by Harrison Jones

National Police in central Alicante have arrested a suspected paedophile, 73, on suspicion of a horrifying attempt to kidnap an eightyear-old girl, reports say.

In a separate incident, the man is accused of luring two teenagers into having sex with him in his campervan, where police found a stash of weapons, sex toys and drugs.

Witnesses told local media that the girl was browsing a shop window in Luceros Square when the man allegedly tried to grab her arm. Observers reportedly intervened to help the young child's mother, who confronted the man.

Police later said they found a gun, various objects of a sexual nature and a kilo of marihuana in the caravan where the man is believed to live.

He was also carrying Viagra-type tablets, scissors and latex gloves when found, police say.

Despite an apparent attempt to disguise himself, police apprehended the man in a nearby street after he ran away from the incident at around midday on Saturday.

The man was reportedly detained two weeks ago for the incident with two teenagers, before being bailed, according to reports, which suggest he offered money and drugs for sex.

The Spanish newspaper El Pais said sources close to the man have claimed his wife kicked him out of their home after discovering that he was having sex with underage girls.

Thought to be Spanish, he has now been remanded in custody.

Reports suggest he claims to have merely had a brief conversation with the youngster and denies trying to abduct her.

A spokesman for Alicante National Police reportedly said: "A search of his camper van following his arrest resulted in the seizure of more than a kilo of cannabis buds, a .38 revolver, brand-new children's toys and several adult sex toys.

"Once his identity had been confirmed, it was discovered that days earlier he had been

"That was related to allegations he would regularly invite two girls aged 15 and 16 to his mobile home and offer them cannabis, cigarettes and money in exchange for sex."

A BRITISH mother who failed to collect her three-year-old son from police in Costa Blanca for half a day has reportedly had him temporarily taken into custody.

Local media say a judge in the Superior Court of Justice of the Valencia Community took the boy away from the woman, who was accused of abandonment.

Sculp stays

ALICANTE'S butterfly sculpture - Manolo Valdes' La Mariposa piece - will remain in the city, but its final location is undecided, according to local media. The Hortensia Herrero Foundation will reportedly acquire the work and donate it.

Child fix

THE Spanish Minister of Health inaugurated the children's hospital in La Arrixaca, reports say. The facility has been operational for months but was officially opened last week. Intensive care and mental health units are available.

Rob repeat

A 34-YEAR-OLD who had just been released from prison has been arrested for robbing a store in Murcia, National Police say. The man reportedly stole €345 after threatening the shop assistant.

Mayor backs girl ref after 'hate crime'

MEETING: The girl (second from left), 17, has received widespread support.

ALICANTE'S City Council say they could intervene in a case involving a young female referee, who allegedly suffered threats and sexist insults from two local club officials.

On Monday, the mayor, councillor for sports and a representative from the Alicante refereeing committee had a meeting with the girl, who is 17.

The authority said that the case against her could constitute a hate crime.

Intimidating and threatening behaviour was allegedly directed at the girl, as well as derogatory comments.

She was officiating a children's match between Tombola Athletic Club and Racing Akra CF on January 14, when the men allegedly made the comments.

The game was reportedly the eighth that she has refereed. Her identity - and that of the two men involved - has not been revealed. Alicante's mayor, Gabriel Echavarri, has backed the referee. According to translated reports, he said the behaviour was "the worst consequences of a chauvinism that remains blatant in today's society." He continued: "We should not tolerate any type of grievance regardless of the sex of the person, and more if they are doing their professional work.

"Only by educating the youngest will we be able to change our society one day." He added that club staff must set an example to youngsters. The girl has filed a complaint to the Referees Committee of the Valencian Football Federation and the case could end up in court, reports say.

According to Spanish media, there are only five female referees - out of 119 - in the Alicante area.

CROWNING GLORY: Princess Leonor receives the order and (inset) the Royal Family eat at home as Sofia cheekily raises her glass.

KING FELIPE VI of Spain has turned 50.

And as the monarch reached his half century, he presented 12-year-old daughter Crown Princess Leonor who is first in line to the throne - with the Order of the Golden Fleece at The Royal Palace of Madrid.

Among the group of dignitaries watching the ceremony was Leonor's mother Queen Letizia, 45, who stunned in a bright red suit with deep scarlet blouse and her younger sister Sofia, 10.

The Order of the Golden Fleece dates back to 1430, when Duke of Burgundy Philip the Good founded it to commemorate his marriage to Princess Isabella of Portugal.

It has since become one of the most prestigious Roman Catholic knighthoods in Europe, and for Leonor represents a 'symbolic step in her preparation and future.'

The ceremony on Tuesday came after the King and his family posted a series of candid photos and videos showing them relaxing at home to mark his birthday.

'Date-rape' drink spike

A 34-YEAR-OLD man accused of giving a 'date rape' drug to a 28year-old woman in her Torrevieja home has been arrested, reports say. The pair was reportedly having dinner at the victim's home when she felt dizzy and lightheaded. The man reportedly cleaned her glass before leaving.

Drug driving

A TRUCK driver in Elche has been caught for the second time driving under the influence of drugs, according to Spanish media. Police reportedly stopped the 26,000 kilo truck from being driven until a replacement driver arrived. The driver could have their licence revoked.

Hep A victim

A MURCIA resident has been infected with hepatitis A, following the outbreak in Mallorca. The unidentified person is the 34th to be confirmed with the virus, Spanish press say. The outbreak has been traced back to one restaurant in Palma, where many of the victims worked.

Ahoy Rajoy

THE SPANISH PRESIDENT, Mariano Rajoy, will visit Alicante airport tomorrow (Friday) in a belated celebration of its 50-year anniversary. The airport became a gateway to the tourist boom in the Costa Blanca years later. The first plane touched down from Madrid in May 1967.

Scissor scam

A 57-YEAR-OLD man has been arrested by National Police in Alicante, who believe he self-harmed with scissors in order to claim compensation from insurance companies. The man claimed to have been stabbed and robbed of a mobile phone, documentation and  $\in$  900, according to reports.

SPANISH FACTS OF LIFE nº48

Of all the cultural traditions in Spain, bullfighting is perhaps the most controversial and undoubtedly the most brutal, writes Harrison Jones.

THE treatment of bulls during Spanish bullfights is horrifying.

Two days prior to the performance, the animals have been known to have wet newspaper put in their ears, a sticky substance rubbed into their eyes, cotton into their nostrils, a burning irritant applied to their legs, a needle in their private parts and be heavily drugged, welfare groups say.

In Spain, three acts then see the bull tired out in a dark but artistic ritual. Picadors, on horseback, exhaust the bull by twisting thick knives into its neck. Then, the assistant matadors plunge up to six harpoon-like weapons into its body.

Immaculately dressed matadors coax the bulls with red clothes, dodging them as they charge. The final kill can be drawn out and see bulls vomit their own blood. The ears and tail are cut off, often when the animal is still conscious, before it is dragged around the venue by horses, to the tune of baying crowds and traditional music.

Grabbing tradition by its horns

SPAIN is facing louder calls to ban the practice, but so far international condemnation has not told. Protests have hit the country's festivals and turnout is down, but the events - defined as cultural - show no signs of being outlawed imminently.

There has been a steady decline in the number of bullfights, but in 2014-15, nearly 10 per cent of Spaniards bought a ticket, according to Culture Trip. In 2010, a newspaper poll found that only 42 per cent of Spaniards wanted it banned.

That year, the Catalan parliament

Up the isle

BORDER CONTROL: View from the Spanish side of the river, a satellite image (bottom left) and the meeting on the island between Louis XVI of France and Spain's Felipe IV as depicted by French artist Jacques Laumosnier (bottom right).

SPAIN is about to reclaim 5,000 square metres of territory from France. But in the summer it will voluntarily hand it back.

In a rare agreement that has lasted for more than 350 years, the two countries hold joint sovereignty over Pheasant Island (Spanish: Isla de los Faisanes), an uninhabited tract of land in the Bidasoa River.

The island is among the oldest and smallest condominiums - political territories where two or more countries agree to share ownership and exercise rights jointly - in existence.

Controlled by Spain from February 1 to July 31 each year, it returns to France for the remaining six months, with the first handover of 2018 set to take place today (Thursday).

It lies in the middle of the Bidasoa, which forms a natural border between the Spanish town of Irun and its French counterpart Hendaye, and cannot be visited except on the occasional heritage open day.

Measuring just 215 metres long and 38 metres wide, it is thought to be the only condominium in the world which alternates sovereignty during the course of the year.

An old monument on the island holds the key to the island's bizarre status, since it pays tribute to the Treaty of the Pyrenees, signed in 1659.

It came in the wake of a decade of violence and political interference after the Thirty Years War between France and Spain ended in 1648.

The two governments chose to negotiate on the island because it was considered neutral territory, and after three months of talks the peace agreement was signed.

Territories were swapped and new borders settled, while Maria Teresa of Austria, daughter of Spanish King Felipe IV, married French ruler Louis XIV. And the final part of the deal involved the island being shared by the two countries.

NOT HEALTHY: The emergency vehicle in Elche.

A DRUNK driver who fled from police after allegedly causing an ambulance to overturn in Elche has been caught.

OUR VIEW Is it time to end drunken tourism?

WILL 2018 be the year that Spain seriously cracks down on party mad holidaymakers' boozy antics?

With the country outstripping the United States to become the second-most visited country in the world after France in 2017, a string of traditional hotspots have announced plans to control what Spanish media has dubbed 'drunken tourism.'

In the Balearics, many bars and clubs will be forced to close their doors hours earlier this summer, with noise pollution laws set to be strictly enforced.

And new reports suggest that hotels in Benidorm on the Costa Blanca are turning down bookings from hen and stag parties.

It comes after groups of incensed locals last year staged antitourist protests in Barcelona, Mallorca, and San Sebastian.

The backlash continued on the Costa del Sol, Marbella tourism chiefs referring to 'cheap' British tourists as 'savages' before unveiling new rules with fines for nudity and rowdy behaviour.

Notorious party resort Magaluf in Mallorca issued 64 new laws to clamp down on unruly holidaymakers, with bar owners warned not to serve alcohol to visibly-drunk revellers, while in Palma happy hours and two-for-one drinks offers are set to be axed. With almost a quarter of the 82 million people visiting Spain last year coming from the UK, the country must clearly be careful not to alienate its largest tourist market.

But since tens of millions - including many Britons - flock to Spain each year with no intention of spending their two weeks in the sun knocking back cheap drinks and sleeping off hangovers, perhaps it is time the country shifts away from this kind of tourism altogether?

Frost adds to farmers' troubles

FROSTS in the Alicante region have heaped further misery on vegetable farmers, as the terrible harvest now threatens to hit British shoppers.

Vegetable production in the province dropped by around 25 per cent last year because of drought.

And now frost is worsening the poor harvest, with the lack of water making crops more vulnerable to icy conditions.

Suppliers in Britain and across the EU are now looking for alternative growers as Spanish production continues to be hit.

Alongside lettuce, artichoke and broccoli production have also been particularly badly hit, according to reports citing the ASAJA Alicante organisation.

Spain." f Wholesaler Reynolds' y marketing director Andy Weir was less positive, saying: "Market prices are high and overall availability is reduced. It is quite likely that as we approach the end of the Spanish leaf season that, if rainfall levels do not improve, availability will tighten further."

In January, a report by the Association of Young Farmers of Alicante blamed "the ravages of the severe drought" for the production problems and also highlighted the impact of harmful bacteria named Xylella Fastidiosa.

"The situation will be much more serious in 2018," the group said.

Experts have been warning for some time to expect severe drought in the region and major consequences for food production.

SYMBOLIC: The church and cross in Callosa de Segura.

Torn down!

Arrests as fascist monument finally removed

A DIVISIVE cross has been withdrawn from Callosa de Segura at the fourth attempt, despite angry resistance from protesters.

The monument - heavily associated with the Fascist dictator Franco, who ruled Spain from 1938 to 1973 - was removed in the early hours of Monday morning, according to Spanish media.

Police say they made two arrests when they met resistance to removing the Cross of the Fallen of Callosa de Segura from Plaza Espana, which commemorates fascist fighters who died in the Spanish Civil War. Activists have reportedly been protecting the monument for some 400 days.

National Police and Guardia Civil say that when they attempted to empty the square firecrackers were thrown at them. They arrested a man and woman from Crevillent for resistance.

Both are thought to be from Falange, a neo-Francoist political group.

Rival, anti-fascist groups cheered the monument's removal and exchanged insults with Falange supporters.

One elderly man has been pictured appearing to perform a fascist salute, while counterprotesters laugh at him and perform the 'raised fist' salute, associated with leftist groups.

Falange tweeted a video of altercations with police, and described the scene as: "violent and shameful treatment that some of our vounger comrades have received from the mercenaries of the system."

The symbolic monument was taken by crane from next to San Martin Church. It was originally built to commemorate those who fought and died for Franco's side during the 1936 Civil War. The 1940's monument was removed to comply with a Spanish law about remembering Franco.

The withdrawal had been pending since 2016 and had been attempted three times before.

The governing PP party who have links to Franco's former party - previously claimed that when certain parts of the monument were removed, including references to Falange, the monument no longer "(exhalted) Francoism to the effects indicated by the Law of Historical Memory."

A group of mainly elderly people opposed to the removal had been taking turns to protect the monument for around 400 days, according to reports.

On Monday night, a few dozen gathered near the cross to express their opposition to the move.

The regional authority backs the local government's decision to remove the cross, which could now be moved elsewhere.

The area was later fenced off.

New regional rules that came into force on 1st January 2018 mean most families in Murcia should escape large succession and gift tax bills. This is great news for expatriates who have made their home here, as it makes Murcia one of the cheapest Spanish regions for passing on lifetime gifts and inheritances to your loved ones.

Who pays succession and gift tax?

These taxes are due whenever assets being inherited/gifted are located in Spain, or when the recipient of an inheritance/gift is resident in Spain. Allowances and tax rates vary according to who the beneficiary is, the beneficiary's pre-existing wealth and the region.

What has changed in Murcia?

The size of the inheritance you can pass on to direct family members taxfree has increased significantly. Formerly 60%, the relief is now at 99%, which means spouses, children and parents (Group I and II beneficiaries) are only liable for 1% of the succession tax bill.

So, for example, a child inheriting  $\notin 350,000$  from a parent in Murcia should end up paying around  $\notin 641$ . In other Spanish regions, the same inheritance could attract succession taxes of around €31,640.

The 99% relief on inheritances is applied after all other reductions have been made, for example the relatives' reduction (€15,956 for spouses and descendants/ascendants) and main home reduction.

Tax relief on lifetime gifts to direct family members has also lifted from 60% to 99%. As before, to qualify for this relief you would need to record the gift on a public deed ('documento público') and justify the origin of cash gifts.

Succession and gift tax virtually eliminated for close family in Murcia

What are the succession and gift tax rates?

The regional rates in Murcia range from 7.65% to 36.5%, with multipliers of between 1 and 2.4 potentially applied, depending on certain circumstances. Reductions for indirect relatives are very low - just  $\notin$ 7,993 for Group III beneficiaries (which generally includes stepchildren, siblings, aunts/uncles and cousins) and nothing at all for more distant relatives.

If you or your heirs do not qualify for the regional rules, then state rules apply instead. In this case, the tax payable could be much higher, with no exemption between spouses.

Will you benefit from the new rules in Murcia?

You could qualify for the 99% reliefs if you are resident in Murcia and either receive an inheritance/ gift from a parent, or wish to pass on/gift assets to spouses and children. However, it is not always so straightforward. Whether state or regional rules apply depends on various conditions, including where the beneficiary and donor are resident as well as where the assets inherited/gifted are located.

Nevertheless, the regional government estimates that around 15,000 taxpayers in the region will save approximately €75 million in taxes.

Guidance is advisable, especially if you plan to leave assets to stepchildren or heirs other than your spouse, direct descendants or ascendants, as they do not qualify for reduced relief. Also remember that the reduction only applies to those who are eligible to benefit from the regional rules; otherwise the much more expensive state rules come into play.

It is important to understand how the Spanish tax rules apply to your situation and how they affect your liability for UK inheritance tax. This is a complex, specialist area, so take professional, personalised advice to maximise your legacy and save your heirs from paying more tax than necessary.

The tax rates, scope and reliefs may change. Any statements concerning taxation are based upon our understanding of current taxation laws and practices which are subject to change. Tax information has been summarised; an individual is advised to seek personalised advice.

ANOTHER SCAM - THE MORTGAGE INDEX IRPH

The IRPH was sold to thousands of Spanish consumers as a stable alternative to Euribor.

WHAT ARE THE PROBLEMS?

•It has always remained above the Euribor.

•It has been unstable, with negative values.

•Choosing IRPH instead of Euribor has lost people thousands of euros.

•The basis of its calculation has manipulated and conditioned.

•The IRPH currently remains at 2%, and has practically not fluctuated for over two years, assuming a similar effect for the client at a fixed rate.

HOW CAN PELLICER & HEREDIA HELP YOU?

•Provide you with an in-depth examination of your mortgage deed

•Estimate the amount that you overpaid each month •Proceed with claiming reimbursements from your bank

•Help to obtain a refund for the payments made during the loan

•Ask your financial institution to recalculate the repayment of your loan, due to Euribor making the outstanding balance lower, which is a significant reduction of the fees for your future repayments.

Over a million families have been affected by the Mortgage Loan Reference Index (IRPH) who are awaiting a response from the Supreme Court.

We firmly believe that most of the 'threshold clauses' that reflect mortgage contracts are unfair and customers of banks are at a disadvantage and penalised for their lack of knowledge in financial matters.

Burglars nicked for stealing pallets

CLEAN PALLET: Over 4,000 pallets have been recovered by police.

GUARDIA CIVIL officers in Alicante Province have arrested three people and are investigating a further eight after a bizarre spate of pallet thefts, according to Spanish media.

Some 4,102 wooden pallets and 215 plastic ones - valued at €47,000 - have reportedly been recovered by police. The containers are believed to come from various different companies from around Spain and the world.

The three arrested Spaniards are all from the same family, and aged 63, 40 and 36. Eight other people - a 61-year-old Brazilian, 37year-old Paraguayan and six Spaniards aged 34 to 57 - are also being investigated for theft, misappropriation, and fraud.

Collaborating with Local Police in Orihuela, Guardia Civil officers in Novelda managed to identify the family through a theft in Banyeres de Mariola, which led to their arrest.

The investigation subsequently led to finding hundreds of pallets from three companies in Australia and France, who had proof of ownership.

Spanish media have reported that this is one of the largest hauls of pallets ever recovered.

Three arrested for machine robbery

THREE men have been accused of stealing up to €2,500 from slot machines in an Alicante bar, according to reports in the Spanish media.

National Police say they have now arrested the alleged thieves - aged between 29 and 32 - following the incident earlier this month.

The owner of a bar in the city allegedly found blood in his establishment on the morning of January 13, alongside three slot machines with broken screens. He reportedly then noticed that  $\leq 2,500$  was missing from the machines, which had been forced open.

Upon arrival, police found the alarm systems had been disconnected and that entry did not appear to have been forced, leading them to suspect someone connected to the bar.

A member of staff was later identified as one of the suspected robbers, who allegedly accessed the machines with the help of two accomplices.

JUAN CARLOS MORAGUES (centre) congratulates investigators and (inset) an officer inspects some of the haul.

Drugs bus raid

TWO British men have been held for allegedly transporting millions of Euros worth of drugs on a luxury coach. It comes after 17 kilos of cocaine and 715 kilos of hashish were seized by police during a swoop in Sagunto, Valencia.

The two men, aged 39 and 59, have been accused of drug trafficking.

It is claimed the narcotics were hidden in secret compartments on the British-plated coach, which was on its way from Malaga to the UK and has been used by a series of unnamed music groups during their European tours.

The vehicle was stopped on the AP-7 toll road by Guardia Civil officers from Puçol in the Valencia region.

An international arrest warrant has been issued for the owner of the company that owns the bus.

Juan Carlos Moragues, the Spanish government's delegate in the Valencian Community, visited investigators to congratulate them.

Benidorm balcony death Spain accused of 'not respecting' Kirsty Maxwell

THE grieving family of Kirsty Maxwell has criticised the police in Spain for the way they have handled the investigation.

Kirsty plunged to her death from the 10th floor of an apartment complex in Benidorm on the Costa Blanca in April last year.

The family have repeatedly asked the Spanish authorities what happened to the pink t-shirt and denim skirt the 27-yearold was wearing on the night of her death.

Today, at a press conference in Scotland, husband Adam revealed the clothes had been 'thrown out' without proper DNA testing that could have provided clues.

He said, "On Friday, we received this shocking news.

"It's very sad and shocking and another let down by the Spanish police.

"We cannot accept the way they have treated Kirsty's death. If Kirsty was to die in the UK, would this be different? The answer is 'ves.'

"The clothing was a massive line of inquiry and the news is very upsetting and disappointing.

"They have not respected Kirsty." Ex-policeman and private investigator 'SHOCKING': Kirsty's husband Adam says police have acted 'recklessly.'

Big cats hit the road

MEMBERS of the Costa Blanca Jaguar enthusiasts club came together from different areas of the Costa Blanca for a luncheon meeting at the popular restaurant Nugolat in Elche, and what a sight as one by one the cars rolled into the car park and lined up, creating a colourful show of various models all shining in the mid-day sunshine, as their owners were able to catch up with friends and fellow members.

This was their first midweek meeting as they had been asked by some members if it was possible because it was difficult for them to attend weekends because of other commitments, so to please everyone they gave it a try and found it to be a success that will be repeated as they had a very good turnout.

One of these members, Paul Venables - a musician, kindly donated his time to entertain everyone throughout the meals so thank you Paul.

Their thanks also go to the staff of the restaurant Nugolat for providing good service, with a meal that included various starters, followed by a main course of four choices, a sweet and coffee with plenty of wine or soft drinks for those who were driving. Their next meeting is something special as Mr Graham Searle - the general manager and founder member of JEC England with clubs worldwide - will be attending their inaugural meeting at the Hotel Parador in Javea on February 24 for a dinner dance, with availability for an overnight stay.

If you would like to join them please email: mike bikejec@gmail.com, you will be made very welcome.

Help at home

GOOD CAUSE: Members of the charity with some of the Extinguished Firefighters.

THE Quesada branch of Help at Home Costa Blanca has been gifted € 170 thanks to the efforts of retired firefighters living in the area.

The donation came from the Distinguished Firefighters who meet monthly at the Green Baize Snooker Hall, Quesada.

The Extinguished Firefighters, as they are called, are a group of retired firefighters and fire service personnel who have retired to Spain and boast members from Fire Services all over the United Kingdom.

They meet on the first Thursday of every month at the Green Baize in Ciudad Quesada (next to Quesada Fish and Chips), starting at 3pm.

Members come from all over Costa Blanca South, with 25 permanent members with some 'holiday home' occasional members. They hold regular fundraising events, such as darts, pool, snooker and domino tournaments against the retired police group (ARPO).

At each monthly meeting, members give  $a \in 1$  donation to the charity fund and their efforts benefit a number of charities.

Any retired firefighter in the area is free to join the group - just turn up at the next meeting.

Saving with HELP Vega Baja

EVERYONE is familiar with the concept of placing their loose change in donation boxes which are seen around bars and shops or being shaken by volunteers in shopping centres etc.

Always keen to try something new to raise funds, HELP Vega Baja have come up with the idea of offering people special boxes that they can use in their own home and save their change for the charity.

President, Michele Masson said "we have had our red donation boxes in various businesses around the area for many years now and we are extremely grateful for the donations that we receive.

"Recently one of our volunteers brought in a large bottle which she had been filling for a couple of years with pennies and also at one of our Christmas Appeal collection points we received a box from someone which was bursting with change. This gave us the idea of offering people the opportunity to support us by providing them with a box to fill with coins. As a thank you, everyone who joins in will be entered into a prize draw which we will hold twice a year."

HELP Vega Baja have been supporting people in need for over 36 years in the Vega Baja area and Michele stated that in 2017 the charity had donated over  $\in$  30,500 to good causes and individuals and said "everyone at the charity is extremely proud of the fact that we have been able to help so many good causes and we aim to continue to offer not only the information and advice that we are well-known for, but also to continue supporting those who find themselves in need of our help including of course other charities.

"Obviously, we owe a debt of gratitude to everyone within the community who continue to support us whenever they can and our team of volunteers without whom we would be unable to continue our work."

If you would like to find out more about becoming a 'Charity Support Saver' or volunteering with HELP Vega Baja, please contact Richard Garland at their San Miguel Centre on: 966 723 733, email: office @ helpvegabaja.com or visit the HELP Vega Baja Facebook page.

Celebrating Burn's Night

AROUND 40 RBL members and guests celebrated Burn's Night at El Nuevo Valle, Hondon de los Frailes in grand style. Tony, the Piper did them proud and got them all in the Scottish spirit, with some members even trying out their (bad) Scottish accents

MC for the evening, Ronnie Mannell, recalled the life of Scotland's National Poet, Robert Burns, and they then celebrated in a way that Burns would have approved of: eating, drinking, music, piping and poetry.

The haggis was piped in by Tony, which they toasted with a 'wee dram' of whisky, before tucking into Neeps and Tatties, steak pie, and finally topping off the meal with Tipsy Laird Trifle.

A number of poems followed and the evening will also be remembered for Neil Pavitt's poem 'There's a Moose Loose about the Hoooose'! The evening finished with a rendition of one of Burn's famous songs Auld Lang Syne, a fitting tribute to a great evening.

The Branch meets on the third Tuesday of each month and they welcome any guests who would like to come along. Further information on their website: www.british legion.org.uk/counties/spainnorth or by emailing: secre tary.hondonvalley3577@gma il.com.

Curtain call

RASCALS Show Group really needs new members if they are to put on a full show this summer. Due to members retiring through age, infirmity and even death they are in desperate need for more people to join them.

As you are aware Rascals is possibly the oldest, most established show group in Torrevieja and they have been producing quality variety shows for well over 20 years.

They would really appreciate if you could lend a hand so that they can continue to raise money for local charities and still perform good quality theatre. As you are aware all the money raised from ticket sales or from the Christmas performances is given to charity. They raise money from their own efforts for production costs.

You can find further information on their website: http://www.therascals.org/.

SPANISH property company Metrovacesa is planning a €2.95 billion flotation.

Formerly the largest publicly traded real estate developer in the Eurozone, the firm was taken over by creditors when the country's property bubble burst in 2009, citing losses of €738 million the previous year.

Its current main shareholders, the banks Santander and BBVA, said the flotation - which is pencilled in for February - is designed to widen its base of shareholders to ease access to capital markets and financing.

Jobless stats boost

UNEMPLOYMENT in Spain is falling.

The number of jobless people in Spain plummeted in 2017 thanks largely to a record year for tourism, according to a year-on-year report by the National Statistics Institute.

Industry, agriculture and construction sectors also showed strong growth, with 471,000 fewer people out of work at the end of the year than in 2016.

The country's unemployment rate was 16.5 per cent as 2017 ended, compared with 18.6 per cent at the end of 2016.

But Spain still has the secondhighest rate of unemployment in the European Union behind Greece, with the average among the 28 member states just 8.7 per cent.

And while the service sector last year created 290,000 additional jobs, many of these only offer temporary contracts, which increased by 4.4 per cent.

"Unemployment is dropping, but the quality of jobs available continues to be below the minimum," said Pepe Alvarez, leader of Spain's UGT union. "Jobs are increasingly temporary and in December just four out of every 100 contracts signed were long-term and fulltime."

Unemployment in Spain peaked at 27 per cent in 2013, when around six million people were out of work, but it has been recovering since as it continues to emerge from the financial crisis of 2007 and 2008.

The latest figures suggest that 3.76 million remain without a job.

Toll road mega deal

A DEAL that will see motorway operator Atlantia buy out Spanish counterpart Abertis has been approved by the government.

The Italian company will now compete with Hochtief, the German subsidiary of Spanish construction firm ACS, which in Octo ber launched a  $\in$  17.1 billion bid to take over the toll road specialist.

If successful Atlantia - controlled by the Benetton family would become the world's biggest toll road operator with a market value exceeding €40 billion.

GBP/EUR rallies on Brexit speculation

THE GBP/EUR exchange rate got off to a slow start to the year, but Brexit speculation has helped the pairing approach  $\in$  1.1400, and further gains could be on the horizon.

The pound has been striking its best levels against the US dollar since the EU referendum thanks to broad-based US dollar weakness.

The softness in the US currency has also resulted in EUR/USD hitting the dizzy highs of  $\leq 1.23$ .

What's been happening?

Over the last couple of weeks the pound has steadily strengthened on a mixture of upbeat commentary from a Bank of England (BoE) policymaker and hopes that the UK will be able to secure a softer Brexit.

Sterling received a shot in the arm as the BoE's Michael Saunders asserted that he expected UK wage growth to accelerate this year. As wage growth has been one of the main things preventing the central bank from increasing interest rates, Saunders' confidence lifted BoE rate hike expectations and boosted the pound.

Further GBP support came as Jean-Claude Juncker, President of the European Commission, observed that the UK could always rejoin the EU once Brexit was completed by using Article 49 of the Lisbon Treaty.

French President Emmanuel Macron pressed home the idea of a Brexit reversal on Thursday, when an aide speaking on his behalf told reporters in Paris that France would look 'with kindness' upon the UK changing its mind over its decision to leave the EU.

At the same time, Lord Jim O'Neill, the former Conservative Treasury minister, was upbeat on the subject of the UK's future growth prospects.

The euro, meanwhile, came under pressure as a result of speculation surrounding the ongoing German coalition talks.

Bets that the European Central Bank (ECB) would maintain a dovish attitude on the subject of tightening monetary policy when it delivered its first interest rate announcement of 2018 also limited EUR demand.

What do you need to look out for?

Brexit developments will remain a key driver of GBP/EUR exchange rate movement over the next few weeks.

Investors will also be looking ahead to the BoE's first policy meeting tomorrow (Friday).

If policymakers are at all encouraging about borrowing costs being adjusted in 2018, Sterling could soar.

Telefonica unveils 5G tech cities vision Next generation try-out

TWO Spanish cities are to take a leap into the future.

It comes as multinational broadband and telecommunications provider Telefonica unveiled its 5G (fifth generation) 'technological cities' scheme.

The project will lay the foundations for a full rollout of 5G technology across the country on an unspecified future date.

Telefonica is collaborating with European counterparts Nokia and Ericsson in the cities of Segovia, Castilla y Leon, and Talavera de la Reina, Castilla-La Mancha, respectively.

They will both be converted into 'living 5G laboratories' over the next three years, deploying the new technology simultaneously before performing a series of user trials including services, products, user experiences and business models.

"With the 5G technological cities project, Telefónica is turning the technology of the future into reality and providing a constant service for people. This is why we will perform the technological deployment and use cases in parallel, so that we will serve people with the new technologies, one of Telefónica's clear objectives," said Luis Miguel Gilperez, CEO of Telefonica Spain.

Ericsson believes that a fifth of the world's population will be using 5G by 2023, and Jose Antonio Lopez, chairman of Ericsson Spain, said: "5G technology will have an enormous impact on the user experience and the digital transformation of our cities and industries. Ericsson is already working with more than 35 partners throughout the world to develop use cases to prepare the connected cities of the future.

"The most important ones in Spain are related to tourism, which we have worked on with FITUR and which we are currently demonstrating.

"One of the key aims of this project, in which we are pleased to cooperate with Telefonica and the city council of Talavera de la Reina, will be to promote tourism, demonstrating 5G's contribution to economic growth and the benefits Spaniards will enjoy as a result," he added.

The 5G technology is designed to provide a higher capacity than the current 4G standard, allowing more people to use mobile broadband efficiently and improved device-to-device connectivity.

On Royal business

KING FELIPE OF SPAIN is patching up his country's brand.

The monarch swooped into the annual World Economic Forum in Davos, Switzerland, holding meetings with top brass from a number of multinationals before delivering a speech in front of hundreds of businessmen.

His schedule - described as 'frantic' by Spanish media included appointments with the presidents of e-commerce platform Alibaba, technology firm Microsoft, Canadian investment fund CPPIB, and Temasek, the government of Singapore's national wealth fund. On his first visit to Davos, the ruler also met with Spanish business leaders from companies including El Corte Ingles and Santander.

The head of state's visit aimed to present Spain as an economically strong, institutionally stable nation in the wake of the Catalan independence crisis, according to reports.

Union standoff could spark cuts

CAR manufacturer Opel has threatened to cut production of its Corsa compact model in Spain.

The warning comes amid tensions over wages and working conditions between workers' unions and the company, which was bought by Groupe PSA - owner of Peugeot and Citroën - from United States-based General Motors in 2016.

The French firm says that its 35year-old plant in Figueruelas, near Zaragoza, Aragon, is less profitable than its other two Spanish factories due to wages, a lack of flexibility and staff working fewer hours.

It has produced the Corsa for decades, employs around 5,300 people and ran at an average 80 per cent capacity in 2017, with 382,250 vehicles rolling off the production line.

But an Opel official said: "There will only be investment if a plant is profitable, and the Opel plant in Spain is at a disadvantage to other PSA factories in Spain."

Aragon's regional government said it has called for an urgent meeting to discuss the issue with PSA bosses.

Election campaigns were paid for with 'dirty money'

SPAIN'S ruling Popular Party (PP) is embroiled in another corruption scandal.

It comes after the conservative government was forced into an embarrassing climb down after a former official told a Spanish court that the party accepted 'dirty money' for election campaigns in the Valencian Community.

Ex-PP leader for the region, Ricardo Costa, was giving evidence in the ongoing 'Gurtel' cashfor-favours case, which is probing claims that campaigns were financed with cash paid in bribes over the award of public works contracts.

"It's true that the PP financed itself with dirty money in election campaign acts in 2007," he said, blaming ex-regional president Francisco Camps.

He added that Camps and former president of the legislative Corts Valencianes body, Juan Cotin, in 2007 and 2008 ordered that regional and local election campaigns be financed by asking businessmen to pay money to a company in order to bypass a mandatory cap on electoral spending.

Costa went on to explain how he had been shown "envelopes with cash inside them and I was told it was money that businessmen had given and it had been at the request of Camps."

The trial is the latest in a lengthy series of corruption scandals to hit the PP, but when questioned by Spanish media, Prime Minister Mariano Rajoy said he knew "nothing" about it.

The party's spokesman, Rafael Hernando, tweeted: "I'm ashamed and I apologise for the bad conduct of some people, to those Spaniards who in good faith voted for the Popular Party (PP)." Stone King - Translating complex foreign law into plain English

Revenge is the sweetest thing

LEAPY LEE SAYS IT OTHERS THINK IT

NOT being a particularly vengeful person, this so called 'sweet' act of retribution is not particularly high on my 'to do' list. However, there are exceptions, and one example I heard recently certainly fits the bill. Our hero, in this intrepid Irish tale, was on the verge of getting married. He was a nurse by profession and most of his friends worked with him at the local hospital.

Just before the wedding, his colleagues organised a boozy stag do. The night was a rip-roaring success and the future groom, utterly inebriated, was taken home and passed out on his own sofa.

And this is when our devilish plot begins to thicken. In a pre-determined plan one of his 'friends' had raided hospital supplies and brought along all the paraphernalia needed to plaster up broken bones. With our hero duly out for the count, the party goers began their devious work. Careful not to disturb him, they plastered up one of his arms. And what a job they did of it.

Not only did they cover his whole arm, but they fitted one of those wire affairs that keeps the arm bent at the elbow and away from the body. They then all left, leaving him still out for the count and snoring peacefully. Early the next day his closest friend received a hysterical phone call. It was our (naturally) panic stricken hero, pleading to know what had occurred the night before.

After calming him down, the 'friend' then managed to convince him that toward the end of the evening, when he was blind drunk, he had fallen over and broken his arm. They had visited the local hospital, had him X-rayed and subsequently plastered up. He was to go back in six weeks to have it removed. With their victim, hardly able to remember anything at all, he finally accepted the story. Having no other choice, he then proceeded to carry on with the plans for his wedding the following day. Thinking it was all still a great joke, the stag party jesters still didn't let on.

On the morning of the wedding, still no one owned up. Subsequently they were then treated to our hero, walking up the aisle with his blushing bride on one arm and the other still uncomfortably stuck out in front of him! And still not one of the instigators said a word. Almost unbelievably, they actually let him, still blissfully unaware, have his reception and leave on his honeymoon. It wasn't 'til he returned that they finally let the cat out of the bag.

Naturally our beleaguered bridegroom went totally ape. Well you would wouldn't you? For some weeks he didn't even talk. As time went by, he appeared to put it behind him. They all began to look forward to the next big event. The marriage of his closest friend. The one who had been the ringleader of the stag night plastering 'joke'!

And on that juicy note, we'll have to leave it all till next week. Don't forget to tune in. The sweetest of revenge awaits.

What is mental well-being?

MENTAL and emotional well-being is essential to overall health. Positive mental health allows people to realise their full potential, cope with the stresses of life, work productively, and make meaningful contributions to their communities.

Do my eating habits affect my mental well-being?

A good diet is essential, not only for physical health, but for mental health too. It is recommended that you should consume a balanced diet.

How do jigsaw puzzles help the brain?

Jigsaw puzzles engage the brain to retain information on shapes and colours in order to choose pieces that will fit together properly. This hunt for pieces requires your brain to memorise what each piece looks like, or should look like, and what kinds of pieces you are searching for in order to complete the picture.

Doing this repeatedly reinforces shortterm memory. Jigsaw puzzles also promote a true synergy between the left and right brain. The logical left brain looks at parts. It is sequential, rational, analytical and objective. The left brain is stimulated by problem solving. The creative right brain sees the big picture. Jigsaw puzzles offer the best of both worlds. Why is it important to have a healthy mind?

KEEP HEALTHY: Exercise your brain as well as your body.

Mental fitness is just as important as physical fitness, and shouldn't be neglected. Including mental dexterity exercises into your daily routine can help you reap the benefits of a sharper mind. # ParkandGo celebrate with a two year contract for €400

COMING up to its fifth year at the Alicante-Elche airport, ParkandGo Alicante is extending its special offer to clients by offering a two year contract promotion for  $\in$  400.

This is a limited time offer and to benefit from it you only have to present this article, or the voucher on page 52 in this week's edition of Euro Weekly News.

The ParkandGo Company does exactly what its name promises, you just park and you go.

Parking at Alicante-Elche airport has never been as cheap, simple and convenient as it is now with ParkandGo. It is part of a large, reputable company and is the chosen car park for Ryanair customers who book airport parking.

They have over 1,000 outdoor spaces and more than 100 covered lots, with indoor parking also available. A network of minibuses is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week, so there is never any delay in boarding your shuttle transfer to the airport terminal after you have dropped off your vehicle.

The site is conveniently located just minutes from Alicante-Elche airport and is accessed via its entrance, so users know they are close by without having to add to their journey time.

Aside from a stylish on-site reception area, with coffee and snack facilities, which stands out against the regular portacabins normally used, they allow customers to keep their car keys. They can of course hold keys for customers, but unlike most other companies they do not move your vehicle, so you can keep your key which gives their clients extra security and peace of mind.

If, however, you are leaving your vehicle for a longer period of time, you may wish to entrust them with the key and take advantage of a range of other services available. ParkandGo can offer a full valet service, arrange an ITV test and undertake mechanical checks, to make sure that when you return your vehicle is in perfect working order. For stays of more than five days all customers receive a free automatic car wash.

The ParkandGo app makes the service more accessible and even quicker for people allowing them to do everything via their smartphone, from booking to getting through the barriers. It allows them to quickly update customers with any news and information.

It is the way forward, and just another example of the company's further commitment to offering a highly professional, friendly and reliable service, allowing people to simply park and go.

A weekend stay costs just  $\in 12$ , a week  $\in 25$  and a year (with up to 15 visits)  $\in 240$ , but present the advert in Euro Weekly News and the pass costs just  $\in 200$  per year with this special two year offer. Visit the website for a video on how to find them.

TECH FOR THE TIMID

LAST week I emailed a helpful Spanish colleague and called him a horse.

Well, not intentionally. He had been a true gentleman with his assistance. and I wanted to say so: 'un verdadero caballero.' I should have checked with Google Translate before I wrote instead 'un verdadero caballo.'

Douglas Adams' famous 'Babel fish' translator for every language in the universe (and the 5,000 or so here on Earth) is part of a hallowed sci-fi tradition, promising instant cross-culture communication. We're actually not that far off, with Google's new Pixel Buds which can translate between 40 languages though one prominent reviewer has just called them 'overpromised and undelivered,' but it's early days.

It all calls to mind that classic Monty Python sketch where a lost tourist brandishing a Serbo-Croat phrasebook tells a London bobby: "I want to fondle your buttock!"

Today we have better and buttockfree digital phrasebooks. There are truly amazing tech aids ranging from Google Translate, to the much-lauded new contender, DeepL Translator (https://www.deepl.com/translator).

BABEL FISH: The universal translator.

When not rhapsodising about the latest techno-toys, I (mis-)translate for a living (no, not Spanish obviously, given the horse incident). That used to involve shelves of weighty reference tomes, and expensive calls to native speakers. Now it's the click of a mouse, with digital reference works in profusion, and even the entire 20-volume Oxford English Dictionary takes up less space on my hard-drive than the average cat video. Google Translate does of course have its limits, as I discovered when printing out its rendition of my illness symptoms for my non-English doctor. My few minutes of medical fame were the funniest thing she had read in ages and cabaret for her colleagues.

Welcum We Spik

Inglish

On a recent holiday in the Czech

Republic I broke the language barrier, with my smartphone as an interpreter, passed back and forth as we each spoke phrases in one language and the phone read them back with reasonable clarity in the other.

However rudimentary machine translation still is at this early stage, it can never be as bad as that fabled 'worst phrasebook ever' written by the legendary Portuguese author Pedro Carolina back in 1883.

Untroubled by not being able to speak any English, he turned classic proverbs into wonderful gibberish:

Nothing some money, nothing of Swiss. He eat to coaches. A take is better than two you shall have. The stone as roll not heap up not foam. The dog that bark not bite.

And my favourite, whatever it may mean: to craunch a marmoset.

Keep calm and translate

THE smartphone world is full of apps to help you across the linguistic divide, from the classic and free Google Translate which even has the hit-andmiss ability to translate a photo of foreign text.

There are more straightforward digital dictionaries than you could shake a Babel fish at. The free ones, like Reverso, are often every bit as good as their paid counterparts.

For entire chunks of translation, DeepL, mentioned earlier, is the new kid on the block. It in turn is based on a standby of word-andphrase translation, Linguee in many main languages (try https://www.linguee.com/eng lish-spanish).

As the inimitable Pedro Carolina insisted: "It may be worth the acceptation of the studious persons, of which we dedicate him particularly."

Couldn't have put it better mvself.

LAST week I wrote about a restaurant that was briefly rated number one on TripAdvisor this week about another three that are similarly top rated by TripAdvisor. So what's the difference?

Well, the first one, the Shed, was a total fake, whereas these three are genuine restaurants, set up in jails and run by prisoners, its inmates becoming top chefs from doing 'porridge'!

The Clink restaurant, a charity rehabilitating prisoners by training them in food preparation, operates at four secure prisons.

According to TripAdvisor, three of the four restaurants (HMP Styal, in Wilmslow. Cheshire: HMP Cardiff, in Wales and HMP High Down, Surrey) are top rated in their area, while HMP Brixton is London's third-best restaurant, beating Restaurant Gordon Ramsav (No 51) and Michel Roux's Le Gavroche (No 60).

Great news! Helping prisoners turn their lives around while they're in prison.

Giving them a sense of selfworth, instead of locking them up most of the day, with no access to training or education, and then dumping them back on the street.

GOING GOURMET: Prison porridge beats Gordon Ramsay's fare

How soon, I wonder, can they start getting them into NVQ healthcare assistant training etc etc?

Great news, that is, until the latest inspectors' report. that diners at The Clink, Brixton, have been smuggling drugs and mobiles to inmates working in the kitchen. I mean. who'd have thought inmates would have dreamed up a wheeze like that?

> It's enough to drive us all crazy! Which reminds me of an old joke.

This guy goes to see a highly recommended psychiatrist. The doctor shows the man an inkblot and asks, "What does this remind you of?" The guy replies, "A naked woman." Then the shrink shows the man another inkblot and asks him the same question. The guy responds, "A naked woman on a bed." This goes on and on, inkblot after inkblot. The psychiatrist said to him, "You're a sick pervert." The guy replies, "I'm not the pervert here. You're the one who keeps showing me all these dirty pictures."

New store now open in Torrevieja

WE are delighted to be able to announce that we have now opened our new store in Torrevieja.

The 1,500 square metre store is the latest in our chain of stores to open and is part of the continued roll out of Oceans across Spain.

The new store holds the full Oceans range and in addition to the well-known rattan furniture, the store will also stock and sell the new ranges of aluminium furniture that have been developed by us over the past year.

As part of our new store opening we have an additional 30 per cent off all products until the middle of February.

There really has never been a better time to buy.

All of the furniture is kept in stock in our Cartagena distribution centre so delivery is never more than 24 hours away and our fully trained delivery teams will set the furniture up for you and remove all of the packaging as part of the service we offer.

Whether you are looking for something small or large we have it covered from outdoor dining sets to sofa sets, sun loungers, parasols and occasional seating.

All of the products come with a full warranty and guarantee as well as a fully fitted weather cover to protect your furniture when not in use.

All of the Oceans ranges are manufactured in our own facilities so we can control quality and production at every stage ensuring that you have the perfect product delivered. This also enables us to ensure we ship goods as required to ensure we keep everything in stock for when it is needed.

Come and have a look at what we have to offer in one of our stores in the next few weeks and make sure you order before February 18 to ensure you get the best pricing possible.

There some great savings to be had.

Oceans Outdoor Furniture Calle Belgrado 10 Industrial Cabezo Beaza 30353 Cartagena (Near Espacio Mediterraneo)

Oceans Outdoor Furniture Avenida Rosa Mazon Valero 29 03183 Torrevieja (Near the Water Park)

FULL RANGE: There are some great savings to be had.

SATURDAY nights can be tricky things. I really don't want to light the fire and curl up to watch TV every week, but the coldish snap last week made me do just that and I started my viewing with All Together Now BBC1 Saturday.

The format here is relatively simple; you and 99 friends go to your local bar, set up a karaoke machine and ask random people to belt out a tune. If you like the singing you turn a light on and get up to sing along. If you don't like it you try to sit still and look grumpy.

The BBC have thrown in a former Spice Girl and assorted people from the music industry you won't know most of them and host Rob Beckett, fresh from the Wedding Day Winners nightmare show with dazzling Lorraine Kelly, gives Ginger Spice the most air time. To be fair so would I. The prize is a chance to win £50,000 in the grand final.

Two performances stand out from week one. Michael Rice blasted out a brilliant version of Proud Mary by Tina Turner and got all of the 100 up singing along. He will go far in this competition. The other stand out for me was Alex who clearly isn't going very far, achieving a score of 11. The problem was the song choice. Alex can sing, has stage presence and if he ditched the comedy moustache was capable of going further. But he sang Your Song by Sir Elton. This is Saturday night, the panellists are people who have more faith in their own talent than is safe and Alex sang Your Song. What a shame. I loved the social media references to the Muppet Show following the first episode.

Two Doors Down, BBC2 Monday nights has thankfully returned for a third series. You might remember that I am a fan of this Scottish comedy and not just because I am married to a Glaswegian and recognise some of my in-laws in the characters. The delivery is always on point and Doon MacKichan should get some sort of award from First Minister Sturgeon for her performance as Cathy. She is doing more to get people to visit the glens than Tourism Scotland.

All together on Saturday night, let's hope so

I need to give a plug to Next of Kin, Monday Night ITV. A brilliant concept, intelligent writing, two wonderful headliners in Archie Panjabi and Jack Davenport and yet ratings are sliding and critics being unkind, but I'm sticking with it.

Michael Portillo continued his *Great Ameri*can Railroad Journey, (BBC2, weekdays) with a trip through Canada's Quebec province - yes Canada, Great American Railroad, I'm just going with it. We need someone to get Michael to El Corte Ingles to do something about his blazers and pairing red trousers with a green shirt (is that part of the appeal?) but this is a smashing show, with wonderful scenery and informative pieces. Who doesn't want to learn more about maple syrup and Canada's Parliament?

Finally this week, I'm still confused by A House Through Time, (BBC2 Saturday); 62 Falkner Street in Liverpool is a nice Georgian terraced house, in a wonderful city but I just don't get the point of it all. There are much better history telling formats out there and would someone please get David Olusoga a different job, preferably off our screens!

How to drive safely in winter

THERE are many winter lovers who like visiting cities during cold periods or participating in snow sports. One must admit that it is not the same visiting, for instance, Sierra Nevada covered by snow, adding an extra attraction to these magical mountains, than without it. But if you go driving this can be harrowing, especially where blizzard and icy conditions crop up seemingly out of nowhere.

If, after all, you decide to drive, there are some recommendations to take into account:

• Check the weather before you go

If the weather is freezing, warm up the car before you drive it. If the forecast looks unpredictable, wait out the storm if possible. But if you must travel, make sure you share your travel plans and route with someone before you leave.

If you become stranded in an unfamiliar area, do not leave your car. Place reflective triangles in front and behind the car and make sure the exhaust pipe is not blocked by snow, mud or any other object.

• Prepare Your Car for Winter

Besides checking the weather, it's important to have a mechanic check the condition of the following vehicle systems before heading out on the road: ignition, brakes, wiring, hoses and fan belts, spark plugs, air, fuel and emissions filters, distributor, battery, tyre wear and air pressure and check the antifreeze level.

• Know What to Do to Avoid a Crash

Sometimes water or ice on the road can surprise drivers, even with little to no precipitation. So, if you don't want to be surprised and end up in a crash, here are some tips:

- Never mix radial tyres with other types of tyres - If possible, avoid using your parking brake in cold, rainy and snowy weather - Do not use cruise control in wintery conditions

- Accelerate and decelerate slowly
- Increase your distance to the car ahead

WINTER DRIVING: Know how to keep safe.

- If possible, don't stop when going uphill - Keep your gas tank at least half-full
- Don't Leave Home Without These

In an emergency situation, there are a few things that you should have with you at all times such as, a properly inflated spare tyre, wheel wrench and tripod jack, shovel, jump leads, tyre chains, tool kit, flashlight and extra batteries, reflective triangles, first aid kit, ice scraper, non-perishable high energy foods, blankets and gloves.

Also do not forget to have your Roadside Assistance number at hand. Liberty Seguros Roadside Assistance is at your disposal 24/7 through a Free Phone Number, 900 101 369, where you will be assisted by an English-speaking operator.

Winter road trips - even short ones - are a great way to celebrate with family and friends. As well as providing you with insurance to cover you for any unexpected accident or loss, Liberty Seguros would encourage you to be fully prepared when driving in adverse conditions. Being prepared can ensure a safe and happy time is had by all.

A GROUP working to protect the rights of British migrants in Spain is running a campaign to support 'Votes for Life.'

It is estimated that around one million Brits living overseas have been denied the right to vote in the UK due to the 15-year rule.

The group say that many British citizens living abroad still have close family ties to the UK and many still own property and/or pay taxes there.

"Those who have contributed to the wealth of the UK are quite rightly angry and concerned at being denied their democratic right to vote." they say.

The group says the pledge to grant votes for life to British citizens abroad was included in the 2010 and 2015 Conservative manifestos

And, on February 23, the second reading of MP Glyn Davies' Private Member's Bill takes place to restore the right to vote to all UK overseas voters.

Now Bremain in Spain is urging every British citizen to write to their MP, or the MP in their previous constituency if they are disenfranchised, to press them to support the Private Member's Bill.

The group has drafted a template letter you can send to your MP that reads as follows: 'Dear...

I am writing to ask you to support Glyn Davies MP in the second reading of his Votes for Life bill, which is scheduled for February 23, 2018.

As you know, the pledge to grant votes for life to British citizens resident abroad was included in the 2010 and 2015 Conservative manifestos, and is even more relevant with Chris Skidmore's launch of the Democratic Engagement Plan which aims to tackle democratic exclusion, outlines plans to increase participation by under-registered groups, and identifies barriers faced by specific demographics. The year 2018 is also the year in which we as a democracy - are celebrating the centenary of women's right to vote.

'Votes for Life' is a critical issue for UK citizens resident abroad and for democracy itself. It is estimated that there are over one million Britons overseas who have lost their voting rights.

Being denied the right to vote in recent general elections has had a huge impact on the lives of longterm non-resident British citizens.

There are many democracies around the world who allow their overseas citizens to vote and some even have specific constituencies solely representing those citizens. Surely the Mother of Parliaments should do the same?

Many British citizens living abroad still have close family ties to the UK and many still own property and/or pay taxes there. Those who have contributed to the wealth of the UK are quite rightly angry and concerned at being denied their democratic right to vote.

I am therefore writing to urge you to support Glyn Davies' bill.

Thank you for taking the time to read this.

Yours sincerely,'

The group reminds that you don't forget to add your previous address or postcode so that they can identify you as one of their constituents. For those who prefer to tweet their MP, they have a 'Votes for Life' meme which people can easily send which is available on their Facebook page.

Snuck off, we don't want American slang here

DEAR Leapy,

I am a great fan of yours but in your article, dated January 4, you used that awful US word SNUCK. We English don't SNUCK, we SNEAK!

Much of what we remember of England has sadly now gone, but at least the beautiful English language which we gave to the world, still remains.

That's all for now, please, excuse my scrawl, I have a disabled hand.

THE budget airlines expect their customers to print their own boarding passes, but unhelpfully prevent it happening earlier than a month before each flight.

ON the last three occasions I have shopped at a Spanish supermarket in the Aguilas Plaza I have encountered exactly the same problem.

The store is festooned with special offers such as 'buy one get the other one at half price.' When I have selected these and presented them for payment at the checkout, the computer tills have in many cases not been programmed to reflect the offers and the full price is charged.

When I try to explain to the checkout girl what the problem is she doesn't really understand, she just scans the items and does

This is very frustrating for both myself and the checkout girl and very irritating for other customers waiting in the queue whilst all this is taking place.

Confused Cartagena

CAN anyone really tell us what is happening with San Javier airport? Corvera is supposed to be opening this year, but we have heard that before, and when that opens San Javier is supposed to close.

However during the last week, AE-NA have given a four-year contract to ADELTE, a company specialising in airport boarding, for better assistance to passengers with reduced mobility or mobility issues.

Does this perhaps mean that San Javier won't close and they will keep both open, which would be nice, especially as we and lots of other passengers will have double the journey time to Corvera?

Different strokes

THE difference between sensible print and dross was highlighted in last week's Euro Weekly.

In the sensible corner we had Mike Senker highlighting Donald Trump's total lack of diplomacy, his racism and his tweet endorsements from that bastion of peace the KKK.

Then in the opposite corner we had good old Leapy, bleating on as if Trump was some sort of latter day saint. Mr Lee, get your facts right, Mr Obama was not responsible for the embassy move.

I sometimes worry, Leapy about your feelings towards Trump. It's plain to see what sort of President he is. Why don't you read Mike Senker's column first, nail and head come to mind.

MUCH was made of a recent police crackdown on older cars, with motorists being stopped and having their vehicles checked for safety.

That is very laudable but why don't the authorities seem to do anything about the constant parade of foreign cars totally overladen en route to and from ports connecting with Morocco? The police seem to ignore these really dangerous vehicles, perhaps because they don't want the hassle of dealing with potentially non-Spanish speakers. Brian Jones, Manilva

Nothing against immigration (Leapy Lee)

WELL, for once Leapy you've tried (but failed) to write a balanced opinion. You ignore that you migrated of your own free will. Maybe your self-inflicted prison sentence influenced your decision, but Britain was not a war zone. Your home was not bombed to rubble. You had electricity, water, food and free medical care if you needed it. You had choice. Ninety-nine per cent of the migrants you are so opposed to have NO CHOICE! They are faced with apalling conditions you would not tolerate for one moment! They are enduring years of proxy wars inflicted on them by OUR OWN disastrous policies in the Middle East. IF they stay, they face starvation and death! You would be fleeing with them! I don't buy your bleating. As Shakespeare's Hamlet might say, the Leapy doth protest too much.

Brian Eagleson

How can Brian Eagleson possibly know that 90 per cent of immigrants are fleeing starvation and death. Has he counted them? Anyway, Leapy is not talking about them. He is talking about the ones that come to take advantage of our better way of life with their Nike trainers and iPhones. The ones who leave their womenfolk and children behind. The ones who hate us and want to change our way of life.

As usual an inciteful and well written piece Leapy. Erica P

I just read between the lines and I just wish they would stop overdeveloping the coast, it will soon end up as a conglomerate of urbanisations, the only bit left is Duquesa to La Linea.

It's such a shame. All those apartments will have cars belonging to them that further clog up the towns when you want to park and do your jobs. And all the extra tourists on the roads, nightmare. I'll be off if it gets much busier down here, I left Barcelona and that coast for the same reason.

What a disaster!

WELL what a week! I didn't know whether to touch on this subject or not but decided to because, to be honest, it's making me a bit grumpy. Sexual harassment is wrong. That's it. No ifs, buts or whatevers, it's wrong, period.

There was a men only charity do in London hosted by the Presidents Club. They, in turn, hired hostesses who were told what to wear including the colour of their underwear. Anyone spot the obvious problem that could occur here? Oh and the hostesses were told they could drink booze whilst working.

This all came to light after one of the hostesses, who was an undercover reporter for the Financial Times, attended the function and then did an article about a load of drunk, rich old men sexually harassing a bunch of scantily dressed, possibly tipsy, young women who were trying to extract as much money as they could for charity. A disaster waiting to happen.

The money being raised was for Great Ormond Street Hospital and was close to a million pounds. That has now been returned so the biggest losers are sick children which is terrible. People have been fired and others resigned. What a disaster, all because a bunch of idiots don't know it's 2018 not the 60's, 70's or 80's or the beginning of time as that's how long this behaviour has been going on. The further fall out was several companies, charities and organisations have said they will not be using hostesses any more. One of the darts organisations will not have the walk on girls accompany the players on stage any more.

I remember going to the Motor Show in the UK and nearly every stand had young, pretty girls, some in bikinis, trying to get you to look at their cars. Will boxing get rid of the girls that parade in the ring with the round number?

You have to remember there are a lot of young ladies who earn a very lucrative living being hostesses and promotion girls or models which is their choice. In fact, I have a friend who did this work for many years and she told me unfortunately a few idiots spoil it for the rest. She loved her work and is retired now.

She was not assaulted on every job but there were a few where she had to put the punters very sharply in their place. It's just a terrible pity that because of a few morons, and I'm sure it wasn't every man there, GOSH and many other good causes will have to find money from other sources to continue their wonderful work.

LEGALLY SPEAKING Can I put a flag on my car?

WE answer some common driving questions, kindly provided by members of the Guardia Civil based in Torrevieja, Costa Blanca, who set up the N332 website and Facebook page to help break down barriers.

PATRIOTISM may give us a warm feeling of belonging, and the notion that members of a country may stick together as one is something which has stood the test of time, but displaying that patriotism on a vehicle can lead to a whole range of problems, resulting in a situation becoming a danger to other road users, unless it is done correctly.

Whether it is of a country, a football team or just a group to which you belong, carrying a flag to show your support is something that many people may consider, but it can also lead to fines from the traffic police if your flag does not comply with the regulations, not because the flag may show support for another country, but because they can lead to danger.

Article 14 of the Reglamento Circulacion deals with the distribution of loads, under the heading 'Disposición de la carga.'

Although a flag may not be considered to be a load, because it is an element which is additional to the normal fixtures of the vehicle, then it qualifies as such.

As such, in the interests of safety, any thing carried on a vehicle must not drag fully or partially, fall or move dangerously, interfere with vehicle stability, produce noise, dust or other problems that can be avoided and must not hide the lighting and signals, number plates or anything else which could interfere with manual warnings of the drivers.

Quite clearly, if a flag is of a large enough size, it will produce considerable drag.

It may well interfere with the view of lights, number plates and other fixtures, and could blow or fall into the path of other road users, and is a risk in terms of becoming loose or entangles in either the vehicle carrying it, or others.

Therefore, quite clearly, large flags are not allowed. However, there are smaller, purpose built flags which are permitted. These are often seen attached to the windows of vehicles, or sometimes as part of the main structure.

Similarly, there are other accessories available which can be fitted to a vehicle safely, such as covers for the wing mirrors, so long as the active view of the mirror is not obscured.

A flag draped or tied across the bonnet or roof, or any part of the vehicle, would not be permitted, nor would covers to the sun visors, which could interfere with the visibility of the driver.

Cassandra Nash

A weekly look - and not entirely impartial reaction - to the Spanish political scene

ACCORDING to Ricardo Costa. the Partido Popular's regional secretary general in the Valencian Community, the party was financed with black money on the orders of Generalitat ex-president Francisco Camps

"I didn't know," Mariano Rajoy claimed on the same day that he announced he hopes to run for a third presidential term.

So Spain's next president either ignores corruption or is so inept that he was unaware of it. Take your pick

Heading for a cul-de-sac

ROGER TORRENT, Speaker of the Catalan parliament, said before he was elected, that the Advisory Committee would pronounce on Carles Puigdemon's chances of becoming president while remaining exiled in Brussels.

The legal eagles gave that the thumbs-down as expected, but Torrent later confirmed the 'absolute legitimacy' of Puigdemont's potential investiture, although he was 'aware of the legal situation and the charges faced by the former regional president.

But Torrent also wants conciliation, as he emphasised on taking his place at the Mesa. That's why he wants to meet Mariano Rajoy, so that he and Spain's president can 'explore all political avenues' to ensure that Cataluña has a president, whatever his name.

Good luck with that one. Roger. because political problems need political answers, but Rajoy's way of dealing with them is to pass the buck to the courts.

The only avenues to explore, especially those regarding the re-election of the man who insists he is already the one true president of the Catalan republic, will lead all concerned down a one-way street into a cul-de-sac.

Big fish supper for Montoro

IF politicians do it and if footballers do it, why shouldn't footballers' girlfriends do it? Shakira, partner of Gerard Pique - the pro-independence Barcelona FC star, who is regularly booed when he plays for the Spanish side - has been accused of not paying her taxes.

It's understandable that Hacienda must scrape up as much cash as it can in a country where, until comparatively recent times, paying tax was regarded as a quaint foreign custom.

All the same, it's satisfying for the small taxpayer who hasn't enough for evasion to see Cristobal Montoro go after the big fish insteadof the tiddlers.

columnists@euroweeklvn

Loyalty card torn up

THE Partido Popular (PP) condemned Ciudadanos (Cs), whining that the party is 'disloyal.'

They seem to have forgotten that Spain has a government only because Ciudadanos agreed to support Rajoy's investiture bid in October 2016. In return Rajoy signed up to 150 unPP-ish measures that some insiders - without saying so aloud - believed could have helped to produce the renovation the party needed.

More than a year later, precious few of Albert Rivera's conditions have been met, but in the meantime Cs trounced the PP in Cataluña and would be in power in Spain if there were a general election tomorrow.

According to PP sources, Rajoy has allowed Cs to hog too much of the limelight, and pat itself on the back for the few changes it manoeuvred the usuallystatic president into effecting. And would you believe it! Rivera's party has sometimes voted against PP measures in parliament, his PP detractors maintain.

> There is a Spanish saving about being a prostitute and providing the bed as well, which is what Rajoy expected from Rivera.

Not only has that not happened but the PP is now trailing Cs and there is nothing more infuriating in life, and above all in politics, than needing someone you dislike more than they need you.

MARIANO RAJOY: Hopes to run for a third time.

FOUNDED in 2002, estate agents Home-España aim to provide a better service than others to clients buying and selling property in Spain.

They are determined to put customer satisfaction at the heart of what they do, and after 16 years of growth they have branches open in La Zenia, Los Dolses, Denia, Valencia and Benidoleig.

HomeEspaña has been operating in Valencia for more than a year and as the team has grown during that time, it has seen more and more people interested in buying in that area. The company therefore decided it was time to move to a bigger office.

The new office launch took place on Friday January 26 and from 5pm to 8pm, HomeEspaña directors, managers and employees from all branches arrived at the venue alongside local lawyers and builders from the area.

There was a large turn-out for the opening of the new office situated on the Gran Via Marques del Turia, 69, Valencia 46005 spoke about the new Valencia office opening saying "We are responding to the growing demand of our international customers looking to buy homes in Valencia and its surrounding areas. After 16 years of successfully helping clients buy and sell property across the Costa Blanca and Murcia we are excited to continue growing HomeEspaña in a new region.'

Kerry Byrne, Marketing Executive

Being at the forefront of a learning experience is pleasurable this week. An unexpected offer seems small but could have a big effect. A friend in need may go over the top and annoy you. It may be necessary to distance yourself and give help through others. .

Even as you prepare to go on a trip or start something new this week, the future beckons. In small things there are clues to the way forward. A chance encounter brings humour and opens your eyes to a friendship lately neglected.

Emotional and monetary wealth go hand in hand at the beginning of this energetic week. Someone is likely to make demands that you find unacceptable and you will need all your tact to avoid unpleasantness, but any resistance by you will, in the longer term, only gain you respect.

The colour purple

ULTRA VIOLET: Blueberries are packed with antioxidants.

IT'S safe to say the colour purple is having a moment, in fashion, beauty and interior design.

HEALTH &

However, it's the purple-food trend that is perhaps becoming the most popular. Many naturally purple foods are closely associated with healthy eating, as they are known to have a high nutritional content and be packed with antioxidants.

Fruit such as blackberries, blueberries and blackcurrants contain the antioxidant 'anthocyanin' which has been linked to a whole range of health benefits, such as lower insulin levels and less risk of inflammation. It can also be found in cranberries, cherries, aubergines and cabbage.

Purple cabbage is also a great source of essential nutrients such manganese, potassium, magnesium and calcium. It also contains vitamin K, vitamin C, vitamin B1 and vitamin B6. The anthocyanins found in red or purple cabbage are also believed to protect the heart and red blood cells from wear and tear.

Antioxidants found in purple and blue fruits could also be the key to young and healthylooking skin as they help prevent damage caused by free radicals in the body.

Other purple foods such as aubergine and purple onions reportedly help to reduce the risk of cancer as they contain flavonoids which have been proven to boost immunity to certain cancers and help keep blood pressure under control.

Purple sweet potatoes are packed with fibre, as well as iron, potassium and vitamin B6, so are great for improving digestion. Studies have shown them to help improve blood sugar levels and they also have antibacterial properties, so protect against contracting certain diseases.

Beetroot, perhaps the most famous purple vegetable of them all, is jam packed with essential nutrients such as iron, potassium, B vitamins, magnesium and manganese. It is also a great detox food as it contains compounds called glutathiones which help to cleanse heavy metals, toxins and waste from the system.

They have also been proven to help your muscles recover following a workout as they are full of nitrates which release oxygen into the bloodstream and boosts circulation to the places that need it. This can also help to lower blood pressure.

Scottish showers

THERE'S something about plunging yourself head first into freezing cold water first thing in the morning that really gets you going in the morning.

As off-putting as it sounds, a cold shower - often referred to as a 'Scottish Shower' or even the 'Iames Bond Shower' - can do wonders for getting your morning off to a good start, especially if you're one of those people who take several hours to fully wake up.

Research suggests that plunging yourself into freezing water may also be good for your physical and mental health. An article published in The North American Journal of Medical Sciences revealed that cold water can provide relief from pain and inflammation, as well as aiding and abetting almost all of your body's systems. A Dutch study also revealed that taking cold showers increases alertness and productivity and reduces sick days.

This is believed to be due to the fact the shock causes us to breathe deeply, increasing our oxygen intake to help us keep warm. Therefore our heart rate also increases, sending a rush of blood through the entire body and providing a natural energy boost.

They have also been shown to help relieve symptoms of anxiety, as a study from Virginia Commonwealth University revealed that cold showers send electrical nerve impulses to the brain, providing an uplifting effect.

So the next time your boiler breaks down don't panic, just brace yourself and embrace the cold.

FEELING FRESH: Cold showers do more than just wake you up in the morning.

Garlic: the health benefits

INCREDIBLY potent and packed with flavour, garlic is often a key ingredient in cuisine across the globe.

However, garlic is perhaps the world's most underrated super food, and has been linked to helping prevent a whole host of illnesses, including the four causes of death: stroke, cancer, heart disease and infections.

The root is high in certain sulphur compounds which scientists believe are responsible for its scent and taste, but also may have a positive effect on human health.

Garlic is at its most beneficial when eaten raw as it is still packed with antimicrobial, antiviral and antifungal properties that can help relieve colds as well as other infections.

One of garlic's most amazing abilities is that it's been shown to help reverse the symptoms of early heart disease as a 2016 study published in the Journal of Nutrition revealed that garlic extract reduced the build-up of plaque in arteries supplying blood to the heart for patients diagnosed with metabolic syndrome.

VISA

It also has been shown to help control high blood pressure as it contains polysulfides that aid the opening or widening of blood vessels, reducing blood pressure.

Garlic is a great addition to your diet in winter especially as it has also been shown to help prevent and combat the common cold. Certain chemical compounds found in garlic are effective at killing the microorganisms that cause infections and studies have shown those who eat raw garlic taken on a regular basis are less likely to get a cold, and recover faster if they do.

WINES in Spain are classified into 69 major regions or Designation of Origin (DO) with their own set of laws and quality standards

The best known national regions are Rioja, Ribera del Duero, Penedés, Navarra, Rueda. Cava, Rias Baixas, Jeréz, and La Mancha.

Grape names are not often used, with restaurants and shops classifying wines according to their origin, therefore it is quite common to confuse the grape name with the region.

A clear example is that Rioja refers to the DO as there is no such grape; though Albariño refers to the grape variety from the Rias Baixas region.

Here are the most common Spanish red grape varietals.

Tempranillo: The best known red also known as Tinto Fino, Cencibel and Ull de Llebre producing fruity young wines that age well in oak.

Garnacha (Grenache): Though of Spanish origin and produced in La Rioja, Navarra, Aragón and Cataluña is also found in several wine countries. It is normally blended with Tempranillo to produce fruity wines, with raspberry aromas.

Bobal: Cultivated mainly in Valencia it produces full bodied wines.

Monastrell: The typical grape of Murcia producing powerful wines with structure and strength Cabernet Sauvignon: Not a Spanish grape varietal but grows well here and is often blended with other grapes to produce more complex wines. Cabernet is found in La Mancha, Catalonia and Navarra.

Merlot: Another French grape variety and again found in many regions.

Syrah: Relatively popular in La Mancha and in the Mediterranean areas, it produces full bodied wines high in alcohol.

Tinta de Toro: Of the Tempranillo grape family and most typically grown in Zamora.

Cariñena: Widespread in Spain and in other wine-producing countries around the world. Other red wine grape varieties include Manto Negro from the Balearic Islands, Negramoll and Listán Negro from the Canary Islands, Prieto Picudo from León, Brancellao and Caíño from Galicia and Garnacha Tintorera found in Galicia, Alicante, and Albacete Verdejo: Typical from Rueda-producing wines that are aromatic with a tropical character.

Albariño: Produced in Rias Baixas, Galicia; aromatic and crispy with a distinctive aroma and silky texture.

Godello: From Northwest Spain producing aromatic wines. Palomino: Mainly used for SPLASHING OUT: Sterling's choice of villa is in Puerto Banus. (INSET) The England attacker has been in a rich vein of form.

by Harrison Jones

ENGLAND footballer, Raheem Sterling, is reportedly set to buy a stunning new six-bed Spanish villa.

The Manchester City star is believed to be paying around €5.45 million for the luxury Marbella pad, which comes complete with a cinema room, pool and wine cellar. Located close to the beach at Puerto Banus, the area is a haunt for millionaires - and the 23-year-old is keen to add to his property portfolio there, according to reports.

The villa's description says: 'It offers open-plan living, that flows effortlessly between beautifully designed interior and exterior spaces, each filled with bespoke furniture, commissioned exclusively for the property, giving it a modern and highly unique look.

'The ground floor entrance leads onto a light, open plan living and dining space, complete with a state-of-the-art custom kitchen. Sliding glass windows give access to the garden with its covered terrace and bespoke zero edge swimming pool area.'

Sterling already lives in a £3 million, five-acre mansion in Cheshire, England, with girlfriend Paige Milian and their one-yearold son, Thiago.

He signed for City for £49 million from Liverpool and earns roughly £200,000 a week.

The attacking midfielder, has been in superb form this season, netting 14 times in the Premier League to make him the divisons fourth top scorer. He also has four assists

Sterling: Raheem set for plush

But now he wants a holiday home to visit when he's not playing. He has visited the area twice already, according to British media.

The description continues: 'The villa boasts a stylish outdoor living area. In addition the ground floor also has a double bedroom with en-suite bathroom, leading out to a private terrace garden area. The first floor features a magnificent master bedroom, and a truly sensational en-suite bathroom.

'There are a further two bedrooms with bathroom on the first floor, and access to two large sun terraces looking over the pool and RISING UP: It is a good time to sell in Spain.

Gains in Spain

THE average price of exclusive housing in Spain rose by 6 per cent year-on-year at the end of 2017.

According to the Barnes Report 2017 of the luxury real estate market, that averages at €6,600 per square metre.

However, it is expected that the negative impact of the Catalan independence struggle will not be felt for a few more months.

In large cities like Madrid, Barcelona, Sevilla and Valencia, the increase in prices was above 12 per cent (€10,000 per square metre).

This figure also applied to regions with the highest tourist influx such as the Costa del Sol, the Balearic Islands and the Valencian coast. Emmanuel Virgoulay, the founding partner of Barnes Spain, commented that the real estate sector has experienced a 'historic year' in 2017.

"Not only has the economic crisis been left behind, but a necessary stability has been achieved for the market," he said.

"The annual balance is very positive, due to the good start."

Cruyff's turn to sell house

JOHAN CRUYFF'S family have sold off the late football legend's luxurious Barcelona mansion for a cool € 5.3 million.

The house, which is in the most glamorous part of the city, was the family's home from 1992 until the athlete died in March 2016.

It is located on the Bonanova promenade and has been sold by real estate agency Luxury Font.

The modernist villa (which was built in 1936) has been recently renovated while maintaining the original specifications.

There are four floors, nine rooms, seven bathrooms, a games room, a wine cellar and a terrace overlooking the beautiful Collserola mountain range.

Johan Cruyff's wife, Diana, moved 18 months ago to the neighbourhood of Turo Park.

Second best to invest

HOUSE BOOM: Spain is enjoying a popular property market.

SPAIN has established itself as the second most attractive country in Europe for investors in real estate. Only Germany is ahead, with 28.5 per cent of the per cent.

This data was presented at the Outlook 2018: Europe and Spain Investment Briefing, where more than 100 real estate professionals gathered.

In addition, experts are confidant that real estate investment will continue to grow in Spain this year, in a strong economic climate.

The political instability in Cataluña is an ongoing cause of uncertainty for the Spanish market, in a similar way to the Brexit effect on the UK, according to Alvaro Otero, a partner of CMA Albinana.

In the face of the Catalonian crisis, investors are looking for "boring places, in political terms, to invest," said Nicole Klux, Director of real estate company AF Advisory.

As a result, other cities like Madrid, Sevilla, Malaga and Valencia are benefiting from the investment boom.

Oscar Perez, the Investment Director of Qualitas Equity, said, "the investment trend is on the rise, as shown by a greater interest in international funds entering Spain through local family offices."

THE importance of trees within, and surrounding, villages and towns is now taken seriously worldwide. February marks the start of the season of 'Days of the Tree' (Dias del Arbol), leading up to the United Nations Day of the Tree on Wednesday March 21.

On such days, local residents of all ages join forces to support the local environmental protection (Medio Ambiente) teams. They plant up new trees, to replace those lost by fires or the drying out of mountainsides or valleys, review and improve the quality and density of tree plantings in village and town streets and squares and at home in their private gardens.

A much-needed day in our village, La Drova, has been organised by the local Residents Association for Sunday March 11. In other locations it has been gardening clubs and local councils that have taken the initiative

In each case the main objectives are, to improve the range of trees useful for creating interesting views, improve the balance between shaded and sunny areas, protect and stimulate the growth of wildlife populations, create local supplies of medium and long-term commercial supplies of wooden fencing posts and construction beams, lop or remove dangerous trees, establish local sources of leaves and fruits for healthy infusions and to enhance personal privacy and security.

Your garden in February The value of trees

LOVE YOUR CAR!

TREE-MENDOUS: Trees perform a number of useful functions in both private and public gardens.

Selections of useful native and imported trees are provided in my books 'Your garden in Spain' and 'How to use less water in your garden - a practical guide to waterwise Mediterranean style gardening worldwide.'

What is planted and when it is planted needs to match local seasonal climates, soil depths and qualities, eventual heights and widths, and, in some cases, historical customs. Two of the longest existing tree planting days in Spain are those of the villages Alameda de los Remedios, started in 1594 and Villanueva de la Sierra, started in 1805.

It is obvious that these plantings were taken seriously, as the results are apparently still to be seen. However, in our village for instance, many plantings die within a few years due to poor planting practices, poor provision of protection from hungry animals and playful dogs, and irregular watering and weeding of young trees.

Fortunately, surviving ancient trees are now given official protection in many areas of Spain, but in others they are felled within private gardens by new owners, to reduce the need to rake or vacuum up fallen leaves and dead flowers.

Keep life sweet

SWEET POTATOES are a perfect vegetable to grow in Spain, as they thrive in sunny conditions

However, they're not picky about where they're planted and also grow well in other parts of the garden. They also work well on a trellis or a patio planter, as they produce beautiful tubers in the autumn that add to the lovely foliage and flowers

In order to create the perfect environment for them to grow, build several, wide, 25cm-high ridges, spaced about a metre apart. A row that is three metres long will produce about 4kg of potatoes. Make sure you add lots of organic compost, but avoid nitrogen-rich fertilisers which can stunt growth.

To get the best results, plant root sprouts - or 'slips' - which can bought from nurseries or you can save a few roots from a previous crop.

Plant the slips 15 centimetres deep and about 30 centimetres apart, so they have space to spread out, then press the soil down firmly, and water well. The potatoes usually mature in 90 to 170 days but are very frost sensitive, so make sure you plant them three to four weeks after the last frost if you live in a particularly cold area. If it is dry, provide a few centimetres of water each week until two weeks before they're due to be harvested, then allow the soil to dry out.

AS the name suggests, negativity is never good. Used with people or animals it can have a disastrous effect.

When teaching and exercising 'sit', you pull up on the check chain, hand on your dog's rump and tell him to 'sit'. No reward is given. Is that good for the dog? Yes, he will automatically sit in time when you stop walking. He has learnt the exercise with the repetition of the action being used.

This goes for all exercises you train him in, but something every time, not just sometimes. Punishment of a dog should never be used. However correction of a dog should be done when it is necessary. I am not talking about if it makes a mistake in training. That's usually your fault. You may not have taught it properly.

You only have about four seconds to make any correction. Usually a growl can be sufficient. Sometimes, if the reason for the correction is sufficient, you may need to physically grab the dog either side of the neck, and even lift it off the ground using a firm grip and an even firmer voice.

Pet protection gone too far?

THERE'S reportedly a growing community of people who believe it's dangerous to vaccinate your pets.

The advocates behind the campaign claim that immunising domestic animals can cause various diseases and disorders including autism - that could shorten your pet's life.

While the alleged risks of vaccinating children have been broadcast for many years now, the supposed danger vaccines pose to animals is a relatively new talking point. The website www.doglistener.co.uk alleges an American veterinary paper revealed around 22,000 cats develop cancer at the point of vaccination every year in the USA.

Immunisation also reportedly causes thyroid disease, arthritis and parvovirus, according to various anti-vaccine protestors.

Others claim that pets are being over-vaccinated, as most injections are designed to last for at least seven years, and many fear smaller animals are subjected to injections that are stronger than they need.

However, immunologists claim large and small dogs require the same dosage.

like this if the dog snarls at you, goes to bite you or some other action which is more than a misdemeanour. Again, remember you only have about four seconds after the event to make the corrections. After that you are too late. Think about two dogs mixing it up. They don't hesitate to retaliate if challenged.

They are instant creatures. What is important here is that afterwards you have to correct the dog, whether it just be with 'ah.. ah' or you have to handle the dog. You must give it a command it can achieve quickly like 'sit' and then reward it immediately.

Company scoop double win at Best Cars Award

MAKING A SPLASH: The X1 won the Upper Midrange class.

THE BMW 5 Series and X1 won prestigious awards at the German Auto Motor and Sports magazine's Best Car Awards 2018.

The readers' polls saw the pair win the Upper Midrange and Compact SUV categories. It's the second year in a row that the 5 Series has won the former class, to add to a collection of other awards.

The awards were announced during a ceremony at the International Congress Centre in Stuttgart. Over 117,000 readers voted for the 42nd annual awards, which saw 378 models compete in 11 categories.

In an impressive haul for the German manufacturer, BMW placed in six other categories.

The BMW i3 came second in the Small Cars category, while third place positions came for five other cars - the 2 Series Coupe (Compact Class), 4 Series Gran Coupe (Midrange Class), i8 Coupe (Sports Cars), X3 (Large SUVs) and 2 Series Active Tourer/BMW 2 Series Gran Tourer (Vans).

Slick Yamaha buggy out in June

YAMAHA have released a new 'utility' golf buggy. And the company boast the latest stylish model has 'superior comfort and increased productivity.'

The Yamaha UMX light utility vehicle - which they say is 'built for work' - will soon be available in 400cc petrol and 5.0kW electric versions.

Set for release at Yamaha dealers in June, the company describes the new vehicle as 'a strong, stylish and compact utility vehicle that is equipped to transport two people and their cargo quickly and effortlessly around farms, parks, factories and airports.'

The aluminium cargo bed is a spacious 104.6cm long x 116.6cm wide x 30.2cm deep. There is also a one-touch tailgate, giving instant access to tools, equipment or supplies.

The company adds: 'Its rugged design enables the UMX to be driven over a variety of road and non-extreme off-road terrain to give access to all areas, both indoor and outside - and the smart suspension and two separate seats ensure a comfortable and confident ride. 'Equipped with a large rear cargo bed and convenient front storage compartment, the UMX is an asset to any business - and with its easy to use controls and ergonomic design, this new Yamaha utility vehicle ensures that every member of the workforce gets the job done more efficiently.'

The price of the vehicle is not yet known.

Yamaha is one of the best established brands in the golf car segment but now says it is aiming to diversify its range.

LIONEL MESSI scored a late free-kick to secure all three points for Barcelona after a second-half fight back saw them win 2-1 against struggling Alaves.

The runaway leaders fell behind to a shock first-half opener through former Manchester City and Celtic striker John Gudetti's strike and the 17th placed side held the lead for most of the match before Luis Suarez broke their resolve in the 72nd minute.

Alaves seemed to be heading for a memorable draw against the runaway leaders, but that man Messi stepped up to score a trademark free-kick, albeit not his best, to break Alayes hearts.

The result leaves Alayes sitting dangerously just two points above the relegation zone, while Barcelona retained their 11 point lead at the top of La Liga after Atletico had cruised past Las Palmas earlier in the day.

Second half strikes from Antoine Griezmann, Fernando Torres and Thomas Partey were enough to see the 2013/14 Champions past Las Palmas at the Wanda Metropolitano and keep some pressure on Barca.

Elsewhere, Real Madrid moved to within two points of third placed Valencia as they brushed the Valencians aside 4-1 to ease pressure on boss Zinedine Zidane.

two first half penalties before Santi Mina replied for the hosts, but two late strikes from Marcelo and Toni Kroos saw the current champions move to within two points of third place with a game in hand.

While Villarreal pushed on, Sevilla stumbled as their quest for Europa League qualification hit a snag with a 1-1 draw against Getafe.

Sevilla seemed on course for victory after Lucas Muriel's 72nd minute strike opened the scoring, but Angel replied for the away side with a 93rd minute equaliser to secure a point as Getafe moved into the top 10.

Following their historic Copa del Rey quarter-final victory over Real Madrid, Leganes continued their red hot form as they beat Espanyol 3-2 on Sunday.

Espanyol's Mario Hermoso scored possibly one of the strangest hat-tricks in history as he managed to score two own goals, before getting one back for the side in the final minutes.

Ten-man Deportivo La Coruña let a 2-0 lead slip in the final 10 minutes as Ivan Ivi scored a quickfire double for Levante who staged a dramatic late comeback to salvage a 2-2 draw.

Deportivo looked set to leapfrog their opponents out of the relegation zone after Adrian Lopez and Florin Andone put the hosts firmly in control, despite playing with a man less from the 34th minute after Celso Borges saw red.

But they let the lead slip in the final 10 minutes as Ivi made the most of some slack defending to ensure that Deportivo remain in deep trouble.

In the weekend's other fixtures, bottom side Malaga managed to grab another point as they drew 0-0 with Girona, while Athletic Bilbao drew 1-1 with Eibar, and in the Monday night game, Celta Vigo overcame Real Betis 3-2 thanks to an Iago Aspas double.

SPAIN has been crowned European Handball Champions for the first time after a 29-23 win over former World Champions Sweden in the final.

In what turned out to be a thrilling match, the Swedes raced into a three goal lead early in the first half and dominated the remainder, deservedly taking a 14-12 lead into the half-time interval.

Spain's Alex Duishabaev, who was named in the team of the tournament, told media after the match: "After four losses in finals of the European championships, we knew we had to give everything in our power and play the best we can.

"In the first half, they were the ones that outplayed us, they were better, but we talked in the break and told ourselves we are about to play the last 30 minutes of the tournament."

Their talk during the break clearly worked as Spain, who defied the odds to reach the final, soon put on an 8:1 goal spree to turn the match on its head.

CHAMPIONS: Spain won their 1st European Handball Championship.

Ferran Cole and David Balaguer scored five goals each, while backs Raul Enterrios and Alex Duishabaev pitched in with four apiece.

Spain were also indebted to their standin goalkeeper, 38-year-old Arpad Sterbik, who pulled off some crucial saves in the second half.

England "one of the favourites" for Six Nations, says Redfern

FORMER England international Steve Redfern believes that England will be "one of the favourites" for this year's Six Nations.

The Red and Whites ran away with last year's trophy, but were edged out 13-9 by Ireland in the final game and narrowly missed out on the Grand Slam.

And ahead of this year's tournament, former England international and Leicester Tigers front row Steve Redfern believes that Eddie Jones' men have more than enough to win the title once again and will also have an eve on the Grand Slam.

He told the Euro Weekly News: "I think they've got to be one of the favourites.

"Eddie Jones is developing and the players are as well.

"We have to be up there again and the players will be thinking about that Grand Slam."

The side head into this weekend's tournament second in the world in the World Rugby rankings, just behind New Zealand, and will be confident of winning their third successive Six Nations title.

England begins their campaign on Sunday as they travel to Italy with the kick off at 4pm.

BARCELONA star Lionel Messi has hit the post an incredible 13 times already this season. The Argentinian hit the post again during his side's win against Alaves at the weekend, surpassing the 12 times he hit the woodwork in the 2014/15 season. Costa Blanca's best guide to local sport

Going for gold

SPANISH figure skater Javier Fernandez admits that he is aiming to become the first Spaniard to win a gold medal since 1972 at this month's Winter Olympics.

The two-time World Champion is in red hot form going in to the Pyeongchang games, having recently just won his sixth consecutive European Championship.

He narrowly missed out on the podium four years ago in Sochi, where he finished fourth in his best ever Olympic result.

Fernandez became the first male Spanish figure skater to participate in the Olympics since Dario Villalba in 1956 with his first Olympic appearance in 2010, and now admits he wants to become the first Spaniard to receive a Winter Olympics medal since 1992.

He told Spanish media: "I'm going to try to be the Olympic champion, but the competition is going to be really hard.

"I'll be just happy to be on the podium because Spain never had a medal in figure skating, so that would be making history and I would also be happy with that.

"I think in these Olympics I'm going to be more prepared," Fernandez continued.
