would agree. However, in a close-knit community like Marbella we can't afford that luxury of judgement.

For us and Marbella to have a bright future we have to take a more open-minded view of the situation.

When living in a community of just 27 kilometres of coastline with 127 nationalities competing for the same markets, if we don't unite our forces, history dictates that 'divided we will fall.'

Having specialised in market research for the past three decades, introducing new brands into Spain, (starting off with Walt Disney together with El Corte Inglés in 1990), I've learnt two things above all else: a product is a product, just like with any other product and it's only our perception of that product that matters.

MARBELLA: In such a close-knit community, if we don't unite our forces, history dictates 'divided we will fall.'

Whether we're talking about soap powder, healthcare, lawyers, real-estate, networking or Mickey Mouse, we don't have to be better than, smarter than, or instead of for us to survive. It's actually quite simple, all we do need to do is clearly determine who we are, what we offer and our target market and actually believe in what we're doing for our passion and uniqueness to shine through.

No one likes everyone and yet there is someone for everyone, so if we embrace our differences and support each other, we can make everyone happy!

Recently I've also assimilated that our resident international community does not need to integrate and often prefers not to, but it still stands true that for Marbella's continued growth it is imperative that we are perceived as being a united, safe, honest and welcoming tourist destination.

And to support that it's equally imperative that we bond together to promote that perception - which means there is no room for ego and fear; two of the most debilitating human traits and unfortunately often the most tangible in a small community.

Our finger prints are testament to our individuality, each one of us is special; we hear, see and say things differently and it's this unique perception that is the key to our success.

So, when faced with competition be brave, embrace the challenge to grow and explore new horizons, and remember that there is strength in numbers; we are #BetterTogether and there is enough to go around! We are Marbella.

Hidden charges on my bills

Mike Senker

In my opinion

Views of a Grumpy Old Man

WELL Trump is now the President of the USA... I could finish the article there really. Never mind. God bless America - or as it is now - God help America and the rest of the World really. OK on with the more serious stuff of me being grumpy! Mrs S goes to the bank to pay a friend's community fees.

They live in the UK and, don't ask me why, but they transfer money to us so that when it's paid they get a receipt. Anyway in she goes and the girl behind the counter looks at the paper and asks if she wants to put a reference in. Mrs S says yes and adds the name of our friend. The girl then says that will be another three euros please. What? Why? 'Admin charge', she said. 'What, to type in a name?'

'Yes,' well 'Si' actually as Mrs S speaks Spanish. 'Ok don't put it in.' So she didn't and wasn't charged. What a lot of nonsense. How many times have you been in a bank and the person in front of you is there forever and it finally gets to your turn and then a colleague comes over with a query and you are left standing there like a muppet. I feel sometimes it's like 'If you bloody customers didn't keep coming in I could get on with my work!'

But this did make me think about other charges that have ticked me off recently. I got a message from my phone company saying I had used up all my Data and I could get more for two euros. I called them and said OK.

Then she said for three euros I could get an even better deal, so I said OK cancel the two euro one and please send me a text confirming because of problems I've had before. She said OK and did just that. Of course, when I got my bill, both charges were on there and I now have to get my two euros back. It's not the money, it's the principle, but as you all know by now I don't have anything better to do.

Here's a good one. When I was on a visit to the USA I was in hotel and ordered some coffee as there was no coffee maker in the room. When I looked at the bill I had to sign, on it is a $5 'tray charge.' 'Can I have the coffee without the tray?' 'No.' 'Do I now own the tray?' 'No.'

I will now add that to the other cons in hotels like charging for parking and the 'free' looking bottle of water on the table in the room that turns out to cost $8. How about the cover charge in restaurants which I've been told is for the bread etc. Don't bring me what appears to be free bread then charge me for it. If I want bread I'll order it and gladly pay for it. Don't stick hidden charges on my bills! OK?

YOUR STARS FOR 7 DAYS

PISCES ♋ (February 20 - March 20)

One thing is certain, when you come through this week's restless planetary antics, you won't be totally the same Piscean who walked in. Whether you're figuring out numbers, analysing your dreams, or getting into a playfully social mood, there'll be much to enjoy and put to the test.

ARIES ♈ (March 21 - April 20)

Education, media, creative and social connections are given star merit. The solar eclipse in your own sign bursts with vitality and success, more so for an array of bold moves, replacements and makeovers covering your personal affairs.

TAURUS ♉ (April 21 - May 21)

Stand by for a week of whoosh and

AQUARIUS ♒ (January 21 - February 19)

Eager Mars meets affluent Jupiter and enriches your financial forecast.

It might show a foretaste of money to come, or on-stream benefits. If you intend to make alterations to your personal and home interests, you'll undoubtedly cope with both offbeat and upbeat activities.

whirl. More importantly, try to avoid getting tongue-tied or dogmatic on Tuesday and Friday. Promising potentials appear, especially if you spruce up your competitive streak.

GEMINI ♊ (May 22 - June 21)

Throughout this fortunate week, whatever else you decide, refuse to discard your hopes and wishes. As a Gemini, you like to have two strings to your bow of life, which gives you an alternative option, especially if the going gets tough.

CANCER ♋ (June 22 - July 23)

A vivid star pattern portends a frantic personal and social diary. Ensure that any tight planning is carefully handled, especially if you hope to fit in everything you would like to say. Don't allow Monday or Wednesday's tensions to spoil opportunities for settling something important.

LEO ♌ (July 24 - August 23)

Pave the way for any ambitious schemes you may have, rather than actually starting them. With your ruler the Sun eclipsing your kindred fire sign, determined Aries, you are now more likely to get the support and affection you need from the powers that be or someone who thinks the world of you.

VIRGO ♍ (August 24 - September 23)

Even if the opposite to what you want happens, it could prove useful. One clue to this week's planetary crossword puzzle is 'What word could also mean success?' Check it out, and make it work for you.

LIBRA ♎ (September 24 - October 23)

The solar eclipse in your opposite sign of Aries intensifies your willpower. Before you say 'go,' find out where you stand. It might pay you to leave things be for a little longer to see if anything begins to change.

SCORPIO ♏ (October 24 - November 22)

The planets mobilise your streak of Scorpio daring, but don't stretch your limits. Your most effective weapon against personal and work-related pitfalls is your ability to be objective. Your desire to make specific situations and conversations work needs to be combined with your faith that they will work.

SAGITTARIUS ♐ (November 23 - December 21)

The main gist of the solar eclipse in fiery Aries and the link between plucky Mars and your ruler friendly Jupiter will stir surprises. Whether you create the right atmosphere all round depends on how you interpret other people's views.

CAPRICORN ♑ (December 22 - January 20)

Hard-working, enterprising and self-sacrificing are just some of the words that describe your zodiac sign. It will be these qualities that count. Friday will boost your powers of persuasion, but you won't have too much to complain about if you follow this lucky trend into next week's encouraging tide.

Bridget Jones's Baby

Directed by: Sharon Maguire
Starring: Renee Zellweger, Colin Firth, Emma Thompson, Patrick Dempsey

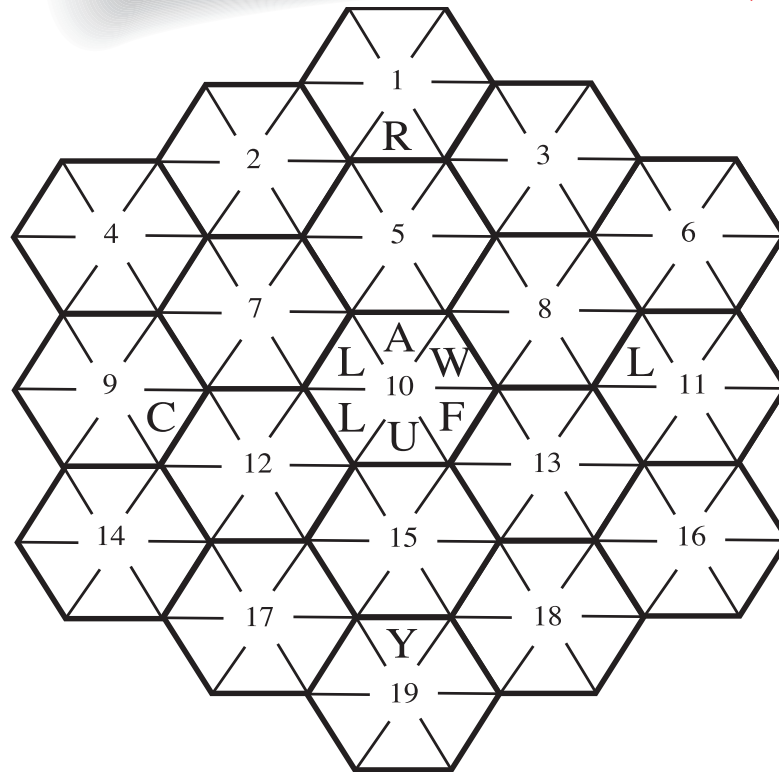

Bridget Jones, everyone's favourite singleton, is back with another fun-filled chapter of her chaotic life. Following her break up with Mark Darcy things don't really go as she had planned. Still single and now in her 40's she concentrates on her career as a top news producer and surrounds herself with friends, old and new.

Finally, she is in control of her life... that is until she meets dashing American Jack Dempsey.

Her equilibrium is upset even further when she discovers that she is pregnant and she is only 50 per cent sure who is the father of her baby.

Hexagram

The purpose of the Hexagram puzzle is to place the 19 six-letter words into the 19 cells. The letters at the edges of interlocking cells MUST BE THE SAME. The letters in the words must be written CLOCKWISE. The word in cell 10 (LAWFUL) and one letter in four other cells are given as clues.

Estonian thieves sentenced

■ A PAIR of Estonian males aged 51 and 23 who live in Spain, have been fined £800 each, after admitting to stealing from various outlets in Gibraltar. The two men were arrested after police received a number of reports of theft. They were kept in detention over a weekend before being presented to the court where they pleaded guilty, were fined and released from custody.

Prison drug testing

■ DURING a debate in parliament, Justice Minister Neil Costa reported that the management of HM Prison Windmill Hill and the Royal Gibraltar Police believe it would be advisable to introduce a combination of mandatory and voluntary drug testing for prisoners which was accepted by both sides of the House. The minister will encourage them to start this shortly.

University of Gibraltar

■ WHEN planning for the creation of the University of Gibraltar, it was assumed a significant part of research funding for the organisation would be received from the European Union. However following the result of the 2016 referendum, should Britain leave the Union without obtaining any special deal for Gibraltar then its financial future could be put into jeopardy.

Gibraltar politicians travel far and wide

By John Smith

THE Chief Minister Fabian Picardo and the Deputy Chief Minister Dr Joseph Garcia held lengthy discussions at the Foreign and Commonwealth Office on a number of issues affecting Gibraltar, including the planned withdrawal from the European Union.

The meeting included officials from the Foreign Office, the Department for Exiting the European Union and from the Cabinet Office.

There were a number of updates from both sides on Brexit issues and a determination that the United Kingdom and Gibraltar should continue to work through these matters in a positive and constructive manner according to a MEETING UP: The Chief and Deputy Chief Minister with Sir Alan Duncan.

Gibraltar government announcement.

There was also an opportunity to meet Europe Minister Sir Alan Duncan MP.

The Gibraltar team, which included the Attorney General Michael Llamas and UK Representative Dominique Searle, later met with Sir Keir Starmer QC who is the Labour Shadow Brexit Minister.

Mr Picardo returned to the UK after being invited to give evidence to the House of Commons Select Committee on Exiting the European Union on January 25 following presentations by independent experts to the the House of Lords Select Committee that Gibraltar's social infrastructure and economy depended hugely on the free movement of labour across the border.

Keeping up their schedule of busy Brexit meetings, the Gibraltar delegation will travel to the European Parliament where the Chief Minister has also been invited to attend before the European Parliament's Select Committee on Constitutional Affairs.

Cocaine arrest at border

AFTER being stopped as he entered Gibraltar on a BMW motorbike, a local man aged 29 was found to be in possession of a piece of cocaine weighing approximately 75 grams.

Officers of HM Customs first searched the vehicle, assisted with specialist drug itemiser detectors, which gave a high reading to the presence of cocaine and continued with a full body search that produced a package of cocaine concealed in his underwear.

“ A full body search produced a package of hidden cocaine.

After transferring their attention to his residence, no additional drugs were found, but the man has been accused of possession of the drug valued at £3,500 with intent to supply and has been released on police bail until April 24.

Presentation of gifts to the Bishop

WHEN it was announced by the Vatican that the new Bishop of Gibraltar would be the Right Reverend Carmelo Zammit, who at the time was resident in Malta, the mayor of Gibraltar launched a special fund to collect funds to allow for the purchase of a welcome gift for the new Bishop.

It had been some two years previously that the then Bishop, Ralph Heskett was removed by orders of the Vatican and sent to Sheffield to become Bishop of Hallam and in that time it appeared to have been very difficult to find an appropriate replacement.

There had been an unbroken chain of Catholic Bishops in Gibraltar since the first was appointed in 1910 and as Catholicism remains the most widespread religion on the Rock, the lack of a Bishop and therefore a direct link with the Vatican was considered disappointing.

Now that the collection which included donations from the public and local parishes has closed with a grand total of £12,100, it was arranged for Mayor Adolfo Canepa to present the Bishop with a new car as well as a new chalice and mitre for his personal use when undertaking his duties.

Protect your pensions now

YOUR article on the current situation whereby UK pensioners living in certain countries do not receive the annual increases in the state pension will have horrified many expatriates.

When Brexit comes into effect it could mean that the UK will no longer be legally obliged to pay the annual increases to pensioners residing in the EU. Whether this actually happens will become apparent during the negotiations.

For the half million UK pensioners already living in the EU and in receipt of their state pension there is little that can be done apart from protesting should their state pensions become frozen.

However those UK expatriates already living here who are not yet of pension age can take action to maximise their pension. In the UK the working population pay into the state pension system since it is compulsory when in employment.

However upon leaving the UK to live abroad the state pension becomes voluntary and as a result many expatriates decide that a pension is something which can be faced up to at a later date and is usually overlooked until it is too late to do anything about it.

The government will argue that it has bent over backwards during the last 15 years to make contribution rates attractive. It is currently possible to catch up in respect of contributions for the last six years if they have been missed and from time to time it has campaigns in order to persuade people to improve their pension record and so maximise the state pension that they will ultimately receive.

The return on additional contributions made in this way is over 30 per cent. In the event of the government depriving UK pensioners living in the EU of the annual increases, they should at least ensure that their state pension is approaching the maximum amount of £160 per week and is not a derisory amount as a result of taking no action.

GIBRALTAR: Spain will seek joint sovereignty with Britain.

An orderly divorce

“ SPAIN will seek a friendly and orderly divorce for Britain (Spain's economy minister in Davos recently). Spain's PM has said earlier that in the negotiations between EU and Britain Spain will seek joint sovereignty with Britain over Gibraltar.

To the best of my ability I can't see that Britain's territory should be on the agenda in the divorce proceedings! Should Britain trade away their sole sovereignty over Gibraltar to get a friendly divorce from EU? With due respect, it is rather naive.

Leif Krogstad, Palma Nova

years now have been suggesting to cut back on meats for health reasons... not only is factory farming unhealthy, it impacts the environment more than any other food, because livestock require much more land, food, water, and energy than plants to raise and transport.

Not to mention the horror and constant torture to millions of animals! From locking animals in tiny cages, to slicing parts of their bodies off without any pain relief, to genetically selecting them to grow so obese and so fast that many become lame, it's by far the biggest cause of animal suffering in the world.

Eating red or processed meat can, over time, increase the risk of developing type 2 diabetes as well as other disease. Try boosting your intake with beans and dark green leafy vegetables which are especially good sources of iron, even better on a per calorie basis than meat.

Iron absorption is increased markedly by eating foods containing vitamin C along with foods containing iron. None or less meat eaters do not have a higher incidence of iron deficiency than do full-time meat eaters. Tofu, spirulina, pumpkin seeds, quinoa, tomato paste, white beans, dried apricots, cooked spinach, dried peaches, prune juice, lentils, peas...

Fly right

IN answer to the article 'Droned to Death' (EWN 1642) there will now be thousands more drones because of Christmas presents, unfortunately not all of these will be flown responsibly. As far as petitioning the government goes there are already rules and regulations for drone flyers with more in the pipeline.

Unfortunately as with any sport or hobby you always get those people that are not bothered about rules and regulations so more rules will only penalise the responsible fliers.

It seems the media is willing to name anything that flies as a drone without recognising what it really is. The last drone strike reported by a UK airline pilot was later found to be a polythene bag. When you think that all aeroplanes are stringently tested with numerous articles being fired into engines and air frames the damage done by a toy drone would be minimal.

In saying this, it is not an excuse for flying near airports. If there is anybody that has a drone and wants to learn to fly it responsibly please contact your local aero model club. Don't think it's ok to fly at National Parks, you could be fined €6,000.

Snow joke

QUITE right about keeping snow in perspective. Our northern friends have to endure lots of snow and winter darkness. We in Britain have a more moderate climate. In the north from North Yorkshire up we do have a fair bit of snow. Road gritting commences in November all through the winter and snow ploughs are ready at a moment's notice. We from those parts are ready for it. However we Brits love talking about the weather to the extent whereby it sells newspapers etc.

We are serial weather watchers. I don't expect people who spend half their lives in the dark to understand.

Knee pain – the big picture

By Estelle Mitchell

www.thebodyworksclinic.com

KNEE pain - just one of those things that happens as you get older right? Or because you're a runner. Or a tennis player. Or a padel player. Or . . . just one of those things you learn to live with.

Or is it?

If you've got knee pain and you aren't making progress perhaps there's more to it?

The whole body

Everything in the body is connected, and it should all work together as a team. If one part is out of balance than this can cause other parts to work harder, become lopsided . . . in other words it can cause pain elsewhere, this is called referred pain and is a huge factor that is often ignored as we much prefer to treat the part that hurts, even if it isn't working!

This is why the first step in ANY treatment programme is a full, clinical assessment of the patient. Not just their knee but all the parts connected to the knee as well.

Referred pain

Earlier this month I had a gentleman come in complaining of long term (five plus years!!) pain in his knee. He'd had two rounds of surgery on the knee with no improvement.

During my assessment I found that he had an even longer history of lower back pain and hip pain. When he described the knee pain he talked about a 'burning' sensation. If you've read my previous articles about neural pain (now on my blog - www.TheBodyworksClinic.com/blog) you'll know this is a huge red flashing light that we need to check what else is involved!

So rather than focus on his knee, we focused on his back, I taught him a couple of little tricks and . . . he walked out with no knee pain. Me, his wife, their friend, we were all in tears at the transformation.

All that time, pain and surgery and no one had ever taken the time to listen to him or look at the connections. No one had ever done a thorough, clinical assessment.

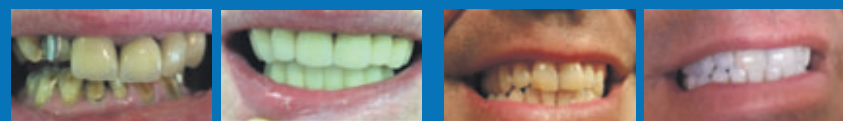

Great results

You can get the best treatment in the world but if you aren't treating the right area, you won't get a good result. Sometimes it is just that simple.

For more information on knee pain and how to treat it please check out our blog - www.TheBodyworksClinic.com/blog, our Facebook page or call us on 952 883 151.

Being a mummy can be bad for your health over the years

MOTHERS fall ill an average of 324 times during their child's childhood years and most of these illnesses are passed on from their youngsters.

A survey of 2,000 parents found that 68 per cent of women said they often got more sick after having children and admitted to only feeling completely well for an average of 13 days per month.

From when their child is born to the age of 18, mothers will suffer from around 54 colds, as well as 108 sore throats or runny noses, and around 36 sickness bugs.

The survey by Healthspan also reported that 72 per cent of mothers said they cope with being ill better than their partner does. Around 36 per cent soldier on feeling bad, but their partners resort to bed rest.

Psychologists believe this could be similar to the flight or fight response, with women unconsciously needing to do everything to ensure the survival of their child and safeguard their family.

The study also found that two-thirds of people were prone to becoming ill when they switch off or take a holiday.

This is because stress can effect the immune system and at the end of periods of stress the immune system remains relaxed and leaves people more vulnerable to illness.

In a bid to prevent winter colds affecting your children, and you, stay warm and cosy. Encourage children to wash their hands properly using soap and wipe down surfaces, such as door handles, regularly with anti-bacterial wipes or sprays.

Eat healthily to increase your vitamin and mineral take to provide greater defence against colds and take multivitamins.

What to do about flu?

SPECIALIST: Doctor Luis Perez Belmonte.

THERE is a lot flu about at the moment and also a lot of coughs and colds.

- What are the usual symptoms of flu?

Flu usually causes fever, muscle and joint pain, headache, cough, fatigue, lack of appetite and a general feeling of being unwell. Sometimes it can also cause chest infections with green mucus, chest pain and difficulty breathing being warning signs.

- What's the difference between flu and a common cold?

Common cold symptoms are far less severe and include a runny nose, stuffed up feeling and sneezing. Fevers are rare.

- Should I go to the doctor if I think I might have flu?

Generally, you don't need to see a doctor as there is no cure. However, if your symptoms last for a long time or you get worse rather than better, then get yourself checked out by a doctor.

- So there's no treatment?

The only medication available for flu is to treat the symptoms: control pain and reduce fevers. Antibiotics are not needed for flu. Drink plenty of water and get lots of rest.

- When should I go to hospital?

Very rarely, complications require hospital treatment. If you have serious trouble breathing or any other severe symptoms, then a visit to A&E is probably a good idea though.

- How long will it last?

Flu symptoms usually last between five and 10 days. Common colds usually last one week.

- I had the flu jab, can I still catch flu?

You are less likely to catch the flu but there is always a possibility of doing so. Your symptoms will probably be far less severe than if you hadn't had the vaccination though.

If you have any questions for Dr Perez Belmonte, please send them to:

Prepare for the white stuff

SNOW arrived in many parts of Spain last week, including along the coastal areas of the Costa Blanca, an event not seen in a generation. Whilst it may have been a brief fluttering, many have turned their thoughts to a wintry wonderland and are dusting off the skies in search of more of the white stuff.

But before you head to the Sierra

Nevada, or further afield, it is important to remember some basic health checks.

Skiing can be a demanding sport so always try to warm up before hitting the slopes to prevent injuries such as pulling muscles and strains. Ten minutes of squatting and stretching after skiing will also help prevent problems.

For those who do little exercise, skiing can be a shock on the system as to how physical it can be, so try and prepare at home a little before heading off. Even simple walking up and down stairs will help prepare the leg muscles.

The snow reflects 80 per cent of solar radiation so whilst you may be wrapped up, don't forget to wear a high sun protection factor on the face and lip balm.

Gossip is good

OK we all like a good gossip right? Well feel guilty about it no longer as a study claims that sharing gossip can actually be good for you.

A study carried out by researchers at the University of Pavia in Italy found that gossip releases oxytocin, the so-called love hormone.

More oxytocin was released from gossip compared to normal conversations and this hormone helps bring people closer together.

Could Blair pick up the Brexodus baton?

Nora Johnson

Breaking Views

Nora is the author of popular psychological suspense and crime thrillers and a freelance journalist. To comment on any of the issues raised in her column, go to www.euroweeklynews.com/3.0.15/nora-johnson

THIS week I was planning to write about the post-neoclassical endogenous growth theory. Quite brief. Provocative. And thrilling. You'd have loved it. Trust me. I'm a journo... Never mind!

But then something happened. My blood pressure started rising rapidly. And not in a good way. After weeks of depressing news about Trump, Putin, Corbyn, who again emerges from the woodwork? Yes, you guessed: Tony Blair.

And reports he is said to have met an Oscar-winning film producer to discuss making a documentary about his life. Although Blair's spokesman said he received many such requests but had agreed to none, according to a source: "They were really keen on the idea. It just ticks all the boxes."

Intriguingly, we can only guess what form a possible documentary could take. For some, it could be 'LA LA Land,' the movie sequel, where Tony and Cherie write their own fantasy screenplay, find God and dance and sing their way through numerous properties until they locate a bank.

For others, a kind of Bible Story: how an 'ordinary guy' feels the hand of history on his shoulder, is 'instructed' to topple ruthless tyrants and overcome all manner of evil and, finally, a legend in his own mind, ends up living in countless country piles.

We can only guess, too, what Blair, a staunch Europhile who has dropped heavy hints about returning to politics, makes of Theresa May's 12-point plan (her '12 Commandments' or 'Brexodus'). One thing's certain, though. He'd love her job.

Which reminds me: according to Tom Bower (Tony Blair's biographer), when Blair became PM, he realised he hadn't read enough history, so asked Roy Jenkins, his mentor, for advice. Jenkins sent him five books, four written by himself. "The only one we know he read is the biography of Gladstone," Bower recalls. "Unfortunately, the lesson he seems to have taken from it is that it's possible to return as PM time and again until the age of 84."

Help! Given all last year's 'surprises' (Trump, Brexit etc) who knows what the future might still hold for the UK electorate?

Nora Johnson's psychological suspense crime thrillers 'No Way Back,' 'Landscape of Lies,' 'Retribution,' 'Soul Stealer,' 'The De Clerambault Code' (www.nora-johnson.com) available from Amazon in paperback/eBook (€0.99;£0.99) and iBookstore. All profits to Costa del Sol Cudeca cancer charity.

GLOBELINK INTERNATIONAL

PERHAPS an unusual suggestion in the midst of the UK's recent Southern Rail strike misery, but why not try a luxury train journey as an elegant and relaxing alternative for your next holiday? For those who prefer to keep their feet firmly on the ground it beats flying and it's definitely a cut above joining the masses in the airport departure lounge.

Rail cruising is a perfect way to take in the landscape and culture of your surroundings whilst indulging in the on-board splendour of your chosen train. And with travel companies competing to offer the most unique and luxurious trips, you are in for an unforgettable experience that will leave you chuffed to bits...

Whether you hanker after the opulent bygone era of Art Deco glamour, or prefer a modern, glass ceiling carriage with gourmet dining and personal service, the luxury train choices are tantalisingly alluring with an abundance of routes and journeys to suit all tastes. You can stay local with Spain's very own El Transcantabrico and Al Andalus trains and explore the north Atlantic coastline, or Andalusia's cultural and gastronomic delights. Alternatively, opt for the iconic Venice Simplon-Orient-Express and treat yourself to a once-in-a-lifetime luxurious trip to Venice, Paris and Verona. Or venture further afield with the Blue Train traversing South Africa, or the Rocky Mountaineer through the majestic Canadian Rockies.

There are many other options with a variety of companies offering bespoke packages, so take a look at the Luxury Train Club, Belmond, or Abercrombie & Kent for some ideas.

If you decide to splash out on a trip, do remember to buy a reliable travel insurance policy to cover unforeseen mishaps while you are away. You can get great cover with Globelink's Comprehensive Single Trip policy for as little as £23.96 (one adult aged 51-65yrs travelling in Europe for eight days) and be covered for up to £10,000,000 emergency medical and repatriation expenses, up to £3,000 for your baggage and £4,000 if you have to cancel or cut short your trip, plus many other benefits.

Wherever you chose to travel, visit the FCO website on health and safety abroad, www.gov.uk/travelaware. It could invalidate your travel insurance if you go against their advice. This week, following political unrest in Gambia, the FCO are advising against all but essential travel to Gambia, so the website is a good place to help make an informed choice about where to travel.

Globelink Travel Insurance: for people living in the EU. Get an instant quote and arrange cover securely with www.globelink.co.uk, or call (UK) +44 1353 699 082 or call our Spanish link line on 966 265 000. Your Policy and Emergency Assistance Card will be delivered immediately by email.

Queen visits La Linea

HAVING completed no less than five historic tours seen by some 300,000 people, the One World Symphonic Orchestra is back on the road with a new show recreating the most important songs released by Queen.

With an orchestra and a huge cast of rock musicians and singers, the whole show arrives at the Palacio de Congresos in La Linea de la Concepcion on February 4 with tickets costing €35 each.

Cinemanania audition notice

By John Smith

THE Salon Varietes in Fuengirola is looking for male and female singers and dancers to take part in their forthcoming annual 'Mania' presentation of song and dance which is now in its fifth year. Lead players and members of the chorus who will be playing aged 16 to 30 are needed for this dazzling performance which will be paying tribute to great movie musicals.

“ If you are talented, with great performing skills and plenty of energy, then come along to the auditions.

Director and choreographer Alexandra Avery will be holding auditions at the theatre at 3pm on Sunday February 5 and those who wish to attend should be confident that they are talented, with great performing skills and plenty of energy and should bring two contrasting songs as well as dancewear.

The production itself will take place from April 21 to 25 and will include excerpts from Aladdin, Glee, Jersey Boys, Legally Blonde, Les Miserables, Moon-walker, My Fair Lady, Oliver! and Rent.

For more information call or WhatsApp 657 202 688.

DA BRUNO: Whether for a special event or a business meeting.

Enjoy a relaxing Sunday at Da Bruno

DA BRUNO Mijas Costa is a restaurant with an impeccable reputation and a large list of clients that are already beloved members of Da Bruno family.

They come to share their important moments: to enjoy a romantic evening, to hold a business meeting, to celebrate their special events or just to have a glass of wine. Da Bruno team is really proud and grateful to have their confidence, that's why they keep on looking for new ways to make their service even better.

The secret of success of the brand Da Bruno is the perfect mix of tradition and modern styles. They love their work and always do it with creativity and imagination, trying to guess the desires of their guests, to make the stay in Da Bruno Mijas even more pleasant and exciting and to fulfil all the needs of their clients.

We are sure that there is nothing better than a Sunday meal with family and friends. We are happy to announce that the restaurant Da Bruno Mijas Costa is now open on Sundays! The guests will enjoy the relaxing Sunday atmosphere, delicious Italian food, affection of the staff and special Sunday Offers that will surprise even the most exigent clients.

To start let us offer you the spectacular not-to-be-missed event, that will be celebrated every Sunday afternoon - the classic Sunday Roast. The Chef of Da Bruno has prepared something really exciting: delicious roast beef and a great variety of starters and desserts, elaborated with love and experience.

All our favourite courses from the general menu will also be available during all Sunday.

Sundays are meant to be enjoyed, so don't hesitate to do it with us.

5 restaurants and a gin bar

IT seems like destiny led Bob and Linda Hacksham to settle in Benalmadena Pueblo and create what has turned into a mini-restaurant empire.

The couple originally flew over to Spain with the intention of buying a holiday apartment in Marbella, but when by chance they saw Benalmadena Pueblo they fell in love with it and the apartment turned into a house and the holiday home became their permanent residence.

Having had experience of renovating properties but with no knowledge of catering, they took a liking to a run-down restaurant in the Pueblo and in 2005 opened their first adventure in gastronomy at La Nina which they completely renovated and at that brought on board a senior manager Jose who is still with them today.

Having enjoyed the success of this first venture, they took over a restaurant in Alhaurin el Grande. This property is now leased to a third party so they could concentrate on the area they knew so well and their next project was La Fuente, one of the oldest houses in the village which opened in 2008 and was followed three years later by El Muro which was closed for 10 years.

El Muro is fantastically atmospheric with a huge balcony and incredible views and a former Flamenco Cave as a basement, but it would be too difficult to open to the public.

On every occasion they have taken on closed or failing businesses and use their knowledge and understanding of what customers like, to produce innovative, comfortable and successful businesses.

In a small village you can't have too many restaurants selling the same food so their next venture was the 26-seater Indian restaurant Azafran for which they imported a tandoori oven from India.

Adventure number five was Zafiro which is a wine and gin bar offering 106 different gins and 30 tonics together with wine and cocktails and a range of great tapas.

Their latest project took them to the road between Fuengirola and Mijas and after 18 months of total renovation, rewiring and installing a new kitchen, the couple opened Villalinda earlier in January.

By opening 'off season,' they have given the restaurant which specialises in modern Mediterranean cuisine a chance to bed in, but they are already finding that customers are arriving from Benalmadena as well as local urbanisations.

In the winter they can cater for 50 covers but for the summer they will have a large terrace area with barbecue and room for 150 covers and importantly private parking for up to 100 cars.

To them, every diner is a VIP and their staff are trained to give impeccable service with a range of allergy free and vegetarian dishes produced in a zero waste kitchen.

HUGE STAR: Sting in performance.

Sting to play in Fuengirola

By John Smith

FORMER member of The Police and now a huge star in his own right, Sting will be playing at Sohail Castle on July 17 with special surprise guests as part of a long international tour in support of his first album in a decade entitled 57th & 9th.

Although it took some time for Sting, Stewart Copeland and Andy Summers to break into the charts, they soon became a major force and once Sting went solo many of the band's fans continued to follow him.

“Sting will appear with special surprise guests.”

Having toured extensively with Peter Gabriel (formerly of Genesis) during the summer of 2016, Sting who is a young 65, received huge applause when he played at the reopening of the Bataclan Club in Paris, the scene of the death of 90 people and the wounding of 200 others on the night of November 13, 2015.

No further details of ticket prices or availability have been released at the time of writing but the performance will be part of the Marenostrum Music Festival and he will perform on a specially produced stage backing on to the sea.

Good food, good wine and good friends with Garry Waite

I was approached a few years ago by a Finnish lady who had found my company on the internet. She wanted to open a restaurant in Puerto Banus. She had the premises, but needed a complete reform, new kitchen, interiors, terraces et al. She was a strange lady but very nice and I was a bit concerned for her.

She actually had a very successful restaurant business with her husband in her native Finland. However I could see that she was going to have a lot of problems and the money I know she was going to have to invest, made me wary. I knew the premises and they had never succeeded for any of the previous occupants. So I said to her, "if you give me €20,000 I will save you €350,000."

She asked me how and of course I said that she had to give me that before I would tell her. Now I know it is a bit 'tongue in cheek' but what I was implying was not to do it as I was pretty sure that it was going to turn out badly for her. Having said that we did all the work, came out with a great place and a fabulous kitchen operation and on the surface it looked as if it would work and that I was going to have to eat my words.

● However, after a few months of relative success the owners decided that they didn't need the expertise of the team that I had put in. Letting the manager go and replacing the chef with the client's husband. That was the beginning of the end, and as I had foreseen the business fell into a downward spiral. Eventually closing with a loss of - you guessed it - €350,000. No assets to sell, no way of selling the traspaso - just money down the drain!!

● I suppose the moral of this story is probably, that if you seek and pay a professional for advice, be it a lawyer, accountant, financial adviser or a management consultant - then heed it!!

Ann Hegerty doesn't know her Puff from her Flaky!

I QUITE LIKE TV

quiz shows. It helps to keep the brain active!! One such is ITV's The Chase. Four contestants pit their wits against a highly experienced quizzier. Usually the team gets beaten and the contestants leave with nothing. On occasions they win some money. But there are times when I listen incredulously to the 'Chaser' and think how on earth did you know that?? While at the same time wondering how some of the contestants ever got past the interview stage! But seldom do both sides get it wrong. On one occasion though the question to both was 'What pastry is used to make a Mille Feuille?' (options) Choux - Short - Puff?

Now the contestant was a Hospitality Manager and the Chaser, the brilliant Ann Hegerty. Both selected Choux. The Hospitality Manager chose it because it sounded French (sic) and Ann because she was hoping that Flaky Pastry would come up! I would have thought that Hegerty would know the relationship between Flaky and Puff pastries!

As for the Hospitality Manager..... I wonder what branch of Hospitality he works in? HMPs? I trust, dear reader, that you got it right!!

Nathan Odom - destined for great things.

READERS of last week's column will have seen that my guilty pleasure has been watching Junior MasterChef (from America). I watched the two finalists battle it out last week and was utterly amazed at the menus and the standards that 11-year-old Andrew Zapple and 12-year-old Nathan Odom produced.

● NATHAN'S MENU was a Roasted Fennel Gratin with French Ham and Fennel Salad followed by Herb-Crusted Rack of Lamb with an Asparagus Puree finishing with an amazingly creative Early Grey Tea Tart with Blood Orange Coulis. The judges loved all the dishes, with Gordon Ramsay saying about the dessert in particular "it shouldn't work, but it does" and it was "bloody delicious."

● ANDREW'S MENU consisted of a starter of Herb Infused Ricotta Cheese (freshly made) with Roasted Baby Beetroots and Pumpernickel Bread.

A main course of Beef Cheek Ravioli with Shaved Parmesan was followed by a Risotto (Made with Arborio rice - normally for savoury risottos) Figs and a Verjus* Reduction. All dishes were praised by the judges, but the overall winner who also received a cheque for $100,000 was - Nathan Odom!! I wish I could find Chefs of that standard!! Let alone 12 year olds!!!

(*Verjus is a highly acidic pressing of sour/unripe fruits such as apples and grapes)

OVER THE YEARS of opening and running restaurants I have spent lots of money on making sure that the kitchens have plenty of approved storage containers. Different colour identifying marks on the tops ensure that the correct food and sauces are properly stored. These items are expensive but wonderfully hygienic and strong. No matter where I have been over the years (including my own operation in the UK many, many years ago) chefs (including me!!) used ice cream containers. The five litre catering packs make great storage for sauces and the small one litre ones make for good portion control, gar-

The top and bottom of it!

I will bid you farewell until next week and should aspiring restaurateurs need some help or advice, please do not hesitate to contact me.

“ A toast to good food, good wine and good friends.”

nishes etc. But, like wire coat hangers, these things take on a breeding pattern of their own. Lids abound (with lovely coloured identifying marks) but no bases on which to place them.

Or bases exist without the correct size covering. They have disappeared into the kitchen ether - along with multitudinous other kitchen aids - leaving said containers 'divorced'! But I have found similar things happening in my own kitchen at home. Although I have a few containers with their correct partners, I too have loads of lids with no bottoms and some bottoms without lids. So I, like so many of my Chefs, have resorted to using the containers that chicken livers, scallops and ice creams come in. Now I have plenty of these usable, virtually free, containers for freezing down.

● If there are any car booters reading this and you come across a load of expensive storage containers with no lids - some of them are probably mine!! By the way, I've got a load of tops that might fit!!

● I was given a very pleasant bottle of wine to try this week. I took full advantage of this, in as much as I did not share it with anyone!! I am more of a Ribera del Duero type of guy who fell out of love with young Riojas some time ago. But I still have a penchant for good Reservas and Gran Reservas none more so than those that come from Bodegas Muga. This particular gem was a Prado Enea Gran Reserva 2009. Having not made any in 2007 or 2008 (they only sell the best vintages) and not releasing the 2012 or 2013 it makes this spectacular wine even more desirable, collecting from 'they that know' 95/97 points.

ON THE NOSE it had great aromas of ripe fruits, plums, redcurrants, black pepper, dark chocolate and typical Spanish cedar. On the palate, smooth, polished and refined. Full flavour, but still feeling quite young, for a wine with such depth. I wouldn't mind trying it again in 10 years. It would probably be at its best then. This is a blend of 80% Tempranillo, with Garnacha, Mazuelo and Graciano making up the other 20%. Retailing around €40 it isn't quaffing wine, but would grace any enthusiastic wine consumer's dinner party table.

Fit for a King - or wine loving columnists.

Giving colour to balconies

IT'S often hard to know what to plant on balconies, especially in the winter when maintenance can be complicated. These are five of the best plants to cheer up your balcony boxes or pots at this time of year:

Dracaena: these plants are best suited to south-facing balconies. Their dark purple leaves will give a touch of elegance and add volume to planters.

Primroses: a seasonal plant used to add colour and cheer up winter compositions. They tend to flower towards the end of winter and last until early spring.

Red Swiss chard: not only are these very decorative for the autumn and winter months, you can eat them too! The intense red colour of their stems makes them useful to add colour to balconies.

Violets and pansies: these outdoor plants tend to start flowering in the winter. They cope well with low temperatures so are apt for the autumn and winter seasons.

S n a p - dragons: native to the Mediterranean, these grow very well in pots and can reach heights of up to two metres.

All of these plants will last on balconies until about the end of April, when it will be time to swap them for spring and summer blooms.

PANSIES: Start to flower in the winter.

1. PETS should always have complete Pet Passports well before you make a journey. Ensure that you schedule a visit to your veterinarian and allow sufficient time prior to your trip to discuss diseases or problems that might exist where you are travelling and that don't exist at home.

2. When travelling by car, plan for twice as many rest stops as you would for a small child. Pets need ample time to stretch their legs and to go to the bathroom.

3. Avoid motion sickness by only feeding your pet a small meal a few hours before leaving for your trip. Also, start with short local trips and gradually increase the time before a long trip.

4. Take plenty of fresh water, possibly enough for some days. It has been found that many areas water varies, this has caused problems. Whenever you travel with your pet and factor in potential emergencies, such as if your vehicle breaks down. Always bring extra food and snacks for the road.

5. Safety belts and harnesses are good for securing small dogs in vehicles, but the safest way for your dog to travel is secured in a crate in your back seat or at the rear of an estate vehicle. Dogs should never travel in the open bed of a pick-up truck.

6. If your trip includes an overnight stay, research pet-friendly hotels first and have a full understanding of what accommodations are available for them, as well as any extra charges that may apply.

7. All airlines require pets to have a health certificate before they can fly -make sure you check first. Each airline's policy differs, so plan accordingly. Also, find out if the airline will fly your pet during weather extremes - hot or cold.

“ Take plenty of fresh water and always bring extra food and snacks for the road.

8. Make sure your pet has a strong collar and identification tag, and include information about your destination should you get separated. Also, remember that all dogs and cats in Europe are required by law to be microchipped. Also, remember to carry a current photo of your pet along with the health certificates and inoculation records.

9. Never leave a pet in a car on warm or hot days. Temperatures in cars are at least 20 degrees above the outside temperature and heatstroke or death can result.

10. Prepare for the unexpected and enrol your pet with a Veterinary Pet Insurance policy. Pet Plan of Spain now cover you for all veterinary fees in Europe, which will give you great peace of mind should an accident or illness occur on the road.

PET PASSPORT: Make sure your pet has one before you set off on a journey.

Daisy likes to catch 40 winks

DAISY is a friendly and very relaxed Cocker Spaniel. She lives at home in Malaga with her expat family from Britain. She is an only dog and absolutely loves attention, especially the unconditional adoration of children. Generally speaking her owner Junita talks of her happy attitude and easy going manner.

A few times each year the family travel back to Britain for high days and holidays, and that's when Junita calls in house-sitters from HouseSitMatch. She prefers for Daisy to be cared for at home by experienced dog lovers she finds on the website.

For Junita, using our house-sitting network offers a simple process that helps her plan her pet and home care arrangements at the same time as she plans her holidays.

She posts her holiday dates securely on the site, with a few photos of Daisy and their home to give an impression of what the house-sitters can expect. She also describes the location of her home and what can be enjoyed in the region, there is lots to do and that appeals to many house-sitters who exchange their services for free accommodation.

Once she has posted details of the pet-sitting requirements, the website then sends out an email alert with the house-sit advert and house-sitters apply. Before committing to anyone, she checks their references and asks to speak to them on SKYPE. Then she makes her selection. Unperturbed by new visitors to the house Daisy keeps her daily routine while her owners travel. New house-sitters means new people to love and cuddle her.

Do you need a house or pet-sitter? Get in touch. House-sitting can be a win-win for both parties, free house and pet-sitting, and the experienced and checked sitters get free accommodation! Register as either house-sitter or homeowner now with a 20 per cent off introductory offer using coupon code PERFECT20.

House-sitting can be a win-win for both parties, free house and pet-sitting and the experienced and checked sitters get free accommodation! To find a pet-sitter go to www.HousesitMatch.com or call Lamia on 00 44 (0) 777 214 2742.

WITH the abnormally cold recent weather all over Spain, humans and animals alike are suffering the effects. It is more important than ever to make sure pets are warm and dry as, unlike humans, they cannot tell you they are cold or put on a jumper to protect themselves!

Move all animals indoors, even if they usually live outside. Under no circumstances should pets be left outside in freezing conditions.

If you have no choice but to Protect your pets

leave dogs in the garden during the day, make sure they have access to a dry, draught-free kennel or shelter which is big enough to move in, but small enough to hold in body heat. The floor should be off the ground and some form of bedding should be included.

Pets which spend time outside will need more food to replace extra calories burned keeping warm and, as always, they require constant access to fresh water. Use plastic food and water dishes outside.

Small dogs will appreciate a coat on walks at this time of year and keep a pot of Vaseline handy to deal with chapped noses and paws. Use common sense and remember, if it feels cold to you it probably feels cold to your pet too.

CHARITIES

ACE CHARITY "El Refugio" in La Cala de Mijas is a registered charity. We have on average 275 dogs in our care and we receive no help from the Town Hall or the Andalusian government. We desperately need foster homes and adoptants for our many dogs, especially the small ones and puppies who do not do well in a big shelter. We are grateful for any help offered, including donations of food and blankets. Visiting times are from 13.00 to 15.00 and you can always turn up or make an appointment by calling Denise on 669 018 736. Our website is www.ace-charity.org where you can view all the dogs in our care. (93320)

ADANA THE ANIMAL SHELTER IN ESTEPONA. We always need volunteers to walk and socialise with our dogs and help with cleaning. We also need good homes for our animals that you can see on www.adana.es. Kennels open every day 10-1.30, Camino de Casares, near Parque de los Pedregales, Estepona. (5 minutes from the Poligono) For more information call 952 113 467, available from 10.00am until 14.00pm. (93319)

SEPE the horse and donkey charity is open to the public week-ends from 10.00 to 5.00. Volunteers are much needed in all departments and are welcome at anytime. For our riding for the disabled classes, we are also in need of extra helpers. We are nationally registered by the Spanish Ministry of the Interior (164640) but only with your support can we give the equine a voice. If you can just commit to 2 or 3 euros a month it will really help make a difference. You can find us at Lauro Golf Equestrian Centre, Alqueria, Alhaurin de la Torre. Tel. 608 258 950 in fo@sepeonline.net www.sepeonline.net (93321)

AT SOS ANIMAL REFUGE we have dogs, young and old looking for homes. Some of our dogs have been with us for some time and would love to find a cosy spot to curl up in and a knee on which to rest their heads. If you have room in your heart and home we would love to hear from you. We do not put our dogs to sleep - no matter how old, they are safe with us. For day to day needs and to pay for veterinary care, we much appreciate the support we receive. We desperately need items to sell on our market stall to help raise funds and are happy to come and collect. So if you are having a clear-out, please contact us on 605 227 155. If you would like to know more about re-homing, please call 653 257 875. Visit our website www.sos-animals.org or please phone Sandy on 952 385 923 or 666 814 056 if you would like to make a donation or help in any way. (93317)

IS SALES YOUR SPECIALIST SUBJECT?

OUR TEAM IS A KNOCK OUT

WE REQUIRE EXPERIENCED SALES EXECUTIVES

Euro Weekly is the largest free English language newspaper in Spain with 6 regional copies. We continue to grow through management vision and the hard work of our team members.

By joining the team you will need to be self-motivated, not a clock watcher (except when checking deadlines) and believe in ALWAYS providing the best quality and service possible for every client big or small.

- Are you a leader, not a follower?
- Do you want a career, not just a job?
- Are you motivated by money?
- Do you believe that the client is king?
- Will you go that extra mile?

Top motors to buy in Europe

THE Ford Fiesta has long been the best-selling car in the UK, but what are other European countries buying?

The ever-popular Volkswagen Golf was the best-selling car of 2016 in Germany, Austria, Belgium, the Netherlands, Norway, Sweden and Luxembourg.

Elsewhere, the Nissan Qashqai topped the sales charts in Croatia and Latvia, while the Renault Clio was most popular in France, Portugal, and Slovenia.

It was a good year for Skoda, with their Octavia shifting the most units in Czech Republic, Estonia, Finland, Poland and Switzerland, and the smaller Fabia beating off the competition in Slovakia.

In Italy, the Fiat Panda was the year’s best-selling motor, while the Fiat 500 sold the most in Lithuania and the 500L in Serbia.

Farewell to the underdog

By Matthew Elliott

ZENOS Cars, the Norfolk-based sports car firm much-loved for its affordable lightweight lineup, has gone into administration. The British car maker had recently produced its 100th vehicle, but a series of cancelled export orders proved too much for the small yet intimate company to handle.

Founded in 2012 by two experts who had worked at Lotus and Caterham Cars together, Zenos first produced its E10 sports car in 2015. It had no roof and was priced at a modest £25,000 (€29,000).

Later followed the more powerful E10 S and E10 R. The E10 R could hit 60mph in just three seconds, had a top speed of 155mph and weighed just 750kg.

Around half of Zenos’ cars were sold within the UK, while others can be found as far away as the US and Japan.

ZENOS CARS: Norfolk-based sports car firm.

Countdown to Geneva

MOTOR SHOW: Several big hitters will be showcasing their next generation masterpieces.

By Matthew Elliott

THE Geneva Motor Show may still be a few months away but several big-hitters have already come forward to stake their claim to motoring dominance. McLaren, Ferrari and even a Singapore outfit have put their cards on the table, ready to showcase their next generation masterpieces.

British manufacturer McLaren will debut the second generation of its acclaimed Super Series. Engineers claim that it will have double the aerodynamic efficiency of the 650S, which is no mean feat.

Stronger, lighter and with outstanding grip and even an airbrake, the new McLaren model will need to outshine its predecessor if the struggling company wants to keep its place at motoring's top table.

Meanwhile Singapore modestly claims it will kickstart an 'electric revolution' when it debuts its awkwardly named Dendrobium. Produced by Vanda Electrics it is a two-seat electric supercar with an automatic roof and doors shaped like Dendrobiums, a flower native to Singapore. The Geneva Motor Show takes place from March 9-19.

Thousands of spectators will also see the new Ferrari F12 M; Range Rover Coupe; Kia Picanto and Jaguar XF Sportbrake. There will also be a lightweight Lamborghini, a Suzuki Swift, and a Porsche 911 GT3.

ROAD TEST by Nick Fletcher

Volkswagen Tiguan - the SEL 4Motion

THE Tiguan is Volkswagen's five-seater SUV, spacious, well-built, attractively styled and up against a lot of competition in a keenly fought sector of the market.

Since its launch in 2007, almost three million Tiguans have been sold worldwide. The latest version - which has recently won a top SUV award in its German homeland - competes against rivals such as the Renault Kadjar, Mazda CX-5 and Ford Kuga, all with their individual plus-points.

Yet the Tiguan's big plus-point is that it comes over as a great all-round package, an appealing blend of premium looks, latest technology, durable construction, nice driving dynamics and excellent fuel economy.

Priced from £22,510 (€26,616), there are petrol and diesel engines on offer, though VW says it expects that the vast majority of sales will be diesel. Longer and wider than the previous version, the new Tiguan is built on the same platform as the VW Golf and the Audi TT. With fresh styling and a revised and upgraded cabin, Tiguan is all set to take on the best in the class and come out on top.

Most popular engine choice is the 148 hp 2.0 litre diesel, and my test model had the slightly more powerful version of this engine, offering 187 hp, and mated to a slick seven-speed automatic gearbox.

It's a neat combination, delivering a quick 0-60 mph time of just 7.9 seconds, a top speed of 131 mph yet returning an impressive 49.6 mpg combined. In upper-range SEL 4Motion (all wheel drive) spec, the test model costs £34,060 (€40,270).

Out and about the Tiguan proves to be a relaxing drive, with light steering, good feedback, assured handling with minimal cornering pitch, and a comfortable ride. Standard suspension can be a tad bumpy on rough roads, but there is the option of adjustable dampers which help smooth the surface.

This new model has wider appeal, with more youthful styling which includes a sleeker front end and revised head lights. Equipment levels are generous with even entry-level S versions getting touchscreen infotainment system, alloy wheels and air-con. My SEL model added a raft of other kit including three-zone climate control, four driving modes including off-road and snow, panoramic sunroof, larger 19-inch alloys, sat-nav, roof rails and an array of additional safety features.

The roomy cabin easily takes three adults in the rear, a larger boot now offers 520 litres, increasing to 1,655 litres with the seats folded. These seats also slide up to 170mm to adjust load/occupant space. With a lot of stowage compartments too, the Tiguan gets top marks for practicality.

Stats:

Model: Volkswagen Tiguan SEL 4Motion
Engine: 2.0 litre diesel
Transmission: 7-speed automatic
Performance: 0-60mph 7.9 seconds, top speed 131 mph
Economy: 49.6 mpg combined
Emissions: 149g/km

VW TIGUAN: Well-built five-seater and attractively styled.

CLASSIC CAR CLUB: 2017 has got off to a flying start.

Classic Car Club of Andalucia

Great scenery, venues, cars and company!

I am pleased to tell you that 2017 has gotten off to a flying start for the Classic Car Club of Andalucia.

After a hectic December there was still no slowing down for the club. An excellent Club night and dinner was enjoyed at El Chaparral golf on the first Tuesday of the month, very well supported, excellent food, wine and service and all for only €20 each.

The following Saturday saw the Club enjoy its first classic car run and lunch of the year. Organised by club members Don and Sue Foster, the event started from El Balneario on the beach just the other side of Malaga. A halfway stop saw everyone at the famous Alfarnate Inn, the oldest Inn in Andalucia. The dining area there still has its 'Calaboose' or jail, where the sheriffs would lock up their bandit prisoners en route to the courts in Granada. A few of the wives thought that a very good idea...

The run finished with a very good lunch near the trout farms of Riofrio.

This is what Club member and participant Andrew Buck-Honour had to say about the day out:

STARTING POINT: A coffee at El Balneario on the beach.

“ Yet again the Classic Car Club of Andalucia monthly run took us across some superb scenery in the mountains north-east of Malaga.

Don and Sue Foster had found a good start venue on the seafront just on the eastern edge of Malaga, with views of the port and city on a beautiful sunny day.

From there we headed into the mountains with great views back to the coast and a variety of backdrops - rock formations, green valleys and white-washed villages.

Our coffee stop in Alfarnate used to be a prison, however today it merely kept us for only about half an hour as we enjoyed a welcomed drink.

Finally, after the last part of the scenic route, we arrived in the popular village of Riofrio where there are trout hatcheries and this fish is a favourite and also sturgeon caviar is produced.

A filling lunch in the Raimundo Restaurant here ended a fantastic day.

Great scenery, venues, cars and company!
Thanks Don and Sue for organising so well.
- with Simon Buck-Honour

#classiccars #classiccarclubofandalucia - with Sue Foster and Don Foster.

I do hope you enjoy a selection of photographs of the day from Andrew Buck-Honour. Next on the Club list are the Rock-n-Roll concerts at The Sunset Beach Club in Benalmadena on Saturday and Sunday January 28 and 29. There is a superb concert featuring the Memphis Trio with Ricky Lavazza on the Saturday night (Tickets are only €15) and a Rock-n-Roll Legends concert on the Sunday night where tickets are only €10. Amazing value. The Club will be going to Sunset Beach Club around 1.30pm on the Sunday where there will be a display of classic cars, some actually parked around the pool, and where there will also be a poolside Hawaiian BBQ available for only €20. There is a Rock-n-Roll theme and prizes will be presented for the best turned out car and crew. Rock-n-Roll style or Hawaiian shirts would be excellent!

Nearing the end of the following week, the Club has its first longer classic car event of 2017. The first day is Thursday, February 2. Called simply 'The Sherry Tour,' the four-day event will start just outside San Pedro, on the Ronda road, before heading to Ronda and then cross country to Puerto de los Galles and then on to finish with a dinner and night stop together near Vejer de la Frontera. On Friday February 3, cars head around the coast of Zahara, the Costa de la Luz, and on to the famous Trafalgar for coffee on the beach and then finish in Puerto de Santa Maria for the night. Here will be held a formal black-tie dinner in the most exquisite hotel in the area which has been completely taken over by the Club for two nights.

The following day, Saturday, is a rest day where the cars will probably be left behind and most will take the boat across to Cadiz, following in the recent footsteps of Rick Stein, to test as many tapas bars as possible. Dinner that night will be in the famous Michelin rated 'El Faro' restaurant. For those with enough appetite...

The Sunday sees a beautiful cross-country route back towards Benalup and then the Tarifa coast-road, finally finishing with a huge lunch near Algeciras. The Club has a very full entry for this it's annual opening event of the winter.

Moving on, there is a Club night and dinner at El Chaparral Golf in Mijas Costa on Tuesday February 7. Always a great evening, new members and guests are welcome. This will be followed on Saturday February 11 with a classic car run and lunch, ably organised by Steve and Lynne Robinson which, as always, will be a great day out. More info can be found on the Club website, www.cccandalucia.com.

One can join 'Online' here assuming possession of a classic car in Spain. What is a classic car? You may ask. That's something I'll cover and try to explain next time.

Meantime, a happy New Year to all classic car enthusiasts out there.

Ian Giles

FOOTBALL:

• I'LL start by congratulating Wayne Rooney who, last Saturday, earned Manchester United a 1-1 draw at Stoke with his 250th goal for the club, thus breaking Sir Bobby Charlton's record which has stood for 44 years. Also I congratulate Swansea for a terrific 3-2 win at Liverpool.

• Last night Liverpool (trailing 1-0 and looking to bounce back from that horrid defeat by Swansea) met Southampton in their LC semi-final second leg, while tonight Manchester United (2-0 up and unbeaten in 17 games) visit Hull in the other 'semi.'

• There are 16 fourth round FA Cup ties coming up, the pick being Derby v Leicester (tomorrow), followed by Chelsea v Brentford, Crystal Palace v Manchester City, non-League Lincoln v Brighton, Liverpool v Wolves, Middlesbrough v Accrington, Southampton v Arsenal and Spurs v Wycombe on Saturday and Manchester United v Wigan and non-League Sutton United v Leeds on Sunday.

• The top SPL games are Celtic v Hearts and Motherwell v Rangers (a repeat of last Saturday's cup tie). SL1 leaders Livingston play Brechin.

• In the PL next

Tuesday, it's Arsenal (2nd) v Watford, Liverpool (4th) v leaders Chelsea and Sunderland (bottom) v Tottenham (3rd), followed on Wednesday by Manchester United (6th) v Hull (again) and West Ham v Manchester City (5th).

• In the African Cup of Nations, Cameroon, Congo DR, Ghana and Senegal are eyeing up semi-final places and there are eight FA Trophy fifth round ties this weekend.

• £175m was spent in last January's transfer window... expect £200m to have changed hands when this year's 'window' closes next Tuesday.

Deals already include: Oscar (Chelsea-Shanghai SIPG, £60m); Gabriel Jesus (Palmeiras-Manchester City, £27m); Morgan Schneiderlin (Manchester United-Everton, £24m); Memphis Depay (Manchester United-Lyon, £16m+); Wilfred Ndidi (Genk-Leicester, £15m); Saido Berahino (WBA-Stoke, £12m); Jeffrey Schlupp (Leicester-Crystal Palace, £12m); Ademola Lookman (Charlton-Everton, £11m); Jake Livermore (Hull-WBA, £10m) and José Fonte (Southampton-West Ham, £8m).

• Manchester United, the world's richest club, banked £505m last season. Real Madrid and Barcelona earned £463.8m each, Bayern Munich £442.7m and Manchester City £392.6m.

• Last Saturday, FC Chapecoense (Brazil) played its first match since that horrific pre-Christmas Colombian air crash. They drew 2-2 with Palmeiras before a record 22,700 crowd as tears were shed and drums were banged throughout the 90 minutes. No one cared about fouls, misplaced passes or goals. This was the birth of a new team.

TENNIS:

• In the Australia Open, Sir Andy Murray and Novak Djokovic suffered shock defeats to Germany's Mischa Zverev (ranked 50th in the world, and 1,013th two years ago) and Uzbekistan's Denis Istomin respectively.

• Johanna Konta lost her quarter-final 6-2 6-3 to Serena Williams, but described the match as "the best experience of my life."

• Another Brit, Birmingham-born Dan Evans, beat two seeds, Marin Cilic and Bernard Tomic, before losing to Jo-Wilfried Tsonga.

• At the start of this week, Roger Federer, David Goffin, Rafael Nadal and Stan Wawrinka were looking strong, likewise GB's Johanna Konta who ousted Caroline Wozniacki on her way to a quarter-final clash with Serena Williams. Spain's Garbine Muguruza was also going well.

CRICKET:

• England lost the first two ODIs against India by three wickets and 15 runs but won the third, just, by five runs. Over 140,000 spectators attended the three encounters.

• The countries now play three T20 matches: today, on Sunday and next Wednesday.

RUGBY UNION:

• There were European Champions Cup wins last week for Clermont, Glasgow (43-0 at Leicester), Sale and Saracens, and in the Challenge Cup for Bath, Cardiff, Gloucester, Ospreys and Worcester.

• This weekend there's Anglo-Welsh Cup action.

FORMULA 1:

• AS soon as the $8 billion (€7.45 billion) takeover of Formula 1 was completed, Liberty Media announced that Bernie Ecclestone would, with immediate effect, step down as CEO and become Chairman Emeritus of the group.

Current chairman of Formula 1 Chase Carey who represents Liberty Media on the board will combine his current role with that of CEO and former Ferrari technical director and Mercedes team boss Ross Brawn who had been acting as a consultant to Liberty, has been appointed managing director of motor sports.

According to a statement by 86-year-old Ecclestone, who was at the helm of F1 for 40 years, to a German auto-sports magazine, he has been forced out, saying "I was dismissed. This is official. I no longer run the company. My position has been taken by Chase Carey."

There is no question that Ecclestone has transformed the sport and made the company into a multi-billion dollar brand, but with so much money invested in the takeover it is hardly surprising that the new owners want to have complete control at the top.

ROUND-UP:

• Ronnie O'Sullivan beat Joe Perry to claim a record seventh UK Masters snooker title.

• Welshman Alex Thomson, after 74 days at sea, finished second to Frenchman Armal le Cleac'h in the gruelling Vendee Globe round the world yacht race.

• England golfer Tommy Fleetwood won the Abu Dhabi Championship and Europe's 2018 Ryder Cup captain Thomas Bjorn can use four wild card entries to face America.

• The Finn, Valtteri Bottas, will partner Lewis Hamilton at Mercedes in this year's F1 races. Felipe Massa replaces Bottas at Williams.

• Carl Frampton (GB) fights Leo Santa Cruz for the WBA featherweight title in Las Vegas on Saturday.

• Last Sunday, skier Dave Ryding became the first Brit since 1981 to stand on the podium after taking silver in the World Cup slalom in Kitzbuhel, Austria.

SAD NEWS:

Although a tad late, I must say what a great sporting lady Baroness Rachael Heyhoe Flint was. Captain of England ladies 1973 World Cup winning cricket team and vice president of Wolverhampton Wanderers, Rachael died last week, aged 77. RIP maam.

BERNIE ECCLESTONE: Stepped down as CEO as soon as the takeover was completed.

TORREQUEBRADA golf course, in Benalmadena on Spain's Costa del Sol, opened in 1976. The course was designed by José 'Pepe' Gancedo, who has since designed many golf courses in Spain, the rest of Europe and in the States. Torrequebrada was host to the 53rd Spanish Open Championship in 1979.

A unique feature of this course is the variety of fairway design, which makes it important to choose the right club for each shot. The more intrepid player can test his skill on every hole, whatever his handicap. It would not be correct to draw attention to any particular hole as they are all part of the combined challenge presented by the landscape and nature itself.

The greens are notable for their size and speed. Strategically placed lakes and bunkers add to the course's challenge and interest. Over 100 varieties of shrubs and trees line Torrequebrada's fairways and every hole has a backdrop of the blue Mediterranean or the mountains. The clubhouse, with its panoramic views and privileged situation overlooking the 18th fairway, provides all the modern facilities that one comes to expect from a golf club of this category.

Terraces, reception rooms for private functions, dressing rooms, bar-restaurant, driving range and pro-shop.

Mijas Bowls Club Triples

AFTER the floods at the beginning of December which swept away the wall and the ditch of the rink nearest the river as well as disturbing foundations, the members stood on the green wondering if it was going to be possible to hold the Mijas Masters Triples Open Competition which was only five weeks away.

Mijas members do not give in without a struggle and after having the foundations looked at, and a lot of help from the club's 'Man Friday' Juan Jimenez, it was soon business as usual. Part of the green was roped off, five rinks were remeasured and remarked and made into six, a small temporary wall was built to represent the ditch and wrapped in plastic to prevent the scratching of any woods, so that, on Sunday January 15, 33 Triples took to the green and the Mijas Masters Triples had begun.

The first rounds were played in beautiful sunshine and there were some very close games which could have gone either way. The semi-finals, two very exciting games both won or lost by just one shot, were played on Wednesday morning in bitterly cold weather. One semi-final saw Mac Farlow, Barbara Bartlett and Juan Abeal from Benalmadena compete against Barbara and Tony Land of Mijas playing with Mike Detheridge from Miraflores. After eight ends

MASTERS TRIPLES: The winners on the day.

Mac's team was eight shots ahead, but then the game changed as Barbara's triple moved up a gear and gradually caught up until, after the 18th end, the scores were level. An extra end had to be played which Barbara's team won by one shot.

The other semi-final was an all Mijas game, with Tony Barnes, Jennie Parkin and Norman Holmes playing against Robert and Carol Wright and Ella More. It was the fourth end before Robert's triple scored, but by the 10th end they were five shots ahead. After 17 ends the score was 18 all, but on the 18th end Norman's team scored that all important shot to finish one shot ahead.

The weather had not improved by the time the final was due to be played. The all Mijas triple of Tony, Jennie and Norman was always behind, but almost made a valiant effort to catch up on the 17th end. However that was not to be and so Tony and Barbara Land with Mike Detheridge claimed victory by a margin of six shots.

As it was so cold and the players were almost numb the prize-giving took place in the clubhouse. Barbara, in her speech, thanked all those who had made the tournament run so smoothly.

CDS Crusaders

THE Annual General Meeting was held recently at Cartama Oval in the presence of the team members from Costa del Sol Crusaders.

The AGM was to appoint new committee members for the year and promote cricket on the Costa del Sol by finding new players for the upcoming season and encouraging more people to be involved with the game at Cartama Oval. The committee members appointed in the presence of team members were: president, David Cooper; secretary, Chris Batten; treasurer, Nick Harvey; Costa del Sol Crusaders captain, Jesper Hansen and vice captain, Matt Davey.

On Sunday Malaga CC notched up a comprehensive victory over Fuengirola Lions by five wickets at the Cartama Oval. Fuengirola Lions, having won the toss chose to bat first but were soon in trouble at 8 for 2 on a good batting wicket as Asif and Aslam made early inroads to put Fuengirola in trouble.

The third wicket partnership between Afzal and Ahmed put up a brief partnership to give them some hope. However some inconsistent bowling by Malaga in the middle overs amassing 32 wides didn't help as they were smashed all over the park by Shahid who scored 72 with huge hits over the boundary.

Ahmed then came on for Malaga and bowled brilliantly to dismiss Shahid to put an end to an entertaining show. The lower order batsman couldn't do much against Ahmed's brilliant line and length bowling, Fuengirola were bundled out for 176 in 27.3 overs, Ahmed finishing with 4 for 11 off 2.3 overs.

Chasing the target of 177 in 30 overs Malaga CC started poorly as they lost both their openers early on, as they were reduced two for 10 in the second over with good line and length bowling from Shahid and Asad. Inconsistent bowling then crept into the Fuengirola attack as they bowled a lot of extras which didn't help their cause. Some sensible batting by Waqas and Naveed made a partnership of 78 runs which kept them in the chase. And it was Waqas Ali who took them close to the target with some hefty blows at the end to help Malaga CC to beat Fuengirola Lions by five wickets with two overs to spare. Shahid Mahmood from Fuengirola Lions received man of the match for his all round performance.

Cartama always want to support up and coming cricketers. Get in touch via Facebook or on 631 449 561. They are also looking for sponsors so please get in touch if you can help.
