

Police find millions of child sex images

THE National Police have uncovered 1.3 million paedophile images on a man's computer.

Officers discovered the horrific photographs after investigating a man in Velez-Malaga for sexual abuse of a child.

The accused, who is being investigated for sexual abuse of a minor, sexual provocation and child pornography, first came under scrutiny last April after a mother told police the man may have abused her daughter. The alleged perpetrator, who is said to be a relative of one of the girl's friends, has been remanded in prison since the accusation.

The 50-year-old Spanish man is said to have taken advantage of his friendly relationship with his victims to sexuallu abuse them, bribing them with gifts of snacks or threatening them to assault and photograph them as well as showing them pornography.

Police allege the man had a 'secret' room where he showed his victims the images and that he hid his crimes using special software to evade detection. Officers have since seized three computers, 12 CDs, 432 DVDs, nine USB sticks and three hard drives.

Last week it was revealed another man had been arrested at Malaga Airport for distributing child pornography. The 36-year-old Belgian man is accused of sending the material through WhatsApp after a woman claimed to receive photos from the man who she did not know.

Blood brothers Inheritance battle sparks shooting

A man shot his brother before killing himself in an apparent dispute over an inheritance.

Police are still trying to establish the exact cause of the disagreement after the man's victim sustained a gunshot wound to his left arm in the incident in Benamocarra. Officers believe the alleged perpetrator then took his own life believing he had killed his brother.

Police say the incident began at around 7.30am when three gunshots were heard at a home which neighbours reported sounded like firecrackers. Police and ambulances arrived, finding a 68-year-old man with a gunshot wound to his head but still alive.

Health workers were unable to save his life, however, declaring him dead at the scene.

His 61-year-old brother had already been taken to hospital by relatives where he was treated for his wound.

incident, begging bystanders to take the gun from his shooter in case he harmed himself. Residents are said to be in shock at the incident, saying the victim and alleged perpetrator come from a "good family, very loved and respected in the town." The alleged shooter had run a bar in the centre of Benamocarra for several years and is said to have been well-known locally.

According to one publication the brothers came from a family which owned several houses and a lot of land.

Drought threat now 'severe'

THE Junta de Andalucia regional government has raised Axarquia's drought level to severe.

Depsite the move the Junta still has no plans to impose water cuts on residents, according to Jose Fiscal, Minister for the Environment.

The minister confirmed the regional government will instead review public water consumption after drought levels worsened in Axarquia and some parts of Granada.

Last week it was announced Emasa will no longer supply water to the La Viñuela reservoir despite its continued water shortage.

The company, which has been sending drinking water to the dwindling reservoir for a month and a half, will instead now channel water to the Pinillo reservoir in Torremolinos.

Viñuela's water levels now sit at around 22 per cent with only 35 cubic hectometres remaining. Since early January, Emasa had been diverting around 100 litres of water a second to Viñuela in the hope of slowing the rate at which water levels decreased.

The same amount of water will now be sent to Pinillo after its own supplies fell due to lack of rainfall.

Farmers are currently forced to cut their irrigation by 60 per cent despite the lack of watering bans for residents. The Junta said farmers will now be offered just 10 hectometres of water for irrigating this year compared to 23 hectometres.

Following police investigations, officers arrested both men and recovered two laptops and other items from the burglaries. Police are still searching for the owners of several of the possessions.

Airport staff theft claim

A CLEANER has been arrested for allegedly stealing a passenger's bracelets at Malaga Airport.

The woman is awaiting court after admitting to stealing two gold bracelets worth $\in 2,400$ while their owner went through an X-ray machine.

The passenger is said to have taken the designer bracelets off to pass through security, putting them in her bag and only noticing they were gone once she was on the plane. Returning to Malaga several days later she reported the crime to the airport's Guardia Civil officers.

Police reviewed CCTV footage from the day of the crime and found the victim had placed the items in her bag as she claimed and had not had any contact with anyone else until her flight. Investigating further they found a cleaner had been working on the X-ray machine at the time of the theft.

Images showed the woman put the bracelets in the pocket of her work uniform disregarding the security guards and members of the Guardia Civil next to her.

In February a cab driver was also arrested for stealing from passengers at Malaga Airport.

The 33-year-old man faces prosecution after it was alleged he stole identity documents and $\notin 2,000$ in cash from travellers arriving at Malaga Airport. Police say the man took the possessions from the baggage trolley of travellers who had just arrived from Paris. Officers claim the accused took advantage of the group's lack of attention as they were loading bags into a taxi.

Spain's never-ending corruption problem

THE news that Spain has risen in a global corruption ranking may not come as a surprise.

The country has been plagued by scandal in recent years, with members of the Royal Family, political parties, large corporations, and the police implicated.

Its Transparency International Corruption Perceptions Index score has now dropped by eight points (out of 100) since 2012, with its latest tally of 57 worse than most other European nations.

According to official figures, almost 1,500 individuals faced corruption trials in Spain between July 2015 and the end of 2016, while the issue has long ranked as the second biggest cause for concern after unemployment among the population.

In 2013 a European Council report questioned the integrity and impartiality of Spain's chief anti-corruption prosecutor, who was appointed by the government, and issued a series of 11 recommendations to help Spain tackle the problem.

But three years later, it concluded that none had been 'implemented satisfactorily.'

Some blame religion, since Catholicism allows for confession and absolution of sins, while others claim that corruption is a habit born in dictatorial times, when cheating the state was akin to an act of resistance.

And unless political forces can come together and deal with the issue as a state policy transcending individual parties, it appears that systematic corruption is here to stay.

POLICE have brought down a gang burgling Chinese bazaars.

Three people now face trial for belonging to a criminal organisation, aggravated robbery and fraud after they allegedly robbed several shops in Axarquia. Two further people remain under investigation after the group allegedly forced their way into the shops, stealing tills.

The investigation, labelled Pekin-Uranus, began last October when police in Malaga and Motril established a series of crimes had been carried out by the same group. Officers claim the group hold criminal records for similar crimes and used false identities to rent cars which were used to commit the robberies.

The gang allegedly spent more than $\in 2,600$ on car rental in just over a month, paying third parties to hire the vehicles in their names before falsifying insurance claims to cover up any damage caused to the cars during the robberies.

A police operation saw officers from the Torrox-Algarrobo and Velez-Malaga work together to bring down the group.

Concrete plans

ALMUÑECAR Council is having to spend € 30,000 replacing the town's bollards.

The project comes after a change in law means all bollards must be accessibility-friendly by the beginning of 2019 with most of the town's structures affected.

Other towns in Andalucia are also affected by the changes meaning bollards are in short supply and leading Almuñecar to roll off the substitutions in phases.

The first area to receive replacements will be the La Paloma neighbourhood, which will also receive works to its pavements and kerbs.

The Altillo and Coliseo areas will also benefit from new bollards before lastly the Puerta del Mar and its surrounding streets.

NEW BOLLARDS: Are already being installed.

The new bollards must be between 75 centimetres and 90 centimetres high to comply with the new regulations, whereas most of the town's are shorter, creating a trip hazard. All replacement bollards must also be at least 10 centimetres in diameter and painted in a colour designed to stand out from their surroundings so they are more visible at night.

The new structures will also be banned from being positioned at the end of pedestrian crossings where they can become a hazard as pedestrians look out for traffic.

Medical failings

POLITICIANS have started a petition criticising the health care at the Almuñecar Medical Centre.

The Almuñecar Andalucian Party has collected around 1,500 signatures calling on the Junta de Andalucia to provide new services at the centre.

The group claims the council and Regional Health Service signed an agreement in 2004 providing for further facilities meaning patients no longer had to travel to Motril for some treatments.

Among the facilities promised were gastroenterology, cardiology, pulmonology, dermatology, urology, otorhinolaryngology and obstetrics care, they claim.

The group says these facilities were never put in place, blaming this on cuts made by the Junta for the lack of additional services and an ongoing shortage of doctors and nurses.

The platform claims these problems have led to delays in patients being given medical appointments, which they say then puts a strain on the centre's Accident and Emergency Department.

Many of the signatures collected on the petition were taken from patients visiting the health centre.

Expert demands new hospital

A HEALTH expert has said Malaga City cannot cope without a new hospital.

Jose Luis Garcia de Arboleya has explained the future of a new hospital in the city looks likely following prolonged negotiations.

Mr de Arboleya, who served as Minister for Health at the Junta de Andalucia between 1992 and 2000, has told one publication some progress has been made, claiming, "We have achieved a good degree of consensus." He explained more than 300 people had come together to plan a '21st century hospital,' and the project "has been a satisfaction for all of us."

A group of experts compiled a 300-page report considering the impact of building an 800-bed hospital on the land behind the Materno Infantil. Under the proposals the current Carlos Haya Hospital would become a 400 or 500-bed hospital for patients with chronic conditions. In turn, the Hospital Civico would become a research and training hospital.

Sources are saying, "We are confident that what we have proposed will go forward."

Police protest

AROUND 250 members of the Local Police have gathered in Malaga City to protest about work conditions.

Officers are demanding that their shift patterns are forecast at the start of each year, so they can plan their family and down time around work. The union has criticised municipalities for failing to negotiate, however, saying, "there is no real negotiation, they impose on us, they will not comply." Manuel Troyano, head of the cian Police, explained, "Almost every day there are situations where they are expected, that same week, to change their work schedule."

He added, "Officers are being forced to change their shifts within two or three hours of starting work without taking into account personal and family obligations, whether we have children under our care or medical appointments."

Last year, around 3,000 Malaga police protested again to demand equal pay with their regional counterparts. They claim police in the Guardia Civil are paid \in 1,350 a month, while their equivalents in Catalonia are paid around \in 2,000 on average a month. In addition, offices are claiming they are subject to overcrowding and 'terrible' hygiene and food.

Officers claim the issue came to a head after police from all over Spain were drafted in to help out with the constitutional crisis in Cataluña, highlighting the disparity in pay between officers from different areas.

THE Junta De Andalucia has still not announced the works it is expecting to carry out to solve the drought problem in Malaga. This has lead to complaints from irrigators.

MALAGA AIRPORT: Will receive millions in investment.

€273m airport boost

MALAGA Airport is to receive millions of Euros in investment.

The funding will increase the popular hub's capacity from 24 million passengers a year to 25.9 million. Upgrade plans will also see a maximum of 180,000 flights come and go each year.

According to AENA, the company responsible for Malaga Airport, the move is designed to ensure it 'has sufficient capacity to meet traffic levels and retain high levels of quality.' The project will see 2.36 hectares of land surrounding the current airport limit used to expand facilities. Further plans include adapting the building housing terminals two and three in both departures and arrivals to provide new parking spaces in front of the airport. Further security checks will also be installed at five of the new boarding gates to offer passengers flexibility. Another possibility would see a new boarding area built which would ease the flow of passengers. A non-Shengen arrivals area will also be created in the building housing terminals two and three.

Malaga airport's new terminal - which was opened in 2009 - will also see its interior adapted.

Budget chaos

POLITICAL upheaval has left Nerja's budget hanging in the balance.

Following disagreements with opposing politicians the town's council will now have to continue negotiating to push a budget through.

The governing tripartite coalition of PSOE, Izquierda Unida (IU) and EVA-Podemos has faced resistance from opposing parties Partido Popular (PP) and Ciudadanos over the ≤ 27.5 million document.

A similar situation last year saw Nerja's 2016 continue into 2017 after politicians failed to agree a new 2017 budget. Commenting on the council's 2018 draft budget, one councillor Lola Sanchez criticised the coalition for "demanding approval in a hurry in just five days without the analysis such an important document requires."

The furore follows plans by opposition politicians last year to hold a vote of no confidence to unseat Nerja's mayor, Rosa Arrabal.

Councillors from party Ciudadanos grouped with members of the PP to oust Mayor Rosa Arrabalfrom the PSOE party, following a scandal over an illegal landfill in Nerja. Despite protracted negotiations, however, the two parties failed to reach an agreement over the vote and Mayor Arrabal remains in her position.

For its part, the tripartite last year explained it was frustrated by "the attitude of the PP and Ciudadanos which constantly tries to hinder our work."

LINEA DIRECTA: Guarantees the use of OEM parts in their repairer network.

OEM parts exclusively used in national repair network

OEM PARTS

OEM parts are Original Equipment Manufactured parts as made by your car's manufacturer. They are brand new, usually more expensive and sometimes take longer to order. But they are a no brainer. Body shops love them because they fit perfectly and install easy.

LÍNEA DIRECTA ONLY USES OEM PARTS

Línea Directa is the only insurance company that guarantees the use of OEM parts in their repairer network. Thanks to an exclusive purchasing and distribution agreement with the major manufacturers, when you repair your vehicle through its exclusive network of body shops and repairers, they guarantee the use of OEM parts. After vehicle repairs are complete, they send a list of the OEM parts used for you to keep in your log book. It's one less thing to worry about.

DO ALL INSURANCE COMPANIES USE OEM PARTS?

At the time of publishing this article, no other insurance company in Spain guarantees the exclusive use of OEM parts in their repairer network. Some insurance companies rely on after market parts and used parts to keep the repair costs to a minimum, only paying for OEM parts if no other parts are available. After-market parts are parts made by a company other than your vehicle's manufacturer. They are new and the spec should be very close to the original specs. However, some minor fitting adjustments may be required by the body shop. Used parts come from the scrap yard. Cars involved in accidents, engine trouble or age, mean that scrapped cars will have some working parts, which can be resold. The used parts are usually OEM parts.

NATIONAL NETWORK OF BODY SHOP REPAIRERS

Using the Línea Directa network to repair vour car means more than just OEM parts. The whole repair service is handled from start to finish. Your vehicle is collected at the agreed time and place. The repairs are carried out swiftly, efficiently and according to original manufacturer specs. You can request a replacement vehicle for the duration of the repair. They will keep you updated on progress and after completion; your vehicle will be delivered at the agreed time and place.

Politician accused of siphoning public money

A LOCAL politician has sparked outrage after being accused of using public money to pay for luxury meals, $a \in 2,000$ degree and other expenses.

Margarita El Cid, vicepresident of the conservative Popular Party in Malaga City, allegedly misused funds from 2011-2014, when she served as party general secretary.

She is blamed for siphoning cash from her party bank accounts, some of which was used to pay for a Master's degree in Public Leadership, Entrepreneurship and Innovation from the Deusto private business school in Madrid.

An anonymous letter detailing the infractions was sent to current party general secretary Maria Dolores de Cospedal last October.

made personal use of public voices worth money by using 'blank cheques' to pay for more than $\in 6,000$ worth of expensive meals on her days off plus another €7,000 of 'dubious expenses.' She is also accused of failing to bank €29,000 intended for 'sociological services,' transferring $\in 40,000$ from the association to her Popular Party's provincial account, and signing off in-almost € 30.000 for non-approved public opinion surveys. A party official said in response to the claims: "This party has no evidence to suggest the existence of any unjustified payments, all information related to economic management is available to municipal investigators and the association successfully passed a recent audit of its accounts."

A night in Buenos Aires

NERJA'S Cultural Centre was transported into the outskirts of Argentina's capital last Friday.

The show Pasion Tango saw two of tango's best couples dancing to singing and poetry in a performance reminiscent of the Belle Epoque age of 1930's Buenos Aires.

Alberto and Cristina and Luis and Arlene performed to classic songs including Volver, El dia que me quieras, and La Cumparasita, using their movements and expression to create passionate performances.

Piano performances by Chano Robles and singing and guitar by Martin El Turco saw the evening bring to life this Argentine dance which has enthralled audiences and dancers alike since its inception in the 1880's in Argentina and Uruguay.

New police station almost ready

VELEZ-MALAGA: Will benefit from a new police station.

VELEZ-MALAGA'S new police station will be open by the end of the year.

The building, which will house the National Police, is expected to be completed within its original 20 month schedule if works "continue at this pace and there are no unforeseen events," according to Miguel Briones from the Junta de Andalucia regional government.

According to Briones the new station will help "not only 80,000 residents, but it is also important for tourists and of course the rest of the region."

The new building, which is costing $\in 2.7$ million, will be located on a 6,700 square metre plot in the Cuesta del Visillo area. The station will be built over three floors, providing office space, cells and parking.

The station's foundation stone was laid early last year in a ceremony attended by Minister for the Interior, Juan Ignacio Zoido. Mr Zoido confirmed the government is "firmly committed" to ensuring police have the resources they need.

Vote over promenade

RESIDENTS are being offered a chance to vote over the future of their seafront.

Locals of Torre de Benagalbon will take to the ballot boxes over controversial plans to build a concrete promenade which saw 6,000 people sign a petition rejecting the project.

Rincon de la Victoria Council has invested $\in 42,350$ in a design contest, campaign and voting system to receive further ideas for the 3.6 kilometre strip. Opponents to original plans for a concrete promenade claimed the town's rare dunes would be endangered.

Protestors said the one-kilometre strip, which is one of only four dunes on Malaga's coastline, was left vulnerable after the Junta de Andalucia voted against requiring Rincon de la Victoria's Council to protect the area.

After the council announced plans to install a promenade, a spokesman for the group opposing the project, Antonio Trillo, explained, "We want the council to listen to us, be receptive to our request, and understand the footpath of Torre de Benagalbon is okay as it is, we do not want more concrete in front of the beach."

He added, "it seems to be outrageous to us to get rid of one of only three coastal environments in which there are still dunes, with examples of native flora such as sea lilies."

Zahara and Ronda success

RECENTLY a full bus of International friends of Lux Mundi, Torre del Mar, accompanied by Carolyn Bowen set off on an excursion to Zahara de la Sierra and Ronda.

Zahara de la Sierra is reputed to be one of the 10 most picturesque white villages in Spain and it certainly did not disappoint.

The first stop for many was in a bar in the Plaza Mayor for coffee, followed then by a visit to the church of Santa Maria de la Meza. Some of the more energetic climbed up to the castle which is built on a rocky peak at a height of 1,100 metres above the turquoise waters of the lake below where the view was fantastic.

After a couple of hours the group rejoined the bus for the journey to Ronda where there was time to have a leisurely lunch, to view the famous gorge from the 18th century bridge and to visit various museums, the bull ring, the Roman Baths and many other interesting sites.

Lux Mundi would like to thank all who supported this excursion, which en-

the Nerja History Group recently visited Sevilla.

They had a breakfast stop en route and then went straight to La Casa de Los Pilatos in the Barrio Santa Cruz. They then made the short journey across the River Guadalquivir to Triana to see the ceramics museum.

After checking into their hotel, they met for a cocktail on the roof terrace, and then walked to a nearby restaurant.

Their guide Marta collected them at the hotel after breakfast the next day, giving them a potted history of Sevilla. They walked towards the Cathedral, with Marta giving information about the buildings which they passed.

They then had a coffee break and continued to the Casa de Las Duenas, the private palace home of the late Duchess of Alba.

Following this they visited a convent where the nuns sell marmalades and jams. After making some purchases, they AROUND 30 members of walked with Marta back to the area near Las Setas once again, where they separated and had a tapas lunch. They met up in the evening, for a short walk to another restaurant for dinner. Some then went to a Flamenco Show. They then walked back to the hotel for a good night's sleep.

On the third morning, some went to the Museum of Bellas Artes to the Murillo Exhibition. The building itself is a former Monastery - one of the galleries is in the former church - which has a highly painted ceiling and dome.

Some of the group took themselves off to see other monuments, some a horse and carriage ride then, after lunch, they all met up to board the coach for the journey home.

The Nerja History Group is for anyone interested in Spanish history and meets each month between October and April for talks on history and trips. Please see: www.ner jahistorygroup.es.

IRISH budget airline Ryanair has announced a €162 million investment in Palma de Mallorca Airport.

The splurge will see the no frills carrier base two additional aircraft at its Balearic Islands hub during the peak holiday season, bringing its fleet to 10.

It will also launch six new routes to France, Germany and Luxembourg including Berlin Tegel, Düsseldorf, Luxembourg, Nuremberg, Strasbourg and Stuttgart. The move will see Ryanair fly a total of 53 routes from Mallorca this summer.

TV rights in streamland

SPANISH production firm Mediapro is set to auction off TV rights to European football in Spain.

The move comes after Mediapro last year teamed up with Qatar-based beIN Sports to win rights to the next three seasons of the UEFA Champions and Europa Leagues, narrowly beating rival Telefonica.

And the broadcaster is now looking to make a profit on its investment.

"We'll ask for offers to be sent to us at the beginning of March," said Mediapro President Jaume Roures. "Then at Digital giants Netflix and Amazon could enter the bidding, although there exist doubts over whether they have the technical capacity to stream live matches to millions of viewers.

The rights to the Spanish La Liga for 2019-2022 are also set to be sold over the next few months, and La Liga president Javier Tebas has admitted he is aiming to rake in $\in 1.3$ billion per year, a 30 per cent increase on the current deal.

But industry experts say he is being optimistic after Sky recently paid just over $\in 4$ billion for the 2019-2022 English Premier League rights, 16 per cent less than the previous agreement.

A report from Credit Suisse said: "Mediapro seems to be trying to generate interest in the football rights from new over-the-top (OTT) players, but the lack of OTT interest in the recent UK Premier League... suggests global OTT players such as Amazon are less likely to bid for Spanish domestic football."

Bottom line cranked up

SPAIN'S Banco Sabadell has revealed plans to increase profits by almost 80 per cent over the next three years.

The country's fifth-biggest lender said it is aiming for a cost-to-income ratio of 47 per cent by 2020, down from over 50 per cent last year.

Sabadell bought British bank TSB from Lloyds in 2015 and will this year stop paying its former owner to operate its legacy banking platform after it launched its own version at the end of 2017.

Spain demands rock share deal

SPAIN has demanded joint control of Gibraltar Airport in the wake of Brexit.

Foreign Minister Alfonso Dastis spelled out the plans in an interview likely to infuriate the British and Gibraltarian governments.

Speaking to The Financial Times, the official said Spain is seeking a bilateral deal which will include the two countries "managing the airport together" while cooperating more closely on tax fraud and tobacco smuggling. He also admitted the Spanish government's ultimate aim is to obtain sovereignty over the rock.

"Sovereignty is something we aspire to, that we are not renouncing, but in these negotiations it is not the issue," he said, before claiming the government's main focus is on easing transport between Gibraltar and Spain, with ideas including a common border control and pre-registering frequent visitors.

SPAIN has reinforced its position as Morocco's top trading partner for the sixth consecutive year as turnover between the countries reached a staggering €57.8 billion in 2017, according to the European Commission's statistics branch Eurostat.

FRENCH telecommunications giant Orange has revealed that Spain was its fastest growing market in 2017, with the company's 20 million Spanish customers generating \in 1.58 billion in pre-tax profit for a 17 per cent year-on-year rise.

SPANISH state-owned lender Bankia plans to fork out $\in 2.5$ billion of excess capital to shareholders between 2018 and 2020.

The firm's new strategic plan comes in the wake of its \notin 22.4 billion bailout in 2012.

And it is now aiming for $a \in 1.3$ billion profit in 2020 as it moves away from mortgage lending towards consumer loans, property development and corporate activities after the European Union eased several restrictions.

Meanwhile, British insurance firm Aviva has confirmed it is to offload its Spanish life insurance and pensions assets Cajamurcia Vida and Caja Granada Vida to Bankia for $\in 202$ million, retaining only a handful of small stakes.

Outlook: Brexit, Italian election in focus

Euro

EUR/GBP: Holding firm at £0.88 EUR/USD: Up from $1.22 to $1.24

Speculation that the European Central Bank (ECB) will remain dovish on the subject of monetary policy for the foreseeable future has countered the impact of a run of positive Eurozone data over the last few weeks.

That being said, the euro is still standing firm against rivals like the pound and US dollar.

Italy will be taking to the polls in March and most experts expect the election to result in a coalition government, with Silvio Berlusconi's conservative alliance projected to take the biggest share of votes.

The impact this would have on the euro largely depends on which parties Berlusconi allies himself with. If Berlusconi opts for Matteo Salvini, the euro would be pressured lower thanks to his opposition to the single currency and preference for returning to the lira. Pound

THE POUND: Has steadily strengthened in the hope that the UK will secure a soft Brexit.

GBP/EUR: Down from €1.14 to €1.12 GBP/USD: Up from $1.38 to $1.40 After getting off to a fairly positive start to the year, the pound failed to sustain its initial momentum and has reversed gains against a number of the majors. Demand for the pound eased on concerns that government fissures will have a negative impact on Brexit negotiations.

Investors were also concerned as EU Brexit negotiator Michel Barnier intimated that the UK achieving a transitional deal after Brexit should not be taken for granted.

Brexit worries prevented the pound from deriving much benefit from the Bank of England (BoE) indicating that rates could rise sooner than currently forecast at its first policy gathering of 2018.

Any Brexit related news is liable to be the driving force behind pound exchange rate movement over the next few weeks. UK data will also be of interest, as any reports which reduce the chances of the BoE increasing interest rates in 2018 will put the pound under pressure. US Dollar

USD/GBP: Down from £0.72 to £0.71

USD/EUR: Down from €0.81 to €0.80

The Federal Reserve increased interest rates in December 2017, but the move had been so long expected that it failed to boost the US dollar. In fact, USD exchange rates actually softened as the Fed implied that interest rates would only be raised a further three times in 2018 rather than the four times hoped for.

The US dollar remained on soft form for much of January, although the currency has since recovered from its worst levels against the pound.

The Fed is forecast to increase borrowing costs at its March gathering, and if it indicates that a further three adjustments could be made over the rest of the year we could see the US dollar jump.

MORE than 2,000 companies and 100,000 people have flocked to Barcelona for the annual Mobile World Congress.

The wireless industry's biggest trade show also offers ideal networking opportunities for executives, bankers and analysts to get together.

Major trends at this year's show include cybersecurity, ultrafast fifth generation mobile networks and blockchain technology.

But the stars of the show are the latest smartphones, artificial intelligence (AI) devices and autonomous drones.

Highlights so far have included the launch of Samsung's Galaxy S9 handset, featuring an improved camera and augmented reality functions designed to challenge Apple's iPhone X.

The South Korean giant also showcased an updated version of its digital assistant Bixby, demonstrating how it can live translate a piece of text.

Chinese tech firm Huawei unveiled its first 5G-capable chip, enabling its devices to access faster internet speeds, before using the AI of its flagship Mate 10 Pro phone to drive a Porsche sports car round an obstacle course

The company is now comfortably the world's third biggest smartphone maker behind Samsung and Apple after bagging a 10.4 per cent market share in 2017.

Spanish company Telefonica - one of Europe's top three telecommunications firms - revealed its plans to move some focus from fibre, mobile and television to value-added services, big data and cognitive intelligence as it presented its AI-powered digital assistant Aura.

Set to be launched in Spain, the UK (where it will be called O2 Ask), Germany, Argentina, Chile and Brazil over the weekend, Aura is the result of a collaboration with Facebook, Google and Microsoft.

And it will shortly become one of the first digital assistants to be integrated with Google Assistant, benefiting around 120 million customers who use Android devices, and Cortana, Microsoft's digital assistant used by more than 600 million worldwide.

Telefonica chairman-CEO Jose Maria Alvarez-Pallete also revealed in a keynote speech some of Europe's biggest telecommunications players, including Telefonica, Deutsche Telekom, KPN and Orange, are working to develop a 'global data portability ecosystem' allowing customers to take usage data with them when they travel.

Elsewhere Nokia - whose phones are now licensed by Finnish company HMD Global - announced a revamped 4G version of the classic 8110 'banana phone,' while Sony unveiled its new Xperia X72

The five-day event ends today (Thursday).

Outrage over sexist PR firm

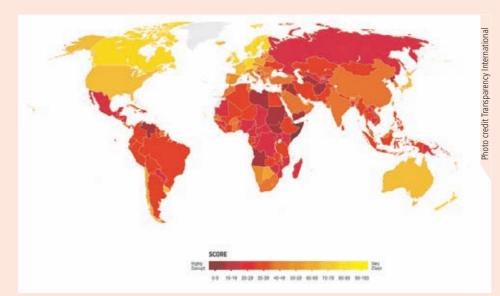

SPANISH PR agency Impulsa Comunicacion has lost two major clients over a sexism row.

Coca Cola and glass repair company Carglass have dropped the Barcelonabased firm after a woman was turned down for an account executive position because 'the successful candidate will work with Carglass and Coca Cola... they need a man who can handle the pace of working with big companies.'

Rejected applicant Carla Focada tweeted an image of the email, captioning the image: 'It is incredible that companies that practice gender-based discrimination in the workplace still exist.'

And after the post went viral - prompting public slap downs from both named brands - the Impulsa website was mysteriously shut down.

ALARMING: More than two thirds of countries scored less than 50, meaning they have a 'high corruption burden' according to the report.

The least corrupt countries were

New Zealand and Denmark, which scored 89 and 88, respectively, with the UK finishing joint fifth with 82, the same score as Canada, Luxembourg, Netherlands and Germany.

Somalia, with a score of nine, South Sudan (12) and Syria (14) were the three most corrupt countries, with two thirds of nations scoring less than 50.

The 2017 index is based on 13 surveys covering factors including the enforcement of anti-corruption law, access to information, political conflicts of interest and expert assessments.

Uranium mine scheme sparks pollution panic

A SPANISH plan to open a uranium mine near the Portuguese border has sparked outrage.

"Portugal will do everything it can to obtain the relevant information and, from there, ensure safety and zero impact on our side," said Joao Matos Fernandes, Portugal's environment minister.

Speaking to an environmental parliamentary commission, the official was quizzed how the government would ensure that pollution from the mine would be confined to Spain.

He replied that "we have performed all due diligence alongside Spain," but added that organisation of the scheme "has created a problem" after his requests for updates were ignored or answered "inadequately."And he has now demanded a meeting "because due protocol has not been fulfilled satisfactorily by our counterpart."

Spain carried out an environmental impact analysis on the prospective site at Retornillo, around 40 kilometres from the border in rural Salamanca, Castilla y Leon, in 2013.

Since then the mine has been discussed repeatedly in diplomatic channels, with Spain adamant that the project has not yet been given the green light. But announcements posted on the website of Australia-based mining firm Berkeley Energia suggest that construction is due to begin later this year, leaving environmental campaigners and other critics furious.

The project is reportedly being financed by the sovereign wealth fund of the Sultanate of Oman, which has contributed more than €105 million.

JUST when you think you've heard it all, up pops another 'gem.'

This week's mind numbing whinge was a real humdinger. Pop singer Jesy Nelson was accused of 'cultural appropriation.'

My God. What had she done? Nicked a Massai make-up box? Pilfered a Pyramid? Wrong, it was much worse than that! Apparently, objections had been raised because the Little Mix member had - wait for it - chosen Dreadlocks for her new hairstyle!

Yep, for just a millisecond the world suddenly stopped spinning. You really couldn't make it up.

Unfortunately, although intelligent, clear-thinking human beings consider accusations of this calibre utterly laughable, many don't. In fact, through social media, this young lady was subsequently the recipient of a whole deluge of racial hatred and threats.

If ever there was a glaring example of reversed racism, this was most definitely it. Normally, one never gets to see the petty-minded pillocks who come up with these diatribes of nonsense, but I actually switched to Sky News during the week and lo and behold one of them was sitting there. "Ah," she spouted piously. "You have to understand that dreadlocks are an important part of our African heritage. For a westerner to imitate our culture is extremely insulting to many of 'our people' and should not be allowed to happen!"

Er... What? Hold on a minute. If there's one problem that is often the bane of people of African descent it's their hair. The girls in particular, spend fortunes on wigs or having it straightened. Many have it dyed blonde. I don't hear any white Europeans screaming racism or 'cultural appropriation.' The whole sorry diatribe is ridiculous.

Beau Brummel invented the suit and tie. In that case just about the whole of the planet is 'offending' the British culture. It's all nonsense of course. Merely more stirring by the trouble-making minorities who infiltrate our societies like plagues of vindictive virus. If I had my way people like this would be arrested for stirring up racial hatred.

The thing that always baffles me is that if these people hate western society and culture so much, why on earth do they live in it? Can you imagine living in an environment you despise and where you are utterly miserable? No wonder they never stop moaning and whinging.

Anyway, I have good news for them. According to the revered Oscar Wilde, far from being an insult, imitation is the sincerest form of flattery. S'there.

Delighted to see the teacher who was accused of 'misgendering' a female pupil by referring to her as a girl, is suing the school on the grounds of discrimination and constructive dismissal.

The teacher, who is also a pastor, stated that the school had systematically and maliciously breached his human rights. Chances of winning? Don't hold yer breath.

Many Happy returns this week to my old mate Jess Conrad. Look out for him in his new ITV series starting any day now. Hang in there JC, not many of us left!

Spare a few Bitcoins mister?

Terence Kennedy has watched the price of Bitcoin, convinced it can't go higher. Every day. For years.

TAKE pity on poor James Howells from Newport in Wales. His local council still won't let him sift through the landfill site to find the hard-drive he dumped in 2013. It could be worth €66 million.

Or \in 33 million when you read this. Or nothing.

Cryptocurrencies are on a rollercoaster ride, and a novelty currency which bought part of a pizza a decade ago, could see you sunning in Monte Carlo today with hot and cold running margaritas. Or wiped out, as the 'bubble will burst' doomsayers predict.

James Howells' discarded hard-drive held the so-called 'blockchain' codes for 7,500 bitcoins he bought for just € 140 in 2009. His computer was trashed in 2013, its codes forgotten.

He's not alone. An Australian threw away a hard-drive with 1,400 bitcoins on it in 2012. His loss today:

€12 million. And an American techie used 10,000 of the novel new exchange medium in 2010 to buy a pizza. Some pizza: €88 million today.

Holland's fabled tulip mania of the 1630s, where one bulb could be the cost of a house, has nothing on the madness that's happening right now with 1,400 cryptocurrencies out there and rising.

Even the silly ones attract obscene amounts. Dogecoin was dreamed up as a joke by a couple of technopranksters in 2013. It has no underpinning assets and no actual value, but investors sniffing from the same to build the wall.

Yes I confess, for a split-nanosecond I was also swept along by the hype, the famous 'FOMO' (Fear Of Missing Out) as I wondered whether to invest my vast and ill-gotten gains in Bitcoin.

Two things quickly become apparent.

One: There are more dodgy bitcoin dealers out there than you could shake your savings-book at, and many will also be happy to sell you a bridge.

Two: Do you really want to be known a month, a year or a decade from now, as the loser whose life-savings will barely buy a pizza?

My favourite cryptocurrency of them all? The 'joke' one whose name makes absolutely no bones about what you're getting, yet is still worth double its 2016 cost: Ponzicoin.

BITCOIN: Chock-full of goodness? Mine the gap

IF you really want to swing aboard the cryptocurrency train, many think Bitcoin has already left the station.

But there are more than a thousand others being 'mined' which might, just might, become 'the next big thing'.

Ethereum cost € 1 in 2015. Today it's worth over €700. Maybe next week, double, or nothing. Or search the web for Ripple, Stellar, IOTA or even the cheapie Litecoin.

To buy coins you need a so-called 'wallet,' usually held by a cryptocurrency exchange like Coinbase, Kraken, Bittrex or Coinmama.

But beware: Japan's Mt Gox exchange famously lost 850,000 coins to hackers in 2014. Two months ago the Coincheck exchange lost a breathtaking €400 million.

Personally I'm sticking with normal gold coins - the ones filled with chocolate.

Another terrible killing

Views of a Grumpy Old Man

LET'S start with good news. Last week I had a run in with Ryanair live chat. Basically they were not interested in my problem. Anyway the next day I found an email address and within two hours they had replied and refunded my money. So well done Ryanair for that - all you have to do now is teach your live chat people to act the same way.

There has been yet another terrible killing spree in an American school. Seventeen people were mowed down by a lunatic with an AR-15. Trump's answer to this? Make buying these killing machines harder than getting a drink if you are 18? Consider banning them completely?

No, his answer is to arm teachers. The man is a complete raving lunatic and so is anyone who thinks that is a good idea. They are teachers! The clue to what their duties are when they turn up for work is in the name - they TEACH! There was an armed guard at the school in Florida. He did not do anything for whatever reason. Why not arm all the kids over 18? It's all just nonsense and all Trump does, by fumbling through meetings, is show himself up as a bumbling fool who has zero empathy for these poor kids and families involved. He talks about the FBI doing nothing and says if they spent less time investigating him they might have stopped the shooter.

All the NRA disciples are spewing out their BS and every time I see them on TV their argument is being destroyed, not by politicians, but by the kids that are being involved in these massacres.

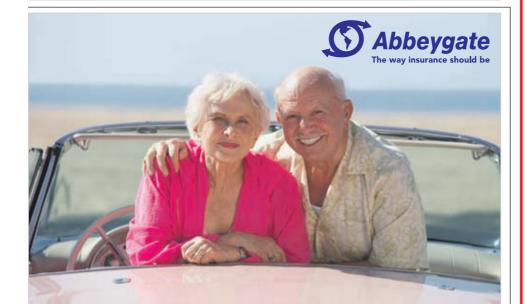

That's the major difference with this terrible incident from the others. This time the young people involved are speaking out. I've seen them on TV and they are calm, eloquent and sincere.

They have no commercial interest - they are just talking from the heart and using their brains. They will not be deterred and it's disgusting to see and hear how some NRA nuts and politicians that are on their payroll are trying to discredit these youngsters.

These are the voters of the future. They can make change happen and, in my opinion, they will do it. Major companies in the USA are at last realising that offering their members NRA discounts is not in their best interests any more and they are stopping them. The NRA answer is to tell their members to boycott these companies.

It has been proven time and time again that countries with strict gun controls have less people killed with guns than countries that don't. I wonder why?

LEGALLY SPEAKING School bus checks complete

WE answer some common driving questions, kindly provided by members of the Guardia Civil based in Torrevieja, Costa Blanca, who set up the N332 website and Facebook page to help break down barriers.

OFFICERS from the Guardia Civil traffic department have been carrying out extra checks and surveillance on school buses.

During the five-day campaign, inspections on both the vehicles and the drivers were conducted.

These included checks of the authorisation and documents that these vehicles must have to perform in service, verifying that the technical conditions and safety elements of the vehicle satisfy the minimum standards required by the regulations.

Safety is the highest priority for this type of transport and the annual incident figures do reflect school transport as being amongst the safest ways for children to travel to school.

According to Gregorio Serrano, the director of the DGT, "the safe mobility of minors is one of the priorities of the DGT.

"Every day there are thousands of students who use the school bus to go to school and return home, so we have to keep checking that these trips are made safely."

He added: "With this type of campaign, we remind parents of the right to demand from schools or parent associations that school buses meet all the regulatory requirements to carry out this type of transport."

Inappropriate speed and distractions are the main causes of incidents in which this type of vehicle is involved, so speed controls will be carried out, as well as other factors such as not using a mobile phone or other devices whilst driving. Alcohol and other drug controls will also be increased.

Statistically, 90 per cent of incidents involving school transport take place at the time of getting in or out of the vehicle.

In many cases these are caused by the child being distracted, or the fact that the school bus driver or the parents are not paying full attention.

To avoid this type of incident, it is recommended that parents respect bus stops, allow enough time for taking and collecting children, and do not wait on the opposite side of the road.

Due to the importance of seat belts in saving lives in the event of an incident, special attention will be paid to the use of these in school buses that have them installed. Although all new buses that enter service must be fitted with seat belts, older vehicles are still allowed to continue without seat belts until time allows for their replacement. Currently, only around 60 per cent of the school bus fleet have seat belts installed.

THERE appears no let-up in allegations of misconduct by charity aid workers. UN believes more than 600 women and children suffered sexual abuse and exploitation by its peacekeepers. Oxfam workers in Haiti reportedly paid teenage prostitutes with rice, aid staff swapped wheat for sex in Africa, while those in charge knew what was going on 10 years ago.

Many charities do fantastic work, but disillusionment takes its toll. Very high executive pay, immoral behaviour, rather self-righteous finger wagging, chugging and other aggressive marketing ploys will inevitably bring lasting changes. Oxfam's far from an isolated case. The whole charity section needs root and branch reform.

Infuriated supporters of Oxfam are already withdrawing their contributions. But is this missing the point? Abuse is rampant in all sectors, and all organisations (political parties, churches, schools, colleges, businesses) are inclined to nip in the bud reports of abuse in order to protect their reputations.

This encourages further abuse because perpetrators don't fear repercussions and victims doubt they'll be believed. What's needed is an independent body to scrutinise all claims of abuse, safeguards and sanctions across the whole of society.

So, let's support charities we trust - like Cudeca here on the Costa del Sol - and reduce the UK foreign aid budget so that it's in line with other countries.

The Department for International Development (DfiD) now has a statutory requirement to spend 0.7 per cent of

IN THE DOGHOUSE: Oxfam workers reportedly paid prostitutes with rice in Haiti.

Britain's gross national income on development aid annually. In 2016 this came to £13.3 billion! The appalling Oxfam scandal simply demonstrates how impossible it is for staff at DfiD to manage this huge amount of taxpayers' money and ensure it's properly spent. British taxpayers are still sending financial aid to India, now one of the world's fastest growing economies. They're still sending money to Nigeria, the world's sixth-largest oil producer, while we have such scandalous problems in need of funding at home...

Finally, many thanks to all of you who have purchased my crime thrillers (all profits to Costa del Sol Cudeca cancer charity) following my piece here two weeks ago. And keep those donations going to Cudeca!

STATISTICS and their cousin averages are slippery customers.

On average when Bill Gates - of Microsoft fame and leader of the Gates Foundation enters a restaurant everyone in the room on average is a billionaire. Similarly, on average house prices in London recovered by the fourth quarter of 2017 and prices rose on average by £4,000 (\leq 4,526) between November and December.

On average London houses now cost £227,000 (\in 256,873) according to the Land Registry. Prices on average appear to be up by 5.2 per cent year on year. Of course statistics and averages can be useful illustrations but they can also hide and disguise some spectacular outliers in the range of prices that houses command. That we all place so much weight on statistics is a good reason to be very cautious of them as well.

Hidden in plain sight is one wealthy man's house. Consider Dr Gert-Rudolf Frick, heir to the Daimler automotive dynasty who placed the Park House Estate on the market in September 2013 for an eye-watering £105 million (€118.8 million).

Park House sits in more than half an acre of private walled gardens in central London. Half an acre of ground close by the museum district in South Kensington to the west of Bucking-

London house price cut of 60%

WHAT'S IT WORTH?: London is pricey, but Park House (inset) is set to sell with a 60 per cent discount on the original asking price, a mere \in 45.3 million.

ham Palace and described as 'a country house in the middle of London. From no window can you see a car passing by.'

Boasting six bedrooms, five bathrooms and seven reception rooms it was recorded as the 'finest house to come on to the market in the capital for 25 years.'

But despite adding a five-bedroom house and two one-bedroom flats on the site as part of the package the Park House Estate failed to sell.

Recently reports appeared that a buyer has eventually emerged though it took three and half years to do so and a headline grabbing price cut of slightly more than 60 per cent, too. Which is spectacular, though the selling price of £40 million (\in 45.3 million) as reported is weighty and considerable in any language. The Park House Estate is without doubt exceptional as is the price sought and realised for it.

A news story headlining a price cut of one individual property or indeed a price rise does not signify a trend nor does it reflect the mood of the market as a whole. It does speak volumes though of the value attached to a given property by a specific willing buyer and seller on any given day. If you really desire that ideal villa you will pay as much as you can sensibly afford for it, but no more than you believe it is worth and less if you can convince the seller.

YOUR STARS FOR NEXT 7 DAYS

(January 21 - February 19)

You are looking to having everything your own way which may not be entirely out of the question. The only sticking point could be that you are not even willing to be sharp with someone who has been far from straight with you. Be prepared to trip over a loose end later if you do not tie it up now

LEO (July 24 - August 23) What you truly want in life is (February 20 - March 20) So far as your work or business life is concerned, those in authority may seek to see things done their way. Where they seem to pay lip service to your needs, that is all it is talk. Be clear that you want action and that you will not give in easily. Humour will not help.

Puttina vourself first is necessary at the moment. There is so much happening this week that you may be tempted to run yourself ragged trying to do it all yourself. It is possible to persuade others to give a hand and, although it may seem too much trouble at the time, you will reap the benefits in the longer term.

You should bear in mind that you are the best one to decide what you want, when you want it and how you will go about getting it. Others may offer you short cuts, but is that really going to deliver the goods? I think not

You know where you are going and who with, but there is this one unresolved thought in your mind. It is just a thought, isn't it? Or is it more? This is something only you can answer. Be prepared this week to take advice and ask auestions.

You are still looking more to the past than to the future, but now it seems that circumstances are urging you to move ahead at more of a pace. Because the matter becomes urgent, it may seem to you that circumstances are overtaking you. The choice is still yours if you show speed and determination.

now becoming clear to you. Not for you the fuzzy ideas of the past. Now, you realise that, if you do not give a strong lead, then others will lead you. To avoid going backwards now you must be determined and clear. Show others that you are firmly taking the lead in your future.

With your self-confidence on a high note, you are ready to sing the song of your future. There will be highs and lows but that is what makes life interesting and exciting. Do not now avoid changes for the sake of peace. What is exciting and balanced this week is where your future lies

Where you see things failing to go your way, it may seem that others are being unfair. It is unlikely to be that simple. Perhaps, by being too easygoing and friendly, you have given the impression of not being particularly caring. State your case and change the tune.

Judgement may be impaired this week and it would be advisable to get second and even third opinions. In much the same way that you sometimes have an instinctive feel for things and situations, you now have this sensation about a certain person. An unbiased . imaginative and opinion scatters your stress.

This week be prepared to be forthright when it comes to a certain difficult situation. This involves someone trying to get you to make a decision you are either not sure of or against. Your good humour is unlikely to deflect them but being openly insistent may.

(December 22 - January 20) Are you being pushed into a corner? There is no need to respond with aggression, but a smooth and fast move is required to avoid this. They say that forewarned is forearmed. You know more of the circumstances than I do, but there is someone you can call on as an ally, isn't there?

ALICE, a young American editor, begins a relationship with the much older writer Ezra Blazer.

Years later the economist Amar is detained in Heathrow Airport while travelling to Kurdistan to see his brother.

Alice's story takes place in the early days of the Iraq war and is a coming of age tale that revolves around an unexpected romance in New York

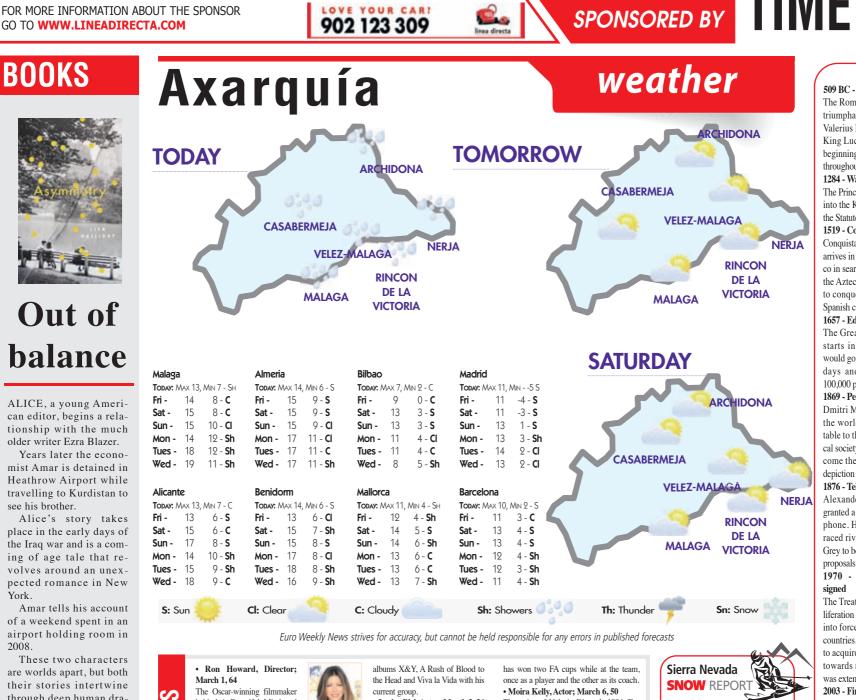

Amar tells his account of a weekend spent in an airport holding room in 2008

These two characters are worlds apart, but both their stories intertwine through deep human drama. Told in three sections: Folly, Madness and Ezra Blazer's Desert Island Discs, Lisa Halliday's Asymmetry explores the imbalances of contemporary life.

DVD A powerful comedy

THE USSR's ruthless ruler Josef Stalin (Adrian Mcloughlin) has just been found dead

Soviet officials quickly arrive to decide the future of the country and rival factions soon emerge. On one side is secret police head Lavrentiy Beria (Simon Russell Beale) and leading Communist Party figure Georgy Malenkov (Jeffrey Tambor). On the other is Nikita Khruschev (Steve Buscemi) and labour minister Lazar Kaganovich (Dermot Crowley).

The Death of Stalin takes a humorous look at the ensuing power struggle

The lost mojo

Cassandra Nash

A weekly look - and not entirely impartial reaction to the Spanish political scene

ACCORDING to the majority of pollsters, the PSOE socialists are currently in third place with Ciudadanos out in front and the PP limping behind.

The PSOE regained Pedro Sanchez as its leader and lost its mojo with only 39 per cent of its voters believing that the party has a clear project for the future. Forty-eight per cent believe that Ciudadanos and Albert Rivera have a more defined plan.

True to his usual form, Sanchez believes the best way to counteract the drift away from the PSOE is by entrenching himself still further as secretary general and giving more control to the party membership when selecting provincial, regional and national candidates.

Thanks to the aptly-named militants, Pedro Sanchez heads the PSOE instead of Eduardo Madina (2014) or Susana Diaz (2017). And it is thanks to those same militants - all 187,360 of them - that the PSOE and Pedro Sanchez have yet to do well in an election.

Who me?

ANNA GABRIEL, formerly represented CUP in the pre-Article 155 Catalan parliament.

She is now in Switzerland, where she scarpered before facing the Supreme Court on rebellion charges. With her hair loose and the aggressive fringe grown out, she looked astoundingly demure and maintained that she was more use at large than behind bars. Well they all say that don't they, Carles Puigdemont?

The right person

FOR anyone around at the time, February is inseparable from the attempted military coup of 1981.

Thirty-seven years later, less is made of the lethal threat to the still immature democracy at a time when a socialist politician saw nothing incongruous in declaring, "The Spanish will be democrats por cojones."

That he could say this not long after Franco's death was thanks to the young man that the old dictator appointed as his successor, Juan Carlos I who abdicated in 2014 in favour of his son Felipe VI.

He wisely exited at a time when his son-inlaw was accused of fraud and no-one had yet forgotten that he was caught out a couple of years earlier, shooting elephants in Botswana with his mistress.

Juan Carlos recently celebrated his 80th birthday and now resembles a florid old Borbon who would look more at home in a Goya lineup of 19th century monarchs than 21st century Spain.

It's easy to forget that he was a hero who reversed Franco's legacy, surrounded himself with able politicians instead of courtiers during the Transition and defused the 1981 coup.

Fortunately for Spain, Juan Carlos I was the right person in the right place at the right time.

Special treatment

ALVARO PEREZ, nicknamed El Bigotes (Whiskers) and Gurtel's man in Valencia, recently declared before a parliamentary committee investigating the Partido Popular's alleged illegal funding.

For the uninitiated, Gurtel was a corrupt setup of 37 companies which via cash, kickbacks and munificent presents, snaffled government contracts and possibly swelled PP party funds.

El Bigotes singled out Ignacio Lopez del Hierro, husband of Defence Minister Dolores de Cospedal, and Angel Piñeiro Lopez, a close friend of Spain's president, Mariano Rajoy.

"They dished out the lolly according to the Barcenas papers," he maintained. "But not a word in the media.

"Call them," he suggested to the committee. "I don't know if they get special treatment, or what."

Perish the thought that Dolores' hubby and Mariano's chum should get special treatment. As if.

'Sorry Jane, you should be in the life boat'

TV COUCH CRITIC

WE have to remember that although it's been cooler in Spain recently, the UK is shivering, so I thought I would ask a couple of friends visiting from Milton Keynes (recent visit to escape the cold) what they had been watching as the temperature plummeted.

Now, Graham and Robert are no nonsense TV people. They know what they like and they stick with what they know. So why, please why, did they recommend I catch up with Cruising With Jane McDonald, final episode Friday April 2, Channel 5?

I like Jane McDonald, I like rivers and water, I like travelling and don't even mind ships where very small cabins with even smaller balconies are now called Staterooms, but I did not enjoy Jane's trip along the Mekong in Vietnam.

Everyone, but everyone on the ship not only knows Jane, but seems to be a signed up fan club member. It put me in mind of eating foods which lower cholesterol. We all know we should like them, there is no reason to dislike them, but as soon as the cameras are turned off, we are back to cheese and crackers to finish a meal.

Jane is travelling the Mississippi in the final show. Two predictions, firstly she is going to walk around in a shawl which could pass at any decent Sunday market on the Costas as a tablecloth and second, she is going to close the show belting out something by Elvis. I won't know if I'm right about Elvis or the tablecloth because I can't watch Jane be educated about the biggest maximum security prison in the US or sugar plantations. I don't much like Elvis songs either.

RIP: Emma Chambers

> Gogglebox, Channel 4, Fridays was back last week. This is cheese and crackers TV and I love it.

> Leon isn't gracing the Gogglebox screens this time around, but I just know he's sitting somewhere in a massive armchair saying just what he thinks about TV and telling June, in his own unique way, just how much he still loves her. Thank you Mr Bernicoff.

> In separate news, one half of the Brighton hairdressing duo has announced he is leaving the show to chase a TV career. Oh dear, this won't end well. Chris Butland-Steed (the one with the better beard) hasn't thought this one through.

Paul O'Grady already has any shows Chris might think he could be part of in the bag. Good luck though Chris.

This week I also wanted to say 'thank you' to Emma Chambers, who sadly passed away aged just 53. Emma was and always will be Alice Tinker, the Verger to the Vicar of Dibley. Try not to smile when you remember that wedding dress.

I don't know how much of the BBC's Winter Olympics coverage you have caught, but I have been blown away by most of the action in the freezing South Korean temperatures. The competitors equally match their Summer Games counterparts and if the reaction to Spain's first medal at the Winter Games in 26 years is anything to go by, the Winter Olympiad will continue to go from strength to strength.

Looking ahead, fellow Geordies Ant and Dec continue their Saturday Night Takeaway with the 100th offering this Saturday. The seemingly joined at the hip Alfie Boe and Michael Ball are the stars of the end of the show, and Scarlett Moffatt shows that she is more than Gogglebox with a surprise for a family who don't know what's coming - do we believe that?

Happy viewing.

Time to take bold action

Welcome to your March 2018 Forecast. Every month I write about how the Astrology, Numerology, and Tarot for the month ahead affect you. Below is your forecast for March 2018.

Sally Trotman is a qualified Counsellor who works with Astrology, Numerology and the Tarot. Each month she will deliver the forecast as an intuitive tool to aid increased self

Astrology: trust your vibes

SUN in Pisces: The watery influence of this sign throughout most of March helps you to develop your intuition.

What feels right to you in each moment? Consider vour deepest vearnings, listen to your inner voice and notice any repeated messages in your dreams. On March 22, around the time of the spring equinox, the sun moves into Aries. This is a time of renewed energy, so make the most of this fiery energy to take bold action when you are inspired.

Get in tune with the moon: This month the moon is full twice - on March 2 and on March 31. The first full moon is ruled by the earthy sign of Virgo, encouraging you to make practical plans and get organised.

The second full moon in balanced Libra brings the focus to your relationships. Changing your perspective can help you to move beyond challenges, so perhaps consider the viewpoints of others to create more harmony. Also put in boundaries where necessary.

Honour your feelings in all your relationships, balancing giving with receiving where you can.

Numerology: go with the flow

Number 3: This number reminds you that in each moment you are co-creating with the universe. Find balance between action and rest this month to help you make the most of the opportunities ahead. Remember you are a human being so relax into the flow of life and trust that you are being guided in the best direction for you.

The Empress : nurture vourself

The Empress is represented in the tarot deck as a bountiful woman surrounded by nature. With her foot on the new moon and a flower in her hand, she is able to balance the spiritual, emotional, mental and physical aspects of herself. The archetypal mother, she instinctively knows how to nurture herself and others.

ARIES: A time of renewed energy.

Consider how you can look after yourself better this month, and then extend this care to those around you.

Repeat this affirmation through the month to help you: I am open to receiving abundance through all channels of the universe.

Electric cars in Mallorca could cause major problems

IT was announced recently that the Balearic government is to ban new petrol and diesel cars over the next few years.

Once again, this is a prime example of the government's failure to do 'joined up thinking'!

If everyone has to have an electric car, how will current drivers be able to afford one if they are unable to sell their current petrol/diesel vehicle?

How will people be able to afford all the new sets of batteries when they pass their 'drop dead date' a few years later and they are currently made of lithium which is mined, shouldn't this proposal wait until a new form of battery is invented?

Power brown-outs and blackouts occur on the island now so what can be done to improve the supply to cover the huge amount of electricity required to charge all these electric vehicles?

How many electric buses, coaches, vans and heavy goods lorries are on the market as well as agricultural equipment and gener-

Roundabout positions can cause accidents

I HAVE been a Driving Instructor in the UK for 56 years and also employed by the DSA as a Driving Examiner.

I have an HGV Licence which I also use to teach HGV drivers. I have travelled worldwide and driven in all the countries in Europe and the USA and OZ, Canada, New Zealand. Can I point out that the Spanish driving at roundabouts is dangerous and an accident black spot?

In God's name IF you are turning left at a roundabout why not approach in the left lane with a left signal on then change to a right signal and the right lane to exit just after the exit prior to your exit?

People come to Spain wanting things now which most of us have worked all our lives to achieve. I love it when they say 'I am 40 years old and paid in to the system all my life.' Try paying in for 40/45 years then claim your rewards. If you need to work then be very certain you can make it here without benefits as they don't exist in Spain. ators?

Motorcyclists have little choice in electric bikes and the price is far higher than petrol powered models.

Even though it is just under eight years away for the diesel ban, and 18 for the petrol vehicles. how long will 'traditionally fuelled' vehicles be allowed to be on the road? Why not move to hydrogen powered vehicles?

Many thanks

THROUGH your paper could I express my thanks to the Local Police at Calle el Parquet Nijar? On Sunday we visited Nijar.

While in the town I used the ATM at a bank branch when my card was jammed in. Thinking this may be some sort of fraudulent device I went to the Local Police station where an officer went above what I would have expected.

He came back to the ATM with me to check and then we went back to the station where he telephoned the bank to report the problem, then contacted my bank in the UK to help.

Unfortunately I didn't get the officer's name, but if you could pass on my thanks through Euro Weekly News I would be very grateful.

Nerja fan

I LOVE Nerja because it is essentially Andalucian. Unfortunately many of our newer developments are faceless, featureless boxes. It was therefore very pleasing to see the new hostel built on Calle Cruz, near the entrance to the underground car park. The developer is clearly proud of traditional Spanish architecture. Can we have more? Gordon Clark, Nerja

How to strengthen your immunity

MAKING sure you eat healthily, exercise regularly, and minimise stress levels - not to mention keeping unhealthy vices such as smoking and alcohol consumption to a minimum - are just a few things you can do to make sure your immune system is in top shape

Food in particular plays a significant role in having a positive impact on your belly bacteria, which helps to strengthen your immunity.

Harvard University research revealed that the amount of good bacteria in the belly rapidly improved when people are placed on a vegetable-only diet for a few days, so top up on your greens.

Many vegetables also contain natural prebiotics, such as artichokes, asparagus, onions, chicory, leek and garlic.

These prebiotics pass undigested through the stomach and small intestine so as soon as they reach the large intestine; they help to stimulate the probiotic bacteria that are in there.

Ensuring you have a healthy balance of bacteria in your gut will benefit your digestion and help you to absorb minerals, therefore boosting your immune system.

Fermented food such as sauerkraut is also high in probiotic bacteria which can stop harmful bacteria from getting attached to the lining of your gut and growing there. Carbohydrates can also fuel unhealthy bacteria so try to stick to whole grains or sourdough bread, which are high in fibre.

The importance of protein

PROTEIN is of great importance in helping the body's recovery process, so eating protein rich food comes in extra handy after a workout.

According to a study published in the Journal of the International Society of Sports Nutrition (JISSN), the body's ability to build muscle mass is raised for 24 to 48 hours following training, so this is the best time to go heavy on the protein.

During this period, which is known as the anabolic phase, the body is hungrier for nutrients as the muscles absorb copious amounts of glucose and it is easier for the body to process protein.

Protein is also necessary to build and repair muscle tissue, so not eating enough after a workout could hinder your progress, and also leave your muscles feeling sorer for longer.

Good-quality, protein rich food includes eggs, milk, chicken, turkey, tuna and Greek yoghurt.

Go nutty for nut butter NUT butters are packed with protein, and are also full of those good fats which help to keep your heart healthy. However, are some versions better than others? Nut butters generally fall into two kinds: raw and roasted. Roasting nuts apparently does not change their nutrition levels and gives them a more rich and toasty flavour.

However, many companies that roast the nuts beforehand often do so in oil, which increases the fat content as they absorb 2 to 5 per cent of the oil they are cooked in.

You can also get 'no added' or natural nut butters. While a 'no added' butter means it still has added oil. peanuts and preservatives, just no sugar and salt, the 'natural' kind should be free from all of these

Aside from traditional peanut butters which are high in protein and a good source of vitamin E, you can also get almond butter. cashew butter, macadamia butter and walnut butter. Almonds are a good source of magnesium, calcium and vitamin E and are low in cholesterol whereas cashews are rich in iron and magnesium.

Macadamia nuts contain manganese and thiamine and can lower cholesterol while walnuts are packed with folate, fibre and omega-3 fats which have been proven to boost brain function.

Upcoming wine region

PRIORAT as one of the upcoming Spanish wine regions has recorded an extraordinary leap in quality and reputation over the last decade.

This small area which qualifies as Denominació d'Origen Qualificada (DOQ) is in Tarragona Province in Cataluña and is one of only two - alongside Rioja - regions to qualify as DOCa, the highest qualification.

It produces mainly red and powerful wines. Characterised by a terroir of volcanic origins with black slate and quartz soil known as llicorella with vineyards on terraces at 100m - 700m, the area has low yields due to the rocky soil that does not allow water accumulation.

Wine production in the area dates from the 12th century, when monks from the Monastery of Scala Dei introduced viticulture and the prior ruled as a feudal lord, giving rise to the name Priorat.

At the end of the 19th century, the phylloxera pest devastated the vineyards and replanting was undertaken only in the 1950's. In the 1980's bulk wine production was phased out and bottling of quality wine was introduced.

The traditional grape variety in El Priorat is the red Garnacha tinta, which is found in all the older vineyards. Other red varieties are Garnacha Peluda, Cariñena, Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot and Syrah.

White varieties are Garnacha blanca, Macabeo, Pedro Ximénez and Chenin.

The traditional reds are a single grape bottling of Grenache and Carignan, or a blend of these with French grape varieties including Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, or Syrah. Usually aged in oak barrels for 18 months followed by six months in the bottle, Priorat wines have a consumption optimal two years later. Happy tasting.

the opera

CONTINUING the regular Noches de Burriana, the group Ventana Abierta is presenting an evening of opera featuring some of the greatest composers from France, Germany and Russia.

The honours will be shared between Bellini, Bizet, Mozart, Puccini, Verdi and Wagner.

The evening will consist of a welcome drink upon arrival and the performance of works by the six composers.

Tickets, which are strictly limited, cost €48 and in addition to the recital, which starts at 7.30pm on Saturday March 24. include a full dinner buffet plus drinks.

The evening will once again be enjoyed in an intimate setting on a winter night, ideal for a song recital and fine dining at Playa & Sol Restaurant on Burriana Beach in Nerja.

Reservations may be made on the organiser's website at http://www.ventana-abierta.es and there is a 15 per cent discount for members.

New house has Banderas in a Huf

ANTONIO BANDERAS has travelled around the world for the glitziest Hollywood functions, but these days the Spanish movie star is more likely to be seen cycling through leafy Surrey.

Banderas, 55, recently bought a €2.7 million five-bedroom home with Dutch-German girlfriend Nicole Kimpel, 36, in Cobham, which he has described as a 'magical' setting.

The prefabricated home, by German building firm Huf Haus, is an ecofriendly contemporary design featuring a stylish blend of wood and glass.

The Mask of Zorro actor, who divorced Melanie Griffith in December 2014, has sold the LA home he shared with her for $\in 12.9$ million.

Banderas recently starred in The 33, a film about the Chilean miners who were trapped underground for 69 days in 2010 with Juliette Binoche.

He is now commuting from his home in Surrey to study at the prestigious Central Saint Martins college in London, and plans to launch his own fashion label.

Surrey has clearly struck a chord with Banderas who said recently: "I am not a party person any more, so I have the space and peace to write and really get inside my own head and I am working on several scripts.

"Above all I am surrounded by nature and love watching the deer and foxes that come to my garden. "All this wood and glass, it is a beautiful concept. I have owned a lot of houses with many types of architecture but I think this is my favourite so far."

The A-list actor was introduced to the home by Nicole's father, who previously owned two Huf Houses and found the Cobham property for the couple.

There are now about 200 Huf houses in the UK which have distinctive post-and-beam structures, eco-friendly credentials and generous glazing.

Banderas' model has a classic 'butterfly' split-roof, with four large reception rooms and more than an acre of gently sloping gardens.

He so charmed by the house that he plans to build a beachside Huf in Marbella

The company deliberately restricts the number of houses built as the factory can put up only 200 homes a year, with just 20 to 30 of those in the UK.

Seen as the Rolls-Royce of kit homes, factory production in Germany takes four months after which the flatpack is shipped to the UK along with a team of builders.

Assembly of the shell takes a week or less, with the interiors (including electrics and plumbing) taking a further 12 to 14 weeks.

Celebs and super-rich in world of privacy and plenty

IN 2004, Harrison Ford and Calista Flockhart were seen in Barcelona together and became the surprise couple of the season.

The actress was shooting for the film Fragile in the city, and her new boyfriend had travelled to accompany her.

Ford did not like being pursued by cameras every time he left his hotel, so he was provided with a luxury apartment right in the centre of Barcelona.

This then set a trend among celebrities for requesting exclusive yet private accommodation, to avoid the paparazzi.

Moreover, Barcelonian hotel groups are keenly tapping into the market of billionaires who visit the city and are looking to rent high-end properties with all the extras including a butler, personal shopper, tour guide, or a Michelin-starred chef.

The Majestic and Murmuri Hotel Group for example, are happy to cater to these niche needs.

A spokesman from the company said: "Imagine that a couple goes out for the night to see a play.

"When they return they want to immediately have dinner with friends, so they ask us to arrange it and we do it."

Prices in the group's Majestic Residence range from \in 450 to \in 1,200 a night, apart from the cool \in 15,000 a night that is charged for the penthouse suite.

Majestic and Murmuri's journey began 10 years ago when it snapped up 28 apartments in the middle of the housing crisis, for $\notin 1.2$ million each

Their extraordinary success since has been based on a simple model of two bedrooms, two bathrooms, a living room and kitchen within 70 square metres.

Feeling Barcelonely Barca's new star loses car and gets burgled in same day

PHILIPPE COUTINHO'S new home in Barcelona has been burgled while he was visiting the famous Sagrada Familia with his family.

The playmaker endured a day to forget having earlier seen his Audi car towed away by the authorities.

Coutinho had stayed behind while his Barcelona teammates travelled to London to face Chelsea in the first leg of their Champions League last-16 tie (with the game ending 1-1).

He is ineligible to play for Barca in the competition, having featured for the Reds during the group stages.

The thieves are thought to have taken advantage of two ladders that had been left by a neighbouring property, due to construction work there.

Coutinho contacted police immediately and the investigation is ongoing, which includes the analysis by forensic experts. The Brazilian international signed for Barcelona in January, finally sealing a protracted exit from Liverpool for a mammoth €164 million fee.

Natural gardens

LIVING in Spain, relaxing, strolling, drinking and eating in natural surroundings is an easy thing to do on as many days as possible, whatever the time of vear.

Valentine's Day was a good example even though no Valentina was around.

The morning awoke cold with a four-degree centigrade nip in the air but a bright blue windless day followed and by 1pm it was pleasantly warm to have a tapas lunch on a south facing terrace.

By 2pm one was tempted to strip off for a two-hour early sun tanning and vitamin D topping up session. Then before things started to chill down it was interesting to observe how quickly the natural world reacted to the warm direct sunshine which took the liquid in a south facing thermometer up to 48 degrees.

For the first time this year the Koi carp were continuously cruising the surface, two plump toads crept out from beneath a large rock and plopped into the pond, a welcome red squirrel ran with amazing balance along the electricity line across the nearby street, for a second time this month a youngish hedgehog came out of hibernation, and naturally common garden birds visited nesting boxes and the thickest shrubs to see if one met their needs. Sadly rarer species disap-

The 20 builder's tubs that comprise today's salad bed are in full production having had no heavy frosts - at least as yet.

There were 21 varieties of salad leaves and flowers in the starter salad served to guests three evenings ago.

Meanwhile some metallic paint is an easy way to refresh any old, iron garden furniture.

Colourful pillows and throws could also smarten it up.

Don't forget to add cute accessories made from old knick knacks such as a cute bird feeder made from a vintage teacup.

Link to animal abuse

David THE Dogman columnists@ewnmediagroup.com

"THERE is no doubt that there is a link between animal abuse and human abuse," says Dr Rhonda Schulman, a veterinarian at the University of Illinois Veterinary Teaching Hospital.

"The statistics are frightening, but it is important that everyone, including veterinarians, recognise this serious problem because animal abuse in a home is very likely a sign of an even bigger problem within that family."

It is estimated that nearly 90 per cent of pets living in homes where domestic abuse is taking place are either abused or killed, and nearly 60 per cent of women who seek assistance from shelters to escape abuse have had a pet killed by an abuser.

In an abusive situation the family pet is often used by the abuser as leverage to control the person being abused. Threat of harm to a beloved pet can be a very powerful tool for the abuser. Abuse of the pet is also a way to inflict mental anguish on the abused. Many women are reluctant to leave the abuser for fear that the pet will be harmed.

Until recently there have been few options for abused women with pets. Now domestic violence shelters have begun to implement ways to protect not only the women and children but their pets as well.

"Abuse can also be self-propagating within a family," says Dr Schulman. "For instance, the mother or father abuses the child and then the child abuses the pet. This is sometimes the only way the child can assume any sense of personal power."

Witnessing the abuse of a family pet can influence children to become abusive later in life, because they have learned the behaviour through observing and identification with the abuser.

Studies have also shown that children who torture animals are at higher risk than others to grow up to use violence against people. Many adults who have committed serial murders or mass violence tortured animals as children.

"This means that if a child is exhibiting this sort of behaviour, it is extremely important to take it seriously and intervene while there is still a chance to positively influence the child's development," says Dr Schulman.

"Veterinarians are starting to take a more active role in spotting abuse and providing help for people who are in abusive situations; however, many veterinarians still do not ask questions when presented with suspicious circumstances, either they do not wish to be involved or because they don't know how to help," says Dr Schulman.

It has been shown that women in abusive situations will seek medical care for themselves and their pets when they feel it is safe to do so. They may not volunteer how the injuries came about, but may give such information if asked. "Sometimes all it takes is asking," says Dr Schulman.

"As a profession, veterinarians need to start getting involved. Simply posting flyers for the local women's shelter in the veterinary clinic might encourage women to seek help if they need it.

"In order to help people at risk, we have to work together, and that includes professionals in all areas of health care, including veterinary medicine," says Dr Schulman.

Where should your dog sleep?

CUDDLE UP: It's normal for your dog to try and get into bed with you.

AN adult dog spends around 12 hours of the day sleeping, and a lot more goes into their decision about where to sleep than you may realise.

Most dogs prefer to sleep at the foot or side of your bed, on their favourite cushion or blanket or just their dog bed, so long as it's in a warm spot that is protected from draughts.

Many also like to nap on your bed throughout the day while you're out of the house because it smells like you, or in other rooms where people tend to gather.

However, some dogs prefer their own crate, so they can enjoy some privacy away from the hustle and bustle.

No matter where your dog chooses to get in a few winks, it's probably best not to let your dog sleep in your bed with you, especially if she's a new introduction to the home.

A dog should never believe she has a right to sleep in your bed, as this will make her think she is the household's dominant member.

All that training will go right out the window if your dog wins the bed war and starts to assert her authority over vou.

If you really want to snuggle with your pooch, save it for the occasional Sunday morning as a special treat.

SEAT launches Cupra as independent brand

SPANISH car giants SEAT have officially launched CUPRA as its own independent brand.

The announcement was made at an exclusive event in Barcelona where the new brand's first model was also revealed, the CUPRA Ateca.

CUPRA, which has always been SEAT's ultimate expression of sportiness, is born to captivate car enthusiasts around the world.

CUPRA becomes its own entity, created to develop models in conjunction with SEAT and with the firm commitment to grow independently.

SEAT President Luca de Meo said: "CUPRA is a big opportunity for SEAT, for our customers and for the business.

"The whole project has surfaced as the dream of a group of people who were looking for a way to conquer a new group of car lovers."

As part of its new identity, CUPRA will also encompass the entire motorsport and racing division, an area that until now was the responsibility of SEAT Sport and which will be directly integrated into the new brand.

The CUPRA logo, which was revealed a few weeks ago, is inspired by the attitude of tribal civilisations and reflects the values that the new brand is keen to transmit - passion, precision, determination and courage.

As part of the announcement, the brand's first model, the CUPRA Ateca was also revealed.

"CUPRA Ateca offers versatility like no other brand. It's about a unique model in its segment, with 300 PS, 4Drive and a new seven-speed DSG gearbox.

It is the best example of balance between sportsmanship, fun at the wheel and ease of use in everyday life," said SEAT Executive Vice-President for Research and Development, Dr Matthias Rabe. SEAT: The CUPRA Ateca will be the brand's first model.

FORD has achieved the Guinness World Record for largest billboard with a new advert in Madrid.

The billboard, which advertises the brand new Ford EcoSport is plastered on the side of the Edificio España building, the eighth tallest in Spain.

Measuring 5,265 metres, approximately 20 tennis courts, and weighing 2,000 kilos the board eclipses the previous record set in Dhahran, Saudi Arabia in 2014.

Director of Marketing for Ford Spain, Elena Burguete, said: "Our Guinness World Record title for the largest billboard demonstrates the creativity that drives our company.

"Ford's message is 'go further,' and that's what we aim to do with our campaign for the launch of the new EcoSport. It's a great way to deliver the message 'Life is out there, are you?' to as many people as possible, right in the heart of Madrid."

When the advertising campaign ends at the end of the month, it will be donated to the Apascovi Foundation employment centre for people with disabilities who will re-use all of the materials for other projects.

Jay Kay's Mini sells for €25,600

A MINI Countryman that was owned and restored by pop icon Jay Kay has been sold for $\in 25,600$.

The Jamiroquai singer offloaded his pristine Mini estate at an auction last Saturday despite recently giving it a full makeover.

He fitted it out in homage to the much sportier Mini Cooper S, with a full body restoration that transformed the motor from a bare shell into a gleaming red classic.

Work commissioned by Jay Kay has included a new sportier gearbox, a specialist handling kit and brand new state of the art disc brakes, along with a full body respray in tartan red paint.

A new, much more powerful four-cylinder 1.3 litre engine was also installed, giving the Mini much more bark than before.

Inside is a red leather interior with a period cigarette lighter, and a hint of the modern with a hidden Bluetooth audio system.

After spending several thousand pounds on the makeover, the musician has used the car sparingly as a runaround at one of his holiday homes.

The characterful Mini Countryman went under the hammer with Silverstone Auctions, at their Stoneleigh Park sale in Coventry.

La Liga Preview

Barca seek to extend record unbeaten run

by Ben Park

BARCELONA will look to extend their record unbeaten run as they travel to struggling Las Palmas later tonight (Thursday).

The league leaders thrashed neighbours Girona 6-1 on Saturday as a Luis Suarez hat-trick, Messi's brace and a stunning strike from Philippe Coutinho saw the Catalan giants set a new club record of 32 games unbeaten.

Following tonight's fixture, they host Atletico Madrid at the Camp Nou just four days later in a top of the table clash.

Atletico, who currently sit in second, will be without highly rated duo Yannick Carrasco and Nico Gaitan after announcing that they had left for Chinese side Dalian Yifang earlier in the week.

Elsewhere, Real Betis continue their push for a Europa League place as they host Real Sociedad later this evening (Thursday).

Betis are hot on the tails of Sevilla in sixth having won four of their last six league games and will be looking for a win against bottom of the table Sociedad, before facto Valencia on Saturday.

At the other end of the table, Alaves will hope to pull further away from the relegation places as they face struggling Levante.

The Babazorros El Glorioso have hit a rich vein of form in recent weeks, winning three of their last four, and victory over tonight's relegation rivals may all but secure their safety before heading to Real Sociedad on Sunday.

Last season's champions Real Madrid will look to continue their recent good form as they welcome Getafe to the Bernabeu on Sunday.

Madrid have refound their scoring boots in the past few games, much thanks to the return to goalscoring form of Cristiano Ronaldo, and will look to continue to boost their confidence ahead of their Champions League second-leg with Paris Saint German on Tuesday.

Manchester City face tough double-header

MANCHESTER CITY play Arsenal for the second time in four days later tonight (Thursday) hoping to extend their lead at the top of the Premier League.

The runaway league leaders were far from their brilliant best against tonight's opponents in the Carabao Cup final on Sunday, but still coasted to a 3-0 victory over the North London side.

Goals from Sergio Aguero, Vincent Kompany and David Silva were enough to brush aside a very poor Arsenal at Wembley to secure the Citizens' first trophy of the season.

They sit 13 points clear at the top of the table and face an Arsenal side who currently find themselves 10 points adrift of the Champions League places.

Anything but a victory for the Gunners will all but ensure that they will not qualify for next season's Champions League competition, who later face Brighton on Sunday.

Following their match against Arsenal, City are back in action final on Sunday.

no less than three days later as they welcome Chelsea to the Etihad.

Chelsea will be looking to bounce back from their loss at the hands of Manchester United on Sunday and get back into the Champions League places.

In order to do that they will need Tottenham to lose, who continue their own quest for a top for spot as they host Huddersfield at Wembley on Saturday.

Spurs opened up a two-point gap between them and fifth placed Chelsea following their late win against Crystal Palace last weekend and also sit just two points behind third placed Liverpool.

Liverpool themselves will go back up to second in the table if they beat Newcastle on Saturday at Anfield.

The Reds ran riot against West Ham last weekend as goals from Emre Can, Mohamed Salah, Roberto Firmino and Sadio Mane ensured that their unbeaten record at Anfield in the Premier League remained intact.

At the other end of the table, two huge games in the battle against relegation as Southampton host stoke while Swansea face West Ham. Just six points separate Swansea in 18th and Watford in 10th, meaning up to 11 teams are facing the real threat of relegation with just 10 games left to play of the season.

On Monday, Manchester United will look to consolidate their Champions League position as they travel to relegation threatened Crystal Palace.

The Red Devils held on to a memorable 2-1 victory over Chelsea on Sunday as goals from Romelu Lukaku and Jesse Lingard were enough to see off last season's champions, while Palace could find themselves back in the Premier League bottom three before they kick-off should results not go their way.

Full speed ahead!

FORMULA ONE teams have begun their 2018 pre-season testing in Barcelona.

The first test of the week-long preseason testing officially got underway on Monday; with drama unfolding from the get go.

McLaren got off to the worst possible start as Fernando Alonso lost a wheel after six laps on the first day.

The two-time champion lost control at the final corner of Spain's Circuit de Catalunya and his right wheel came loose of the car.

At the time, McLaren Executive Director, Zak Brown said: "There is no drama. It is quite an easy fix.

"It is what testing is for. All the teams will have a variety of issues. We will lose very little time. No big deal at all."

Alonso had been on course to set the fastest time of the day so far when he crashed out and was back out before the end of the day, setting the fifth fastest time; before they lapped quicker than they managed in the whole of testing last year on day two.

Red Bull's Daniel Ricciardo set the pace on day one and was the only driver to complete 100 laps, finishing ahead of Valtteri Bottas' Mercedes and Kimi Raikkonen for Ferrari.

Testing continues for the rest of the week and after this week's session, another test will take place in Barcelona between March 6 and 9, before the season officially gets underway in Australia on March 25.
