Park and hide New airport system fails to convince

By Matt Ford

The new pickup and dropoff system at Malaga airport has sparked an outcry less than 24-hours after it came into operation.

Car rental companies are outraged after airport bosses turned their former collection area into a public car park with 300 spaces in front of terminals two and three.

Large queues of traffic were in evidence after the updated system was rolled out on Tuesday, with many drivers unsure where to go.

After three months of work, the new car park, with five entrance lanes and seven exits designed to reduce congestion, allows 15 minutes of free parking.

Should this limit be exceeded, drivers will have to pay a fee in order to exit, but security officers were forced to leave barriers open permanently on the first day of operation as hundreds of cars became gridlocked.

President of the Andalucian Car Rental Association (AECA), Felix Pinar, said: "Many customers called us scared that they would miss their flights, and some just dumped their cars anywhere because there was nobody to help them.

"This is unheard of for an airport like that of the Costa del Sol and I think we are projecting a very bad image." AECA believe that the rental firms should be given a specific area as before. rather than being forced to share the space with private vehicles.

Yolanda Callado, manager of the Vehicle Rental Business Association, added that the new system has caused "tremendous chaos" despite it being modelled on successful ventures in Alicante and Bilbao.

The criticism comes after the airport announced that 4.67 million travellers have used its facilities over the first four months of the year, a 15 per cent increase on 2016.

This represents the greatest growth among Spanish airports in 2017, with Alicante trailing in second on 14.7 per cent and El Prat in Barcelona a distant third on 8.9 per cent, as Malaga appears set to smash last year's records.

Banderas backs off

Astoria project now abandoned

ANTONIO BANDERAS has abandoned the Astoria project in Malaga after receiving harsh criticisms and reportedly feeling humiliated by local opposition parties.

The multi-million euro refurbishment project aimed to transform two run down cinemas, the Astoria and Victoria, into cultural centres with theatres, acting and directing courses, funding for Malaga students, events halls and music and dance workshops.

Criticisms from left-wing Izquierda Unida's Eduardo Zorrilla and what the Malaga actor saw as general disinterest from Ciudadanos led to the star pulling out of the project.

Zorrilla said he "never insulted Banderas" and treated his team with the "utmost respect."

He added the Malaga-born star was simply trying to "make him into one of his movie villains. Zorro and the Zorrilla he could call it."

The Izquierda-Unida spokesman claims he was merely pointing out the project was not best suited for the people of Malaga as it would be giving away the best plot of land in the city.

The lead architect for the project, Jose Segui, reportedly does not know whether the refurbishment will go on now that Banderas has left.

Antonio Banderas said he believes that after the events it is clear that "Malaga doesn't have the right environment to develop this sort of project at this point in time."

> ANTONIO BANDERAS: "Not right to develop this sort of project at this point in time."

Girl seriously ill after balcony fall

A SEVEN-YEAR-OLD girl is said to be in a serious condition in intensive care after falling 10 metres from a balcony in Rincon de la Victoria.

The child, who was apparently playing with a friend when she fell, is on a ventilator and being treated at the Materno Infantil hospital in Malaga.

Neighbours say they alerted emergency services after hearing the girl's father shout "my girl, my girl." They then saw her lying on the ground, bleeding from her mouth and nose. She is thought to have regained consciousness before being transferred to hospital.

Police are now investigating whether structural deficiencies in the building led to her fall after initially stating that it was an accident.

He explained many locals donate, "personal objects to the museum to be part of our collections, something that undoubtedly benefits everyone."

The Nerja Museum, which opened in 2011, is sister organisation to the Nerja Caves, and is located opposite the town hall.

SPANISH FACTS OF LIFE...13

Ninety years ago next month the national carrier Iberia was founded, with King Alfonso X111 among passengers on the inaugural Madrid to Barcelona flight.

Still flying high at 90

THE first airline to connect Europe and South America with scheduled flights following the Second World War in 1946, the route remains a key part of Iberia's network to this day.

Six months after its founding with Pesetas 1.1 million (€6,600 equivalent today) full flight operations began, and within one year it was receiving a government subsidy to carry mail between the capital and Barcelona.

By its 75th anniversary in 2002 it had carried almost 500 million passengers on its domestic and international flights.

With Spain scrapping visa restrictions on US citizens in 1953 Iberia introduced regular flight connections with the first of three new Super Constellation planes delivered the following year named Santa Maria to commemorate Christopher Columbus' first voyage.

In February 1998, Iberia ordered 76 aircraft from Airbus - at the time the manufacturer's largest single order - and by the start of this year the airline boasted a fleet of 80 Airbus planes, with another 45 on order.

Iberia and fellow One World member carriers were allocated Terminal 4 at Madrid-Barajas Airport - the carrier's traditional hub - in 2006. This provided muchneeded expansion opportunities with the Spanish carrier responsi-

No memory of husband's murder

AN 85-YEAR-OLD woman accused of murdering her ill husband with a crutch has told a jury she does not remember attacking him.

The alleged killer is on trial for murder after her husband died from a head wound at their home in Rincon de la Victoria. Investigators initially believed the woman's account that her husband, who suffered from lung cancer, had fallen but became suspicious when they found blood stains on a crutch.

Prosecutors believe the woman waited until visiting family members had left and then attacked him. They claim she waited until he was resting on a sofa, and, 'taking advantage of his helplessness, which prevented any effective defence, she bludgeoned him with 14 blows from one of his crutches.'

Questioned in court, the woman claims she now cannot remember the incident, suggesting burglars may have entered the property and attacked her husband while saying, "I did not hit him with a crutch." If convicted, the woman faces life in prison. The trial continues.

AQUEDUCT: 2,000 years old.

HISTORY and legend fill Segovia, a walled medieval city topped with a fairy-tale castle.

Approach the city from any direction and the Alcazar de Segovia catches the eye. Once a royal palace, filmmaker Walt Disney was so impressed he is said to have modelled Sleeping Beauty's castle in Disneyworld in California on it.

Sitting in the rolling hills of Castile and Leon and built on a rocky outcrop with stunning countryside views, Segovia with a population of 52,000 is a modern vibrant city and home to an array of writers, artists, musicians and intellectuals.

A world heritage site, its singularly most famous attraction is the 2,000-year-old aqueduct. Still carrying drinking water as a testament to the efficiency and skill of Roman engineering, the aqueduct made of 25,000 granite blocks held together without mortar has an 818m span and more than 170 arches.

Recycling came early to Segovia, when the city was fortified with walls, not only were granite blocks used for the ramparts but also the gravestones taken from the Roman necropolis.

Inside the city to this day there are narrow cobbled streets now filled with bars and restaurants, boutique shops, art galleries, museums and churches. Explore at leisure and refuel on local specialities including roast lamb, suckling pig and trout.

OUR VIEW

Cancer never rests

EVERYONE hates cancer and despite spectacular strides to defeat it, the disease just won't go away.

To pay lip service to the fight against the disease is one thing but it is when it hits an individual family that it becomes so important and strikes fear into the hearts of those involved.

For every plucky little boy like Leo Bermejo and his dedicated family who have managed to raise enough money to allow him to have life-saving treatment, there are others who simply have to accept that their lives may come to a premature end.

Communities across Spain work so very hard to try to fight this disease and a large number of expatriates spend a great deal of time raising funds which see testing to detect cancer, support for those suffering from it, care in the event that it is terminal and direct donations for long term research.

Anything that can be done to try to fight this evil disease is to be applauded and just a few days ago, EWN received an offer from a reader to supply blood for 11-year-old leukaemia sufferer Serena Chappell in Mallorca following an appeal in the newspaper.

Cancer is indiscriminate and the next victim could be you or someone close, so anything you can do to help could just save a life.

Tax-break for recyclers

By Sally Underwood

VELEZ-MALAGA'S council is offering property tax discounts of €15 to €70 to residents who recycle old furniture at the appropriate collection points.

The council currently offers a free collection service through company, Althenia, but only on certain days of the week. They say residents ignore the collection schedule and are simply dumping their furniture on the side of the road, where it often languishes for days.

The council say they hope this new scheme will incentivise households not to abandon their old belongings and that anyone caught flouting the new rules will be fined anything between €90 and €300.

In addition, plainclothes police will soon be patrolling to fine those who continue to dump rubbish or fail to clean up after their pets.

Nervous brakedown by a 4x4

By Sally Underwood

A PARKED 4x4 came unstuck in Frigiliana when its handbrake gave way, sending the vehicle hurtling through railings and falling two metres over a wall onto the terrace of a restaurant.

By chance, the eatery's last customers had left just moments earlier, and there were no passers-by, preventing injury. The owner of the restaurant, which is located on Plaza Doña Ampara Guerrero, said "this will be an anecdote, but it could have ruined many lives."

He explained he came out and "saw the car smashed in. I didn't know what had happened; you're in shock." He added that eight of his 16 tables were wrecked in the smash but further damage was prevented because "the street is sloped and ends in a railing, which, because it is new, cushioned the blow and therefore only bowed."

He explained that although the railing and tables have now been replaced, "you can still see what could have happened."

The owner of a local hotel, who saw the accident, said, "we heard a rumble and saw a vehicle that was balancing on its bonnet. People thought it would carry on going."

The car's owner, who was working on his house in Frigiliana, was alerted and quickly came to the scene. A special crane was dispatched to remove the vehicle and debris and there were power and telephone outages for two hours.

Alejandro Herrero, Frigiliana's mayor, said it was a "real miracle" no passers-by were injured, saying, "luckily we don't have any injuries to report, which is the main thing. The rest can be fixed." Several photos of the smash have since circulated on social media.

Bombed icon returns to its religious glory

A STATUE of the Virgin Mary, which was affected by a recent church bombing in Velez-Malaga, has taken pride of place at a religious event last Saturday.

The icon had been the target of a Molotov cocktail, thrown by a 44-year-old man from Torre del Mar, in the Virgen de los Desemparados Church.

The man, who is thought to be mentally ill, threw the home-made explosive at around noon. The device failed to detonate, instead spilling fuel on the icon's robes. National Police officers located the alleged assailant after taking witness statements and sifting through CCTV images from the incident. On raiding the man's house, they found two other similar devices and arrested him.

The man has now been charged with property damage and religious hatred but has refused to make a statement to police.

The arresting officers confiscated four computers, two electronic tablets, an lsquopen-drive, mobile phone and clothing which were apparently worn in the attack.

The man has now been sent for psychiatric evaluation.

Priests from the church are now meeting to consider ways to prevent any similar incidents with CCTV and other security measures. Another organisation, Pasion Youth is now raising money to buy the icon a new petticoat.

Maria Jose Roberto, councillor for Sports, commented the camps, which will take place between the municipal swimming pool and Torre del Mar's Pabellon Maestro Salvador Sanchez, will "meet the demand of parents who can leave their children here after school with the security of being supervised. and also means children can practice different sports, have fun and learn by playing."

He added, "these camps are a unique experience for children and are fundamental for socialisation, as they create great bonds."

Camp will take place between 9am and 2pm over the course of a fortnight in July or August, costing €45. An additional class from 8am can also be booked, free of charge.

Sinkhole fixed

FRIGILIANA'S council have carried out repairs to a "considerable" sinkhole which posed a safety risk to the road linking the village with Torrox.

The works, which lasted around three weeks, took place in the El Pedregal section of the road, costing  $\in 8,400,40$  per cent of which was paid for by the council.

The council say the repairs mean a "significant improvement" in safety on a road used by hundreds every day.

The first clues to plane crash cause

A PLANE which crashed in the Sierra Tejeda two weeks ago, killing the three Germans on board, collided 'head-on' with the mountain, according to a report published by investigators.

The three were in the penultimate stage of an air rally from Alicante to Granada when they lost contact with air traffic control over Nerja. According to the report, it now transpires the three were only 10 minutes from reaching their destination but 'off-course' and caught in fog.

Agents initially checked whether the plane had landed in Granada, as expected, but despatched rescue workers when they found it had not.

Workers eventually found the wreckage in the Los Pradillos area, at around 1,718 metres above sea level, using Guardia Civil helicopters normally used to extinguish forest fires.

Investigators say the plane's debris was "scattered" across the mountainside from the impact's force.

The crash is just one of a recent spate to hit Axarquia. Last week, a plane belonging to a pilot school smashed through a fence at the end of a runway in Velez-Malaga, almost ending up in a riverbed.

The plane, which was carrying three people on-board, was travelling from Malaga to San Javier in Murcia when it made a stop at El Trapiche airfield in Velez-Malaga. For reasons as yet unknown the plane did not stop on the runway after landing, instead hurtling through a fence.

Those on board were unharmed although the plane suffered damage.

Two others were also killed on January 19 this year after their planes crashed after take-off in Velez-Malaga and exploded in an avocado farm.

| FIRST STEP: Towards highlighting struggle for equality.

Rescued girls meet senior politician

JIMENA RICO and Shaza Ismail, a young couple who were imprisoned in Turkey after fleeing homophobic persecution in Dubai, have met with Albert Rivera, the leader of political party Ciudadanos to discuss women's equality.

The girls spoke with the senior politician as a "first step" towards highlighting the "struggle" for equality amongst the LGBT community "in many countries."

The women, who are 28 and 22, became embroiled in an internationally-covered saga after flying to Dubai to visit Shaza's supposedly sick mother. Once there, however, it became clear Miss Ismail's Egyptian father wanted her to face trial for her sexuality, which is illegal in Dubai.

The couple fled to Georgia, where the man intercepted them, tearing up their travel documents. Police intervened and took the girls to the Turkish border, where they crossed over.

Turkish police soon caught up with them though, and imprisoned them on suspicion of terrorism without access to legal advice or phones.

The Spanish government became involved when Ms Rico's family called in police after losing contact with her. The authorities tracked them to a prison in Istanbul and quickly secured their release.

The girls, who say they are "shattered" by their experience, are now engaged. are planning on getting a dog, and have both been offered positions at the Funky Buddha Beach, a club in Marbella.

They have continued to share details of their ordeal, however, which they say involved being "spat at" and questioned about their sexlife by police in Turkey. The couple say they now want to highlight persecution of homosexuality.

General Election could hurt Nicola Sturgeon

IT would appear that Scotland's First Minister Nicola Sturgeon has accepted that there will be no second referendum on Independence prior to Brexit.

In various interviews she has continued to say that she wants to see Scotland remain in the European Union but accepts that it may have to be on a phased basis, possibly by becoming a member of the European Free Trade Association currently made up of Iceland, Liechtenstein, Norway and Switzerland.

Prior to this however there would have to be a referendum and Ms Sturgeon is anxious to protect the 54 seats that the SNP currently hold in the UK Parliament, as two MPs became Independents but still vote with the SNP.

Opinion polls which have been notoriously inaccurate of late are suggesting that the Tories are likely to be re-elected with a significant majority and could even eat into the SNP vote as the continued call for a second Independence referendum is possibly turning Scottish voters off.

Many have recognised that the United Kingdom will leave the EU regardless and therefore may consider that the Conservatives are more likely to be able to secure a better deal than any of the other parties.

The SNP leader wants to be party to the Brexit negotiations rather than simply be treated as an onlooker. She wants to be given information when the government calls the Joint Ministerial Committee comprising of Northern Ireland, Scotland and Wales, but any loss of seats in the General Election will be damaging to her aims.

Finding the right EU negotiator

ONE of the problems with the European Union and the eventual Brexit negotiations is that there seem to be too many spokesmen.

Apart from the 27 heads of state, there seem to be comments and ideas flowing in from Donald Tusk, President of the European Council, Jean-Claude Juncker, President of the European Commission, Guy Verhofstadt the European Parliament's chief Brexit negotiator and Michel Barnier the European Commision chief Brexit negotiator.

There are also plenty of other commissioners and MEPs who seem to be ready to put their observations into the hat which makes life even more complicated.

Once a new government is elected in the UK it is going to have to get to grips with whom to deal with and how to find its way through all of the red tape and argument without being sidetracked by possibly the wrong negotiator.

The whole unravelling of British membership is going to be difficult enough as it is and the British government needs to identify the smartest way to come to some form of agreement in order to make this an acceptable divorce rather than an unnecessarily acrimonious one.

Spanish clothing retailer for sale

Bv John Smith

CORTEFIEL is up for sale after registering a loss of €24 million over the last 12 months.

Originally a privately owned Spanish clothing retailer founded more than 100 years ago, it was sold to private equity firms PAI Partners, CVC Capital and Permira in 2005 when retail spending was at its highest.

Although Spanish competitors such as Inditex (owners of Zara and other retail outlets) and Mango have thrived during the ensuing years, Cortefiel has found the trading situation difficult even though it owns popular brands such as Women's Secret and Springfield.

Recently appointed Chief Executive Jaume Miquel believes that it will see a profit in 2018 but with a turnover of €1.13 billion it should be making a much better return even though it has spent a great deal in closing large stores and concentrating on opening new smaller shops.

There has been some recent signs of improvement in sales volumes in many of the 90 countries in which the group operates but owners have reportedly appointed Goldman Sachs to find a buyer before large bank loans are due for repayment in less than one year's time.

Some analysts believe that the group has ignored the younger market in Spain where it makes more than 50 per cent of its sales and current strategy is to improve penetration both with the young and trendy as well as the 45 to 55 age range.

Spain to assist poorer countries

THE Bank of Spain has agreed to lend $615 million (€568 million) to the International Monetary Fund (IMF) to assist poorer countries.

Although Spain is a regular borrower on world markets, this is the sixth loan that it has agreed to make to the IMF which will be made available to low-income member countries.

The country is one of the 10 earliest respondents to the IMF campaign to raise SDR 11 billion (€13.9 billion) to help countries currently experiencing financial difficulty. The SDR (Special Drawing right) is a paper rate managed by the IMF based on an average of five currencies.

Spanish budget looks good to European commission

AS the European Commission once again forecasts improved growth in Spain during 2017, the government has a fall back plan in place.

When publishing its budget for 2017, it deliberately decided not to follow the example of some other European states and indeed Catalonia by increasing taxes on sugary drinks or environmentally unfriendly activities.

The government is anxious to ensure that its budget does pass with as few ripples as possible and if it can meet European Commission targets it will once again evade any fines which could be quite significant.

The current plans call for a turnaround of  $\notin$ 9.3 billion which will be made up by a combination of increased taxation through additional workers being employed, earlier payment of IVA, reduced spending on pensions and general expenditure cuts.

SUPERMARKET DRINKS: Estimated that a tax on sugary drinks would bring in an extra €200 million pa.

As there is often a difference between forecasts and actuals, it must have appeared prudent to the Finance Ministry to highlight the fact that it might bring in two new taxes if the financial situation appears to be faltering. It is estimated that a tax on sugary drinks would bring in an extra €200 million per annum and green taxes could raise €300 million which would add €500 million to the national income.

All of this could however be of minor importance if the government is unable to find purchasers for a number of bankrupt toll roads throughout the country.

At one stage it was hoped that it would be relatively easy to find buyers for the roads, but as banks sold debts in order to cover their own financial exposure, so the number of creditors has increased.

Many toll motorways run parallel to free autovias so that drivers are not necessarily inclined to pay ever increasing toll charges which means that the owners of the toll roads find themselves in ongoing financial difficulty with little incentive for anyone to take over the operations and the risks.

Estimates concerning the cost to government of taking over the debts of struggling or bankrupt companies in this sector range from €3 billion to €5 billion.

Don Patricio saviour of FC Barcelona

WHILST it is now one of the most successful and profitable football clubs in the world, FC Barcelona owes its continued existence to an Irishman.

Patrick O'Connell who was the first Irishman to ever play for Manchester United moved to Spain in the late 1920s and became manager of a number of different clubs before spending a very successful four years with Real Betis (known then as Betis Balompie) leading them to their only La Liga title.

Thanks to this success, he was invited to take over as manager of Barcelona where they just missed winning the Copa de España in the 1935-36 season and then in the following season, La Liga was suspended due to the Spanish Civil War.

Nothing daunted, O'Connell accepted an invitation to take the Barcelona team to play exhibition matches in Mexico and the USA and made $15,000 which allowed Barcelona to clear all of its debts and continue following the end of the Civil War.

It has to be noted however that of the 16 players who accompanied him across the Atlantic, only four returned to Spain with the rest deciding to settle elsewhere.

The manager, known as Don Patricio remained with Barcelona winning the Lliga Catalana and he then moved to Sevilla FC, steering them to second place in the reconstituted La Liga.

REAL BETIS: Don Patricio bust is unveiled on the pitch.

Although he died in poverty in London in 1959, the former Manchester United and Ireland skipper has a bust on display at the Real Betis stadium and was honoured with a blue plaque at a former home in Albert Street in Belfast on May 12 this year.

Adidas drops out of the golf world

GOLFERS in Spain may be interested to know that Adidas has sold its struggling golf operations to investment firm KPS Capital Partners.

The German company which owns Adidas will receive €391 million for the business, which includes the golf brands TaylorMade, Adams Golf and Ashworth.

This seems a relatively small amount considering it has just reportedly signed a €92 million sponsorship deal with Rory McIlroy to promote TaylorMade equipment.

It was generally known that the golf division had been up for sale for some time as there had been a considerable drop in interest in the sport in one of its main markets, the USA since the decline of Tiger Woods.

Even in Europe it is suggested that the spend on golf apparel in particular has been in decline, although recent announcements in Spain have seen forecasts of additional courses being built in the Costa del Sol suggest that the sport is still popular here.

For some time, Adidas was the biggest supplier of gold equipment in the world but has decided that the return was no longer worth the investment.

Time for the Spanish tax returns and do not forget foreign assets

By John Smith

THOSE expatriates who live and work in Spain are required to submit a tax return of some type depending on residential status.

Those who are official residents in Spain will be subject to Spanish tax on their worldwide income but if a non-resident then you will only pay tax on your Spanish income together with an additional tax on the theoretical value of letting out any property you own, even if it is never rented out.

Spanish tax rates can vary across the provinces depending upon where you live and in addition, those working in Spain will be required to make a contribution to the Spanish Social security system although this is often deducted from salaries.

The Spanish tax year runs from January 1 until December 31 and the time has now arrived to submit tax returns if you are resident in Spain provided that your annual income from employment exceeds €22,000, you are self-employed, you receive rental income in excess of €1,000 per annum, you have capital gains or interest on income exceeding €1,600 per annum or if it is your first vear in Spain.

If you have to submit a tax declaration, you will also have to declare all assets abroad worth more than  $\in 50.000$ .

You will need to register to pay tax in Spain with the Spanish tax authority (Agencia Tributaria), whether you are a resident or non-resident. This information is an abbreviated explanation of the main requirements for registering for tax and should not be taken as a complete guide.

There are a number of highly reputable tax advisors and lawyers who advertise in this newspaper and can assist or information may also be obtained from local banks, local councils and the tax authorities.

Gibraltar denies tax evasion

THE director of the Gibraltar Finance Centre James Tipping has appeared before a European Parliament committee in Brussels.

He told the committee which is investigating tax avoidance that Gibraltar's finance centre was "small by European standards" but crucial to Gibraltar's economy.

Whilst fielding a number of hostile questions from Spanish MEPs, he made it clear Gibraltar has entered into numerous international agreements concerning transparency and money laundering. In addition he confirmed Gibraltar would share tax information with the EU later this year, although that may cease after Brexit.

Although technically not part of the brief of the committee, he responded to accusations by one Spanish MEP by denying that Gibraltar was a haven for cigarette smugglers especially as a great deal had been done to introduce strong legislation in this regard.

Losing mental capacity whilst living abroad

MANY UK expatriates living in Spain own properties in the UK and have pensions and investments in the UK. They rely on their UK assets to maintain their lifestyles (and those of their families) in Spain. If they can no longer manage their affairs in the UK due to a loss of mental capacity, it can cause many difficulties.

You can choose a person or people, who you trust, to act for you when you are no longer able.

The best way to avoid the legal and practical difficulties that can occur with the loss of mental capacity is to plan for it in advance by drawing up a document called a 'Lasting Power of Attorney' ('LPA').

An LPA must be made while you have full mental capacity.

What is an LPA?

An LPA is a legal document that enables you to appoint one or more attorneys to act for you when you are no longer able to act for yourself. Your attorney can be a professional, such as a solicitor or a family member or friend.

There are two types of LPA: 'Health and Welfare' or 'Property and Financial Affairs'

An LPA must be made while you have full mental capacity. It is therefore important to make one while you are in good health.

Why should you get an LPA?

You can choose a person or people, who you trust, to act for you when you are no longer able.

If you lose your mental capacity and do not have an LPA, then your family (or the authorities) will have no choice but to make an application to the Court of Protection to appoint a 'deputy' to look after your affairs, which can be time consuming and costly.

Will my LPA be recognised in Spain? Unfortunately there is no international type of LPA which is guaranteed to work in both the UK and Spain.

The advice we give to our clients at Stone King, is that if you have assets in both Spain and the UK, your only safe option is to appoint attorneys in both jurisdictions.

A very dangerous man indeed

AS sure as night precedes day and the Pope follows the teachings of Catholicism, the Blair person is now up and running.

As I predicted some months ago, this thick skinned, arrogant individual, who many consider an indictable war criminal, is now poised waiting to pounce. The omens of opportunity for this dangerous opportunist to present his 'new' alternative party, are all coming together like some ominous web waiting to engulf all who fail to see the trap.

This odious creature and his equally abhorrent mate, now see themselves presented with exactly the same set of circumstances they were confronted with when he commandeered the Labour party in 1994. His initial move has been to work on his personal public image. He now looks the part.

Tanned, toned and slightly greying at the temples, he presents the perfect picture of a supremely confident future party leader. Before him he sees the mouth watering prospect of a Labour party with a weak inept leader, that is coming apart at the seams, no other party with enough support to form any serious opposition and a public confused and uncertain with the outcome of their decision to leave the European Union. What better time to reveal that he, Tony Blair, has the answer to all its problems?

His opening political gambit has been to announce that the Brexit decision could be reversed. Brilliant. This statement alone could gain a new alternative party millions of followers. And that's just the beginning. When Labour is hopefully routed in the coming elections, disgruntled and despondent left wingers will flock to a party formed by an ex-Labour leader who successfully took them to victory on three separate occasions. Make no mistake Blair is a very clever and extremely astute individual.

Any man who begins his career in public service by becoming Prime Minister, when most aspire to that position only after many years in the political arena, is a very dangerous man indeed. As far as resources are concerned, I have no doubt that with the cronies he has accrued over the past number of years, his party funding pit will be all but bottomless. Unfortunately for Mr Blair, he has overlooked one glaring fact of life. Millions of UK subjects hate and despise him.

Many, including yours truly, consider him responsible for the death of thousands, and, along with Bush, the root cause of the whole Middle Eastern tragedy which resulted in the demise of millions. So, assuming the notoriously short memory span of the British public doesn't rear its ugly head, I'm afraid all this Antichrists efforts to regain power are doomed to failure. At least I sincerely hope so.

Meanwhile back at the old homestead, with ever increasing desperation, Corbyn is promising the British public... well just about everything. With not one suggestion, except for robbing the rich, to pay for any of it. All together now Jerry Corbyn, Jerry Corbyn, riding through the glen...

Nerja's top selling agent wants your property!

Mäklarringen has 70 offices in Sweden and has a strong client base from the Nordic countries. With the Swedish economy booming and currency virtually unaffected by Brexit the client base still has stable purchasing power, in contrast to buyers from a British pound environment.

"What we see in the market in all our offices on Costa del Sol today, after the huge drop in the British pound, is some English expats taking the decision to sell their property in Spain and move home to the UK.

"The typical scenario is property owners in their 60's or 70's realising that the pound denominated pension is worth 15 per cent less in euros and when selling their property in Spain THE TEAM: We offer your property the most exposure they gain 15 per cent more in pounds when moving back home, compared to exchange rates before Brexit.

"It's a window to move back home that many can't resist and typically the buyer for the property is Scandinavian, a resource Mäklarringen has an abundancy of," said Thomas Malm, partner at Mäklarringen Costa del Sol.

"For us, the market is totally different today than just 18 to 24 months ago. The Swedish property market has been booming for some time and most property owners can easily finance a holiday home with a second mortgage on their property in Sweden.

"This has turned the situation around so that today, we are experiencing a severe lack of properties and an abundance of buyers.

"This has changed a lot more rapidly than we ever expected. We have had to hire listers that are actively looking for the right property every day of the week, but we are still struggling to satisfy the demand."

To have a free consultation regarding a possible sale of your property, please call 952 523 236 or e-mail us at costadelsol@maklarringen.se or visit us in our Nerja office on Avenida de Pescia 13 (the Supermercado Iranzo roundabout) between 10 and 6, Monday to Friday.

Mäklarringen is the fastest growing Scandinavian Real Estate agent on the Costa del Sol. We have 70 offices in Sweden and have been in Spain for more than 10 years. We offer your property the most exposure to the Northern European Markets.

Meet Phil at HiFX: here to help with international money transfers

HIFX is delighted to introduce the newest member of its Spanish Team. Phil Barrion has joined as Business Manager for the Costa Del Sol, supporting businesses and their clients with international foreign exchange requirements.

Phil recently moved to the area from Berkshire, England, and now lives in Nueva Andalucia, Marbella. We asked him how he came to be with HiFX and his hopes for the future:

"For the last 10 years I have been working in and around London for a wellknown bank. I gave all my clients a unique and personalised service for all money related matters. I loved working in and around London but I have always wanted to work abroad.

"With a Spanish wife and frequent holidays in southern Spain, I fell in love with the country, the people and lifestyle. I knew at some point I would end up here. I have also known about HiFX for a number of years, as my wife used to work for them. They are well-known in the UK and have a hard-earned reputation for bank beating rates, ease of use and first class customer service.

"When my son was born last May I had to rethink my work and life priorities as leaving at the crack of dawn and coming home late most nights wasn't fair on my new family. When the opportunity to move to and work in Marbella for a company I respected came up, it was just too good an opportunity to turn down!

"I am very much looking forward to the future here at HiFX Europe, as there is so much in the pipeline to be excited about. As part of Euronet, which also owns Ria Money Transfer and XE.com, we are now the third largest international payments provider in the world! Within my new role I can't wait to establish long-term commercial partnerships with existing and new clients to help them save time and money.

"I look forward to meeting and working with lots of new people and businesses!"

To find out more about HiFX and its bank beating exchange rates please call Phil on 0034 951 203 986 or visit www.hifx.co.uk/marbel la

Brits are flocking to Spain in droves for sun, sea & safety

NOW is the time when you really start to see them. Tourists, I mean. After all, they're the easiest to recognise as a species. They're the pasty-looking white blobs on the beach - unless the sun's setting when they're red as lobsters and being given the kiss of life by paramedics.

If the weather suddenly turns wintry, they're still dressed for summer. In summer, they're the ones who amble about the stores and streets virtually naked. Much as we wouldn't want to be identified as tourists, we can't do without them because otherwise the economy would slump even further.

Tourists could never be confused with two other species you come across in Spain. The newly arrived expats and the long-term expats. The former you'll see enthusiastically attending every Spanish class, Flamenco, bullfight, obscure feria and club imaginable.

TOURISTS: The easiest to recognise as a species.

Whereas long-term expats are the complete opposite and the most difficult to spot. They dress like the Spanish, wear summer clothes only in summer and dress more formally in town (well, not in swimwear anyway). Like the Spanish too, they've learned to accept the way of life in Spain. Mañana really does mean, ahem, mañana.

Now, with all the Roman ruins - villas, roads, marketplaces - being unearthed here, it struck me that the Romans were among the earliest tourist species. You can just imagine them, can't you? Hurtling along the carreteras to the nearest encampment in their horse-drawn chariots. Holding up traffic at the roundabouts. Counting out their silver denarii coins in the markets. Overseeing another luxury villa reforma.

Before heading over the Alps into Italy, Hannibal started out in Spain when he arrived from Carthage with his lines of noseto-tail elephants. So is all the TAIL-gating we now observe among Spanish drivers yet one more vestige of those bygone days?

Give a final thought, though, to Strabo, an extremely unlucky general who not only suffered miserable defeats, but died of the plague during one disastrous campaign. Just as he was about to expire, lightning struck his tent and burned it to the ground. So, not a happy camper either.

You can bet on anything

I'M not really a gambler - although many would disagree with me. I might have 20 euros on the Grand National, but that's it. When I was working I used to go to Las Vegas twice a year, which I did for over 20 years. I never played the tables or the slots. Now the reason many would say I am a gambler is because I play poker everyday either online or live.

Sometimes I win and, of course, sometimes I lose, but I feel I'm in control. Sure there is an element of luck but there is also a lot of skill involved. I can win by convincing someone my hand is better than theirs by bluffing.

I know when it's time to get up and quit whether I'm winning or losing. This brings me to the point of this week's grump. I think it's disgusting the amount of advertising there is on TV for gambling offering free money and making it look glamorous. They show Champagne corks popping and they show everyone winning and at the bottom they put a little note saying something like 'when it stops being fun quit.' What a lot of nonsense!

Gambling ads should be treated the same as cigarette and alcohol advertising. It's a 'drug' and it's addictive and should be treated as such. I actually think the advertising should be banned. What the adverts don't show is the damage that gambling can do. In the UK there are machines in betting shops called Fixed Odds Betting Terminals (FOBT). These machines are the crack cocaine of the gambling world! You can put your credit or debit card in and play up to a £100 every few seconds.

You should look on YouTube and watch people smashing up places when they have been financially wiped out. You can now bet on anything. You can even bet on things losing and this opened up a whole new can of worms. It's all about greed. These multi-million pound betting companies just never have enough. They won't limit what you can lose but have a few winning bets and see how quick they decline your business.

I remember years ago being given this tip about playing the slot machines in Vegas. I was asked where I thought the best place was to win. I guessed it would be at one of smaller hotels, only to be told the best pay outs were in the Arrivals part of Las Vegas airport. This, of course, makes sense as it gives you the winning flavour and you experience how much fun it's going to be. Of course, the worst pay outs are in the departure area! You are leaving so jog on and thanks for your last few dollars!

TAURUS 🔀 (April 21 - May 21)

The urge to get ahead at as fast a pace as possible is apparent this week. Some would say not before time. However, you know the art of choosing the moment and it has not been until now that you have felt the time was right. This is a truly expansive week and one in which your powers of imagination are given full rein. No wonder you are being admired.

> yourself. Do not be at the beck and call of others when you need all your time and energy for yourself.

AQUARIUS 🔀

(January 21 - February 19) Such is your popularity this week that you can be assured of success in many things. Remember that first impressions can be the most accurate and don't be tempted to make too many allowances for others.

PISCES H

(February 20 - March 20)

For some time you have been trying to settle a certain matter. Although it is in vour nature to get things out of the way quickly, this has not been possible. The chance to make progress this week is welcome but be sure that all is not what it seems

ARIES (March 21 - April 20)

A friend of long standing comes up with some bright ideas to get you out of a tricky situation. Don't be surprised. You have for a long time now underestimated their worth. Your friend will be surprised when you show your gratitude in an immediate and physical way, but if there is anything better than finding a new friend it is finding an old friend has hidden talents.

GEMINI I

(May 22 - June 21)

Someone close gets a real stroke of luck this week and no doubt the benefits will rub off on you. It seems that some fortune will come your way by the end of the month and lead you to see a situation in quite a different light. Any travel should be left until the beginning of next month if possible because there are likely to be delays and irritations.

LEO (July 24 - August 23)

Someone you have been holding at arm's length recently is insisting on getting closer. Charm and tact alone may not save the day, but enlisting the help of a friend could. Travel and career are well-aspected and, if you are expecting a financial windfall, you may have a bit longer to wait.

VIRGO

(August 24 - September 23) The hard work you have been putting in recently has left you tired and, at times, quite tetchy. This week you will start to see the rewards of your efforts which will undoubtedly help you to keep up the momentum. There is a lot of both passion and travel this week, which is set to continue.

Driven to distraction

WHEN are drivers in Spain going to stop tail-gating (following the car in front so closely)?

I spend part of every summer enjoying the weather in Spain rather than coping with the more drab surrounds of Suffolk in the UK where I live for the rest of the year.

But I feel that I take my life in my own hands, especially when using the motorways, especially during rush hours.

No sooner do I try to adhere to the speed limits than I find someone approaching from behind, flashing their lights, or tooting their horns, wanting to pass... even though I am driving at the top speed limit legally allowed.

If I try to ignore them, many then try passing on the inside!

Not all the offenders are Spanish, but a great number of them appear to be.

The majority are good drivers, but the motorways of Spain are not racetracks, and should not be treated as such.

THE voting age of 18 years is fine as it is Loopy. It's immaterial that voters of that age don't remember Labour coming in to power.

They are no doubt sick to the back teeth of listening to their parents moaning about My Team May, (My God, so 90's), Cringe-Worthy Cambo and the infamous ConDems before them.

SIR, Your columnist Nora Johnson and the reader who wrote to letters (Issue No 1660) seem to relish our departure from the EU and applaud the PM for calling a snap election. I write to point out the disastrous decision of my countrymen who voted last June in favour of an exit.

We import half our food, so look forward to the doubling of the cost of living, hundreds more food banks, loss of financial services and tariffs imposed on British goods thus reducing our foreign earnings. Expect to see further weakening of sterling and the cost of a family holiday increase by about 25 per cent that does not take into account any cost imposed via travel visas... that alone might add £40 to the family of four budget.

By the way, fewer treats for Mum and Dad, back to one bottle of spirits and 200 cigarettes to bring home from holiday.

And and the for-

DISASTROUS DECISION: Voting for an exit.

The anti-Europeans in the Conservative party have in my opinion committed a treasonable act... they begged to be allowed to join the single market saying Britain will be more prosperous and 40 years of free trade later convinced the public we would be prosperous if we left.

The reason we are less prosperous in 2017 than we were in say 2009 is solely due to a Government that has imposed austerity on us all. The tax rate is the highest it has ever been and benefit cuts have plugged deficit holes in the budget. The national debt is approaching £2 trillion; it was £1 trillion in 2010.

My apologies for a lengthy communication ....but I feel people should know we are heading over a cliff.

» Three dead after drunk driver hits cyclists

For God's sake ... why only manslaughter? Why not MURDER?

If 'murder' became the obligatory charge for killing-with-a-motorcar it might at least deter a few people from driving when drunk.

And what about the bar owner who allowed this woman to get in her car and drive away on her killing spree?

As a Brit I very much liked Copenhagen a few years ago - and possibly still today: bar owners and their staff were BY LAW required to ascertain who, in a group, would be the intended driver at the end of an evening ... and would allow them only two alcoholic drinks - and then only coffee or soft-drinks after that. And a would-be driver on his/her own who had been drinking would be asked for their car-keys and sent home by taxi. Everyone seemed to accept all this ... and in fact seemed much, much happier for such carefulness.

But in Spain today, I suppose, it would very likely be viewed as interfering with a barkeeper's trading rights! Oh my!

» Blue flags for Spain's beaches

We are very happy to read the great news about having the clearest beaches in the Comunidad Valenciana BUT do you know that in this Comunidad people burn in the open air like their ancestors did when hardly anyone was living on this coast! Some days the air is unbreathable in some areas especially when they burn plastic and other things mixed in the green waste! It's even worse when they burn during temperature inversion and the smoke cannot escape because of low clouds of humidity!

Why don't they recycle, make compost etc... it would create jobs, give us cleaner air, respect our planet and our health.

Maybe the name Costa BLANCA comes from WHITE smoke??!!

Thank you for making people aware of this problem because they need the tourists, the expats for their economy so why don't we send letters to the Medio Ambiente of the Comunidad Valenciana asking them to prohibit these fires like they already have in other Comunidades and recommended by the GObierno de España and the European Common Market.

What is eczema?

HFAITH

Eczema is a prolonged chronic skin disorder that consists of pruritic and scaly eruptions.

What are its symptoms? The changes in the skin's condition can include: Blisters that burst and form scabs, dry skin all over the body or bumps on the backs of your arms, bleeding from your eyes and itchy raw skin.

Other symptoms include changes in skin colour, reddening of skin or inflammation around blisters from scratching or prolonged irritation.

What causes it?

Atopic dermatitis is a skin reaction. People with the condition can be more sensitive due to their skin missing certain proteins that form a protective barrier against water. It is most common in babies and can even start in two-six-montholds.

Most people overcome the condition as they enter their adult stages.

People who have atopic dermatitis also tend to suffer from asthma or hay fever. The condition can run in fam-

International Museum Day

TODAY sees museums around Spain celebrate International Museum Day, which this year has as its theme 'Museums and their controversial stories: Tell the Unspeakable.'

The Archaeological Museum of Frigiliana (MAF), has been commemorating this day in various forms since its inauguration in late 2009, and this year is putting on two free guided tours of the town's archaeological remains, according to councillor for Culture, Carmen Cerezo.

Those attending will learn about the history of Frigiliana from its first settlers to the present day. The exhibit will take in Neolithic pieces, whose most significant sample is the skull of a child found in the cave of Los Murcielagos, dating from 5000 BC. Other artefacts, such as a Moorish dagger from the 16th century will be on display, including the exhibit's most complete finding; the Phoenician vessels from the town's iron age necropolis, Cerillo de las Sombras.

Have you, or anyone you know, got what it takes to be a 'Master Chef'

GOOD FOOD, GOOD WINE AND GOOD FRIENDS WITH GARRY WAITE

EGULAR READERS WILL KNOW that I and many other foodies around the world are occasionally captivated by 'cooking programmes,' not least the franchise that is Master Chef. This ever popular TV show was originally fronted by the most annoying Llovd Grossman, whose voice always sounded like a mix of Canadian and a Norfolkian (Norfolker?) But today and for the last 13 years, it's a full on cooking and entertainment show hosted by Aussie Chef John Torode and probably the best known 'Grocer' in the UK, Gregg Wallace.

This year's final was last week and the winner came as a surprise. The last four, consisting of

The three Master Chef finalists.

London muso/DJ Steve Kielty, Giovanna Ryan from an Italian family background, Alison Reilly, the attractive Irish girl with a passion for those things different and Saliha Mahmood-Ahmed the shy junior doctor from Watford with Pakistani parents.

Saliha, who sincerely described herself as the most boring person you could meet, (if you can call pretty, doctor, wife, mother and brilliant cook 'boring' - bring it on!) impressed judges Torode and Wallace as well as invited food critics and guest Michelin starred chefs with her take on traditional Indian dishes and flavours and turning them into extraordinarily modern dishes. Up until Alison lost out to the other three, I thought she would be in the final and with Steve would be the favourites.

But it was not to be and having watched the final I could feel Sal-iha coming to the final hurdle and jumping over it with some ease and I could see the anticipated crowning changing places. 'Hats off' (or Chapeau to use a 'cheffie' word!) to all contestants, particularly, the last four. All showed great skill and knowledge and more importantly, passion, for food. I have seen highly paid 'professional' chefs who would have found it difficult to produce some of the dishes that they all produced.

Time for a culinary break until the next moreish programme, will it be Celebrity Master Chef, Professional Master Chef or Junior Master Chef. America, Australia, Spain??? The franchise keeps going and goes to prove 'there's money in them there sauce pans' - be it in restaurants or on TV. Bon appetite!

The prestigious five-red-AA-star Old Course Hotel, Golf Resort & Spa in St Andrews, Fife.

ANYONE WHO TELLS YOU that living on a golf course is quiet obviously doesn't live on one!! I have lived in Guadalmina, near Marbella, on front line golf for 15 years. Don't get me wrong during the day it is extremely tranquil if, with any noise at all, only the very distant sound of the traffic. But, and I can set my watch by it, in the morning at 7.00am all the machinery start their day's toll. And they all seem to drive past my windows.

This cacophony continues in varying degrees, according to which part of the course they are on, for about an hour. The other noise is of course the watering of the course. Giant irrigation sprays whizz around beating drums on the leaf filled trees. My apartment is on two floors, both with ample terraces, but being a duplex it means that there is an apartment below me, so you can imagine how high the top terrace is from the ground. But over the years I have collected more than 60 balls from said terraces and have also had two cracked windows caused obviously by the erratic 'driving' of the fanatical golfers as they compete.

What, for the life of me, I cannot work out is how anyone can hit a ball up to 15 metres high but manages to get a bend on it that has to be as much as 90 degrees to the left!!

THE REASON FOR THIS STORY is that I read with interest and amusement that the five-red-AA-star Old Course Hotel, Golf Resort & Spa in St Andrews, Fife, has just completed a £10m, three-month refurbishment which includes a rubber roof to prevent ongoing damage from golf balls!! As the hotel sits alongside the 17th road hole of the renowned Old Course, the roof is frequently damaged by dents and cracks from flying golf balls

As well as the new roof from Euroshield, work has also been completed on the decoration of 103 of the 144 bedrooms and the replacement of the hotel's windows. I wonder how many of them were damaged by wayward balls!? Obviously if golfers on this prestigious course can hit the roof of a six-storey building they will have to have even greater abandonment than those who play Royal Guadalmina. While playing golf today I hit two good balls. - I stepped on a rake."

Henny Youngman, Comedian

If you think it's hard to meet new people, try picking up the wrong golf ball." Jack Lemon, Actor Comedian

> MY WINE CORNER THIS WEEK has to relate to the wine mentioned in my 'client' below.

The wonderfully named 'Nice to Meet You' is not just a gimic. The wine from the Rias Baixas domaine is not 100 per cent Albariño as one would hope and probably expect, but with 40 per cent of that grape and a blend of 30 per cent Godello and 30 per cent Treixadura this crisp, somewhat dryer than normal, wine from Adegas Castrobrey has intensity on the nose and a racy acidity which couple to bring forward stone fruit and fennel aromas on the palate.

Represents good value at €15, is quaffable, but at that price perhaps better with dinner. Shellfish, oysters and subtle fish should go well.

I'M HELPING A CLIENT in their restaurant at the moment.

On the first evening I was in watching how the operation went, I was surprised that the very charming and good looking Argentinian waiter, Juan, seemed to be receiving lots of kisses from the female clientele. Knowing that he had only started a couple of days previously I was intrigued that he seemed to be on such affectionate terms with so many female guests. That was until I found out the password for the WiFi connection was 'give me a kiss and I will tell you.' Clever!! And memorable!

With a wine on the list from the Rias Baixas called 'Nice to Meet You' there are plenty of quirky things about this place!

> The wine with the wonderful welcome.

ON THAT NOTE I will bid you farewell until next week and should aspiring restaurateurs need some help or advice, please do not hesitate to contact me. A toast to Good Food, Good Wine and Good Friends.

My own private patio

902 123 309

CREATING your own patio can provide a calm and inviting space for private moments.

Before you begin, make sure the area is level and positioned in full sun and there should be an area of about two to three square metres across for two chairs and a small table. If a dining table and four chairs are to be used: then an area of four to five square metres is required.

The next stage is to visualise the area with string or hose pipe and decide on the shape, which can be a uniform square rectangle or more of a free form. It is crucial that the area is flat and level and dig down 10 to 20 centimetres, removing turf, soil and any debris from the area. It is also important to make sure that all rocks are removed; otherwise, the patio blocks may crack.

Add a few centimetres of drainage material to cover the area. This can be a three quarter crush, a type of screened gravel, which because of the sharp edges, can be compacted while still retaining the properties of drainage material. It is recommended you rent a tamper for a large area and use a hand tamper for a small area.

To install the paving stones, layer fine sand or small gravel to make the layers for flagstones or pavers, using a long bubble level. Concrete pavers or bricks that are the same thickness are easier to make level.

Finally pour some of the sand over the top of the pavers and sweep into in between the pavers, it makes it easier to get weeds out, or to even plant some moss or thyme. The last job is to water lightly a few times to wash the sand down into the crevices and you're finished.

Weeping Mulberry - a beautiful deciduous small tree for berries

LATE spring is a time to start harvesting berry fruits.

If you are lucky enough to grow strawberries in your garden or in containers with a good soil mix, you will be rewarded with a fantastic harvest of delicious berries that many commercially grown berries cannot match, that is, if you can beat the birds and bugs. While I grow strawberries for their unique taste, it is a lot of work to ensure that the berries ripen fully without being damaged.

Another source of berries is the wild or cultivated blackberries that can be fun to collect in the early morning or evening if they are available in your local rural area or the garden. It is worth the effort if they are of good quality but the thorns can be a menace when trying to pluck the best berries deeper inside the bush.

Another good source of berries is the mulberry tree. The fruit is delicious and plentiful if vou can find a tree to harvest but a mature tree is usually so tall that only the lower branches can be accessed. If you have it in your garden the excess fruit becomes very messy as it falls and the birds spread the seed resulting in mulberry trees emerging all around the garden.

The pollen from mulberry trees can also be very allergenic to susceptible people.

A great solution to to obtaining bountiful white, red or black berries with minimal effort is to have a grafted weeping mulberry (Morus alba pendular). One weeping mulberry can provide you with all the berries you could want, the branches grow towards the ground so harvesting is easy. The fruit form along the branches and can be reached with ease for weeks of a prolific harvest and with no prickles to avoid.

Pruning is easy as you just need to keep the branches from reaching the ground. I prune them to about one metre off the ground. They grow quickly again so it may need pruning two to three times a year.

The trees are very hardy once established and require minimal watering, except if in a container and just a good mulch of organic material over summer to keep the roots cooler, retain moisture in the soil and have a source of nutrients as it breaks down.

The compactness of the tree makes it easy to fit into the garden without taking over and they can even be grown in a large container if garden space is not available.

The tree looks fantastic and as it grows the branches form a canopy that allows you to go underneath the branches.

where the fruit is very visible to harvest and children can use it as a cubby house or hideout.

What's new pussycat?

CATS communicate in so many ways and the longer you're with them; you get to understand what they want and what they are trying to communicate

Every cat, like a human is unique and all of them have different personalities, but there is a general body language that's useful to know. Cats talk to us through their vocalisations, facial expressions and their body movements.

Cats are languid creatures that lie around for most of the day and can sometimes have you wanting to come back as one in your next life!

They are special animals in their ability to be a mixture of independence but also be a close member of the family, but it is always on their own terms.

Anyway, you can be sure they are content when stretched out on their back and rolling over, but a highly defensive mode can take on this posture with extended claws and sharp teeth, preparing to fight, so beware.

When your cat is blinking very slowly, it's not feeling drowsy and ready for another catnap, it's being affectionate, so return the affection by doing the same and your bond will become stronger. It also shows they trust you.

UNIQUE: Talk through body language.

Why puppy classes?

David THE Dogman Listen to David on TRE every Saturday 10am to 11am Costa del Sol (Gibraltar/Sotogrande) 98.7fm (San Roque to Calahonda) 91.9fm (Calahonda to Motril) 88.9, Costa Calida 92.7fm

Costa Blanca (Torrevieja to Elche) 105.1fm (Elche to Calpe) 88.2fm, (Calpe to Gandia & Ibiza) 104.6fm (Denia to Valencia) 95.3fm Mallorca 103.9fm

I HOPE you have not purchased a puppy off the internet or pet shop, if so expect your puppy to have health problems.

If you have answered a newspaper advertisement I hope you saw the mother. If you have a puppy I hope your vet recommended a good puppy class for you to attend, if not then in my opinion you have the wrong vet.

Your new member of the family is cuddly, pretty and being spoilt! Your puppy is making toilet mistakes and possibly starting to chew up anything in sight!

The main problem is if the truth be known you really do not know anything about your new member of the family. It is well recorded that one of the most attentive times is when you buy your puppy.

You will listen and remember what was told to you by the 'breeder' who often knows very little about health, feeding, behaviour or training. Most if not all have no qualifications and the end result is that you are doing most things wrong.

Your next outing will be your first visit to the vet for inoculations and an examination. You will most probably buy a collar and lead, believe me it will be the wrong type, and toys, please do not buy a harness. Your vet should be familiar with local training schools and should recommend you to a puppy class which is vital for both you and the puppy's future. A vet that does not recommend a puppy class (many run their own puppy classes) is really out of date therefore seek

So what is a puppy class? Many people do not think it important to go to a puppy class, however in my opinion it is vital to attend and is good for your morale as you realise you are not alone in your suffering.

There is so much you need to know and a good class will first calm you down as well as your puppy. You will now realise that your puppy is perfectly normal and you will be given so much information about correct feeding, handling, advice on the correct collar and leash as so many of you do get it wrong.

At this stage toys are vital but again the correct toys and you will be shown how to play and exercise your pet.

It is important that the class provides you with strategies to get him to do what you want kindly and constructively, and show what is going on in your puppy's mind when he demonstrates unwanted behaviour.

You now get to see other puppies and owners and will quickly realise that this is good for you and your puppy.

There are a number of puppy schools being run by excellent trainers but many have no qualifications at all. Often a good trainer is a lot more than a row of qualifications. There are also many with backgrounds such as police and military who often find it difficult to transfer to pet dog ownership, in fact I have many ex-

police colleagues who confess they cannot teach the public.

It is always a good idea to visit a puppy class and see if the puppies are being taught what you want yours to learn. People and puppies must be relaxed and happy. You must listen to how questions and concerns are addressed and whether homework is set (it should be), are there assistants to help with the class in case anyone needs one to one help?

Socialisation is very important as your puppy must now learn about sounds, smells, cars, roads and, most important, to be allowed to sniff and play with other puppies and dogs which are under the control of their owner.

A good trainer will also ensure you get plenty of homework and be assured they will know if you practice that with your new member of the familv.

I hope you enjoy your dog as much as I enjoy my dog. Yes, it does take a lot of work but think about a child; it is better they go to a nursery and once there the child learns to play and interact with others, this my friends is what you are doing with your puppy. Good luck.

Magic sales milestone passed

SPAIN'S thriving property market has a new record to enjoy. The latest official statistics in for March detail that 40,461 homes were sold. an increase of 26.9 per cent on February. It is also the highest figure since February of 2011, more than six years ago, when just over 45,000 homes changed hands.

The data from Spain's National Statistics Institute shows that sales have now increased for 14 consecutive months. February's increase was small at just 1.2 per cent but, with spring fully underway, March registered a healthy 13.6 per cent increase.

The accumulated increase from the first quarter of 2017 now stands at 15 per cent while we await figures from a reportedly excellent April.

Sales figures have been solid across the board. New home sales rose to 7,361 in March, an increase of 21.2 per cent year-on-year. Second-hand home sales performed even better, jumping up by 28.3 per cent to reach 33,100 separate transactions.

A figure that high has not been seen for almost 10 years, since September 2007.

Broken down by regions, Valencia, the Balearic Islands and Andalucia topped the sales charts regarding number of transactions per inhabitant. In terms of sheer sales volume Andalucia came out top with 7,976

NEW RECORD: The highest number of property sales has taken place since February of 2011.

sales, well ahead of Catalonia and Madrid.

Idealista expert Fernando Encinar says that surpassing 40,000 sales in March is a 'milestone' in the market's normalisation. He also noted that, despite a two-speed market still existing, all autonomous communities across Spain have seen sales increases so far in 2017.

Supply versus demand

RISING property prices have led to suggestions that demand is far outstripping supply, especially in Spain's major cities. Rents are increasing sharply on an almost monthly basis in Madrid and Barcelona.

But some data tells a different story. Madrid actually has more rental offers on apartments than Brussels, Berlin and Amsterdam combined. There are 10.098 rental ads in the Spanish capital, just a few hundred below London which offers 10,683 rooms and apartments.

Only London surpasses Madrid in the EU for the total volume of rental ads. In Paris the figure drops to 8,883, in Rome 6,244. Barcelona comes sixth with 6,783 ads listed online.

The figures suggest that, despite a feeling there is a housing shortage, Spanish cities have more supply than other major cities on the continent.

But that doesn't change the fact of rising rents. They have soared in Barcelona to pre-crisis levels despite wages not catching up. In 35 of the city's 75 neighbourhoods, the average monthly rent exceeds the monthly salary of someone on minimum wage.

Property wealth

LANDLORDS and property empire chiefs are the largest cohort in Britain's latest billionaire rich list.

The Sunday Times Rich List published this May shows that more than one in four of the country's richest people owe their success to the property market.

Of the top 100 listed, 26 individuals consider property to be the defining source of their wealth. Property investors account for 164 of the top 1,000 wealthiest people. Taken together the wealth of Britain's property kingpins stands at almost €200 billion.

More so than banking or the huge service industry, or even the arms trade, property is the backbone of contemporary British wealth. Across the country property assets are valued at a total of almost €7 trillion.

ROAD TEST by Nick Fletcher

Skoda Yeti SE L Outdoor

SKODA'S Yeti was introduced in 2009 and was one of the pioneers of the compact family SUV models. While the sector has expanded rapidly since then, the Yeti has been extensively updated and can still compete with its younger rivals.

Recent newcomers include the Peugeot 3008, Suzuki Vitara, revamped Nissan Qashqai and - from VW's own stable the SEAT Ateca, and while the boxy Yeti isn't as sleekly styled as these contenders, it still scores highly for family practicality and its easy everyday driving feel.

Most buyers will opt for the Yeti in two-wheel-drive form, though there is a 4x4 version, and there are various petrol and diesel engine options. Prices start at €20,992 (£17,770) for well-kitted entry models though better equipped mid and top range versions climb rapidly in price. My SE L Outdoor diesel test model with 4X4 costs €30,732 (£26,100).

The 2.0 litre diesel unit provides a punchy 148 hp, with a nippy 0-60 kph time of 9.1 seconds. Top speed is 195 kph (121 mph) and the fuel economy figure is 19.6 kpl (55.4 mpg).

Underway, the car drives nicely in urban areas, smooth, quiet and responsive, though at higher speeds, wind and road noise do intrude slightly.

On country roads, the Yeti handles well, taking bends with great poise thanks to precise steering and a firm suspension set-up. Ride quality is very good unless the surface is quite rough, when it can thump a little.

The Yeti's cabin is a pleasant place to be, with decent room for five adults, plenty of oddment-stowage space and a spacious 416 litre boot, boosted to 1,580 litres by folding down the rear seats, and to 1,760 litres if you remove the rear seats entirely. The rear seats also slide and recline for more comfort and flexibility.

The driving postion is very good, with excellent all-round visibility and the dashboard has a neat practical layout. Trim materials and switchgear look very durable - as on all VW group models.

Standard equipment on the SE L test model includes 17inch alloy wheels, sat-nav and DAB radio, cruise control, dual-zone air-conditioning, allround power windows, front and rear parking sensors, leather upholstery, roof-rails and LED lights with cornering function.

Overall the Yeti impresses with its sturdy character and air of dependability, and its familyfriendly versatility.

The compact SUV sector is now quite crowded but the Yeti can still take on the pack leaders

One million miles

AFTER more than half a century of producing some of the world's best cars, Porsche has reached a hugely important milestone.

In May the brand produced its one millionth Porsche 911.

As soon as the car rolled off the production line in Zuffenhausen it was prepared for a coming world celebratory tour. The car will be exhibited in Germany, China, the US and Scotland before being installed permanently in the Porsche museum.

The millionth model is a Carrera S in green paint that comes with a special plaque celebrating its place in motoring history.

Though now eclipsed by other models, Porsche's 911 has had incredible staying power since it first debuted in 1963. An estimated 70 per cent of all 911s sold are still in working order and on the roads.

Classic Car Club of Andalucia

C CAL

The Tour de Sands

OU will probably remember that I have talked of The Tour de Sands in previous emails, at Clubnights and in the page we have in the Euro Weekly News.

CCCA member, Sandra (Sands) Watson, lost her fight with the vile Cancer disease last year. She was a fabulous person, friend, wife and Mum and also a very successful dentist. She and Jerry even managed to organise Runs for the CC-CA whilst still living in the UK! Their enthusiasm for all things, especially this Club, never waned.

Both Jerry and Sandra really enjoyed this Club and made lots of friends from it. Sandra also loved cycling and, only a few weeks before the end, managed a lengthy cycle tour in New Zealand. A truly lovely and amazing lady.

To honour her life, and to raise a lot of money for two important charities, husband Jerry Watson has been planning a mammoth cycle ride from Easton-on-the Hill, near Stamford, to their second home in Elviria, Spain. Hence the 'E2E' part of it all. This huge ride covers 1,600 miles (2,400Kms) through the UK, France and Spain and is taking six full weeks to achieve. It started from Easton-on-the-Hill on April 21 and arrives on the Costa del Sol on Thursday June 1.

Two CCCA members, Jerry and Mac McCarthy are doing the whole trip and anyone who wants to join in for any part (or parts) of the trip is Charity party Charity party EZE Charity party Charity par welcome. In fact, 57 cyclists joined in for the UK section alone! I am going to the north of Spain towards the end of the month to join some of the route myself (!!)

You can see the route and the schedule on the website www.tour desands.com and it really is worth having a look at it to see what has, and is being, achieved.

To celebrate the end of this incredible odyssey, we are arranging a party at Avanto Beach Club, near La Cala, on Saturday June 1. We'll have at least 40 people coming especially from the UK, we'll have great food, plenty to drink and some very good live music. The ticket is only  $\in$ 50 and 25 per cent of this will go to the charities. We'll also be auctioning off some good local and UK prizes for those that might like them.

There is an invitation attached and it would be helpful if you could let me know if you'll attend this incredibly special and worthwhile event.

Bring any friends and guests just let me know the numbers etc ian@iangiles.com

I do hope to see the entire Classic Car Club of Andalucia and the JEC there as well as some of our regular readers too.

Our friends at the Porsche Owners Club have a charity run going on that same day in aid of Cudeca, another very worthwhile charity, and we wish them well with that but, I hope, all CCCA members will be at Avanto to greet our own amazing cyclists and share this incredible achievement.

If you would like the wizzy Polo shirts designed for the event, let me know that too.

CCCA May Classic Car Run

THE May classic car run was a great success with almost 100 people attending. The start was from Ojen, near Marbella and the route went through Monda, Guaro, Casarabonela, El Burgo and Alozaina before finishing with an excellent lunch at Monda Castle.

There are photos of the day on this page and more can be seen on the Club website, www.cccandalucia.com

THE annual CCCA Summer Ball takes place this year on Friday, June 23 at the Tamisa Golf Hotel in Mijas Costa. Always a superb bash the Club has top entertainer, Johnny G for entertainment.

FOOTBALL

This weekend we have the finals of the League One Play-off, the FA Trophy and the FA Vase and next Wednesday. Manchester United play Aiax Amsterdam in the Europa League final in Stockholm.

The second legs of the Championship play-off semifinals took place earlier this week between Fulham and Reading (1-1) and Huddersfield and Sheffield Wednesday (0-0). The winners of each tie will meet at Wembley on Monday May 29 for a place in the Premiership.

Chelsea won their fifth Premier League title with a 1-0 win at WBA last Friday while Hull City were relegated from the top flight after crashing 4-0 at Crystal Palace.

Forest Green Rovers beat Tranmere 3-1 in the Nationwide final in front of almost 19,000 fans at Wembley to gain Football League status for the verv first time. The capacity of Forest Green's home ground -The New Lawn - is just 5,141... the town's population is only 5,894.

A record crowd of 35,271 at Wembley saw the ladies of Manchester City beat those of Birmingham City 4-1 in the Women's FA up final. American star Carli Lloyd netted for the winners.

Elsewhere around Europe, Red Bull Saltzburg (Austria), Bayern Munich (Germany), Juventus (Italy), Feyenoord (Netherlands), Benfica (Portugal) and FC Basel (Switzerland) have all won their respective championships, while this weekend either Barcelona (recent 4-1 winners over Las Palmas) or Real Madrid (excellent 4-1 victors over Sevilla last Sunday) will win La Liga – Real are favourites!

DIARY OF OTHER EVENTS • Sunday is the last day of this season's Premiership action and the 'big games' are Arsenal (4-1 winners at Stoke in their last game) against Everton... Liverpool (4-0 winners at West Ham last Sunday) versus relegated Middlesbrough... demoted Hull versus Spurs (who beat 2-1 Manchester United 2-1 in the last-ever game at White Hart Lane, to stay second); United themselves against Crystal Palace and Watford versus inform Manchester City.

• 100+ riders are now competing in the Cycle Tour of California (May 14 - 21).

• The French MotoGP takes place at Le Mans on Sunday. • The Geneva, Strasbourg, Lyon and Nuremberg Cup tennis tournaments all start next Monday.

The Dubai is slightly different with all players' scores counting on the par 5's and two jokers! It certainly motivated players to try and beat the dreaded 15th.
