By Kat Ashton

Spanish police have arrested the driver of a lorry which allegedly caused a mass pile-up that killed five people and left 10 injured, three seriously. The accident occurred on Monday at around 6.30pm on the A-7 motorway near the La Paz service station in Sangonera la Seca, Murcia and involved two lorries, two vans and nine cars.

It has been reported that the lorry hit several vehicles as they were stuck in a traffic jam on the motorway following a previous accident.

Various witnesses claimed that instead of slowing down, the truck careered into the pile up of cars at full speed, sparking further chaos.

CATALAN President Carles Puigdemont fudged his independence declaration from Spain when he put a halt on the announcement to leave room for 'dialogue' with Spain.

In a speech addressed to the Catalan parliament in Barcelona on Tuesday, Puigdemont vowed to follow through with the wishes of his people to make Cataluña an independent state but then immediately turned back on himself, stating he wanted to resolve the conflict in "a calm and agreed manner."

He also thanked everyone who made the referendum possible and criticised police for their violent behaviour against Catalan citizens on the polling day itself.

Puigdemont's declaration addressed the October 1 referendum in which Catalan officials claimed that almost 90 per cent of the turnout voted for independence. The vote had already been ruled illegal by Spain's Constitutional Court and was boycotted by many pro-remain voters.

Ahead of Puigdemont's speech, the mayor of Barcelona, Ada Colau, pleaded with the Catalan leader not to declare independence and also urged Spanish Prime Minister Mariano Rajoy not to take direct control of the region from Madrid.

It has also been reported that Donald Tusk, the president of the European Council, appealed to Puigdemont in Police in the Catalan capital also put in place various security measures across Barcelona ahead of Puigdemont's speech to the Catalan parliament; claiming the measures were necessary for "safety reasons" following recent protests.

Rajoy has continued to declare that any independence declaration made by Catalan secessionists "will lead to nothing" and threatened to take away the region's autonomy if it came to that point.

SPANISH FACTS OF LIFE...32

The harvest has officially started with October a busy time of year for those in Spain's olive industry, Kat Ashton reports.

SPAIN grows almost 300 varieties of olives and each tree produces between 15-20 kilos in its lifetime. The most common national olive is the Manzanilla, favoured by farmers as it's one of the easiest to pluck from the tree, and often sold stuffed with garlic or pimiento paste.

Other popular types include the Gordal, a large, robust olive ideal for stuffing, the Hojiblanca, with a thicker skin producing a sharper bite, and the Cacereña; a fruity, milder variety ideal for anyone trying olives for the first time.

Green and black olives actually grow on the same tree they naturally turn darker as they ripen - although some farmers cure their olives in brine to turn them black faster.

Andalucia is the world's largest olive-growing region and produces more than 900,000 tonnes annually. It is also one of the few places where the fruit is still picked by hand so the olives can be sold to be eaten whole.

This labour is time-consuming and an expensive dilemma but farmers have yet to come up with a faster method that doesn't damage their crop.

Most other regions grow olives only for oil production so don't mind if they come off the tree a bit bruised. Farm workers either rake bruised olives, and those they have shaken from trees with a stick, into baskets.

Olive trees can live for more than a 1,000 years and at

Only one death in busy beach season

IN the latest of the series of figures to be released by a number of municipalities up and down the costas, the beaches of San Pedro del Pinatar have had their own busy summer of rescue operations.

A total of 40 people make up the surveillance and rescue service along this section of coast and during the time they were on duty during this season - from June 16 to September 30 - 3,261 calls for assistance were made.

Most were asking for help, advice and information (746 enquiries), and giving help to those that needed help using the beach toilets and disabled facilities (656). The rescuers have also treated beachgoers suffering from a number of stings - from both insects and jellyfish and cuts and bruises.

Additionally, the team were able to find 16 people who had been reported missing, brought six boats back to the shore that found themselves in difficulties, and saved the lives of five people who almost drowned. Only one life was lost during the three-month period.

Most people needing assistance were in the over 60 age group (25.2 per cent), followed by children between 0 and 14years old (23.8 per cent). The busiest beach under the control of San Pedro was Villananitos, which recorded 1,065 requests for help, although it is the one with the most access points for disabled bathroom facilities.

Throughout the 2017 summer, a new computer system was introduced so that information on the reported incidents could be transferred immediately, via a tablet, to a central station that could monitor the ongoing situation on the beaches and send extra assistance

- or emergency help - when needed.

Map robbers caught in the act

GUARDIA CIVIL officers have arrested three people suspected of almost 20 thefts carried out on tourists.

Their method of robbing the unsuspecting victims was to use the excuse of asking for an address when people stopped in the service area on the A-7 in Crevillente.

Their modus operandi was to carefully choose their victims - almost all were tourists and many on a bus that had stopped for a short break to allow their passengers to stretch their legs - and then approach them with a large map to ask for directions which they placed on top of the object that they wanted to steal, usually a handbag.

Playing on a mixture of carelessness and clever distraction, another member of the gang was able to steal personal effects from the car in seconds. The two people involved were always in a rental car in which a third accomplice was waiting to immediately escape from the scene. According to the Guardia Civil, some of these robberies only lasted a minute; sometimes only lasting 15 or 20 seconds, such was the dexterity of the gang.

The gang apparently chose the area as there was hardly ever any police presence, and also selected bus travellers as they often didn't realise they had been robbed during the stop until they reached their final destination.

Uncover officers of the Guardia Civil eventually laid in wait in the service area until they were able to catch the group by surprise as they were about to rob their next victim.

Those detained were a 38year-old woman and two men a father and son - aged 44 and

OUR VIEW Compromise is needed

THERE was a major irony that yesterday (Thursday) was El Dia de la Hispanidad (National Day) here in Spain whilst the country seems to be more divided than ever.

October 12 is dedicated to Christopher Columbus, but radicals in Barcelona have been calling for the iconic statue built in 1888 that stands at the bottom of La Rambla to be treated the same way as statues of former Iraqi President Saddam Hussein by pulling it down.

Another important celebration which falls on the same date is the Feast of Our Lady of Pilar who happens to be the Patroness of both Spain and the Guardia Civil which may also be a cause for discomfort in Cataluña following recent events.

Modern Spain is at a crossroads and the next weeks and months will determine whether the bitter split between those who want Cataluña to become an independent state and King Felipe VI and the government supported by PSOE can possibly be repaired.

A logical compromise could be for the Spanish government to offer Cataluña the opportunity to hold a nonbinding referendum under different terms which would be overseen by Spain which would allow for all parties to fairly judge the wishes of the people.

It's unlikely to happen this way but without compromise on both sides, the schism will only widen.

Now we want to hear your views. YOUR PAPER - YOUR VOICE - YOUR OPINION www.euroweeklynews.com

'Kidnap' family face extradition

MEMBERS of the National Police have arrested two people in Catral after allegedly kidnapping a young boy from Belgium and fleeing back to Spain.

According to reports, the four-year-old boy's biological mother had escaped from a psychiatric unit in Belgium where she had composed the plan with her mother - the boy's grandmother - to grab her son and take him back to this country.

The two women were arrested under the crimes of having fled their country and removing the young child which contravened a Belgian judicial order. The boy was the responsibility of the legal authorities in Belgium following his mother's placement in a psychiatric hospital.

The boy's mother and grandmother took advantage of the fact that the latter had been given permission to pick her grandson up from school. Once she had collected him on this particular day, the mother escaped and all three fled to Spain. They managed to stay in the country undetected for four months until police found them and subsequently carried out the arrests. The Alicante Provincial Care Home is now looking after the young boy until he can be taken back to Belgium, whilst the women are facing a formal extradition process where they can both face up to five years in prison in accordance with the law in Belgium.

Most forest fires started by humans

OVER 80 per cent of forest fires that occurred in the Murcia region during this summer are believed to have been started by individuals.

Figures released by IN-FOMUR - the organisation that coordinates the emergency civil protection for the region - show that whilst not all that high percentage of fires have been caused by arsonists, a significant number have been due to human negligence.

Only eight fires were started by natural phenomena such as lightning.

Between June and September, a total of 45 forest fires were recorded that burned 154 hectares of land: a figure that represents a significant reduction compared to the same period last year when the burnt area was slightly more than double at 328 hectares.

During the calendar year until the end of September there were 84 forest fires. although only 14 of them affected more than one hectare of land, while the other 70 were extinguished quickly and prevented the blazes spreading.

worst month for fires in the

They have had the support of 19 dedicated forest fire brigades, three helicopters with their respective operators and firefighters from both Murcia and Cartagena.

Insurance fraud group arrested

NATIONAL POLICE in Alicante have arrested 12 people believed to be part of a group of alleged insurance fraudsters.

Those arrested - a mixture of Spanish and Colombian nationals aged between 20 and 42 - are suspected to have specialised in simulating a number of traffic accidents with the aim of claiming on insurance. It's been estimated that their scam to date has netted them more than  $\in 65,000$ .

Investigations began when the financial crime group of the Alicante police became aware of the group after what appeared to be an inordinate number of similar incidents taking place. People were reporting that they had suffered severe pain from injuries and damage to cars as a re-

It's understood that these alleged crimes began back in 2013 and up until last year had made more than a dozen separate claims, although with the investigations still up and running police are not ruling out the possibility of further arrests of more members connected with this same group.

After the fourth round of Brexit talks, the UK and the EU have reached agreement on some key areas affecting expatriates.

Onward freedom of movement

In a significant move, Britain proposed more flexibility for freedom of movement by offering EU citizens in the UK "guaranteed rights of return." This means those lawfully resident in Britain before Brexit would be able to leave and freely return at a later date. Previous proposals only allowed a two-year window for this right.

The ball is now in the EU27's court to agree reciprocal rights for Britons within the bloc. As things stand, a UK national resident in Spain, for example, would be unable to relocate to Portugal from April 2019 without having to apply for visas and permits as a non-EU citizen.

Access to healthcare and pensions Both sides confirmed they will carry on reimbursing certain healthcare costs for citizens under the EHIC (European Health Insurance Card) and S1 schemes. They also agreed to continue yearly inflation increases in state pension payments for nationals living abroad.

Senior Partner, Blevins Franks

One area to be resolved is the potential 'cliff-edge' for British personal pension and insurance payments. When current EU 'passporting' rights for UK financial services companies expire with Brexit, these providers cannot legally make payments to Britons abroad. However, with both sides having a mutual financial interest in resolving

Brexit talks offer more certainty on citizens' rights

this issue, it is likely to be addressed early in future negotiations. Legal protection for citizens

A former 'red line' for Britain has been how much influence the European courts should have over UK law after Brexit. The EU has maintained that EU citizens must continue to be protected by the European Court of Justice (ECJ) while living in the UK post-Brexit. The Prime Minister initially insisted the UK holds exclusive authority within its borders.

She has now offered more flexibility by signalling a future role for the ECJ in settling disputes on British soil. She has also offered to incorporate legal protections for EU citizens into UK law to ensure Parliament cannot restrict these rights.

The divorce bill

Long an issue of contention, the Prime Minister has now confirmed that Britain will pay its financial dues until 2020. However, so far she has only agreed to pay a divorce bill of around €20 billion up to 2020, falling short of the estimated  $\notin 50 \cdot \notin 100$ billion payment expected by the EU.

Delaying full Brexit

Theresa May requested a two-year transition period for Britain's exit, pledging that Britain would continue to follow EU rules until 2021 in return for uninterrupted access to the single market.

The transition period is expected to be considered in an EU summit later this month, where the EU27 will discuss whether there has been 'sufficient progress' to move negotiations beyond specifically divorce-related issues.

What happens next?

While Britain's proposals have been welcomed as 'a step forward' by EU chief Brexit negotiator, Michel Barnier, he suggested it could be months before they can move negotiations onto the next phase.

Britain has now made concessions in three key areas - accepting free movement of EU citizens, paying its share of EU bills and maintaining the legal authority of the ECJ - which is widely seen as a positive step towards securing mutual agreement. Although there is still a long way to go, Britons living in Spain can find reassurances here, especially regarding healthcare and state pension payments.

Amidst so much uncertainty, however, it is important to be as prepared as possible. A locally-based financial adviser can help you keep up-to-date with Brexit developments and find the best solutions tailored for you as an expatriate.

With Brexit on the way, these are times of significant change. It may be advisable to act now, under known rules, rather than wait and see what happens.

ACCORDING to police sources, two brothers have been detained by officers of the National Police force in connection with a robbery at a betting arcade.

The men - aged 19 and 22 - allegedly used a firearm to threaten an employee of the shop in Murcia with violence and intimidation to get hold of the takings.

It was around 8.50am on September 17 when a man entered the gaming establishment with his face covered with a t-shirt and carrying a small gun. The member of staff was forced to go to the cash register and hand over the money.

During subsequent questioning, the woman employee said that he had previously noticed a young man acting suspiciously in the vicinity in the moments before the robbery.

Police investigations established that there were two people behind the attack, as after the robbery the man fled to a waiting car containing an accomplice. It was later established that the car had been stolen a few hours earlier and so the two men were charged not only with robbery with violence and intimidation, but also with vehicle theft.

After a week of investigations, the National Police were led to the home of the two Spanish brothers allegedly responsible for the crimes and were arrested.

What is the Golden Visa – in Spain?

This is otherwise known as the "law of entrepreneurs".

For members of Non-European Union member countries, it is now possible to get a visa permit of residence, and subsequently apply for Spanish nationality, through investment operations.

If you buy real estate with a value of more than 500,000€ in Spain, you are nearly always automatically granted a visa permit. This is providing that the correct legal procedure is followed and all of the necessary requirements are followed.

(This is an extended practice in several countries within the European Union).

RESIDENCE PERMIT

In Spain there are more ways to get these rights; the acquisition of real estate is not the only one. There are several alternatives to invest, including;

- the acquisition of another company,
  - the merging with another company
    - the establishment of a fixed deposit in a Spanish bank or credit entity

• the creation of a company or project that the Spanish Public Authorities recognise as beneficial for the development of Spain and its interests.

If you are a company or an individual who wants to invest your savings in Spain and would like to find out more about the opportunities that are available to you, please do not hesitate to contact our team of specialists, who will be able to offer you independent advice on the options available to you.

Famous turtle back where it belongs

ALMOST two months since it was rescued, a loggerhead sea turtle has been returned to the sea after treatment for a number of serious injuries.

The recovery of the turtle made national headlines after it was found on the beach of Punta Algas De San Javier on August 11 and taken to the El Valle recovery centre.

It was found with a punctured right eye caused by a fishing hook, and another hook was found embedded into its left flipper. Part of the right flipper was missing but the severe wound has since healed perfectly.

The turtle received an amount of antibiotic treatments, anti-inflammatory injections and a course of rehydration which has enabled it to reach the level of health that permits it to be released back into its natural environment.

Also, the turtle has been implanted with a microchip that will allow it to be identified, should it be recaptured at some point in the future. It will also allow it to be tracked and permit further studies of the behav-

€90 million to save 11 minutes

SPAIN'S Ministry of Public Works is assisting in the commissioning of the extension of the A-33 motorway between Jumilla and Yecla.

The plan for the 23.4 kilometres between the two towns is estimated to cost €90m and will save up to 5.1 litres of fuel and take 11 minutes off the journey compared to when using the current N-344 route.

The announcement was made by Spanish Minister Iñigo de la Serna at a ceremony attended by, among others, the president of the Murcia region Fernando Lopez Miras and is hoped to encourage the 23 per cent of heavy vehicles off the N-344 and on to the new motorway. An estimated 5,500 vehicles use the N-344 on a daily basis, of which more than 1,000 are lorries.

The extension will also reduce the amount of traffic using the A-7 motorway and will be an important contribution to the transport network in the Murcia region and its connection to both the Valencian Community and Madrid. In fact, the new route between Murcia and Valencia will be reduced to 212kms from the current 258kms using the coastal route. Iñigo de la Serna emphasised that they were able to make this commitment 10 months in advance and was also pleased that the citizens of Yecla and Jumilla will now be more connected with the region after years of uncertainty and delay.

LORCA'S PORKERS: Pig farms get permission to expand.

As happy as a pig...

LORCA'S environment department has granted licences which will authorise the establishment of two new pig farms in the municipality. Specifically, they will be located in the small village of Almendricos.

The formal announcement was made in the Official Bulletin for the Murcia Region (BORM) confirming that a total of 11,000 pigs will be kept in two farms. One will be in Las Casicas de Almendricos that will have a capacity for 6,000 animals; the other is planned for El Cabañil and will have 5,000 pigs in situ.

The department has also granted a licence to expand an existing pig farm in Ermita de Redon from 2,000 to 6,000, and at the same time have announced a feasibility study for a similar 4,000 increase in the number of pigs on a farm in Hinojar.

Dog chipping campaign

CAMPAIGN LEADER: Maria Del Carmen Ruiz (inset).

MARIA DEL CARMEN RUIZ, the councillor responsible for health in the city of Lorca will be heading a campaign to encourage more owners to microchip their dogs.

This initiative has the support and collaboration of the Murcia region veterinary association.

According to the councillor, there are approximately 12,000 dogs in the municipality that have been chipped already, and whilst it's not compulsory, Ruiz did remind dog owners that they are obliged to ensure their pets are chipped to allow for faster identification and recovery in case of loss.

She reported that a further 1.133 animals were added to the local pet identification system during last year, and was pleased to announce that thanks to the system, two dogs - a threeyear-old Swiss Mountain Dog and an eight-year-old Bernese Mountain Dog have been returned to their owners thanks to them being microchipped.

VERBAL ATTACKS: The street where Marisol Moreno (inset) was abused.

Councillor suffers street abuse

MARISOL MORENO, the councillor for Youth and Animal Protection in Alicante has lodged a complaint to the National Police after suffering a number of verbal attacks in the street.

They are aimed at two people who allegedly approached her on Rambla de Mendez Nuñez and proceeded to hurl a number of personal insults which caused Moreno to have a severe anxiety attack. According to the councillor, these are the same two people who last month insulted her by making references to her sexual orientation.

They are understood to be students of bullfighting and attacked the councillor because of her and her party's anti-bullfighting stance.

The latest attack took place as she was on her way to work at 8.15am and as a result has been prescribed medication and rest.

Moreno said: "These people have invaded my privacy by seriously insulting me just a few inches from my face."

Mayor of Alicante, Gabriel Echavarri, is fully supporting his fellow councillor and has condemned those behind these attacks. "Nobody has the right to insult anyone just because they have a different view to theirs. That is not freedom of speech."

Teen arrested for slapping his mother

LOCAL POLICE in Murcia have arrested a teenager for allegedly assaulting his mother. According to reports, the 14-year-old boy was detained in the Carmen district of the city after an argument broke out between him and his mother after he refused to go to school one morning. The war of words then became more physical when the teenager allegedly slapped his mother around the face.

Immediately, the woman telephoned the Local Police who arrived at the scene and promptly arrested her violent son. Local sources said that it's not the first time that the boy has allegedly assaulted his mother with similar incidents being noted in the past.

The boy - who is Spanish with a Spanish father and Moroccan mother - was taken into police custody where, after a statement being submitted by the Local Police, he received some professional psychological help. He was then allowed to return him to his mother who it's reported didn't suffer any serious injuries during the assault.

FELIZ NAVIDAD: Council help to reunite families in Elche.

Coming home for Christmas

FOR the second successive year, Elche Council will be encouraging its local people to return to the city for Christmas.

After satisfying certain criteria, young people that are working abroad - or unemployed and officially seeking work outside Spain - will be given a grant of a maximum of €100 to help with travel expenses to return to Elche for the Christmas holiday period.

A spokesperson for the local authority, Patricia Macià, said that they were launching the scheme again for this Christmas following the success of last year. and would cost the taxpayer €25,000.

"The beneficiaries of this scheme will be young people between the ages of 18 and 35 who are working or seeking employment abroad and that they were last registered as living in Elche," said Macià. She added that the scheme had been extended to those who are self-employed or officially registered as unemployed in their new country.

The other conditions for being able to apply for the grant is that the person's income must be less than €2,750 per month, and that their visit to Elche must be during the period from December 15 to January 15.

THE Valencian Community's fishermen are increasingly supplementing their incomes by inviting tourists onto their boats according to the regional authority, which has organised the second annual 'Professional Day of Fishing Tourism' on October 17.

MAKE A DATE: Annual harvest taking place in Elche at the moment.

FARMERS in Elche have begun their annual date harvest.

The president of the DATELX cooperative, Pascual Urban, announced the launch of this year's campaign, during which it's hoped to be able to collect around 10,000 kilos of dates.

The first branches of the famous Elche palm trees have already been harvested in the Camp d'Elx, an area that is always guaranteed to supply the freshest and highest quality dates, due to the in vitro production methods employed. The majority of the dates collected

The mayor of Elche, Carlos Gonzalez, has continued to stress the importance of looking to increase the number of markets that can experience the excellent fresh products from the city.

Due to the success of the in vitro production of the Elche dates, farmers in other neighbouring provinces including Murcia and Almeria are showing increased interest in planting their own palm trees.

Car crash causes panic

IN scenes reminiscent of some of the terrorist outrages carried out across Europe in recent months, locals in Torrevieja were horrified to witness an out of control car crash through two terraces.

The incident happened on Calle Vicente Blasco Ibañez just before the busy lunchtime period and so, it was fortunate that there were only two customers sitting on the terraces at the time. They managed to avoid the approaching car and thus avoided injury.

The car at the centre of the crash was seconds earlier involved in a collision with another vehicle at the junction with Calle Radio Murcia.

It was waiting at the traffic lights before being hit from behind and the driver simply lost control of the car causing it to smash into the tables and chairs of the nearby terraces of a popular Turkish food establishment and a Scandinavian coffee shop.

There were no injuries to any customers or pedestrians, but the driver of the car was treated for shock - she was very concerned that she'd caused some serious harm - and minor cuts and bruises by paramedics without needing to go to hospital.

SPAIN, like many countries throughout Europe, has been welcoming to refugees that have arrived over the recent years. Although much of the focus tends to be on the young, single men that arrive in boats across the Mediterranean or on foot across the continent, there are many women and children and babies too and they are all in need of basic provisions and items to enable them to lead as normal a life as possible.

The Spanish Red Cross -Cruz Roja - is currently coordinating an appeal to help these new refugees and especially those with babies that need a buggy to get around, and so if anyone has a spare one or one that isn't being used any more, the Cruz Roja

ON the occasion of the 213th anniversary of the sinking of the Spanish frigate Nuestra Senora de las Mercedes the National Museum of Underwater Archeology (ARQUA) presented a plaque that honoured the victims. More than 300 people lost their lives onboard.

Following the presentation of the plaque and acts of tribute to those who died in the sinking, a talk was given by the museum director, Ivan Negueruela, about the campaign that carried out a number of diving expeditions to the wreck and reported on the current state of the ship. This campaign took part during August in collaboration with the Spanish Institute of Oceanography and the Spanish Navy

The Nuestra Señora de las Mercedes (Our Lady of Mercy) was sunk by the British off the south coast of Portugal on October 5, 1804 during the Battle of Cape Santa Maria. At the time of the naval action, Spain and England were at peace with each other. The Spanish frigate was part of a small flotilla sailing from Montevideo to Cadiz, transporting silver, gold, vicuna, cinnamon and quinoa. The other ships in the flotilla were the Medea, Santa Clara and Fama

The flotilla was intercepted by a British Navy task force, commanded by Graham Moore aboard HMS Indefatigable, and ordered to change course and proceed to a British port for inspection. The Spanish commanding officer, brigadier José de Bustamante y Guerra (1759-1825) objected that the two nations were at peace, declared that they would not comply with the order, and ordered battle quarters, despite being outgunned and outnumbered. A single shot from the HMS Amphion, commanded by Samuel Sutton, hit the ship's magazine causing an explosion that sank the ship. Two hundred and fifty civilians and 60 Marines lost their lives.

Municipal tax bills reduced

JOSE HURTADO, Torrevieja's councillor responsible for finance, has proposed a reduction of 7.5 per cent for next year's municipal tax rates. This is the second year in succession that the council has been able to drop the annual IBI rate after a 4 per cent reduction for 2017.

This means that the applicable rate now stands at 0.4105 per cent and means that in pure cash terms, a family with an annual IBI municipal bill of €250 saw a saving of  $\in 10$  for this year and will notice an additional cut of €18.75 for 2018

Those paying €500 in 2016 saw a saving of €20 this year and can expect a cut of €37.50 for next. Reductions of €40 and €75 respectively during the two years have been made on tax bills of €1,000.

Reductions in the IBI rates have also been approved for large families which amount to 80 per cent, and for those with green credentials that have installed their own solar panels, a 90 per cent discount is available.

Expected unemployment rise

LEVELS of unemployment have risen by 507 people in the Vega Baja area during September.

Figures released by the Valencian Employment and Training Service (SERVEF) show that the total number of people officially registered as unemployed is 27,296, and the increase is not unexpected.

The end of the summer tourist season traditionally sees people losing their temporary positions that were especially created to cope with the annual influx.

The list of municipalities with the highest increases in unemployment is headed by Torrevieja with 621 more people registered compared to August. Pilar de la Horadada saw a rise of 133 and Guardamar del Segura 113. At the other end of the scale, employment rose in Orihuela (102), Callosa de Segura (112), Redován (38) and Bigastro (32).

Overall, a total of 986 positions were lost in the service sector in the Vega Baja while 230 were created in construction, 209 in general industry and 68 in agriculture.

No air-con or bathroom for town hall staff

AFTER more than four months, workers in parts of the La Mata Town Hall are still without airconditioning in the building.

Also, due to a minor fault in the water system, they are required to leave the premises to use the bathroom.

Despite the air-conditioning system breaking down in June, those charged with repairing it have yet to solve the problem which has been exacerbated due to the higher than usual temperatures experienced in the locality this summer.

Extra fans have been brought in, but with the summer extending into October, working in the glass building has been less than comfortable.

Apart from the air-con issues, one of the pipes in the building is broken and if used water floods one of the rooms.

As a direct result, staff working in the affected areas need to leave the building to use a toilet.

At a cost of €3.3 million, the La Mata Town Hall that occupies 1,800m2 and contains five floors was only built seven years ago.

IT may only be October but rehearsals are well under way for Studio32's winter show.

The show contains some all-time classic songs including Blue Skies, Sisters, and of course the Bing Crosby title number, White Christmas.

Bev has been with Studio32 for a number of years. playing lead roles such as Ado Annie in their production of Oklahoma, Mrs Fezziwig in A Christmas Carol, and more recently the lead role of Mabel Normand in Mack and Mabel.

Madrid bank needs cash

CONSIDERED to be the most vulnerable of the Spanish Banks on the Stock Exchange, Liberbank is looking to raise an additional €500 million to prop it up.

Whilst approval for this capital increase will be required at a forthcoming shareholders' meeting, the bank already has foreign bank advisors in place, ready to underwrite the proposed new offer of shares.

Catalan businesses will leave

A NUMBER of high profile companies have already announced that they will move their head offices out of Barcelona and others are considering their future.

It seems that the Sabadell Bank has made the decision to move in the event of independence to either Alicante or Madrid whilst it is strongly expected that CaixaBank will decide at an Extraordinary General Meeting to look to move to Valencia.

Other companies who are definitely moving are telecommunications operator Eurona which has properties acquired following takeovers in Madrid, whilst dental specialists Proclinic Expert have their eyes set on Zaragoza.

In addition and supposedly not due to the possibility of independence, Oryzon, a biotech company founded in Barcelona in 2000, confirmed through the Spanish stock exchange that it will be moving its head office to Madrid.

Independence could prove to be a major problem for banks headquartered in Cataluña as in the event that the new Catalan State should fall into financial difficulty it would be unlikely to underwrite the liabilities of banks based there, whilst those who have head offices in Spain would continue to receive protection from the European Central Bank.

Share prices fell with the announcement of the result of the referendum, but those who have either announced or indicated the likelihood of moving out of the region have seen some very significant gains.

Back on track in Saudi Arabia

THE Spanish consortium constructing the 450 kilometre high-speed link between Medina and Mecca in Saudi Arabia expects to see live tests shortly.

There have been delays and financial difficulties but rail operator Renfe plans to start running passenger trials by the end of this year and if all is successful a full service by the second quarter of 2018.

Taking nearly four years to complete, the service will see trains travelling at up to 300 kilometres per hour.

Quote of the Week Beware of reactions and counter-reactions, which will not be good for Catalonia or Spain," warned Antonio Garamendi Vice President of the Spanish SME Confederation on companies planning to move HQs from Barcelona.

RYANAIR CEO Michael O'Leary.

Ryanair increases pilots' wages

THE chief executive of Ryanair Michael O'Leary has written to pilots offering them enhanced pay and conditions and apologising for annual leave confusion.

Not known for his tact in the past, on this occasion, the Ryanair boss appeared to be alert to the fact that a large number of pilots had joined unions since the problem of holiday rotas had seen the cancellation of thousands of flights.

In addition, there have been approaches from other airlines, especially Norwegian inviting pilots to transfer to join their expanding fleet, so despite the fact that the recently failed Monarch airlines may see their pilots looking for work elsewhere, Mr O'Leary clearly wishes to keep continuity within his airline.

He has promised his pilots a secure future and referred to the insolvency of Air Berlin, Alitalia and Monarch this year and suggested that pilots consider long and hard before defecting to less financially secure airlines.

THE Spanish Tax Agency has announced that in the past year it has seized 6.5 million packs of cigarettes and 97,000 packs of tobacco. It believes that its ongoing battle against contraband tobacco is continuing to be successful.

Peseta plea

FOUR people who claimed compensation for the loss of 48,458 pesetas issued by the Republican side in 1936 have had their claim rejected by a Spanish court. They argued that the Nationalists seized the money illegally and wanted the euro equivalent including interest.

Easy connect

THE number of Spanish households that has access to the internet has risen to 83.4 per cent, although the majority of access is through mobile phones. Just 13.5 million households have broadband access and a growing amount is through fibre optics.

PILOTS flying for Thomas Cook airline have settled their dispute with the company and called off three strikes planned for Friday and the following two weeks.

The eight days of strikes were due after an earlier action in September, believed to be the first British airline pilots strike in decades.

Both the pilots union BALPA and the management of the airline have expressed their pleasure at the fact they were able to come to an agreement which meant the minimum of disruption to passengers.

Coal is out of favour LIQUID NATURAL GAS WILL TAKE OVER

AS governments around the world demand a move away from environmentally damaging coal and oil, the larger oil companies in particular are expanding their natural gas resources.

Currently, Royal Dutch Shell is managing a huge deposit in Australia and will convert the gas into Liquefied fuel (LNG) which can be transported around the world in tankers.

A similar operation in the Southern Hemisphere is being managed by Chevron which is reported to have invested a massive €75 billion into the building of a new platform and other major oil companies are also investing heavily in this growing area of business.

Currently a great deal of electricity, particularly in China and India is being produced by burning coal which is recognised as a major pollutant and a generating planting using LNG can reduce the amount of carbon dioxide produced by 50 per cent and 75 per cent less nitrogen oxide.

The large oil companies can see that their reliance on oil to fuel vehicles is coming to an end, with the decision to phase out diesel powered vehicles within a few years and the growth of electric cars with batteries which will stay charged for much longer distances.

Countries which had little if any oil may still have natural gas deposits as the deeper the compressed matter is found, the more likely it is to have turned into gas rather than oil.

The five countries with largest gas deposits currently known are believed to be in Russia, Iran, Qatar, Saudi Arabia and Turkmenistan although the figures presented by US Energy Information Administration are quite old and do not even include the USA.

QATARI ship transporting LNG. More and more LNG projects are being presented to governments around the world whilst the search for crude oil is declining and with LNG suitable for urban taxis and other vehicles, distribution is almost as important as new finds.

The cost of freezing and moving the liquid gas in bulk is steadily decreasing as companies invest more in this area and even the movement of the gas can be greener as marine diesel is slowly being replaced by engines driven by LNG.

DESPITE FALLS IN THE SPANISH STOCK MARKET German Bank tips Santander

IN a published statement, Deutsche Bank which appears to have recovered from its own financial difficulties has identified Banco Santander as a good investment option.

Untainted by the Catalonian problem and only recently considered by the Spanish government and European Central Bank an ideal partner to take over Banco Popular, it seems ready to fend off law suits from disgruntled Banco Popular shareholders who have lost everything.

The majority of Spanish bank shares fell following the results of the arguably illegal Catalan Independence Referendum and the German banking group believes that Santander under the firm leadership of Ana Botin is undervalued.

It forecasts that 2018 will be a very profitable year for the Cantabrian based bank with profits rising by more than 10 per cent and an increase in the value of dividends paid to shareholders.

With a target price of  $\in 6.60$ , it would have to see a strong surge of around 14 per cent as shares have been trading between  $\in 5.80$  and  $\in 5.85$  for several Ana Botin the fourth generation of her family to head Santander Bank, studied economics at Bryn Mawr College and attended Harvard Business School where she earned an MBA.

She then worked for eight years at JP Morgan in the USA and in 1988 she came back to Spain and began working for the Santander Group. In 2002 she was appointed the executive chairman of the Spanish bank, Banesto, a subsidiary of Santander where she served until 2010 when she became CEO of Santander UK.

When her father died in 2014, she was immediately appointed chair of the parent company which continues to be highly successful.

So impressed was David Cameron with this Spanish businesswoman that he appointed her in 2014 as one of his advisors in the Business Advisory Group and following this appointment she was then made an honorary Dame Commander of the British Empire (DBE) in December 2015, for services to the British financial services sector.

Now with more than 186,000 employees and 14,392 branches spread across most of Europe and much of South America, the bank has also been increasing its business in Asia and the USA and its charismatic and hardworking chair continues to be a driving force behind the bank's burgeoning strength.

Christmas could be costly in the UK

CHRISTMAS is already upon us although Spain is not as quick to jump on the band wagon as UK retailers who are already promoting cards, decorations and gifts.

Stores such as Morrisons in Gibraltar are following suit offering plenty of Christmas items alongside an extensive Halloween collection but stores in the UK are worried that this won't be a bumper celebration as far as they are concerned.

British consumers are fearful that the prices of goods will continue to increase due to a weak pound and Brexit fears meaning that they may have to cut back on their spending according to a survey undertaken by Mintel, the world's largest market intelligence agency with global offices in Europe, the Far East and Asia,

Foundation to quit Cataluña

MASKED by the interest caused by the move of industrialists and banks out of Cataluña, a charitable foundation worth almost €22 billion has also left.

La Caixa Banking Foundation Group which exists to manage a huge pension fund and administers charitable activities throughout Spain has decided to set up its new headquarters in Palma, Mallorca.

Madrid has been the main beneficiary of the move of head offices out of Barcelona although it is unlikely that the banks in particular will move the majority of their staff who will continue to operate from their existing offices, so fears of massive unemployment in Barcelona are unlikely to come true.

UNITY: Demonstration against Catalan independence in Barcelona.

VIF worried

WHILST the European Union has sided with Spain on the Cataluña situation, the IMF has now warned that the entire Spanish economy could suffer a loss of confidence.

Despite the fact that Cataluña is considered the industrial power house of Spain and accounts for 19 per cent of GDP, the American financial ratings agencies have steadily downgraded its rating and it is now considered to be junk (negative) investment status.

To some extent the flow of companies out of Barcelona to the rest of Spain, which is being made as easy as possible by the government, will not necessarily be a disastrous blow, as in many cases, head offices will be set up externally but staff will continue to work out of Cataluña's capital.

Time will tell whether the Spanish economy will be badly affected by the current situation but, unless a settlement of some type is made, there will be continued ongoing problems, especially as not everyone in the province favours independence.

Andalucia's recordbreaking exports

EXPORTS from Andalucia hit an alltime record for the first seven months of 2017 with a total of €18 billion.

This is a 20.1 per cent increase over the same months in 2016 and as an added bonus imports were down, leaving the economy in the happy position of having a €1.92 billion trade surplus.

The province is the second largest exporter in Spain after Cataluña and is well ahead of the Basque Country in third place.

According to the Extenda-Andalucian Agency for Foreign Promotion, the biggest growth in trade has been with China which saw a massive jump to €684 million making it the eighth largest market for Andalucian produce.

France continues to be the market leader, spending €2.1 billion, followed by Germany, Italy and the United Kingdom, whilst of the non-EU countries in the top 10, joining China, are the United States and Morocco.

Important exports are olive oil and table olives as well as sweet oranges. lemons, wine, ham and tuna, with new markets for gourmet produce in particular being opened.

Although agricultural produce makes up a large proportion of exports, the province has also been particularly successful in the sale of minerals and oil as well as electrical goods and metal.

LEAPY LEE SAYS IT

I DON'T often react to mail I receive, particularly those that are not constructive and often downright nasty, but I do feel a couple of last week's missives merit a certain repudiation from the ol' boy. Of course, as usual, the wrong end of the stick was firmly seized by at least one of these communications.

My point about Facebook removing my posting of the naked white man being kicked and stoned to death by black youths, without intervention on an SA street, was not that it was actually taking place, but the fact that the site seemed to allow the most horrendous acts by terrorist groups to remain, but deemed it necessary to remove and, subsequently, continue to sweep under the carpet, the desperate and totally unacceptable treatment of the white citizens who still live in those African countries. Contrary to one of your letters I do, in fact, know exactly what I am talking about.

Not only do I receive weekly updates from friends in Africa, but I have also toured and lived for a while in both SA and Rhodesia/Zimbabwe; experiencing the apartheid and also their so-called liberated eras. Well I remember, during my trip to a then fairly young Zimbabwe, having local black residents furtively sidle up and inform me how much better their lives were under Mr Smith!

At least during those far off days these countries prospered. Although the blacks were disgracefully oppressed and reduced to second-class citizens in their own land, they did at least reap the benefits of the hard work, efforts and expertise of the white settlers i.e. roofs over their heads, food on the table and schools for their children.

Both countries have now descended into utter anarchy under the jackboots of the ANC and the despot Mugabe. Whites are afraid to shop or go into many public places alone.

Muggings and robbery are the norm. Abductions, rapes and murders of whites are not even reported. Johannesburg has become the most dangerous city in the world. Those whites who have survived, are forced to live in virtual fortresses, with high walls topped by barbed wire and compounds patrolled by dogs, backed up by armouries of firearms.

Farms seized by the authorities, once productive and highly successful, lie barren and unattended, while the ordinary local black citizens, most living in poverty and starvation, look helplessly on as the privileged few indulge themselves in lives of luxury and decadence, far in excess of the white politicians and leaders of yore. And the world looks on and does precisely nothing.

I rest my case. Please, if you do feel the need to communicate, either by email or online, can you first make sure you actually understand my point and not merely pluck a couple of lines or phrases out purely to be unpleasant? It really is such an utter waste of precious time and energy.

Keep 'em coming however, I do peruse them all. Hang in there.

Keep the faith. Love Leapy columnists@euroweeklynews.com leapylee2002@gmail.com

Have you travelled before?

In my opinion Views of a Grumpy Old Man

LAST week I mentioned Monarch running out of food. Well now they have gone skint and, of course, I had flights booked with them for Christmas. As I paid with a debit card I have probably lost my money, which is bad enough, but, of course, when I have gone to rebook all the other airlines have doubled their price.

Yeah, yeah, I know - supply and demand. I flew with Virgin Atlantic to and from the USA and I have to say they are a fantastic company to fly with. The only thing I wondered was why, when fitting out their female cabin crew, do they hear 'I'm a size 10' when she's obviously said 'I'm a size 14'? They all looked a little uncomfortable to me.

I decided to fly into Gibraltar on the way back so I didn't have to leave Heathrow on my return which meant I could stay in the same terminal and not have the extra expense of going to another airport. I had only two hours from landing from the USA to catch my next flight and I couldn't check my luggage all the way through to Gib.

All was going well until I got to security and my bag went on the other side of the glass which meant it had to be double checked, which is fine. The problem was there were only two security people. One was dealing with the left hand side queue and one was dealing with the right hand side. The lady in front of me had a back pack, a handbag and a carry-on bag and the officer decided to go through the whole lot which took 40 minutes.

Half way through I looked at her and said, 'Have you actually ever travelled before?' She had water, three or four bags of cosmetics and gawd knows what else. I was getting very grumpy and asked, 'Why does this have to be done here? Why isn't she taken to one side so as to not hold everybody else up? After all, she's the problem, not us!'

The security officer's random comment to me was that only last week he had found six bullets in someone's hand luggage. That, of course, didn't answer my question at all. There should be three or four officers there. Two to do the general security and two to do the awkward stuff, so it keeps it all flowing.

Finally, BA, why, oh why do you make everyone pay for refreshments with credit cards? Everybody having to put pin numbers in for a two quid transaction! It's a joke!

LEGALLY SPEAKING

Buying a new car - your rights

AS part of a new series, we answer some common driving questions, kindly provided by members of the Guardia Civil based in Torrevieja, Costa Blanca, who set up the N332 website and Facebook page to help break down barriers.

NEW CARS: Conditions will vary according to the manufacturer.

WHEN you purchase a new car from a dealer, you have a certain level of peace of mind accompanying your purchase.

New cars are covered by a legal guarantee of two years without a mileage limit, whereas the manufacturer has to take care of the faults and breakdowns that have arisen with the car, so long as they are not caused by misuse, lack of maintenance or wear.

Factory defects are also covered by the legal guarantee, but in this case the claim must be made during the first six months from the date of delivery of the vehicle. After that time it is necessary to prove that the defect is actually caused at the manufacture stage and, for that, an expert report must be presented to prove it.

The Madrid-based Asociación Madrileña de Distribuidores de Automóviles (AMDA), also wants to advise owners that you also have consumer rights if you have to visit the workshop for these repairs.

In the event that the vehicle suffers a fault covered by the warranty, the time spent in the workshop for repair will not count as part of the warranty period and that time will be added to the original date of termination of the warranty. It is necessary to request a receipt with the date of delivery and return of the vehicle, together with the repair report.

The buyer not only has rights when buying a car, but work carried out in authorised mechanic's workshops are guaranteed, whether it is a maintenance check or a repair.

It is however necessary to differentiate between two situations: when it is a repair covered by the legal guarantee, in this case the period of cover is six months; If it is a repair outside the warranty period, the workshop will be responsible for its work for three months or 2,000 kilometres.

Many manufacturers offer the option to optionally expand the warranty period.

The conditions vary according to the manufacturer, the length of time, mileage, and what is covered. Therefore, the conditions must be read carefully.

For more news and articles visit www.n332.es or search N332 on Facebook.

Can they ban dogs?

David Searl

You and the Law

in Spain

Q. In our community, we have always had a set of 'Internal Regulations of the Community of Owners' which are generally adhered to. However, a few owners have now brought dogs into the community.

Our Internal Regulations state that, 'No animals of any kind, except for guide dogs,

Perhaps I was too optimistic. First, if your Internal Regulations do not form part of the original Statutes of your community, but were passed later, then you do not have legal ground for may be kept in any part of the Complex.'

Our administrator accepts the rule but says that it would not be possible to enforce it. My copy of your book 'You & the Law in Spain' is quite clear that, if our regulations say No Dogs, then our community can enforce this. Can you confirm?

have legal grounds, but how do you enforce them? You will have to go to court and obtain a court order for the owner to remove his dog. If he does not, he will be held in contempt of court.

A boy named Sue and other resented baby names

WHEN I'm exhausted from thinking deep thoughts, (say, about Kim Jong-un and nuclear war or the Catalan independence issue) which is often, because I am a very deep and thoughtful person, I find myself contemplating the great philosophical questions. Like why do slebs choose such daft names for their kids?

Take, for instance, Jamie Oliver His fifth child River Rocket Blue Dallas, was born last year. His eldest, Poppy Honey, is now 15. In-between are Daisy Boo, Petal Blossom Rainbow and Buddy Bear. Good grief!

But a recent joint one fifth of grandparents dislike their offsprings' choice of baby name (with Aurora, Elijah, Finn, Noah and Tabitha among the most hated).

Mumsnet/Gransnet survey found

Then, we have Serena Williams calling her daughter Alexis Jr - named after the baby's father. What next with this name-jacking: a boy named after his mother? But, hey, didn't the late Johnny Cash have a thing or two to say about a boy named Sue?

But surely the daftest fashion now is giving a surname as a first name, such as the maternal grandma's maiden name. So girls are called McKenzie, Kennedy or, even dafter, Smith.

Yes, fashion is the killer: remember all the 80's girls called 'Crystal' and boys called 'Dean'? And what about madeup names? Remember how Wayne Rooney named one of his sons 'Klay'? Will the next be called 'Konkrete'? (Recall that song Concrete and Clay?)

I read about someone, on registering his daughter, asking the registrar what was the weirdest name he'd ever heard. Maybe it was a wind up, but he reminisced about a second generation Vietnamese family registering the birth of their son. Their surname was 'Dong' and they named him 'Ramalama Ding' poor kid with a name ending up sounding like something from Ann Summers' remaindered seconds counter.

When the next celebrity preg-nancy's announced in Hollywood, may I suggest a national primary school competition to choose the name? After all, the winning entry couldn't be half as daft as the ones given to the previous lot.

Nora Johnson's psychological crime thrillers 'The Girl in the Red Dress,' 'No Way Back,' 'Landscape of Lies,' 'Retribution,' 'Soul Stealer,' 'The De Clerambault Code' (www.norajohnson.net) available from Amazon in paperback/eBook (€0.99;£0.99) and iBookstore. THURSDAY THOUGHTS By Graham Braben, Almeria

columnists@euroweeklvnews.com

DOES anyone remember when the BBC convinced the nation that it had uncovered spaghetti trees? The report even came complete with footage of a spaghetti tree orchard. Well, if the BBC showed it, it must be true, even though they're the people who convinced many of us of the existence of talking plant pots in Bill and Ben. Despite that, we still find ourselves glued to programmes that we know can't be real.

There's a programme called Mountain Men that follows the lives of people who have opted out of society and gone to live in remote mountain areas in the USA. They live miles from anybody and people are amazed they can survive on their own with only a horse, a log cabin, cameramen, a director and at least two sound crew for company. To say nothing of the hospitality truck!

Then only recently, viewers expressed concern for a character in Coronation Street who had microwaved something whilst it was still in a metal tray. I think it's very nice of these people to be worried, but the thing is... it's pretend.

Thankfully, there are still quality programmes to be had. Yes, we may not have the BBC Shakespeare plays to enjoy, but compensation for that comes with our regular helpings of Come Dine With Me. Ouality indeed, but I do wonder, on the odd occasions I accidentally see a portion of the programme, whether we wouldn't rather see that narrator, the one with the most irritating voice on television, cooked on gas mark 5, rather than some of the disastrous concoctions that are attempted by the contestants!

I did want to finish with an important and erudite point about being slaves to TV, but Peppa Pig's just started so I've got to go.

Tenerife 24th February - 3rd March 2018

8 Days, 7 Nights. Half board inc wine/water. Hotel 3* Tryp, Los Cristianos. ONLY 799€ per person (single price 1,030€)

LOCATED very near the centre of Los Cristianos and just 200 metres from Los Cristianos beach, this hotel is ideal for discovering one of the most beautiful islands in the Atlantic Ocean.

Amongst its facilities and services, the hotel provides two pools (one for adults and one for children); spacious dining areas (Buffet Restaurant, Sport Bar and Blanco Bar); a fully equipped gym; mini golf; free high speed WiFi Internet throughout the hotel. Rooms are equipped with flat screen TVs, safety deposit boxes.

It is only 200 metres from the beach and the local bus stop to Playa de las Americas is only 100 metres from the hotel.

Once an old fishing town over the years Los Cristianos has experienced major expansion, making it a popular choice for an enjoyable holiday. Much of the action centres around the pedestrian area which borders the beach.

This long promenade is a haven for good quality restaurants, bars and cafés that offer food from around the world as well as typical Canarian dishes. By night, it lights up as one of the busiest places in the south of Tenerife, together with nearby Playa de las Americas.

The main beach is large, has golden sand, tranquil waters and is a hive of activity, with plenty of sunbeds and shower facilities. The next beach along is Playa de las Vistas which is another lengthy stretch of yellow soft sand with an abundance of amenities. Waters sports are on offer here; you can have fun on a pedalo or test your surfing ability.

Away from the beaches and promenade area, you will discover a labyrinth of shops including boutiques, designer labels and other great places to pick up a bargain, with numerous cafés and bars scattered amongst this shoppers' paradise.

Everywhere you look, the sea dominates the life it spawned here; the daily ferries to the other western islands dwarf the fishing boats in the harbour; ticket offices entice trips to see dolphins and whales, go deep sea fishing or gaze through glass bottom boats; fishing boats unload and string mackerel portside and sailing boats, kayaks and pedalos tack across the horizon.

Local buses can take you into nearby Los Gigantes or Playa de las Americas.

This excursion includes coach transfer to and from Alicante Airport, flights and a  $3^*$  Hotel on a half board basis including wine/water for only 799€ per person (1,030€ single price).

Bookings can be made online using our website www.coachtripsonline.com or by calling our office on 00 34 966 785 910, Monday - Saturday 10.00am-5.00pm and Sunday 10.00am-2.00pm.

Flashback Issue1680 14 - 20 September 2017

AS much as Leapy Lee is up to here with his so called 'Gender bender bull,' a lot of people are up to here with reading about his ignorance and I personally feel. as do many others, that he maybe needs a bit of re-educating.

After reading an article he wrote a few weeks ago about gays, lesbians and transgenders, I was left in disbelief how someone in this day and age actually still thinks like this. I appreciate that he is from a whole different generation than I am, and although claiming to be 'liberal minded' having grown up in the 60's, I think his attitude shows otherwise.

I was assured by the EWN that it is only his personal opinion and not those of the paper, but also 68 per cent of their readers feel the same way. But do they realise the harm that this kind of attitude can do? I think not.

My teenage children have gay friends and think nothing of it

I understand that 50 years ago it was taught that being gay or transgender was wrong. But come on, that was 50 years ago. And do you think that this stopped people being gay? Or stopped how they felt? Of course not. Being gay or transgender is not a trend, it's not something people do because it's fashionable.

People realise from a very young age whom they are attracted to. It's still a shame that a lot of gav teenagers don't 'come out' because they are afraid of the

Children are not the confused ones

A reader gives the other side of the argument in response to a recent column by EWN columnist Leapy Lee.

reactions of their families, but I ask myself, don't you know your children? Don't you have a relationship with them where they can feel they can be just who they want to be without the fear of rejection? I know many people who's parents can't accept that their son or daughter is gay, and I find that very sad.

My teenage children have friends that are gay and think nothing of it. My point is that finally people are realising it is 'normal' and parents of my generation don't bat an eyelid when their child is gay. That is just how it should be.

I am glad that Leapy says he has managed to come to terms with gay people adopting children, having seen some disastrous and tragic outcomes for children living with same sex parents. I would like to have known what those disasters were. Worse than the abuse that unfortunately goes on in so many homes with heterosexual parents?

Isn't the idea of 'Christianity' to love each other?

Then of course comes the topic of transgender. Feeling trapped inside the wrong body. You cannot comment on it really, unless you know how it feels. Maybe just listen, and instead of brushing it aside and saying 'what a load of gender bender bull' actually imagine how these children, teenagers and adults feel. They are forced into being someone they are not.

The child who had the full support from his parents and school who dressed as a girl, great, it couldn't be better, until the good 'Christian' parents of other children removed their children from that school? What are you teaching your children? To not accept people for who they are? Isn't the idea of 'Christianity' to love each other? And they don't have a problem with Jesus wearing a dress. If a girl dresses like a boy, she's a tom boy, nobody seems to have a problem with that, but a boy can't want to dress as a girl?? I thought what we are meant to be teaching children today is equal rights. Why do girls and boys have different uniforms at school if they are all the same?

Being gay or transgender can be a very hard thing to go through, but only because of the reaction of the people around them. The fear of not being accepted. I have done some research, spoken to a lot of people, wondering if this really is how 68 per cent of people think.

I've asked their opinions and I have had pretty honest answers. From the people aged 70 and above, they squirm a bit when asked, knowing they shouldn't be anti-gay but it was drummed into them when they were young. I understand this, but I think that instead of saying 'You are right, it's bull' as Leapy Lee has done, they need to understand that their attitudes can be harmful. They pass on their teachings and they produce children who become the bullies. The children who ridicule gay teens, who drive them to

I was surprised at the amount of people who self-harm

Self-harming is happening a lot, and it was something I never really knew much about. My life as a child and adolescent was happy, quite boring compared to a lot of people I have since met. I had no issues with anything, I had self-confidence, and luckily nothing traumatic had ever happened to me. But I have since met a lot of people who unfortunately have had abuse, or trauma in their lives, and I was surprised at the amount of people who self-harm. For those of you who don't know what self-harming is, as I am sure there are a lot of people who don't even know it goes on, it's when someone is made to feel so low, so unwanted, so ugly, so worthless that they cut themselves, burn themselves, starve themselves, hurt themselves, to relieve the pain, sometimes because they think they deserve it.

This happens a lot amongst gay and transgender teens and young adults.

Didn't the older generation fight for freedom in the war? It's what I was taught at school. Surely that means the right to be whomever you chose? I don't understand why it bothers anyone else what gender somebody wants to be. If a girl feels more like a boy and dresses as such then so what? And if a boy dresses as a girl, so what? Why does anybody else care? Why does it affect my child at school if the boy in the chair next to him decides he wants to be a girl? It doesn't.

It's not about being genderless, it's about not being labelled.

Because it was taught 50 years ago it doesn't make it right

So please, don't label people, don't judge them by the narrow-minded views so many of you have had drummed into you as a child. Just because it was taught to you 50 years ago it doesn't make it right, any more than the teachings of Hitler or Franco were right.

So Leapy why not try being a bit compassionate, or look into things before you judge everyone? You obviously have no idea to the harm you can be doing and how hurtful and disrespectful your words can be.

So all I ask of everyone is to accept people for who they are, because you have no idea what anyone is going through just trying to be who they really are.

EXCITEMENT is in the air, you open the door to your holiday home and the minute you drop your bags there's a sigh of contentment as you're ready to relax and unwind, or are you? Sometimes this is the moment you realise an unexpected incident has taken place, such as a burst pipe or a break in.

When you buy your insurance, as much as you'd prefer not to think about claiming, unfortunately it's not always avoidable. However Intasure have had a look at some of the most common reasons for a notification of claim and put together these top tips to help reduce the risk of something going wrong, so you can enjoy your holiday without a worry.

Escape of water

This type of claim could arise if water has escaped into the property as a result of burst pipes, leaky appliances, blocked drains or faulty boilers.

As well as damage to the property itself, additional costs may be incurred if you need to replace floors or walls used to gain access to fix the leaky pipe; otherwise known as trace and access.

Or your water bills have increased because of the amount of water lost; also known as loss of metered water.

Some precautions you can take to help prevent escape of water include:

• Turning off or draining all water when you leave the property for a long period of time.

How to reduce the risk of claiming on your property

INTASURE: Making sure your property is properly covered for every eventuality.

• Regular balcony maintenance, if worn away and exposed to the heat it can allow water to penetrate through the property.

Theft and attempted theft

A lot of people assume the only way to deter a burglar is to buy the most expensive home alarm system but if you're savvy enough there are lots of other steps you can take to secure your home:

• Let your neighbours know - they can keep an eye out for any suspicious activity

• Act like someone is home - keep the garden maintained and ask your neighbour to remove any post, as these are big giveaways, and purchase a light timer to switch on at prime hours.

• Remove any valuables - or at least remove them from view of the windows and doors, particularly if you plan to be away for a long period of time.

Intasure include all of these perils as standard on their holiday home and static caravan policies to give you the protection you require to safeguard your home. In the instance you have to make a claim, you can speak to one of their dedicated UK claims handlers who work with overseas loss adjusters and aim to resolve all claims as quickly and hassle free as possible.*

How Neater Heaters lead the way

THE last year has seen an upturn in the property market, with many people visiting Spain to renovate their property. Whether they are refurbishing them as a holiday home, rental business venture, or even their new permanent home, it is evident that people can see a brighter future ahead.

Tony and Richard at Neater Heater have been a godsend to those who need a solution to enhance their homes either for their own economical but stylish living, or even for those wishing to attract potential tenants.

Neater Heaters are designed to set up a more efficient way of heating the home so that, when compared to most other electric heaters, monthly bills can be reduced, which is music to anybody's ears.

The difference between a Neater Heater compared to most electric convector heaters is that most other electric heaters use their energy in getting the heater hot, whereas the Neater Heater is designed to heat the air in your room directly.

The element in most electric heaters has to get unnecessarily hot in order to heat the casing, which in turn, warms the air it contacts as it slowly heats up. You say With Neater Heaters, howvour ro ever, the air is drawn into the heater, where it is in direct contact with a very efficient element causing the air to heat up extremely rapidly.

You save time and money as your room is heated within minutes at a lower energy cost.

Neater Heaters are designed and built in Norway and Turkey, where these stylish heaters are hailed as the first

There are many designs that are on offer which can be incorporated into your room's colour pallet and style.

Neater Heaters will not restrict your furniture layout either, as there are so many options that you can work with if space is tight, including mounting the heater on factory designed feet if wall space is limited.

Choosing your requirements in the autumn also means that you have the full range to choose from, rather than suffering disappointment later in the year.

Airport moaner driven to distraction

I THINK Grumpy Expat from Coin must have been totally confused with his visit to Malaga Airport.

Yes it can be difficult to know where you're going as there are so many signs for different car parks. Since he 'ended up in the 'new' short term car park by accident' he obviously didn't know which car park he was looking for

The new space across from arrivals is convenient for collecting people and in fact is quite a good short cut to departures via the lifts and thus avoiding the drop-off car park and the dreaded 16 minutes, one second over and it's €2.63!!!

I have used the new arrivals car park several times over the summer months collecting family and on average paid €1.60 for around 10 minutes.

In fact my last visit I waited 25 minutes for my brother and that cost me €3.25!

R G Waugh, Fuengirola

Double trouble

REFERENCE your story on page 35 of the Costa Blanca North edition issue 1683:

I am livid! Subsidising the day trippers to Granadella is a total abuse by the council of citizens' IBI payments, and will surely make Costa Nova residents even angrier.

I understand from a friend that attended that council meeting that the councillor responsible said it had cost €33,000, far less than the figure you quoted! Manipulation of figures for political means?

If it is repeated the council

LA GRANADELLA: Free park and ride a disgrace?

MUST charge for the service.

If the Spanish won't pay it then there will be less of a problem down there. If the businesses object, then they must pay for the service.

On another matter, driving down to the Arenal today there were police people at crossings for the children going to school. Two jumped out in front of me from the shadows and I only just saw them in time. They must wear 'hi vis' jackets for this job!

Cataluña to 'declare independence'

CATALAN authorities have announced a landslide 'yes' vote in Sunday's illegal referendum.

Why is no one talking about the irregularities during this 'referendum?

Why were the boxes full of votes before arriving at the polls?

How is it possible that a village of 700 people voted 2,000 times.... That was one of the reasons this was declared illegal as it was not regulated.

The percentage is also wrong as the Catalonians that didn't agree with the referendum didn't vote.

Fmilia

They had a legal referendum not so long ago and the people voted to stay part of Spain. So if politicians don't get the vote they want they can resort to illegal tactics. I'm not condoning the violence in any way.

Barbara Jago

End of my rainbow (Leapy Lee)

HI kids, This is your trendy Dad telling you how much I love you and how much I enjoyed speaking to you all at my recent appearance at Glastonbury.

Ol' Little Arrows has now flipped completely onto his Bside! Utter tripe from a fantasist who knows nothing about the real Jeremy Corbyn - only the lies and rubbish in the UK gutter press. Just watch Leapy as your favourite party implodes this weekend and sacks the PM - again! Sam B

US man killed in Barcelona's family to sue

THE daughters of a Californian man killed in the terror attack on Las Ramblas, Barcelona have filed a law suit against three social media firms 'for aiding, abetting and knowingly providing support and resources' to a terror group.

They probably won't win but it will definitely raise a huge flag for the creator of social media. If Facebook for example can catch a photograph of a woman breastfeeding and disable the account for content, I am pretty sure they are capable of filtering terrorist sites as well. They may at least step up to the plate a bit more with this warning to be held accountable.

Rhea Rouw

I think the family know they probably can't beat big corporate lawyers, but at least they have drawn attention to how weak FB are. They seem to let any criminal and terrorist hoods on to mix with decent people. Gangsters using Facebook to sell stolen goods and counterfeit goods. But its when you open a page and some big terrorist jumps out at you.

It's illegal

I REALLY fail to understand all the hand-wringing over the Catalan Independence Referendum. It is against Spanish law and should not therefore be recognised. Time for PM Rajoy to show what he is made of!

Sick as a dog

YOUR piece on the 112 Carlota Galgos dog sanctuary (EWN Costa del Sol issue 1683) really hit the nail on the head with regard to hunting dog cruelty in Spain. Why don't the government do something about these barbaric practices?

Jill Jones. Estepona

Leapy again

I DID say in my previous letter that I would not be writing again because of this man's extreme racist views, but I thought his latest comments on Jeremy Corbyn need to be put into context. There are roughly 200 countries in the world of which only nine have nuclear weapons. No Southern Hemisphere nation has them, and among those that do 95 per cent are in the hands of Trump and Putin. Anyone with any semblance of common sense can see that any of the remaining seven would be annihilated from the face of the earth if they ever dared to use them!

Ray Osborne, Los Alcazares

THERE he was again, prattling on about rainbows, Corbyn and Michael Eavis. He enlightened us on our nuclear defence and how Corbyn would rid us of this and stick flowers down the barrels of enemy soldiers. Well Mr Lee, let me remind you of one of the first rules of national security and that's to protect your leader! The lapse in security at the Tory Party conference was scandalous. When someone handed her a P45, allegedly from the parties' full time jester Boris!! With all the major security scares of late they let someone within spitting distance, in the middle of a speech, in a party conference. If the P45 had been a gun, knife or hand grenade. Slack!!

not worth it buy it from your local company that will install and give you a guarantee, plus we will be here long after the cowboys have ridden back out of the Costa's you know it makes sense in the long run.

Another very popular service is the 'family donation.' You have the right to gift your Spanish property in life to

Spanish sausages!

THE Spanish love their sausages. Whether they be long and thin or short and thick, the quality of sausages in Spain is very important in Spain. This week we take a look at the top five Spanish sausages.

1. Chorizo

Possibly the most famous variety of Spanish sausage, also the most infamous for being pronounced incorrectly (chuhree-zoh). This essential pork sausage can be chopped or ground, plain or smoked, long or thin. Smoked paprika gives it the distinct flavour and red colour.

2. Morcilla

A blood sausage known as black pudding in the UK. It is a popular snack and a favourite ingredient in stews due to its chewy texture and creamy centre. Typically made

3. Salchichon

A summer favourite, salchichon is made with pork and other varieties of meat including beef, boar, horse and venison. It is seasoned with a host of spices including nutmeg, oregano and garlic and stuffed into intestinal casings. It can be smoked but the traditional method is to air dry it.

4. Botillo

A robust sausage, it is dark red in colour. This striking meaty length is made from various cuts of pig such as tail, tongue, ribs, jaw and bones. The level of spice varies upon the butcher making it and it is usually seasoned with numerous herbs including garlic and paprika. The meat is encased in the cecum (the pouch connecting the small and large intestine) of the pig and it is a Spanish favourite in soups and

YOUR STARS FOR NEXT 7 DAYS

(January 21 - February 19)

There is a wonderful enthusiasm about you at the moment. Seeing the reaction of others to you, it occurs that you should have taken this attitude before. Therefore, make a resolution to put more energy into everything that you do.

Something new which you started in recent weeks becomes more than a passing interest. Although it may be surprising to you, it is owing to a predictable situation. opening your mind, you also to have opened your seem heart. Many people do that at this time of the year and so you are not alone

(March 21 - April 20) Being totally inspired this week, you could be tempted to let enthusiasm run away with vou. It is a lovely feeling, like being a child again. Be sure to have fun, but do keep as much money in your pocket as possible

There will be a certain amount of discussion regarding holiday plans. You know what you want but how do you persuade others? It's quite easy really. All you have to do is to get someone else to suggest a certain place. You then agree and it looks like their idea.

(May 22 - June 21) You are so sharp that there is a danger vou will cut vourself! Seriously, though, try not to appear pompous over a certain matter. You may be right and you may be clever, but smarty pants are rarely popular. Some of that sharpness gets things going for you in the love department, though.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23)

With everyone busy round you, the chance may be taken to show what you are capable of. Instead of watching someone make a pig's ear of a work project, offer to help. It's important, though, to let them think any bright ideas were theirs. Giving praise now will mean it coming back to you ten-fold. Be aware that a close friend is in a delicate frame of mind

A business partnership takes on a romantic tinge this week. It is possible that the other party sees this as more significant than you. To avoid problems later it would be best to let them do all the running. Unless, of course, you are determined to run yourself. With a lot of excitement in the air it is possible for you to show just what fun you can be. Enjoy!

(August 24 - September 23)

Your outgoing attitude is spot on. Some may say you are a little crazy, the way you go for things. Each person has their own way and yours can be quite unique but that certainly does not make it wrong. People who make the world around us that little bit more colourful are gems.

Some legal matters need your attention. That's not really what you want at this time of the vear. A decision has to be made and it needs a fine balance. Asking others may just confuse matters, so only seek expert advice. At the end of the day, you will know what is both best and acceptable. An attempt to bring romance into your life may be more successful than you think.

(October 24 - November 22) A last-minute invitation turns out to be just the ticket in more ways than one. An invitation to join a holiday may be proffered. This is unusual, certainly, but keep an open mind. Your company is clearly well appreciated so why not make that a point of pride? Let's face it, who is best equipped to blow your trumpet?

SAGITTARIUS (November 23 - December 21)

Someone you mistrust offers to add to your celebrations. Why not call a truce? We both know that little long term will come out of it, but who cares? Sometimes, it is better to share one good moment with someone than none at all.

As you are in the limelight, it comes as no surprise that admiration comes your way. What may surprise you, however, is the direction it comes from. Who would have thought that such a situation would arise?

Each number in the Code Breaker grid represents a different letter of the alphabet. In this week's puzzle, 11 represents V and 19 represents R, so fill in V every time the figure 11 appears and R every time the figure 19 appears. Now, using your knowledge of the English language, work out which letters should go in the missing squares. As you discover the letters, fill in other squares with the same number in the main grid and the control grid.

CFast cosmetic tooth alignment

DO your teeth stop you from smiling as much as you would like?

With CFast you could be smiling like a Hollywood star in a few months!

CFast is fast - you will have straight front teeth in about six months.

CFast is discreet - the wires and brackets are almost invisible.

CFast is affordable - the short treatment time dramatically cuts the cost.

CFast is a gentle, minimally invasive, cosmetic treatment that corrects alignment issues with the top and bottom front six teeth. This new process of aligning adult teeth is quicker than traditional methods as the treatment is concentrated around the front teeth, the 'social smile.'

Usually the front six teeth are aligned, but can include eight or 10 in order to get the smile proportions correct. In this way, as the back teeth are not touched, the chewing position is not interfered with.

I was able to get perfect results within 4 months and I now have the Hollywood smile I always wanted

COSMETIC Tooth Algoment

CFAST: Get the social smile that you have always wanted.

The alignment is the first part of a possible three-part treatment. The second two parts are optional and not necessary for everyone.

After the alignment part of the process, the client can choose to bleach the newlystraightened teeth. The final part of the process is bonding tooth-coloured plastic or porcelain veneers onto the teeth to fill in any gaps that may have appeared during the alignment process.

after the initial explanation of treatment and planning, is to take moulds and xrays. These images are taken to ensure there are no hidden issues with the existing teeth.

The moulds and x-rays are sent to the specialist laboratory in the UK and a computerised, digital plan is created. This 3D plan is sent back to Medcare and treatment begins.

The beauty of CFast is that by using clear brackets and tooth-coloured nickeltitanium wires placed on the front surface of the teeth, CFast is readily accepted and proving hugely popular across the world. Indeed, CFast is very discreet and hard to notice unless people get really close.

CFast will not affect your speech or eating, and has been used by some very famous people without the press ever knowing.

WHILE the typical urge following a stressful day is to go and blow off some steam, not everyone immediately thinks of hitting the gym.

particular. Yoga usually tops the list as it combines mind and body exercises which focus specifically on relaxation.

Not only does it help you to zone out but also reduces musmovements which aim to connect mind and body - promoting a sense of calm and serenity at the same time.

Although peaceful in nature, tai chi is still a great workout as it engages your entire body while helping you to stay in the moment.

Kickboxing is also an effective way of getting rid of tension. What better way to shake off the day's problems than by punching and kicking them out of your system?

As the movements are performed with discipline, it promotes staying in control but can also be a rigorous workout at the same time. It also improves flexibility, balance and coordination.

Mad about micellar

By Kat Ashton

THE magical solution that is micellar water may have only gained international acclaim on the beauty market recently, but it has actually been around

It was first used in France to help Parisians avoid the region's harsh water and the famous formula actually dates back to research from the University of Bristol in exposing it to any harsh chemicals.

Micelles are tiny drops of oil suspended in soft water that help clear skin of impurities.

Unsurprisingly, it makes a fantastic make-up remover and leaves your face looking glowing and hydrated

> The water's gentle formula means that it can be used on all skin types, even super-dry and acne-prone skin, and it's multipurpose nature makes it great for travelling, as it can act as a substitute many of your normal beauty products.

This savvy solution could even help you cut down on your water bill as you don't have to rinse it off when finished, you just let it absorb into the skin and reap the benefits.

It also contains very few ingredients so is a great choice if you want to purify your skincare routine and step away from products that contain lots of chemicals.

Hair care brands have also started to incorporate the micellar formula into their products as its gentle properties help to clean hair without stripping it of all its natural oil.

New research from Mintel has revealed that one in three British women have made changes to their hair care routine because of damage concerns.

Many hair care companies are lured to micellar water because it silicone, sulphate and paraben-free and also helps to keep scalps healthy by reducing irritation and flakiness. It should be noted, however, that the product needs to be rinsed out when used on hair like regular shampoo.

Mintel is the world's leading market intelligence agency.

What's in a full English really?

By Kat Ashton

SCIENTISTS have devised a new full English breakfast to more accurately reflect the DNA of the average Brit.

Researchers from Londonbased firm AncestrvDNA found that the average Englishman is actually only 37 per cent British when it comes to genetics.

To give an accurate portrayal of what this looks like, scientists made a few changes to the ingredients of a typical English breakfast and have ditched bacon and baked beans for Iberico pork and French cassoulet.

They also suggest that traditional fried eggs should be replaced with Scandanavian baked eggs, hash browns should be switched with Irish potato farls and fried tomatoes should be swapped for Italian mozzarella-stuffed tomatoes.

According to AncestryDNA. the average Brit's DNA actually contains genes from 26 regions around the world, including: - 20.5 per cent Western European (hence the French cas-

- soulet beans)
- 20.3 per cent Irish - 9.5 per cent Scandinavian
- 3 per cent Iberian
- 2 per cent Italian / Greek

The scientists from AncestryDNA used a saliva sample to test the genes of people from across the UK.

They found Yorkshire folk to have the most Anglo-Saxon ancestry, with 41 per cent, while London was proven to be the most ethnically diverse region in the UK.

The East Midlands were revealed to have the most Scandinavian blood (10.37 per cent) as well as the most Eastern European (2.4 per cent) while those from the east of England have the most Italian/Greek (2.5 per cent).

Many of the new additions to the full English are also healthier, as well as being more reflective of your true heritage, as baked eggs are lower in saturated fat than fried and cassoulet beans have much fewer added flavours and preservatives when made from scratch.

Migraine pain

SPECIALIST: Doctor Luis Perez Belmonte.

WHAT causes migraines?

A migraine is caused by abnormal brain activity, which can be triggered by many factors.

However, the exact chain of events remains unclear. The changes affect bloodflow in the brain and surrounding tissues.

Migraines can also be triggered by any of the following: caffeine withdrawal, changes in hormone levels during the menstrual cvcle, the use of birth control pills, changes in sleep patterns, alcohol, exercise or other physical stress, loud noises or bright lights, fasting, certain scents and perfumes, smoking or exposure to smoke, stress and anxiety.

Certain foods can also trigger migraines. The most common are: chocolate. dairy products, certain cheeses, foods containing tyramine such as red wine, mature cheese, smoked fish. chicken liver, figs, certain beans, fruits (avocado, bananas, citrus fruits ), meats containing nitrates (bacon, hotdogs, salami, cured meats), onions, peanuts and other nuts and seeds and processed, fermented, pickled or marinated foods.

Can they be prevented? You can take measures such as avoiding all circumstances and foods that cause migraines, which substantially reduces the likelihood of an episode.

Early identification of the signs that suggest an episode is starting, and taking appropriate measures are the best ways to prevent progression.

What can be done to lessen the pain?

There is no specific cure for migraine headaches. The goal is to treat the symptoms of migraines immediately and prevent migraines by avoiding or altering things that can trigger them.

If an episode persists, despite making efforts to combat it, then you should rest and take painkillers and muscle relaxants.

Sometimes you can use certain drugs that can block the episodes in their tracks, which must be prescribed by a doctor.

Can they be a sign of a more serious disease or condition?

Overall, migraines are usually benign and produce no lasting side effects.

However, it is important to consult a medical specialist when the symptoms appear, and to get regular check-ups.

If you have any questions for Dr Perez Belmonte, please send them to: jefemedico @helicopterossanitarios.com

THE natural cosmetic trend is now branching out into the nail industry.

Many nail care brands have brought out products that not only help to keep your fingertips up to date with the latest colour trends, but promote nail health as well.

In-demand skincare ingredients, such as argan oil and soy, are becoming more common in nail care products as consumers recognise them for their rich nutritional value and health-promoting benefits.

To address the growing concern about the impact of environmental pollution on the body, beauty giant NailsInc has launched a new polish that contains charcoal which helps to protect nails from external toxins.

Like many companies in the beauty industry, nail brands are conscious about overusing chemicals in their products, so are turning to diet-inspired ingredients instead. Superfoods such as kale, carrots, turmeric and almonds are all thought to be beneficial for nail health and have been creeping into new products over the last few months.

Mintel's research suggest that there is more of a demand for 'gentle' nail polish remover, as many on the market are harsh on nails and strip them of their outer layers. Several brands have launched 'vegan' alternatives which are made entirely from natural ingredients and help keep nails strong and healthy.

Switching your nail products for health-conscious alternatives could actually make all the difference as an increasing number of studies have also revealed that prolonged periods of exposure to chemical fumes from varnishes and other tonics are linked to health conditions including respiratory problems and migraines

While these side effects are most common among nail salon employees who are exposed to these chemicals every day, it is always better to be safe than sorry.

Ask the Optician: How can we help the Deaf-Blind?

Saher Shrief, Store Director from Specsavers Opticas Torrevieja

UNTIL the end of the year, Specsavers are raising money for the Once Foundation for the Deaf-Blind (La Fundación ONCE para la Atención de Personas con Sordoceguera - FOAPS) by offering free comprehensive eye tests and asking patients to donate €1 to FOAPS after their test. To raise awareness of the difficulties that the deaf-blind face, we wanted to dedicate this month's column to this important topic.

Who are FOAPS?

FOAPS is a charitable organisation formed in 2007 by leading Spanish charity ONCE to develop programmes to help deaf-blind people. They are particularly interested in helping with education and employment, improving the quality of life and encouraging integration and development.

What is Deaf-Blindness?

This disability results from the combination of two sensory impairments - visual and hearing, which can manifest in different levels of severity. This causes unique communication problems and special needs caused by the difficulty with interacting with people and the outside world.

How can deaf-blind people communicate? This depends on the severity of the sight and hearing loss, many people use sign language if their vision is good enough. They can also use tactile sign language, where the deaf-blind person puts their hands over the signer's hands to feel the shape, movement and location of the > signs. FOAPS provide interpreters who can help the deaf-blind communicate and interact with the world. What are you fundraising for?

> The FOAPS interpreters are the eves, ears and often voice of the deafblind and have a crucial role to play. We hope that through our campaign we can raise enough money to fund an extra 400 hours of an interpreter. This costs €6,000 so we need 6,000 people to come in and have their eyes tested and make a donation before the end of the year.

How can I support the campaign?

Just come into your nearest Specsavers Opticas store for an eye test and donate €1 between now and the end of December.

Visit www.specsavers.es to find your nearest store and book an eye test.

LIQUID DIET: Try to set a daily water goal and stick to it.

Fountain of youth

By Kat Ashton

WHILE it is easy to remember to reach for a glass of water on a hot day or after a strenuous workout, a lot of people miss the mark when it come to drinking the recommended two litres a day.

Our bodies need water to function efficiently as it regulates body temperature, delivers nutrients to our organs and helps to prevent infections by getting rid of toxins. Your body will tell you if you're dehydrated, but these signs can be easy to miss - especially if you live a hectic lifestyle.

Common signs of dehydration include fatigue, thirst, dizziness and even confusion. A lot of people also suffer from headaches when they are dehydrated for a prolonged period of time and skin can also start to dry out and become flaky. There are many benefits to drinking lots of water. Research has shown that it can give you more energy, make you stronger and improve your reflexes.

It has also been proven to have a significant impact on the brain as it can boost concentration, memory and even your mood. As dehydration can cause headaches and fatigue, you're bound to feel better throughout the day if you always have a bottle of water on hand.

If you want the kind of glowing, radiant skin you usually see in skin care commercials, the answer might be much simpler, and cheaper than buying a fancy new product.

Drinking plenty of water has been shown to help clear up spots and can even make you look younger. As up to 30 per cent of our skin is water, it needs regular tops-ups to keep it looking plump and elastic.

THE crimson idol will live again in Murcia.

Eighties shock rockers, Wasp, will be bringing the 25th anniversary tour of one of their most successful albums to Sala Gamma.

Once they raised eyebrows with profane lyrics and explicit on-stage antics, now they shock the world in a different way as the lead singer, Blackie Lawless, became a born-again Christian.

Make no mistake, the group pack as much of a punch as they ever did and have been riding high on the success of their most recent album in 2015, Golgotha.

Released in 1992, The Crimson Idol was the autobiographical album of the lead singer.

With heart-wrenching lyrics and emotional guitar solos, the tale of the troubled soul's rise to fame is told through song including how he was used and abused by the music industry, his long-standing war with his parents and his battle with drug addiction.

The album has been re-recorded to now include three songs which did not make the original disc and the tour has been aptly named Re-idolised: The

Cast no shadow

THE man with no name may have visited Almeria but Alicante is set to experience the Man Without a Shadow tour as a musical genius comes to town.

Mikel Erentxun is bringing his acoustic show to the city's Teatro Principo where rhythm and melody are set to delight the crowd.

He delights in classic sounds and sings with a natural sensitivity whilst swaying between rock and roll numbers and powerful ballads.

Former main member of the group, Duncan Dhu, Mikel has enjoyed a most successful solo career and is one of the leading names in Spanish pop rock.

His success has never dulled and he has recently toured in America, such is his popularity and renown.

With an exuberant restlessness, he has evolved his music well over time, inspiring many musicians and opening doors within his own mind to new ideas and sounds.

The show begins at 8.30pm and tickets for the event can be purchased at the venue's box office on Plaza Ruperto Chapi or online at teatroprinci paldealicante.com.

The festival was officially opened on the Friday with the traditional tapping of the first beer barrel by the president of the German community. This was followed by a programme of live music and a tombola with a chance for all those that attended to win some great prizes.

VISIT OUR WEBSITE WWW.EUROWEEKLYNEWS.COM

SPAIN is lagging behind on its green homes commitments. Like all EU countries it is required to have a zero energy consumption plan in place for new homes by 2020.

But while the likes of Denmark and Holland race ahead with ambitious strategies to build the sustainable homes of the future, Spain is either keeping its plans quiet or hasn't got any.

After 2020 all new homes built across the EU are required to meet certain minimum eco-standards.

Buildings must be almost entirely energy efficient, recycling energy they consume and using techniques including solar panels and geothermal facilities to generate their own power.

For public buildings, such as government offices, the deadline is as early as next year.

There are already dozens of residential buildings in Spain which don't use up any more energy than they produce. Most are built by innovative architectural firms around Madrid.

But Spanish regulations are still stuck in the fossil fuel ages and have made no provisions for the emergence of these next-generation, green homes.

One important question is what happens to all the surplus energy produced. Does it go back to homeowners in the form of tax cuts? Or are people punished for producing too much energy?

These questions are being tackled in major policy papers across the continent but are unremarked on by the Spanish government, which has only two years to form an entirely new property regime.

Prices power on

By Matthew Elliott

WITH statistics from the third quarter of the year now in, Spain's property market is showing fine form.

The price of second-hand homes increased by an average of 1.3 per cent across the country from July to the end of September.

The Spanish average for second-hand properties now stands at €1,716 per square metre. That represents a yearon-year increase of 4.8 per cent, the highest increase since May 2007.

The data comes from Fotocasa's real estate index. Head of analysis at Fotocasa, Beatriz Toribio, said: "the real estate sector is, this year, registering increases that we have not seen since the most spectacular years in the industry's history," referring to the 2004-2007 period.

She stressed, however, that recent increases are partly so high because the market is bouncing back from a very low position.

The truth about pool heating costs

www.euroweeklynews.com

SPONSORED BY

THERE are a lot of myths when it comes to pool heating costs. Because many people still think of gas, electrical or high-maintenance solar panel heating systems. However the only solution that is truly economical and fail-safe is the air source heat pump. It is widely used in domestic heating across Europe and requires only a small amount of electricity to extract heat from the air and transfer it to the water

A high quality heat pump ensures you can enjoy your pool 365 days of the year, getting the best out of your investment while swimming in water temperatures of 29°C for less than €2 per day.

While the sun shines for free, most sunlight-based systems (such as solar mats or vacuum tubing panels) require you to leave the filter pump running continuously in order to reach proper temperatures, especially on less sunny days. This can boost your electric bill by €300 to €950 a year. Costs to operate gas and electrical heaters can range from €300 to €500 per month and even more, depending on the fuel or electrical costs within your region.

Air source heat pumps do not require direct sunlight, just the ambient Spanish air is sufficient, making this the n°1 solution even on cloudy days. Poolworx delivers efficient and professional Duratech heat pumps, using high quality heat exchangers made of PVC and titanium. For each kilowatt consumed by the heat pump, six kilowatts can be returned to the pool, which means five out of every six kilowatts are free Poolworx finds that nine out of 10 visitors at their site, whom are looking to install a pool heating solution, choose a heat pump simply because of the dependability, low operating cost and eco-friendly character.

Spanish-Costa customers confirm what the tests and research show; the total average cost amounts to €25-€90 per month, for an 8x4 pool, considering local climate and usage conditions. It's that simple fact which makes a lot of common sense.

Only one day is needed to complete the installation and you're ready to enjoy your heated pool during the coming winter months! Read more interesting facts and figures on their website men-

TEACHING your dog tricks is every dog owner's dream, but you must start with basic obedience. Your dog should know the basic commands (sit. down, heel, stand, and come) before you attempt any type of trick training. Once you have these mastered, you can build on them with one of these three simple tricks.

Begging

This trick is best taught by first having your dog sit in a corner of the room with you standing in front of him.

This allows the corner to support your dog and keep him from Using food, hold it above your dog and entice him to reach up and take it. Progress slowly, each time encouraging the dog to rise higher.

Once your dog is balancing well in the corner, slowly move your dog outward and attempt the trick.

Expect some regression when the dog loses the support of the walls and move slowly until the dog perfects it.

Shaking hands

Start with your dog in a sitting position.

Giving the verbal command 'shake,' outstretch your right hand until it is a few inches in front of your dog's right leg.

Your outstretched hand is the non-verbal cue for this trick.

Using your left hand, gently push or prod her right leg forward until it rests in your right hand. Praise.

After practising several sessions, slowly try to reduce the amount of prompting until only the verbal or non-verbal command is needed.

Shaking the head Shaking the Head 'No.'

Start with your dog in a sitting position.

You will need to find something that will cause the dog to shake his head naturally. Blowing lightly on the ear, tickling the ear with a feather, or lightly attaching a paper clip to one ear are some things that can work. You do not want to cause the dog pain.

Once you have discovered a method that will cause your dog to shake his head, decide on a nonverbal and verbal cue you want to use. 'Head' along with shrugging the shoulders is a good idea. You do not want to use the word 'no' as you are likely to use this word when scolding the dog and this will lead to confusion.

Using both cues, stimulate the dog to shake his head. Reward, even if it is only a small movement.

Take a momentary break and then try again. Don't repeat the trick more than five times in one session

Eventually, try signalling the dog with only the verbal or nonverbal cues as well as signalling the dog from a standing and a lying position.

Sharing is caring!

Contenders for 2018 World Car of the Year

by Matthew Elliott

NOMINEES for the World Car Awards 2018 have now been announced. There are six different categories: design; luxury; performance: green: urban: and the overall World Car of the Year, which was won by Jaguar's F-Pace for 2017.

The 'shortlist' for 2018 includes 35 models. They come from all regions of the world. Interestingly the field is dominated by SUVs and 4x4s, with just one fully electric vehicle, the Nissan Leaf, in sight. There are 21 SUVs and 4x4s among the world's top 35 contenders.

Judges are motoring journalists from across the world and only cars released in the past year and which are available for purchase in either five countries or two continents can be considered. After a few months of testing the field will be narrowed down before Christmas.

All the usual suspects are included in the 35strong running for the World Car of the Year Award. BMW, Mercedes, Volkswagen and Volvo are especially well-represented. Topping the luxury field are the Audi A8, Cayenne and Panamera from Porsche, and the Lexus LS.

In the performance field, Audi has its RS3 Sedan and RS5 Coupe in the running. They'll be up against the BMW M5, Honda

Motoring shorts Bloodhound blur

TWENTY years after setting the world landspeed record, Britain's Bloodhound SSC is back in business. New footage has been released showing the supersonic, rocket-shaped car firing up its engine.

Driver and former RAF pilot, Andy Green, is preparing to steer the Bloodhound to a record-breaking speed of 1,000mph. In 1997 Green captained the car to the current landspeed record of 763mph.

The Bloodhound wields a EJ200 Eurofighter jet engine. It will be further boosted by a Nammo rocket cluster which will generate the face-bending speeds guided by an estimated 135.000 hp.

Testing is still underway. Last week's video, filmed in Cornwall, England, shows that the team are still working on their record-breaking goal. The team hope to hit 1,000mph on a track in South Africa next vear.

Ultimate meals on wheels

A KITCHEN in a Land Rover is the latest culinary stunt from British celebrity chef Jamie Oliver. The TV chef worked with top engineers from the company to create 'the ultimate kitchen on wheels.'

Inside the Land Rover Discovery they've managed to cram a slow-cooker. ice-cream maker and barbecue. There's an extendable dinner table that slides out from the boot, olive oil dispenser, a miniature herb garden in the windows and even butter churners in the wheels.

Other masterful touches include a toaster and jam packs in the centre console, a spice rack, and the conversion of the gear box into a salt and pepper grinder.

Head of Land Rover's special engineering division, David Fairbairn, said, "we never imagined we'd be asked to produce wheels that churn butter." Oliver, also known as the Naked Chef, said the team 'blew his mind' with their creation

It's not the only unusual adaptation the British brand has made lately. The Range Rover Sport 2018 model will come equipped with two three-pin plug sockets so people can charge domestic appliances, including laptops.

De Gea in safe hands at United - for now?

UK*SPORTSCENE*

with Andrew Atkinson

DAVID DE GEA returns to club football on Saturday October 14 as Manchester United travel to Liverpool in the Premier League - with Spain's national keeper in safe hands at Old Trafford for now?

> DAVID DE GEA: World No 1.

"David is really happy at the moment," said club and country teammate Ander Herrera.

Real Madrid have pursued long-term target United stopper de Gea for two years - and speculation rose its head when he sold his £3.85 million house in September.

Reds' goalie de Gea is currently renting a property, leading some pundits to link him to a move to Real Madrid next year.

De Gea's 'on-off' moves to Real from Old Trafford have collapsed twice - when the La Liga Champions failed to complete a deal.

And Herrera, who moved to United from Athletic Bilbao in 2014, said de Gea, 26, will not move to the Bernabeu any time soon. "We are going to try to keep him at the club - for as long as possible. I can see him staying here for more years," said midfielder Herrera.

United boss Jose Mourinho has ambitions to lead United to the Premier League title this season and Herrera said: "We need to win titles to keep David with us - that's what we did last season."

> In the wake of Real's unsuccessful attempts to lure de Gea to Spain they have turned their sights to Athletic Bilbao

By Andrew Atkinson

CD MONTESINOS chalked up their first win of the season in an emphatic 4-2 win against Hondon Nieves CF in the 1st Regional Division at the Municipal Stadium, Los Montesinos, Alicante - with Brazilian born striker Vazquinho scoring a hat-trick.

"After the first three games of the season results have been difficult against good teams - the win against Hondon was magnificent," CD Montesinos manager Carlos Perez exclusively told the EWN.

Hondon, fifth in the table, took the lead after just one minute from the penalty spot, in what was a controversial decision after a dubious hand ball against third bottom Montesinos.

Vazquinho levelled after 11 minutes when rifling the ball into the roof of the net, following an assist from Maccan. Hondon replied three minutes later when netting past Dani in the Monte goal to lead 2-1.

Hondon were awarded another penalty on 17 minutes, only for Dani to pull off a wonder save to the applause of the 200-crowd. Carlos Ventura levelled at 2-2 after 25 minutes when slotting the ball past the visitor's keeper.
