

'I'he peacemaker UK secret service drafts in Brit drugs lord

by Matt Ford

A British expatriate drugs kingpin who lives on the Costa del Sol has been signed up by the British secret service.

The unnamed man, whose identity has not been revealed for security reasons, was reportedly jailed over a giant heroin swoop in Glasgow before moving to Spain in the wake of his release.

Described as 'wealthy and in his 60s,' the former criminal has been asked to act as a mediator in the ongoing deadly feud between the notorious Daniel and Lions crime clans in Scotland

The move is rumoured to have been triggered by spymasters from the UK's domestic security agency MI5, with the National Crime Agency also reportedly involved.

A source told Scottish media: "The expat criminal was in London on business when he was approached by either the security services or the NCA.

"He was asked to use his influence by relaying the message to both sides that the bloodshed in Scotland had to end.

"Unfortunately, it seems not to have had the desired effect. There has been so much violence that neither side seems willing to back down."

The warring families have been at loggerheads since 2001, when a cocaine stash belonging to the Daniel clan was sold to the Lyons.

It led to the deaths of Daniel member Kevin 'the gerbil' Carroll, 29, and Michael Lyons, 21, with the latter gunned down by two hitmen using British Army issue weapons.

Steven Lyons, 37, was also wounded but escaped to the Costa del Sol, where he was later joined by Billy Paterson, 38, who was in 2015 caged for 22 years after being found guilty of Carroll's murder.

LOVED UP: Novak Djokovic.

HE'S the former world number one who is seeking to rebuild his career.

And tennis star Novak Diokovic, 30, showed he has the best possible support after being snapped planting a kiss on stunning wife Jelena on the Costa del Sol.

The Serbian is in Marbella for warm weather training following his recent reunion with coach Marian Vajda.

GRAPE EXPECTATIONS: The Spanish wine industry faces challenging times despite topping world sales in terms of volume.

CORKS are popping for Spanish winemakers.

The country remains the world's largest world exporter, having shipped out almost 2.3 billion litres of home-grown plonk in 2017, according to the latest data from the Spanish Observatory of Wine Markets (SOWM).

And the figure means that Spain outstripped its nearest rival Italy, which sold 2.1 billion litres, by more than 1.8 million.

Traditional heavyweight France lagged behind in third as it sent 1.5 billion litres abroad. But the cheap price of Spanish wine saw France top the revenue ranking with sales totalling \in 9 billion, followed by Italy with \in 6 billion and Spain trailing in third having made just $\in 2.85$ billion.

This is due to Spain selling its vino at bargain prices, with a litre costing on average $\in 1.25$, compared with €2.78 in Italy and a whopping €6 in France.

The value for money offering places the country's wine among the world's cheapest, with only South African plonk costing less at €1.23 per litre, while Australia billed \in 3 and Chile \in 1.89.

But price is not necessarily reflected in quality, said Rafel del Rey, general manager of SOWM.

"The average (quality) of Spanish wines packed in many of the final consumer markets is a reasonably good average," he said.

There is a caveat, however, as he added: "It is true that we are relatively far from the French and Italian and this is fundamentally due to the greater experience the French and Italians have in the international markets compared to the Spanish market."

The main challenge facing Spanish winemakers is reportedly the over-production of cheap, mass-produced 'bulk' wine, which in 2017 accounted for 12.6 billion litres of sales despite a lack of internal infrastructure to monitor its distribution, according to Spanish national media.

And the country could face more challenges this year after frost laid waste to much of the 2017 harvest in key growing areas including Ribera del Duero - which lost an estimated 70 per cent of its crop - as global production plunged to a 56-year low.

Trumped up nature walk

HIS wife has filed for divorce after 12 years of marriage.

And Donald Trump Jr - the eldest of the US president's children - this week decided to get away from it all as he hiked through the mountains of Aragon, northern Spain.

The businessman and former reality TV star, 40, posted a series of snaps of himself decked in camouflage gear as he hiked through the Puertos de Tortosa-Beceite mountain range.

He captioned one of the shots: "Some truly incredible scenery and terrain here in Spain this weekend."

It comes as his estranged wife Vanessa, 40, reportedly triggered divorce proceedings amid rumours that he had an affair with ex-Danity Kane singer Aubrey O'Day, 34.

The couple have five children together, and it was recently revealed that Trump Jr complained about visiting the Playboy Mansion with this then-pregnant wife in 2007.

Manhunt ends

Fugitive Irish murder suspect held

by Matt Ford

A POLICE video showing the arrest of an Irish murder suspect on the Costa del Sol has been tweeted by a highranking Spanish minister.

Dean Evans, 27, had been on the run for 15 months before being held by police in Fuengirola, and he now faces extradition under a European arrest warrant.

The Dubliner is one of three men charged with the brutal murder of dissident republican Peter Butterly, 35. who was shot dead in the car park of the Huntsman Inn. Gormanston, Co Meath, on March 6, 2013.

He was allegedly a passenger in the back of a stolen silver Toyota Corolla from which shots were fired at the victim, with the father-of-two found unconscious and pronounced dead shortly after. But Evans vanished with girlfriend Stacey Roche days before he was due to stand trial in January 2017.

Roche, who was with Evans when he was arrested. is the former partner of Real IRA chief Alan Ryan, who was 32 when he was gunned down in 2012.

Edward McGrath, 35, and Sharif Kelly, 46, were both found guilty of murder and sentenced to life in prison in Evans' absence.

A fourth accomplice, 30year-old David Cullen, reportedly agreed to become a state witness, leading to his charge being dropped.

Det Insp William Hanrahan, of the Special Detective Unit, told prosecuting counsel Paul O'Higgins that Evans had presented himself to police as per his bail agreement at Raheny Gardy station the Sunday before the trial began, but had been missing since.

The official also confirmed that the fugitive was allowed to travel to Spain in summer 2016, and that investigators had tried to block the agreement, arguing that he was a potential flight risk.

He returned to Ireland after a two-week holiday, but later obtained a false passing found.

port and fled the country. Evans, McGrath and Kelly first stood trial in January 2015 but the 55-day case collapsed after an evidence disclosure blunder. All three had pleaded not guilty to Butterly's murder, and his widow Eithne spoke out in the wake of Evans be-

Officers then found one of the suspects hidden in the bushes just a few metres away from the building, before finding two others close by; one of whom had a knife hidden in his trousers.

Horror inferno Police hunt for bar fire culprits

THE torching of a popular Costa del Sol nightspot by a hooded gang has sparked a police probe.

It comes after three armed men, one wielding a gun, broke into the Heaven Beach Club in Estepona.

They overpowered a security guard, who heard a noise and stepped outside, before brutally beating him.

The attackers - who carried torches and hid their faces with balaclavas - then tied him with rope and dumped him near a road 500 metres away, stealing his mobile phone and some personal effects.

They returned to the establishment on Guadalmansa beach, entering the kitchen where they sprayed a mattress with 'flammable liquid' before setting the building alight.

A second guard managed to escape and raise the alarm by knocking on the door of a nearby home.

But the building had been razed to the ground by the time emergency services arrived. The motive for the attack

The motive for the attack remains unclear, a police official said, but it comes a month after security surprised 'several individuals' in the act of dousing the premises with petrol, leading the owners to employ a second guard.

Street smart claim

A DEBATE has been reopened about looky-looky men after a man selling items on the street allegedly attacked a police officer on the Costa del Sol.

The incident, which occurred at the end of March, reportedly saw the accused give a 'strong push' to a policeman who tried to seize his goods, before he attempted to flee the scene.

During a subsequent foot chase, the pair fell to the ground and the officer was 'punched and kicked in the face,' leading to his attacker's arrest. Following the incident, Local Police in the region have called for stronger measures to be taken against illegal street vendors and have developed a strategic plan to combat the issue.

The document, which acknowledges that the situation has 'not only got bigger in the last decade, but has worsened in line with the constant protests of the commercial sector,' asks for help from the Department of Commerce, the ACEB, and port authorities.

They have also demanded at least 11 'public informants' who would warn police and immigration about vendors' activity, the establishment of a rapid intervention unit and more funds for extra police hours.

BLAZE DEVASTATION: Heaven Beach Club and (inset) the scene after flames ripped through the venue.

OUR VIEW Shut down expat titles a sad sign of the times

IT was with sadness that we this week learned of the passing of two of our long-standing rival titles.

The Costa del Sol News and Costa de Almeria News have long been leading the pack in terms of purchased (those that readers buy) expatriate newspapers.

And their decision to stop the press after two decades of hitting the newsstands each week can only be taken as a sign of the times.

It is surely the latest warning that an ongoing shift to digital media is threatening to snuff out the British love affair with printed papers.

But while their closure could be described as symbolic of the wider issues facing the expatriate news market, we believe there remains a strong demand for quality free of charge titles.

Our own distribution and circulation data suggests that there has been no drop-off in readership, only that far fewer people are prepared to pay for their weekly news when so many free options exist.

There is also the need to diversify across platforms - including websites and social media - rather than relying on a single source of income.

But we must also ensure that news sources remain credible, as Prime Minister Theresa May recently warned that the closure of hundreds of titles is "a danger to our democracy" leaving the public "vulnerable to news which is untrustworthy."

Corruption trial begins

THE trial of the money laundering case dubbed 'Hidalgo' has now started in Marbella.

Eleven people are in the dock for allegedly running a law firm that was immersed in corruption and fraud.

A total of 56 court hearings over nine months have been set, and although 14 people have been charged, one has been declared in absentia and two others are sick.

Among the defendants are lawyers, tax advisers, and clients, some of whom are linked to real estate development, and others to the marketing of petroleum products.

According to the public prosecutor, the law firm in question allegedly provided clients with "the precise corporate structures to hide both the ownership of their investments in Spain, and their origins."

As part of the tax avoidance efforts of the defendants, a Spanish company was created which was linked to tax havens in Gibraltar, Panama and the British Virgin Islands.

Mum and daughter suffer horror ordeal

by Matt Ford

A MANHUNT is underway after a mum and daughter suffered a brutal robbery in their Costa del Sol home.

Police officers freed the victims, aged 35 and 70, who had been tied up, gagged and severely beaten.

Neighbours raised the alarm after hearing their screams which were reportedly audible from the street in the La Virreina neighbourhood of Malaga City.

They told investigators that their attackers forced the front door of their apartment while they slept before securing their arms and legs with clothes.

They then ransacked the property in search of valuables, returning several times to beat the women.

Both suffered serious bruising, with the elder bleeding from her neck and the younger receiving an eye injury described as 'very serious' in a police statement.

The daughter was in a state of FUENGIROLA Council has accused neighbouring Mijas of holding up major public projects.

A collaboration to renovate Calle La Union, which forms a border between the two towns, was agreed last December, but Mayor Ana Mula says that her counterpart Juan Carlos Maldonado has broken promises.

"We agreed together that this project should be a priority," she told local media. "But Mijas haven't told us anything since."

A second project to transform Fuengirola's camp site - which also straddles the border - into a shopping centre has also failed to take off, and according to Ms Mula has not even been raised in Mijas plenary sessions.

"The situation is exactly the same as five months ago," she complained.

INVESTIGATION: Gabriel Cruz was buried in Almeria shortly after his body was found.

THE court in Almeria overseeing the investigation into the death of eight-year-old Gabriel Cruz is set to hear the testimonies of 10 witnesses in the coming days.

Rafael Soriano, the judge in charge of the probe, has summoned four people to testify before the court this week. A further six are set to give statements on Thursday April 19.

Several relatives of the eight-year-old are among those summoned as is a Local Police officer.

The ex-boyfriend of Ana Julia Ouezada, the woman suspected by police of being responsible for the death. will also be called before the court.

In a separate development Angel Cruz and Patricia Ramirez, the boy's father and mother, said they disagreed with a petition in favour of revisable permanent prison sentences.

The petition was drawn up in the wake of Gabriel's death. It calls on the Spanish government to expand the number of crimes eligible for the penalty which could theoretically be used to imprison people found guilty of certain crimes indefinitely.

Speaking at a press conference in Nijar, Cruz and Ramirez said the case of their son should have nothing to do with the political debate surrounding the sentence.

Calls for the penalty to be expanded grew in the wake of the killing with a vote on it going through Parliament around the same time. The expansion of the sentence was later rejected.

Patricia Ramirez said at the press conference the fact that Gabriel had died hours after being taken was a comfort to them because it gave him no time to suffer.

"Every minute, hour and night we were tormented by thousands of thoughts about how Gabriel could be. We did not know if he had been kidnapped, if he was fed, cold, afraid or if he had been abused," Ramirez said.

A post mortem examination confirmed the eightyear-old had died between one and two hours after he was last seen leaving his grandmother's house in Las Hortichuelas, near Nijar.

Ana Julia Quezada, 43, remains in custody awaiting trial on murder charges.

Esteban Hernandez Thiel, Quezada's lawyer, said: "I cannot go into more details but I understand that what is published accurately conveys what has been said."

Quezada was arrested after a Guardia Civil patrol allegedly found the body of Gabriel in the boot of her car

The arrest followed a 13day search in Las Hortichuelas which involved around 1,500 police officers and 2,600 volunteers.

Judge Soriano is reportedly considering charging Quezada for the costs of the search, according to a letter sent by him to the Guardia Civil reported on in Spanish media. The investigation continues.

Shots were fired at four officers who were patrolling the Botafuegos neighbourhood in Algeciras - notorious for its connections to drug trafficking - on foot.

The gunfire came from a nearby house, with some of the bullets landing close to their feet.

Airport figures fly high

MALAGA'S Costa del Sol airport has seen an almost 10 per cent rise in passengers in the first three months of 2018.

In the first quarter of the year the airport dealt with 7.1 per cent more passengers and 6.7 per cent more operations than in the same period of 2017.

Between January and March of this year 3,193,468 flyers flew on 25,398 flights.

In March alone 1,294,374 passengers passed through the terminal (+ 7.9 per cent) on 9,942 flights (+ 8.7 per cent). Of those 1,065,984 passengers travelled abroad.

The busiest day of the period was on March 31 when Malaga-Costa del Sol airport managed 449 landings and takeoffs.

The additional traffic has been mainly attributed to an early Easter week this year, part of which fell in March.

Expat boy death Residents pay tearful tribute

by Joe Gerrard

LOCALS in La Zenia have paid tribute to a British child who died after a football accident.

The nine-year-old, named as Kai, was reportedly playing football with a group of other youngsters when he ran into one of them.

He collapsed after suffering a heart attack. The 112 emergency services line was called shortly afterward.

A Local Police patrol passing by the area stopped to help revive him. A basic life support ambulance arrived around 25 minutes after the accident and they continued efforts to revive the nine-year-old who did not respond.

Another ambulance arrived with resuscitation equipment about 40 minutes after the first call was made.

TRIBUTES PAID: Local Police officers joined residents in a vigil held for Kai on Tuesday.

Paramedics were able to restart the boy's pulse before he was taken by helicopter to Alicante General Hospital. He died around 24 hours after the accident first occurred whilst in a coma caused by a lack of oxygen.

Orihuela's council offered its condolences to Kai's family in a statement, who are reportedly wellknown in the area.

"We wish to express our utmost condolences over the loss of the child, of British origin, as a result of a collision with another youngster. "We deeply regret the youngster's loss and offer our condolences to his family," the statement said.

Residents of the area were joined by police and members of local associations for the tribute at the spot on the beach where Kai died.

Domestic abuse horror story

by Tom Woods

A DEFENDANT from Malaga is facing up to eight years in jail for subjecting his girlfriend to a 'living hell' in which she was almost forced to marry him.

The prosecution service has requested the sentence after highlighting how the accused physically and psychologically abused his partner from the start of their relationship, which only lasted three months.

During this time he allegedly completely isolated her, not letting her go out alone or spend time with friends.

The man was also accused of only letting his girlfriend use a phone that had no access to the internet, and that she could only use while in front of him.

In addition, according to the prosecution service he had threatened to harm both her and her closest family, and did in fact hit her on several occasions.

UK Tax

The detainee has six previous convictions for violence (most of them serious) and reportedly was responsible for fracturing his girlfriend's ribs.

He accompanied her to see the doctor after the incident, and told her to say that she accidentally hit herself with a chair.

On another occasion he dragged her by the hair when she tried to leave the house, and prevented her from ending the relationship a number of times.

The couple had a date to get married in mid-March but it had all been planned by the detainee and she did not want to go through with it.

Eventually the woman managed to confide in a friend, who in turn called the police and the abuser was soon arrested.

This whole ordeal has caused the victim to have an anxiety disorder with psychological damage which requires ongoing psychotherapy.

Drugs bound for Britain stopped by police

POLICE in Almeria have seized around eight tons of hashish hidden between flagstones and metal panels inside the trailer of a lorry.

Officers also arrested the driver of the vehicle who was carrying more than €177,000 in cash, according to reports.

The arrest was part of a wider operation against a group allegedly trafficking drugs from the south of Spain to other parts of Europe, including Britain.

Spain's National Police worked alongside the British National Crime Agency during the probe into the ring.

The police forces began their investigation after receiving information that the group were shipping drugs around the continent concealed in packaging. Officers searched the trailer of one vehicle on an industrial estate in Almeria which was loaded with stone slabs and sheets of metal.

A total of 273 blocks of hashish were found hidden in the walls and floor of the trailer after it was completely dismantled. Police believe the trailer was bound for Europe before the search began.

Nerja landfill probe

Prosecutor finds 'serious environmental breach'

by Benjamin Park

THE State Attorney General's office has reportedly detected 'serious environmental breaches' in the case of the La Miel de Nerja 'illegal' landfill.

According to reports, the Environment and Urban Planning department has sent an expert report on the situation to the Court leading the case as part of the Guardia Civil operation surrounding the case, known as operation 'rubbish.'

The illegal dumping ground, which was reportedly found on a mining gap, had reportedly been used as a landfill site since at least 1998, covers an estimated area of three hectares and held a volume of waste of more than 802,000 cubic metres of pruning, construction and demolition waste.

The report from the Environment and Urban Planning department allegedly details that the uncontrolled rubbish dump was located on an old quarry and that there were a series of regulatory noncompliance issues.

Several environmental infringements were found to have affected a number of matters on the site including breaches against mines, waste, water, protected natural space, forest fires and were also a risk to the health of the local population.

In June last year, it was revealed that local businessmen and even public officials including current Mayor Rosa and her predecessor

'ILLEGAL': The site had reportedly stored waste since 1998.

Jose Alberto Amijo, had been implicated in the operation as 40 people were investigated by the Guardia Civil; of which 12 were arrested.

Those arrested have been charged with alleged crimes of forgery and fraud, in relation to the dumping ground which reportedly covered a staggering 36,000 square metres by the end of 2016.

It has since been reportedly confirmed by Guardia Civil officers that the landfill was exploited for more than 15 years while it was managed economically by a group of construction companies in Nerja that failed to comply with administrative regulations.

ALL alcohol bought at UK airport shops could be placed in sealed bags in a crackdown on disruption by drunken passengers under new government proposals.

The measure could be used to enforce a possible ban on travellers drinking their own alcohol on flights.

Tougher penalties for drunkenness on aircraft are also being proposed as well as overhauling licensing laws for airside restaurants and bars.

A recent report by a House of Lords committee also recommended that the Licensing Act 2003 should be extended to airside premises at airports in England and Wales.

According to the Civil Aviation Authority more than one in six people, who have flown in the past three years, have witnessed aggressive or drunken behaviour on board a flight and last year 420 disruptive passenger incidents were reported to the regulator.

The Aviation Strategy -'next steps document' outlines proposals to improve the flying experience for pas-

Existing laws prohibit a person being drunk on an aircraft, with a maximum punishment of two years in prison and an unlimited fine.

Aviation minister Baroness Sugg said, "Disruptive behaviour can ruin flights for both passengers and crew. Airports and airlines have made good progress in addressing this behaviour, but with incidents on the rise we want to examine the existing prevention work and penalties to see what more can be done.

"Working with the industry, we want to improve the flying experience from booking to arrival, ensuring passengers are truly at the heart of the aviation sector.

measures to help passengers make a more informed choice about their flight including providing more transparency on additional costs.

The government is also providing more details about its ambitious plan to make Britain's aviation sector the world's greenest, including proposals to tackle issues around noise, greenhouse gas emissions and airspace congestion.

Environmental proposals include the introduction of new noise targets, strengthened noise controls at airports and improved compensation for people living near airports. The government will work with the industry to reduce the usage of singleuse plastics and improve recycling rates.

The government will also explore measures with the industry to support the use of quieter and more fuel-efficient aircraft, as well as the emergence of electric and hybrid technology.

The 'next steps' document makes clear the government's commitment to ensuring the aviation sector continues to grow.

The sector already contributes at least £22 billion to the UK economy each year and the strategy will examine what can be done to help it develop even further.

The Aviation Strategy will be put to public consultation in the autumn, with the final version published early next year.

Teacher launches online petition for MPs for Brits living abroad

A TEACHER and freelance writer who splits his time between Scotland and Spain has launched a petition to urge the introduction of MPs for British citizens living abroad

Alastair Stewart's petition to 'Introduce MPs to represent the interests of British citizens living abroad' is calling on the UK government to acknowledge the unique concerns of British citizens across the world, particularly in Europe as Brexit negotiations continue

According to official guidelines, if the petition receives 10,000 supporting signatures the UK government will issue a formal response. If it reaches 100,000 it will be considered for debate in the House of Commons.

Alastair, who operates between Almeria and Edinburgh, highlights that while other countries such as France and Macedonia have representatives for nationals living and working overseas, the UK has none.

Of the petition, he said, "There are 1.2 million Britons in Europe and millions more living and working across the world. We have unique concerns about tax, health and our right to work. The Brexit vote has sparked complete uncertainty about the plans of the UK government and the future in general, and that's just in Europe. "Full-time MPs, elected by citizens abroad, are urgently needed to represent our issues and concerns. While we can register to vote at home, we're voting in a constituency that some people have little connection to any more and might not have visited in years.

"It's completely unjust that someone living in say, Edinburgh, has to fight to have their representative solve local matters, all while someone living outwith Britain is taking up the time of the same MP.

"That's not fair to people in the UK, or residents abroad, and it's a democratic deficit that should be solved within the lifetime of this Parliament. Brexit might be a full-time job for officials, but it's a deep source of worry for citizens abroad.

"We're British citizens, and we deserve to have our voices heard."

Alastair is encouraging all UK citizens, at home and across the world, to sign the petition and to share it with as many people as possible.

To sign the petition, visit https://petition. parliament.uk/petitions/216611.

Piracy plunge

THE pirating of files from the internet declined in Spain by 6 per cent during 2017, the second fall in as many years.

The number of people accessing books, movies and TV series rose last year despite the overall fall, according to a report on internet usage habits.

The GfK's report on behalf of the Coalition of Creators and Content Industries and LaLiga was presented to the Spanish Culture department this week.

It stated that there were more than four billion illegal downloads of files and that almost €22 billionworth of content was accessed in 2017.

It is estimated to have cost the culture, football and video game industries more than €1.8 billion in lost revenue. The report stated that 51 per cent of those who accessed files illegally said they did so because content was too expensive to buy through the proper channels. In 2016 the per cent of those who claimed that was 47 per cent.

Around 43 per cent cited the speed and ease of access as their reason for pirating. About 50 per cent said the fact they had already paid for an internet connection made them feel justified in illegally accessing content.

Traffic directorate considers reducing speed limits on main roads

SPAIN'S traffic directorate (DGT) is considering plans to reduce the speed limit on main roads across the country in a move to improve road security.

The proposed reforms would see many main roads have their maximum speeds reduced from 100 to 90 kmh. Regions would be allowed to revert the limit 'if the route is safe and well maintained.

A DGT spokesperson said that signs are often ignored because the limit "makes no sense with the type of road.

"If a driver sees a road in good condition they don't understand why there's a low speed limit and vice versa."

Brit woman dies

A BRITISH woman who was reported missing in Portugal a month ago has been found dead in southern Spain.

Fiona Jack was reported missing in early March by concerned family and friends after failing to hear from her. It is believed she had left a campsite on March 4 in Tavira on the Algarve, where she had been staying over the winter.

Spain's Guardia Civil found the deceased in the town of Ayamonte in the province of Huelva, around 40km away

Mother and grandfather face murder charges

POLICE in Spain have arrested the mother and grandfather of a new-born baby girl whose body was found in a rubbish bag at a recycling plant in southern Spain.

The naked body of the baby was found inside a rubbish bag on a conveyor belt by workers at the rubbish recycling plant in the town of Alhendin in Granada Province on January 16.

The police report alleges that the 56-year-old man, who has a police record, helped his daughter in childbirth at home and once the child was born threw her violently against the ground and killed her.

The autopsy showed that the baby was born alive and healthy, but that the body of the baby had a head injury and fractures.

After the body of the baby was found, officers began an investigation to trace the mother. It took a major step forward when a woman called the National Police to warn of a young woman who was begging at a shopping centre in Granada.

When police interviewed the young woman and her partner, she let slip that she could be related to the deceased baby.

DNA samples were taken and it was confirmed she was the mother of the child.

Now officers are waiting to confirm if the other DNA sample found on the rubbish bag is that of the child's grandfather.

The partner of the woman has been ruled out of the investigations.

Alleged killer 'shot and burned'

THE parents of murdered eight-year-old Gabriel Cruz have condemned the shooting and burning of an effigy of his alleged killer, Ana Julia Quezada, at an Easter event in Spain.

The woman, the 43-yearold girlfriend of Gabriel's father, was arrested by police after the little boy's body was eventually found in the boot of her car.

The disappearance of the child from Las Hortichuelas, near Nijar in Almeria in February had sparked a huge search involving thousands of people.

But a traditional Easter event, the Burning of the Judas in Coripe in the province of Sevilla in southern Spain has sparked a new outrage after an effigy of Ana Julia Quezada was strung up from a tree, shot at and, eventually, burnt.

The event that is celebrated every year in the main square of the town after the Mass on Easter Sunday is declared a 'Festival of National Tourist Interest in Andalucia.'

But the choice of a doll that represented Ana Julia Quezada led to Gabriel's parents, Patricia Ramirez and Angel Cruz declaring their 'frustration, sadness and regret.'

"It has taken us a huge effort to read the news and we have not had enough strength to watch the videos posted on the Internet.

"We are astonished at the same time that so many thousands of people could see such a show of anger and indignation," they said in a statement.

"Although, allow us, the pain and anger that we feel for the loss of Gabriel is incalculably more intense and painful, not being able to agree in any case with this action, where anger and ill-expressed pain they win the game of good work and common sense," they said.

EFFIGY: The doll representing Ana Julia Quezada is shot at before being burnt.

SHOCKING footage of a street fight that left three people injured in Spain has emerged as police hunt for those involved.

The incident occurred in the La Gavarra neighbourhood in Cornella, Barcelona, where two groups of men began to brawl on the street, with some using bottles and pieces of wood as weapons.

The disturbing footage showed two men being stamped on and beaten with weapons despite being on the ground, with one clearly unconscious.

One of the injured was in a serious condition at the time of writing and was being treated at

Cornella's mayor Antonio Balmon said in a press conference that according to initial evidence, the fight broke out between "radical FC Barcelona fans and young men from the Can Espinos neighbourhood."

A Mossos d'Esquadra 'special unit' has been deployed to the area to avoid a repeat of the scenes.

Spanish anthem mocked

SPANISH UNITY: Around 150 people took part in a rally.

AROUND 150 people took part in a rally promoting Spanish unity in the town of Reus near Tarragona organised by the Tabarnia Platform.

Those attending gathered in the town's square for the event organised by the spoof independence group. They carried Spanish flags and those of the fictional region of Tabarnia.

The Platform behind the event is involved in the tongue-in-cheek promotion of independence for the region in the spirit of the Catalan independence movement. Their humour is often used to highlight Spanish unity.

The rally featured a rendition of the Spanish national anthem with lyrics from artist Marta Sanchez sung in Catalan. It was the first time the country's national song had been sung in the language, said the group.

The event also featured a floral offering to Juan Prim, a 19th century Spanish Prime Minister from Reus who championed democracy.

The rally comes as Carles Puigdemont, former President of Cataluña, remains in Germany awaiting a decision on his extradition to Spain on embezzlement charges.

The Spanish government claimed he misused public money to hold the Catalan independence referendum in October last year.

The 34-year-old woman went missing in Fuentidueña del Tajo in Madrid four weeks ago.

Police had sought the public's help to find the woman.

When she went missing the woman was described as 1.5-metres tall, thin, with a fair complexion and light brown hair. She was wearing a dark

'Truly moved and touched'

THE family of a schoolboy,10, who was killed in a suspected hit-and-run accident while on a family holiday in Spain has spoken for the first time since the accident.

Carter Carson, from Newtownabbey in County Antrim was on holiday with his father Stuart and his partner Claire when he was hit by a car in Tenerife in Spain's Canary Islands.

The occupants of the red Alfa Romeo fled the scene and did not stop to offer assistance.

The little boy died from his injuries in the intensive care unit at hospital the following day.

Now the family has issued a statement, particularly thanking everyone who supported them after their tragic loss.

They said, "On Thursday, March 29 our world fell apart at the very beginning of what should have been a perfect family holiday.

"From just moments after tragedy struck we had the help and support from so many people and this has continued throughout.

"We are now taking this opportunity to thank as many people as we possibly can that helped us through this traumatic time.

"We would like to start with firstly thanking the locals who first attended the scene helping to contact emergency services and comforting us as a family, the nurse from a nearby health centre and the emergency services that attended the scene right through to the doctors and medical staff at the hospital nearby, right down to the reception staff who were working tirelessly to help save Carter and to keeping us informed every step of the way.

They went on, "A short time later, Carter had to be transferred to Santa Cruz for his treatment to continue in the ICU.

"We would like to thank the ambulance driver and the doctor who travelled with us.

"At the hospital we would like to thank the group of nurses, doctors and specialists who were on hand when we arrived right down to a mother in the waiting area of the ICU whose own little girl was ill, offered support and comfort.

"While we were trying to process the most devastating news that Carter would not pull through the police were working hard in the background with catching the culprits and we would like to thank them, the eyewitnesses and people of Tenerife for not only catching them but in such a short time period.

"Also we would like to thank the British Consulate, who have been with the family every step of the way.

"We can never thank all of these people enough for everything they have done for Carter and the Carson family.

"We are truly moved and touched."

After launching a public appeal for information Spain's Interior Minister confirmed two people were arrested over the hit-andrun.

Respected Spanish news agency EFE said 'two, unnamed British men' were being questioned by Spanish police over their involvement in the alleged hit-and-run incident.

FALLEN: Cataluña dropped to eighth place in the report on jobs this year.

Cataluña drops five places in job ranking

MADRID, Andalucia and Valencia were the top three preferred regions for working in Spain, according to a report.

Cataluña dropped from third place to eighth between last year and this year, according to the Labour Market Guide 2018.

The size of the city, the amount of companies there and the availability of jobs were all factors in determining the rankings. Access to housing and services and the climate and quality of life were also taken into account. Cataluña was popular with large companies looking to set up shop in a city in Spain. The recent instability created as a result of the push or independence caused it to fall behind Asturias, Cantabria and the Balearic Islands in the rankings, according to reports.

The report stated that labour mobility, the ability of workers to move around the country, stood at 29 per cent of the workplace having moved for work. The number of people willing to move for work stood at 65 per cent.

Slippery customers Police net eel smugglers

A GANG which is believed to have illegally exported elvers (young eels) with a retail value of \notin 400 million to Asia has been dismantled.

The Guardia Civil discovered a group consisting of at least 10 Chinese, Moroccan and Spanish individuals had been set up to supply young eels to China and Japan where they could grow and become more valuable.

Initially, the eels were caught illegally in Spanish waters and transferred to Portugal, so the Spanish authorities recruited the assistance of Europol and Portuguese police which resulted in the seizure of a number of shipments in various Portuguese airports.

Expat papers shut down

TWO long-established expatriate weekly newspapers will no longer be hitting the stands

It comes as the Costa del Sol News and Costa Almeria News, both part of the CB News group, last week printed their final editions.

They had been read by English-speaking residents for 22 and 13 years, respectively.

CB News was in 2007 acquired by Rotativos del Mediterraneo, part of a larger media group based in Germany.

And the firm has now taken the decision to axe both titles, citing finances as the reason for their closure.

The company's other publications - based on the Costa Blanca - will continue to operate as normal, according to reports.

SPAIN'S TOP 100 RICHEST BRANDS NAMED Zara tops value ranking

FASHION retail giant Zara is the most valuable Spanish brand in 2018.

The popular clothing firm - owned by Europe's richest man Amancio Ortega - is currently worth € 14.83 billion according to a new report by London-based consultancy Brand Finance.

It represents a year-on-year increase of more than 21 per cent in the company's value according to the Top 100 ranking, which sees the retailer claim top spot from banking group Santander.

"The spearhead of the Inditex group has improved in every aspect: its turnover has been 14 per cent higher, growth forecasts have grown by 6 per cent and its profit margins are among the strongest in the industry," the study says.

"It is one of the brands most recognised by the public, and far from satisfied with short-term success has managed to maintain an intelligent policy of capital investment in its facilities, creating the profits that are now being accrued," added Brand Finance's managing director in Spain, Teresa de Lemus.

And seven of the top 10 positions occupied by textile firms were taken by brands owned by Zara's Galicia-based parent company Inditex, the biggest fashion group in the world.

"The Inditex group contributes 18 per cent of the total value of the Top 100 companies," the report continues. "It owns firms including Bershka (15th position), Massimo Dutti (18th), Pull and Bear (20th) and Kiddy's Class, making its first appearance on the list."

Second-placed Santander increased its overall value by 2 per cent to \in 13.77 billion, with the banking sector contributing the greatest total worth to the classification.

BBVA, Spain's second-largest bank, placed third with a brand value of \in 9.87 billion, a rise of 42 per cent in the space of a year.

But the fastest-growing firm was Madridbased luxury fashion house Loewe, which rocketed by 70 per cent, followed by Catalan clothing retailer Mango and real estate specialist Merlin Properties, both of which soared by 55 per cent.

The overall top five was completed by telecommunications brand Movistar, which was valued at $\in 9.7$ billion, and Europe's largest department store El Corte Ingles, now worth $\in 3.51$ billion.

HSBC WHISTLEBLOWER FREED AFTER ARREST Swiss extradition demand

A HIGH-PROFILE banking whistleblower has been released on bail but ordered to remain in Spain.

It comes after French-Italian IT specialist Herve Falciani - who worked for HSBC's Swiss private bank - was last week held in Madrid.

He fled from Switzerland to France in 2008 taking with him the names of 130,000 individuals and organisations allegedly flaunting the country's system to evade tax and launder money.

The 46-year-old later leaked the information, sparking investigations in France, Austria, Belgium, Spain and Argentina.

Switzerland first issued an international warrant for Falciani's arrest on charges of industrial sabotage in 2009, but French authorities ignored it and instead used the stolen data to prosecute tax dodgers.

He has been living between France and Spain under a high-security United Nations programme

'INDUSTRIAL SABOTAGE': HSBC Private Bank was accused of helping clients to avoid paying billions of Euros in taxes after stolen data was leaked by Herve Falciani (inset).

since 2013, when the Spanish national court acquitted him of the violation of bank secrecy charges he faces in Switzerland, since the leaks exposed alleged serious offences.

In November 2015 he was sentenced in absentia to five years in prison for data theft and financial espionage, and the Swiss justice ministry last Thursday confirmed that it has submitted a formal extradition request.

Spanish Judge Diego de Egea freed Falciani while he considers the case, but he has been stripped of his passport and banned from leaving the country, while he will be jailed if he fails to present himself in court once per week.

In November last year HSBC Private Bank agreed to pay France around € 300 million to avoid tax fraud charges, while Spain has reportedly recovered a similar amount in unpaid duties from the 637 Spaniards who appear on Falciani's list.

Sources at the Spanish High Court told national media that there is a 'judicial agreement' in place to protect him given the help he has provided to Spanish authorities.

But Spain wants to extradite two separatist fugitives, Marta Rovira of the Republican Left party and Anna Gabriel of the radical Popular Unity Candidacy, who fled to Geneva after being charged with rebellion over their roles in Cataluña's independence movement.

Switzerland has thus far been unwilling to cooperate, and Falciani's arrest is being widely seen in Spain as an attempt to curry favour, while triggering speculation of a possible prisoner exchange should the Catalan pair be held.

ADGP to open probe in wake of Cambridge Analytica row

SPAIN'S Data Protection Agency (AGDP) is probing British political consulting firm Cambridge Analytica.

The company is accused of harvesting the personal details of 87 million Facebook users through an app called thisisyourdigitallife - built by Cambridge University psychologist Aleksandr Kogan - in one of the social network's largest data breaches to date.

And AGDP confirmed the move as it tweeted: "The Spanish Data Protection Agency has opened an investigation against Facebook in order to examine the possible harm caused to Spanish users."

Facebook had allegedly been aware of the violation since late 2015 but failed to alert users. The news comes as Facebook boss Mark Zuckerberg revealed he plans to testify before Congress in Washington DC after admitting that he made a "huge mistake" over the scandal.

Operator nets airwaves deal worth €600m

TELEFONICA has forked out around €600 million to improve its British mobile service.

The UK subsidiary of the Spanish telecommunications provider has snapped up the biggest portion of new airwaves in an auction that raised more than ≤ 1.5 billion for the UK government, according to regulator Ofcom.

"We have acquired four blocks of 10 MHz each in the 2.3 GHz band and eight blocks of 5 MHz in the 3.4 GHz band," Telefonica said in a statement.

The airwaves are earmarked for next generation services, with the 3.4 GHz band set to be enabled for 5G, the upcoming wireless technology with the potential to link up everything from household devices to supermarkets to cars while offering super-fast smartphone speeds.

EXAMPLE 6 EXAMPLE 6 CRYPTOCASH USED TO LAUNDER DRUG MONEY

ELEVEN people have been held in Spain and Colombia with 137 others being quizzed over an international drugs money laundering scheme involving the cryptocurrency Bitcoin.

A Guardia Civil probe was launched after 174 suspicious current accounts were opened with Dutch multinational banking firm ING.

Small amounts of cash up to €3,000 the maximum permitted before identification is required - were reportedly dripfed into these deposits via Spanish cash machines.

The money was later withdrawn in Colombian cities including Bogota, Cali, Cucuta and Medellin using credit cards associated with the accounts by mules travelling from Spain, where the drugs were sold.

A number of withdrawals also took place in Panama City, with a large network of people reportedly employed to make the initial deposits in order to avoid the alarm being raised.

Using this method, the gang was able to successfully convert € 5 million of dirty money into legitimate assets, police said in a statement.

BIT HITS THE FAN: The arrest of a cash mule by Colombian police sparked the probe.

But when Colombian investigators snared one of the culprits, the traffickers adopted a new technique, snapping up Bitcoins in Euros and later selling them for Colombian pesos using the Finnish startup LocalBitcoins.

In total, an additional € 3.4 million was laundered this way, triggering a wider crackdown codenamed Operation Tulipan Blanca, a collaborative sting between detectives from Europol, the Guardia Civil, the United States Departmant of Homeland Security and Finnish authorities.

Investigators swooped on eight unspecified properties in Spain during a series of raids, seizing computer equipment, documentation, plastic bags for packing bank notes and money counting machines. Colombia is currently ranked third in the world, behind China and Nigeria, in terms of the number of transactions carried out using cryptocurrencies. According to a LocalBitcoins spokesman, the transfer of Bitcoin into Colombian pesos soared by more than 1,200 per cent in 2017 alone.

It comes after the arrest in Alicante last month of the suspected leader of a gang of cybercriminals who allegedly stole up to \in 1 billion from banks by tampering with account balances and instructing hole in the wall machines to spit out cash.

The Ukrainian ringleader named as 'Denis K' had reportedly directed the plot from Spain since 2013, converting the proceeds into Bitcoin in his homeland and Russia before spending the proceeds on luxury goods in Spain.

Solar power to drive future of energy market

SPAIN'S Ministry of Industry, Tourism and Digital has published a new report, including new growth scenarios for the future of the Spanish energy market.

It recognises solar as the future cheapest source of power and predicts it to dominate all other energy sources within 12 years.

The Spanish government said that increasing the renewables share would significantly reduce power generation costs, thus enabling savings of around $\notin 9.6$ billion and slashing CO2 emissions.

According to the most optimistic figures, solar is expected to reach a capacity of 47.1 TWh by 2030, becoming the country's leading power source, followed by wind, combined cycle plants, hydropower, cogeneration facilities, and nuclear power.

Under this scenario, renewables would have a 70 per cent share in Spain's electricity mix.

How many more lives must be lost?

I MUST confess I thought long and hard about the subject matter for this week's blurb.

I actually had a number of events I could have covered, including the arrest of the OAP who, in the act of protecting his home and family killed a scum burglar, or the disgraceful humiliation of some of our most loved stars (including a number of my friends) by a jumped up drag queen in the new reality show, 'Last Laugh in Las Vegas.'

In the end, I decided in the light of all the recent horrendous violence and murders in London, that I simply had, despite the near certainty of once more being labelled a racist, follow my own moral instincts and endeavour to speak freely about a subject that is being worsened and compounded by PC-riddled, fact-distorting media outlets with exactly the same anxieties.

All week, as report after report came in of further murders and injuries to youngsters in areas of London I waited, through numerous newscasts and discussions, for someone to finally state the truth - and almost unbelievably nobody did! The pure and utterly irrefutable fact that almost every victim involved in these crimes were black.

LONDON: Violence is on the increase.

It almost seems that our media outlets, including the politicians and police hierarchy, are either in complete denial or total funk regarding this glaringly obvious and extremely worrying situation. Until the true problem is at least admitted and faced up to, how on earth can the authorities begin to solve and prevent further maiming and murders of youngsters who originate in areas that are mainly occupied by the black communities? This is a black on black situation. This is not 'a London problem,' as those who blame everyone else for the situation would have us believe. The majority of decent Londoners, ethnic or otherwise, are not rushing around in gangs, stabbing and committing drive-by shootings. It is utterly unfair to lump all the law abiding decent citizens of this great Metropolis into the same bag as a small majority, who have turned their local areas into some sort of tribal, drug-infested killing field.

Have we learned nothing from America, where similar problems resulted in whole great cities being reduced to ghost towns of dust and destruction? This is a black community problem. Until all members of London society, including its dysfunctional mayor along with local members of these beleaguered communities admit this and come to terms with it, it will NEVER be sorted. The police must be given more power to act in these areas. They must be allowed to stop and search far more freely without fear of political correctness or accusations of racism.

Gang members must be rounded up and incarcerated, until their organisations break down and cease to exist. If this means bringing in the army, so be it. Community and sports centres need to be opened in these areas, with decent youngsters not being afraid to attend because it means straying into a 'rival' gang territory. All this can only be achieved if the true problem is recognised, admitted and acted upon. How many more young, misguided lives must be lost before the authorities get some bottle and do something to root out the true origins and perpetrators of this utterly tragic and unacceptable situation? I await the 'Slings and Arrows.'

Under fire CPS boss to quit after 'disastrous' rocky reign and crises

Nora Johnson Breaking Views

RARELY has news that a public official, the ideologically-driven Director of Public Prosecutions for the Crown Prosecution Service (CPS), Alison Saunders, is leaving their post been greeted with such glee.

One of her worst moments was when her decision not to charge the Labour peer Lord Janner with alleged child sex crimes was overturned after the complainants demanded a review of the CPS' assessment.

She was also heavily criticised after most of the journalists charged as part of Operation Elveden, the investigation into allegations involving reporters bribing police officers and other public officials, were acquitted.

And recently, after the collapse of several rape trials following the failure of the prosecution to disclose evidence led to the CPS announcing a review of all current rape cases, she found herself faced with yet another crisis.

Again, during her rocky reign, the CPS wasted considerable police time and court resources in prosecuting cases dating back decades (Cliff Richard, for instance) where the evidence was tenuous at best.

While there's no doubt these matters should be investigated and the guilty brought to justice - like Max Clifford, Rolf Harris, Gary Glitter - several investigations were botched at taxpayers' expense. The cases of Lords Brittan, Bramall and McAlpine clearly show mistakes of identity or false allegations aren't impossible and that justice and fair procedures should apply to the living (as well as the dead). So, another nail in the failing reputation of the UK's justice system and also public trust in the police? The suspicion is that the police are yet another British institution that's become removed from the concerns of the vast majority of people who pay for it. Too easily influenced by fashionable political issues; fairly useless at doing what people really want it to do (stop crime); and eager for the spotlight in pursuing celebrities over allegations dating back to the 1970's.

Such was the never-ending roll call from the 70's, it reached the point when you expected Captain Pugwash, the Blue Peter tortoise and Zippy from Rainbow to be hauled in next for questioning ...

Property sales highest in a decade

HOUSE ABOUT THAT: Foreigners snapped up almost one in three properties sold on the Costa del Sol last year.

By Matt Ford

HE Costa del Sol property market is officially booming.

It comes after the College of Registrars released its latest statistics, which show the area is at the head of the recovery of the real estate sector in Spain after posting its best figures since 2008.

According to the data, more than 30,300 properties were purchased in Malaga last year, a year-on-year increase of 14.6 per cent and placing it second on the national ranking in terms of the number of sales relative to population.

International buyers were responsible for almost 30 per cent of sales, beaten only by Alicante, Tenerife (both more than 40 per cent) and Girona, Cataluña (30.8 per cent).

This equates to a sales index of 18.39 properties per 1,000 inhabitants, topped only by Alicante (18.75) and outstripping both Girona (13.93) and the Balearic Islands (13.81).

Although Malaga topped the latter classification from 2014-2016, its index still almost doubles the Spanish average of 8.6.

More impressively still, Malaga recorded the fourth-highest overall number of sales nationally in 2017, beaten only by Madrid with 69,966, Barcelona (53,733) and Alicante (34,631).

Sales of new homes increased by 22.4 per cent compared with 2016, while those of pre-owned properties - which accounted for 81.5 per cent of the total - rose by 12.9 per cent.

The most up-to-date details for foreign buyers are for 2016, and they show that the Costa del Sol remains an attractive option for foreign buyers, who snapped up more than 9,000 homes.

The report highlights the fact that Malaga has consistently been among the country's top five leading provinces, alongside Alicante, Tenerife, the Balearic Islands and Girona, for house sales in recent years.

Emilio Lopez Caparros, president of Malaga's Association of Builders and Promoters recently told Spanish media that the local market 'is returning to normal,' especially in Malaga City and the Costa del Sol, while the Costa Tropical 'is also improving somewhat.'

He added that eager buyers are once again driving the market forwards, while credit from banks is more readily available, bringing about a 'soft' hike in prices.

The College of Registrars report concludes that the evolution of the real estate market is 'excellent,' but warns that faster growth may not prove beneficial as it could generate a spike in prices and subsequent 'contraction' in demand.

Whether you are a private individual looking to buy a holiday home, permanently relocate or an investor looking to secure a strong return, we have the expertise and knowledge to make it happen.

Buying a property in Spain

Our complete 'Turn Key' service makes purchasing a property a pleasure again.

1. No fuss. We help you make the right decision when choosing your property.

2. No stress. We deal with the legal and financial aspects.

3. No anxiety, we avoid possible pitfalls with the minimum of fuss.

No Fuss We at Keys Property Group are good listeners. You tell us your needs and your expectations and with our local knowledge we guide you to the best possible purchase for the lowest possible price. You are our client. We act in all circumstances in your interests.

No Stress We enjoy showing clients around one of the most beautiful areas of southern Spain. From the fincas in the hills behind us to the penthouses in the ports, the range and choice of properties is stunning. We want you to enjoy it too. When you make your choice and the price and conditions are agreed, then the normal legal and financial procedures follow.

Should you so wish we can offer you a choice of several reputable legal firms to handle the transaction and financial people for mortgage/banking advice, etc.

No Anxiety Normal legal procedure to conclude the purchase.

Step 1. We draw up a 'reservation contract' signed by both parties. The buyer will pay a deposit of $\notin 6,000$. This guarantees the property is removed from the market. The contract states the date of completion.

Step 2. If that date is within 30 days the next step is to sign the deed in the offices of a public notary.

Step 3. If the agreed date of completion is later than 30 days, normal procedure is to sign a 'private purchase contract' and pay 10 per cent of the purchase price, less the €6,000 already paid.

PROPERT

Step 4. Completion of purchase. The final payment and exchange of keys takes place before a public notary who signs the new title deed. The notary's office will have requested the Land Registry for a 'nota simple continuada' which means the Property Registry is informed and is aware that a change of owners on this particular property will take place in this notary's office. This is added protection for the buyer.

Step 5. Still in the office of the notary, the buyer pays the vendor the final balance (normally banker's draft) and the vendor gives the keys of the property to the buyer.

Step 6. Registration of the change of owners is made in the property registry. The notary, on the same day of the signing, informs the Land Registry that the completion of the purchase has taken place. The deed now has to be taken physically to the registry in order to be properly registered.

Costs incurred in the purchase. These fees vary in different areas.

The notary fee for a purchase of a property of €200,000 will be between €500 and €1,000.

The Property Registry fee depends on the price of the property and varies between 0.175-0.03 per cent.

A property lawyer's fees are normally 1 per cent plus VAT of the purchase price. Their offices will get you your fiscal identification number (NIE), process the necessary documents with the Land Registry etc.

They will arrange payments of the relevant taxes associated with the purchase. They can also set up your utility contracts.

NB A lawyer is optional when purchasing property in Spain but we at KEYS recommend that you do use one.

For instance should you buy from a non-resident vendor in Spain, you, the buyer, are required by law to withhold 3 per cent of the purchase price and pay that directly to the tax office on the vendor's behalf.

This is a measure to prevent tax evasion by the vendor who resides in another country. Our advice, avoid the pitfalls.

We hope you find these points useful. In fact they may have raised some questions you want answered. If so, just ask.

HE Spanish property market is on the move again. The number of mortgages taken out in January this year was up 9.2 per cent on the same month in 2017 and the amount borrowed has gone up by 7.9 per cent.

These are the most recent figures from the Spanish Statistical Institute (INE) and they paint a very confident picture. Mortgages for property in Sotogrande tend to be around 70 per cent of the asking price for non-residents and can be as high as 80 per cent for residents.

The same is true inland in the villages like Jimena de la Frontera and Gaucin. Prepare yourselves; the best bargains are getting mopped up fast! Case study

We have just sold a property in Jimena which was bought for €70,000 cash. The lawyer had to tell the buver that this was lower than the price the Hacienda calculated as the 'real price.'

The buyer paid the 8 per cent tax on the title deed price and chose to wait until the Tax Authorities calculate the shortfall (which they undoubtedly will). This will add another €3,200 because the government says the property is really worth €110,000.

Bad luck for the seller, our client, who had cash flow problems and needed to sell, but on this occasion the lucky winner was the buyer. There was a similar example in Sotogrande Marina, where a two bed sold for €280,000 when the ask-

Still a buyer's market . . .

Properties are out there. So, too, are mortgages: fixed-rate and variable for long and short to medium term investments.

Cash buyers can complete faster which can give more negotiating 'clout,' but those buying with mortgages can also put in a 'cheeky' offer.

In this sense it is still a buyer's market. But, to quote Bob Dylan, 'the times they are a changing.'

It looks like sellers who can afford to sit and wait a year or 18 months before putting their property up for sale should get a better price. So, our advice? Buy now.

PAIN'S property success story of recent years is well known and some may feel that an affordable purchase is already beyond them.

However, with good timing and luck there are still great value properties available across Spain, just waiting for the eagle-eyed buyer to pounce.

Malaga

A decade ago this port city lacked the investment and tourist attractions, although it has always had lively nightlife.

Now it is the fastest growing city in Spain for visitor numbers, with a revamped harbour lined with shops and bars overlooking cruise ships.

But it is still possible to find historic city-centre apartments for less than €300,000 and a new two-bedroom penthouse apartment in a 19th century building there, is on the market for €295,000.

Madrid

It is a city of immense history, culture and energy, but many feel Madrid is overshadowed by the edgier Barcelona.

Yet there is no doubt that Madrid has benefited from the political crisis in Cataluña, and new developments are emerging all around.

Compared with many other European cities, the capital's prices are very competitive with fully renovated one-bed flats in trendy central Chueca (the Soho equivalent) going for €255,000.

Barcelona's economy hard, with companies moving out.

While the National Institute of Statistics (INE) revealed that property sales figures for the city took an 11 per cent dive in December, the beaches, culture and buzz of the city has seen it bounce back this vear.

However, brand new one-bedroom apartments in the elegant Eixample are on sale for €265,000. Valencia

Valencia has emerged out of its recessionary trough to account for 13 per cent of all new-build sales.

Despite having the beachfront communities, old-town charm and modern architecture to draw people from Barcelona, it has a wider array of property at relatively low prices.

While property prices rose by 11 per cent last year, it is still possible to find small flats near the harbour for $\notin 100,000$.

Mallorca's attractive capital escaped the worst of the economic crisis that shook Spain in 2008, and unassumingly carried on its thriving progression.

The island effect gives it a reputation as a safe haven and there is now a vibrancy to the city with new shops and restaurants springing up all over.

Second Spanish easyHotel set for Malaga

UDGET accommodation hotel chain easy-Hotel has announced that they have signed an agreement to build a 146room hotel in Malaga.

Part of the easyGroup, who also own sister company easyJet, the company currently own seven hotels, housing more than 700 rooms, while they have further franchised 20 hotels with another 1,728 rooms.

The Malaga hotel, which is set to open in 2019, will reportedly be located less than five minutes from the city's cruise terminal and just 200m from the main train station.

It will be the company's second Spanish property following their first hotel in Barcelona, which will

An underrated gem

By Lexus Estate Malaga

MALAGA City is a unique place on the Mediterranean shore, with warm and pleasant weather allyear round, making it the most visited city in southern Spain.

The council has, in recent years, made a big effort to transform Malaga into a cultural centre with more than 25 musuems and exhibition centres, including the Picasso Museum, Thyssen Museum, and the Pompidou Centre. In fact the city centre itself can be compared to a great open air musuem with stunning old buildings, many of which have been refurbished to give the city more charm.

Like all Andalucian cities Malaga also has a great gastronomic heritage, and many restaurants and bars offer typical tapas on open air terraces.

Malaga has become a favourite destination for many European middle-aged people to live, with good security, easy access, nice beaches, and good connections with other historical cities including Sevilla, Granada, Cordoba and Ronda. Malaga airport is now connected with most of the major cities in Europe.

As a result, the Malaga property market is booming. The demand to buy in the city has increased by more than 100 per cent in the last two years.

Malaga is surrounded by mountains and the sea, so there is not a great deal of scope for expansion.

The city hall controls all new building proposals in order to maintain its unique charm, meaning prices are likely to rise in the near future.

Say hello to a good buy! Newly refurbished top floor 3 bedroom 3 bathroom duplex situated in Elviria with air conditioning, fitted kitchen, parking garage, storage room and spaciously built. This gated complex has 4 community pools, is close to golf and has great sea views. A must-see property.

PETITE mobile hotel has been launched in Arctic Finland, which can be fixed onto a sled behind a snowmobile in pursuit of the Northern Lights.

The two-person cabin measures just eight feet wide, almost 15 feet long and 6.5 feet tall, and is the brainchild of tour operator Off the Map Travel.

Inside, all the main facilities are present, including a comfy bed, small table, gas heater and external dry toilet

A crucial feature of the novel abode is the transparent roof, so guests can view the stunning Northern Lights while lying down.

Guests will also have access to the complementary snowshoes and personal sleds, to allow them to explore the local area.

At the moment there are only three existing mobile cabins in operation, located in the remote village of Kilpisjarvi, northern Finland.

Jonny Cooper, founder of Off the Map Travel and an Arctic travel expert says:

SLED SHELTER: The cabin is perfect for gazing up to the skies.

"Away from man-made light pollution, the wilderness surrounding Kilpisjarvi gives guests the best possible opportunity to experience the Northern Lights and simply enjoy the silence of the Arctic Tundra."

The wilderness experience for customers includes a snowmobile journey to the hotel, and a campfire meal of local sausages, made by a guide.

A warming breakfast, local snacks and hot drinks are included for guests, and the Kilpisjarvi area has statistically more clear night skies than any other place in Finland.

FOREIGN investors reportedly spent more than €30 billion in Spanish real estate last year.

According to reports, the volume of foreign cash splashed on Spanish property grew by 0.7 per cent in 2017, totalling €31.1 billion.

The sky-high figures equate to 25.6 per cent more than the average volume of investments over the past five years and are the highest numbers since 2008.

Despite the record real estate figures, according to Spain's Economy Ministry, the volume of net spending decreased by 12.3 per cent to €24.5 billion.

Reports suggest that the most active investors in Spain in 2017 were residents of Luxembourg, who forked out an estimated €5 billion in real estate, ahead of Germans and Britons, who splurged €3 billion apiece.

Franco's summer retreat under siege

ANSION that served as the summer residence of 20th century dictator Francisco Franco is now the subject of a legal battle.

The provincial authority of A Coruña in north-western Spain has decided to take action to argue that the late leader's heirs have no right to benefit from 'plunder.'

Franco's grandchildren put the impressive Pazo de Meiras palace up for sale last month, which has prompted a strong reaction from politicians and public alike.

Nestor Rego, one of around 25 Galicians who invaded the property in protest last year, said: "It's a scandal that this property continues to be controlled by the dictator's family."

A similar view is held by Goretti Sanmartin, deputy president of the A Coruña authority, who would like to see a 'consensus between all political forces and all levels of government' to open the palace and grounds up to the public.

PROBLEMATIC PALACE: A legal judgement will decide the fate of the property.

She has presented a report which questions the way in which Franco acquired the property during the Spanish civil war of the 1930's.

Some claim that leaders of both A Coruña Council and the business community obliged local people to hand over a portion of their income for the purchase and expansion of the estate.

The palace's grounds were expanded from 5.7 acres to the pristine 16-acre site currently being advertised by real estate company Mikeli under a price tag of €8 million.

An overall figure on how much the state spent on the property, which became the Franco family's summer residence for 36 years, is difficult to establish.

ESTEPONA: Good value for money.

On the march

By M J Lancley

THE new-build and reform sectors are both, in our opinion extremely buoyant this time.

Estepona really stands out for us, there is a huge amount of new construction work taking place, a new hospital is underway, new road infrastructure is either approved and underway and numerous new build apartment projects are springing up literally weekly.

The reason? Quite simply you get a huge amount more for your money than 15 minutes away in Marbella and developers and private buyers are taking advantage of this.

Estepona has a wealth of greats restaurants, fantastic beaches and most important a huge car park, as we all know how extremely busy and frustrating it can be for locals in the summer. We can't foresee any slowdown in the new build and reform market in Estepona.

A FANTASTIC OPPORTUNI-TY FOR PRIVATE BUYERS AND DEVELOPERS AWAITS.

Top 5 tips for rental owners What should you consider when choosing your property management company?

1) Choose the company that markets your property with cutting-edge technologies and provides innovative ways of bringing customers onboard.

Examples of such progressive solutions could include: a dynamic calendar that displays your bookings clearly and can synchronise with other large rental platforms; a simple back-end system allowing you to easily work on your property listing; a multilingual team that can give your guests 24/7 support. These are some of the ways in which a good rental company can save you time and money.

2) Consider whether the company offers access to a broader community of hosts. Sharing reviews and being part of a large community provides a range of benefits, eg, bonus systems and loyalty programmes, and creates an interactive community of homeowners that share the same ideas and concerns.

LANDLORDS: Avoid scams by choosing the right agency to advertise your property.

3) Does the company offer services that cover your needs of in-destination management and extra services to the tourists? The availability of airport pickups, shuttles, restaurant reservations, tour bookings and other added services increase the probability of your property having reservations all year round.

4) Inquire to what extent the management company will be monitoring your property and offering you related services.

Not all situations might turn out to be pleasant for guests. Therefore, it is advisable to ensure that you are covered by a correctly structured rental agreement. Rental agreements only recently became a legal necessity, and many agents are still behind on correctly implementing and covering all fronts in this regard.

Some companies go beyond this, offering different types of in-destination monitoring, visits, check-ups, and follow-ups that help you better manage your accommodation.

5) Finally, choose a company that includes the maximum number of services within their agency fee. A lot of players in the market are benefiting from charging a percentage management fee, and further billing landlords with add-ons, sometimes essential services, which are not covered within the initial agreement.

Paying for your child's tuition fees? Save money on your currency transfers

A new school of thought

When it comes to transferring money overseas, moving your funds through your bank seems like the logical choice on paper. But in reality, what should be a quick and simple task can end up taking considerably more time than it should.

If you're looking for a simpler and speedier alternative, consider the benefits attached to using a leading currency broker.

Whether you need to make regular, smaller currency transfers or have a large lump sum to transfer, currency brokers can help you save time and money. They can also help you understand the volatility of the currency market and teach you how to time your currency transfers effectively.

For example, while the EUR/GBP exchange rate initially strengthened considerably in the wake of the UK's vote to leave the EU in 2016, the pairing has experienced significant fluctuations ever since.

This exchange rate movement can make planning your transfers a bit of a pain. With complex Brexit negotiations still ongoing, the EUR/GBP exchange rate will remain unstable for the foreseeable future, so it's important to be prepared for sudden shifts.

Do your sums

One major advantage to using a currency broker like Currencies Direct is that they don't charge transfer fees (unlike many banks) ensuring that the money you're sending to the UK is not reduced by unnecessary costs. Transfer fees can quickly add up if you make frequent transfers, so you could end up saving hundreds of euros a year.

By using a currency broker you can also ensure that you're getting the most competitive exchange rate for your transfer, meaning you'll get more for your money.

Revise your options

Using a currency broker also takes a lot of hassle out of the transfer process, as you can set up payments 24/7 from the comfort of your own home and arrange

Putting your child through higher education can be seriously costly, with tuition fees and living costs typically amounting to tens of thousands of pounds in just a few years. If you're living abroad but transferring money back to the UK to fund your child's time in University, the process could be made costlier still if you're using your bank to manage the currency transfers.

for them to be made automatically on pre-set dates.

You can also make instant or 'spot' transfers whenever you need to, so you don't need to wait to move the money if your child needs some emergency funds.

Another option you might want to look into is a forward contract, which gives you the ability to fix an exchange rate for up to two years in advance of making a transfer – protecting your funds from negative market movements.

By doing a bit of research into the different transfer options available you can eliminate the hassle and get more from your currency transfers. Find the services that suit your needs and you'll quickly discover how much you can save.

At Currencies Direct, we've helped over 210,000 customers save on their currency transfers since 1996. Just pop into your local Currencies Direct branch or give us a call to find out more about how you can save money on your currency transfers.

DESPITE Brexit, the luxury Sotogrande property market continues to surprise the experts, and 2018 shows no sign of this changing.

The Sotogrande sales market has continued where 2017 left off and the visual confirmation of many new modern construction projects, scattered around the estate, only further endorses this fact.

Being 30 minutes from Marbella, Sotogrande affords the luxury of choice, in being able to opt in and out of the facilities Marbella offers, whenever the urge arises without having to be fully immersed.

With the emergence of a top quality International School, together with the amazing facilities being provided by Sotogrande at the La Reserva development and Almenara Golf/Spa Hotel, Sotogrande Alto is now firmly considered as a wonderful addition to the already established Sotogrande Costa.

Offering stunning views across the estate, previously only available from a small number of Costa properties, the estate can now truly claim to have something for everyone.

Add the Marina development with its wonderful waterside dining facilities, and the appeal of Sotogrande is immediately apparent.

A diverse selection of modern and traditional apartments, villas and townhouses can be found, carefully scattered between the swathes of green zone that make the gated estate so attractive.

From one bed beach apartments to 12 bedroom luxury villas, Sotogrande offers something for everyone, whether you are seeking a holiday or residential lifestyle option.

HILE the country may have voted to leave the European Union, Brits show no sign of giving up on their dreams of owning a place in the sun, according to new research published by specialist firm Spanish Legal Reclaims.

The study reveals that over half (55 per cent) of Britons who are considering buying a home abroad say Brexit will have no impact on their decision to buy. In fact, 10 per cent of those surveyed said they were actually more likely to buy in Europe now that Britain has decided to leave the EU.

Spain remains the most popular choice for Brits looking to buy abroad, with 45 per cent saying it was their first choice, followed by France (37 per cent) and Italy (20 per cent).

"It's not surprising to hear that Spain remains the favourite destination for British people who want to buy property in Europe. Despite the horror stories you may have heard of disappearing developers, it continues to deliver on lifestyle, property prices and climate," said Spanish Legal Reclaims CEO, Luis Cuervo.

"What's more, a Spanish Supreme Court ruling introduced in December 2015 means that if you bought a property off-plan that isn't delivered on time by the developer, and they have since gone bankrupt, you can reclaim your money back from the bank who was meant to safeguard your deposit.

"The new ruling gives fresh hope to thousands who are potentially hundreds of thousands of pounds out of pocket," Mr Cuervo continued.

Around 130,000 Britons are eligible to claim a total of £5.3bn against this ruling, according to research commissioned by Spanish Legal Reclaims and the Centre for Economics and Business research.

PROPERTY GUIDE

Spanish Legal Reclaims is also currently working with clients across the country to help them reclaim money they are owed from off-plan Spanish property. One of the successful claimants is Janet Jalil from north-west London.

"In 2002, my husband and I decided to buy a second home for holidays, as well as somewhere we could eventually use as a retirement home. After lots of research, we paid just over €200,000 for a property in Marbella.

"When we flew to Spain to see the property for ourselves, we quickly found out that it wasn't built. Our lawyer let me know about the change in the law and, after a year-long legal process we are now expecting to get all of our original deposit back plus interest!"

Kickstarter website to raise a ic record breaking $5.7 million dollars for the Veronica Mars movie. The crowd-

ics. Projects whose benefits are less obvious are attracting criticism. Brandon Wenered, a New York City editor, once happy to donate to worthy causes is now fed up with an increasing flow of selfish requests that include holiday trips and credit card debt.

"It has taken on this air of panhandling to me," said Wenerd. Despite backlash, industry growth indicates that crowdfunding is here to stay. There are now over eight million crowdfunding campaigns worldwide per year, a figure that is expected to rise to more than 17 million in 2022. Such growth stems largely from China, whose transaction value is over seven times that in the US.

Perhaps, the success of Marco and Candida's eco-build indicates what it takes to mount a successful campaign and evade the backlash. Not only did the project fund the couple's house but also a winery, cookery school and farm shop selling a unique variety of herbs, fruits and vegetables including kiwis and mulberries.

In addition, the cookery school teaches budding students foraging, curing, fermenting and how to grow their own produce. It seems likely that the project's success is linked to its ecological nature; connecting with a growing consumer urge for healthy and ethical produce.

NTERNA-TIONAL homeowners in Spain have received a welcome financial boost.

It comes after the Spanish Supreme Court ruled that the long-standing and controversial Spanish policy of charging nonresidents a higher rate of inheritance tax (IHT) is unlawful.

And according to the latest judgement, this also applies to natives of countries outside the European Union.

The landmark case means that property owners who have paid the higher rate of Spanish IHT over the last four years could be entitled to a refund.

Antonio Barba, a tax partner of Barcelonabased legal firm Cuatrecasas said "the much-criticised prac-

Nine-year sales high

By YourViva.com

SPAIN'S National Institute of Statistics (INE) has published provisional residential property sales figures for 2017 that reveal a nine-year high in the number of transactions made last year.

This makes 2017 the most positive year for Spain's property market since 2008, which was the year in which the post-boom crash arrived, sending the real estate industry into a tailspin that has taken years to rectify...

Since 2013, the signs have been strong that the Spanish property market was steadily finding its feet, but this data is the first time that pre-crash conditions have been recorded.

Across all 17 autonomous regions of the country, property sales figures were higher than the year previously, and the nationwide 14.6 per cent increase on 2016 sales pushed the total figure to 464,423 homes sold last year.

This is in positively stark contrast to the 312,000 homes bought and sold in Spain in 2012, which marked the bottoming-out of sales activity during the deepest depth of the recession.

The year 2017 ended on a high too, with the official number of 32,211 transactions recorded in December an encouraging 9.2 per cent increase on the same month in 2016. This is also almost double the notary data published this week.

Costa del Sol and Spanish property market review 2018

SPONSORED BY

Property expert Peter Bowerman gives an insight into the 2018 Costa del Sol property market.

PETER is one of the most published Costa del Sol property experts in both the UK and Spanish press. He is also the Managing Director of the successful 'Overseas Dreams' Master real estate company with registered offices in Marbella and La Cala De Mijas.

I have to say, I feel very privileged living and working in Spain's favourite sunshine coast, the Costa del Sol. I work just as hard as I did in London's busy property market, but everything seems so much nicer when you are driving along the coast bathed in flickering rays of sunshine through the palm trees, instead of being stuck in traffic under drizzling grey skies.

Every day is very different, as some days we are valuing Marbella's most prestigious villas and the next we are valuing bank repossessions or liquidation properties, at forced sale prices. The investors are flooding back to the market and I spend a lot of my time guiding them into the best 'buy to let' or capital growth deals, however, nothing is more satisfying than helping clients find their first sunshine holiday home and making their overseas dream a reality.

The Brexit negotiations continue to go well with a softer exit from Europe now underway. Countries including Spain have been supporting the UK remaining closely aligned with the EU in terms of trade. With Jean-Claude Juncker even going as far as saying that the UK would be welcomed back into the EU after Brexit, if so desired, which is quite the turnaround from the hostile negotiations at the start of the process. Spain's Foreign Minister also declared that British expatriates living in Spain will face 'no disruption' after Brexit

A reciprocal agreement whereby the existing status quo relating to health care and pension rights is now agreed in principle, which is a great relief to thousands of expats both sides of the water. This positivity is also helping the Pound gain strength against the Euro, which is encouraging for the many UK buyers looking to secure a deal on the Costa del Sol while prices are still well under their original values.

Spain is still firmly the favourite destination for British second home buyers, which account for more property purchases than any other foreign nationals and almost double that of the country in second place, France. The main reason that buyers love Spain's Costa del Sol (Sun Coast) is the better way of life, warm climate, al fresco living, good value for money, better diet and friendly locals. These are exactly the same reasons that I moved here and why I am still loving the lifestyle.

The 2008 global downturn and worldwide property crash put many international buyers off for a number of years, but now 10 vears later they are very definitely back with a vengeance. After all, the fabulous Mediterranean lifestyle never changed and it's still more affordable than the UK. This has been backed up by the Spanish Tourism Ministry confirming record levels of over 82 million visitors during 2017, making Spain the second most visited country in the world, which is some accolade.

It's easy to understand why there is so much excitement in the Spanish property sector. I have been writing reviews on the Spanish property market for many years now and around two years ago I recommended to start investing in Spanish property again, as I did myself, which proved to be right, as the expert predictions are coming to fruition. The latest government / market sources are reporting that in the Costa del Sol area, the annual amount of property sales were up by around 20 per cent towards the end of 2017, with some of the highest sales figures since the crash in 2008

"You will look back years from now wishing you had invested more"

The Spanish Notaries have reported that the annual average sale prices were up by around 6.6 per cent in Spain at the end of 2017, and that both sales and prices have been consistently increasing over the last three years. Spain has also just been moved up to the fourth best destination for property investment opportunity in the world, now above the UK, in the 2018 ranking by one of the largest institutional real estate investor groups.

After balancing out reports from the Land Registry, National Institute of Statistics, property portals and our own sales data, we have concluded that the Costa Del Sol average prices are approx: one bed = \notin 137,000, two bed = \notin 220,000, three bed = \notin 330,000, four bed = \notin 605,000 and five bed = \notin 990,000. Obviously this is just showing the average price for each type of property, not a guide of what you should expect to pay.

For example, a luxury two bed apartment in Marbella would sell for around €500,000 and a basic two bed apartment in Duquesa area could sell for as low as €150,000. Also the four bed price range is distorted by cheap inland fincas, as a four bed villa on the coast would normally sell for between €550,000 and 1.3 million in popular parts of Marbella such as 'Nueva Andalucia.'

Prices in some emerging areas like 'La Cala De Mijas' have increased more than others, but if you are thinking of selling and want a more concise idea of what your property is worth, call us now for a free valuation, as we offer the best marketing packages on the coast and currently have some great promotions for both sellers and buyers.

If you are looking for a property right now and would like professional advice of where you should buy or invest, my staff and I are always happy to sit down over a coffee in our welcoming offices and help guide you into the best areas and properties for your requirements.

As Master agents we list close to a thousand of our own properties and are members of not one, but four interagency networks, so we can show you just about every property for sale on the Costa del Sol.

TECH FOR THE TIMID

AM I the only one to get a charge from juggling and relocating batteries religiously between devices until they really are very, very, very empty?

By the time my throwaway AA battery has sparked its last after an action-packed journey from electric razor to torch to electric spaghetti fork (yes, mea culpa...) to doorbell to kitchen clock, I realise that yes, I do indeed need to get out more, but at least my humble battery has had almost as many lives as our cat.

The irony is that we're a dying breed in an increasingly battery-powered world, and it doesn't take a conspiracy theorist to unearth the truth: manufacturers increasingly want us to change our devices rather than their batteries. Removable batteries are (becoming) history.

The underlying wastage is staggering, as many of us can see by simply pulling out a desk drawer to reveal a graveyard of phones finished when their batteries were.

Removable batteries peaked in the 90's and have been losing ground ever since. The recent debacle where Apple finally fessed-up to slowing

Assault and battery

'My name is Terence Kennedy and I am a battoholic'

CELL-BY DATE: The end of the removable battery?

down older iPhones as their batteries weakened, nudged the issue back to centre-stage.

At least iPhones can take a replacement battery, even if it's an expensive surgical intervention which only Apple will perform. Not a single flagship Android phone is now open to the public. For fancy phones, metal and glass bodies simply don't mix well with removable batteries, playing havoc with waterproofing and sealing. Removable batteries are bulkier, in a world which prizes slimness over sense.

I have an early Nexus tablet still ticking along on its original battery after five years and some 400 charges. As a DIY geek I could indeed swap its battery with the aid of a specialist kit - but it costs almost the same as an enticing new tablet so why would I?

A friend recently scrapped his entire laptop because it started showing a 'BIOS' error when booting. Had he asked, all it really needed was a new button battery worth a euro.

But today the only phones with removable batteries are budget ones, and who's to say you will still find niche batteries for a GreatLeapForwardfone three, four or five years down the line so why bother?

Manufacturers generally are increasingly replacing the ubiquitous removable cells with their own proprietary sealed units - while persuading us to buy today's new kid on the must-have gadget block, the portable powerbank.

As a David Attenborough aside to it all: could we thus also be facing the extinction of one increasingly endangered animal: the Duracell Bunny?

For battery or worse

DIEHARD battery-swappers take hope: online help is on hand if you can't face ditching a perfectly serviceable and much-loved device just because its battery has ceased to be.

Try running a Google search like 'how to change a non-removable battery' and you'll be astonished how many tutorials will appear.

In some cases all it takes is a cheap set of jewellers' screwdrivers, or a slightly fancier toolkit if your manufacturer attempts to thwart break-ins with oddshaped screws (like the increasingly common Torx heads).

Specialist battery kits can be found online for the more popular phones, tablets and e-readers. But you will need a steady hand, eagle eyes and no tears for any minor damage caused while breaking and entering.

Travel

MANY people have a bucket list of places around the world that they would like to visit, even if it is just a pleasant daydream.

However, those who are serious about making good on their explorations may need to start prioritising, as many sites are endangered due to environmental factors, political upheaval, and lack of funds among other reasons.

Old City of Jerusalem and its walls

This is clearly a deeply sacred site in Judaism, Christianity and Islam, and according to UN-ESCO contains 220 historical monuments.

Jerusalem and its walls were added to the UNESCO List of World Heritage in Danger in 1982, at Jordan's suggestion.

But with ongoing political problems, urban development and an apparent lack of protection, it is definitely advisable to visit there sooner rather than later.

many endangered and diverse species, and was added to the UNESCO List of World Heritage in Danger in 2011. It consists of three distinct national parks, has some 200 mammal species (including the Sumatran orangutan), 580 types of bird and 10,000 plant species.

Liverpool, England

According to Conde Nast Traveller, while UNESCO stipulates that the current buildings in Liverpool must remain the tallest in the city, ever increasing urban development threatens to permanently alter the Liverpool's aesthetic.

The port, which was one of Britain's flagship economic hubs in its heyday, was added to UN-ESCO's List of World Heritage in Danger in 2012.

Coro, Venezuela

The beautiful city is "the only surviving example of a rich fusion of local traditions with Spanish Mudejar and Dutch architectural techniques," says UNESCO.

It was added to the Danger list in 2005 due to fears around the effects of the Venezuelan oil industry.

Glacier National Park, Montana

This stunning National Park used to contain over 150 glaciers, but that number is now down to just 25.

With climate change's relentless march, those wishing to see such glaciers may need to make plans quickly.

ÖUEENE CUDECA

Support the Cudeca cancer hospice and enjoy an unforgettable concert experience at the same time. This is the invitation being extended to everyone when Europe's best Queen tribute act plays in aid of Cudeca at the Castle in Fuengirola on Saturday, April 21.

It all started on a small scale more than ten years ago. Today, the band is in demand all across Northern Europe, and in many parts of the USA as well.

From hobby to the big time

Bjarke Baisner sings, looks, acts and performs just like the legendary Freddie Mercury. And his four band members are equally enthusiastic. That's why the Queen Machine tribute act is the closest you can get to the real deal, and fans flock to their concerts in the thousands. "We are just like Queen in their younger days. When they were in their prime and always able to surprise on stage. This is also just how our audiences expect to see us," explains Peter Jeppesen, guitarist and spokesman for the band. He has been on board ever since things first got going in '07. "Back then it was just for fun, but things suddenly got serious - and in a good way. We went from playing for small audiences in tiny venues to standing before crowds of 10-20 thousand people at huge festivals. I don't quite get it, but people want to see us. They want to see Queen." And Queen Machine does their utmost to deliver the goods.

All the little details

The popular band takes great pride in developing their act and preparing for their performances, and they focus on all of the little details in order to make their concerts as authentic as possible. "We are always coming up with new shows and we pay attention to all of the subtleties so that we can get as close to the real Queen as we can," explains the Danish guitarist. For this reason, their costumes are tailor-made to look like the original ones worn by Queen, and their light shows and staging are set up just as they were at Queen concerts in the 80s. Attention is paid to every detail, including those which are too small to fully appreciate, such as the guitarist's plectrum, for example.

Brian May and Roger Taylor say okay

It is no ordinary plectrum; it's the old, original sixpence coin that Brian May used at the height of Queen's fame. "A few years ago, we had the pleasure of meeting Queen's original guitarist, Brian May, and the band's drummer Roger Taylor. They know us and our show, so we've got the thumbs up from them," concludes Peter Jeppesen cheerfully. The band has a long summer ahead touring across Europe and the USA, where they had a big breakthrough last year. But before then, Europe's best Queen tribute act will play their first concert ever on Spanish soil. On April 21, they will bring their legendary show to Castillo Sohail in Fuengirola.

Tickets Standing: 18 euro. Seated: 25 euro.

About Cudeca

Since the cancer hospice Cudeca was established in 1992 it has cared for more than 14,000 cancer patients on Costa del Sol. Some patients stay in-house at Cudeca's hospice in Benalmádena, while others receive out-house treatment and care in their homes. All cancer patients can ask Cudeca for help regardless of the person's sex, age, religion and nationality. Last year alone Cudeca took care of more than 1,400 patients. And the number is growing every year. Therefore, the cancer hospice is in need of more resources. Just eight percent of Cudeca's budget is covered by public contributions. In other words, 92 percent is generated by private donations, charity shops and numerous charity events.

Beautiful Castillo Sohail

The old medieval castle in Fuengirola is considered one of the most beautiful concert venues in Andalucia. But this hasn't always been the case. Castillo Sohail was extremely damaged by wars in the past and at some point it was almost virtually destroyed. From 1995-97 the townhall restored and partially rebuilt the old castle.

Now 15-20 concerts and other cultural activities are held at Castillo Sohail every year.

Paul Maxwel

The evening will offer lots of entertainment and really good music.

TV COUCH CRITIC

by Adam Whalley-Lewis

SEMANA SANTA was, for most of us, as glorious as ever across Spain, but it seems that TV presenters in the UK haven't realised that most of us went back to our usual day to day activities on April 2.

Lorraine (ITV, weekday mornings) is still on her Easter break and she must be confident that her fan base will gush once again when she returns, because the fabulous Christine Lampard has been doing a great job sitting in the hot seat whilst our Lorraine is off guzzling Easter eggs (unlikely) or sunning herself somewhere (possible).

Elsewhere, Rylan and Emma substituted for Phil and Holly and did a great job too. We know that Phil was in the Maldives because he made sure it was all over social media, but Holly was quiet, maybe she was in a chocolate egg-eating competition with Lorraine?

Piers Morgan is still absent from Good Morning Britain. It seems that this week Eamonn Holmes (he has his own website you know, with a massive picture of himself on the front page) has been doing a little bit of filling in whilst Piers dines with Joan Collins and the like in LA.

I know that I'm risking an onslaught from loyal Piers fans if I dare even hint at another criticism of him, but if I'm honest, Eamonn is just as arrogant and dominating as Piers.

So if the 'Piers' job description is to

BREAKDOWN: Ruti

Olcjugbagbe. be dominating, arrogant and to generally talk over or down to the female presenters, then my money is on Mr Holmes. And if you were watching GMB on Monday, I hope you caught Kate discovering, live on air, that she still had a roller in her hair - she laughed it off.

In TV News, Britain's Got Talent returns to ITV on Saturday, perhaps with one half of Ant and Dec, and Richard Blackwood is leaving East-Enders. Richard is apparently pleased to be going. Really? Isn't that a little bit like a politician standing might want to suggest alternative restaurant venues for the new series on Channel 4. It seems the show wants to move from its current location by St Paul's, maybe to a more 'hip' setting. My suggestion, although I'm clearly bias, is the beautiful Los Claveles bar and restaurant in Casares village. Fred would fit right in.

The Voice has finally dragged itself to an end on ITV. Ruti Olajugbagbe, coached by Sir Tom Jones, was crowned winner and broke down in tears when her win was announced. Dreams by The Cranberries, will be her debut single, I hope it does well.

Gogglebox has been making headlines for a mixed bag of reasons over the last few weeks. The show has been running for five years and we now know that Jenny and Lee, the two in a caravan and the Siddiquis are our most popular families.

Happy viewing.

Marbella's super heroes in action

Marbella Moments by Nicole King

MANY interesting and positive ideas came up in the first two United Nationalities of Marbella summits.

Perhaps one of the most important was to create a leadership group to help action and follow up on the most relevant issues raised by the community.

This group has, over the past two years, become a reality and this year's event, #unms2018 counts not only on their presence but their involvement and support over the coming months to action the most relevant incentives.

No idea is too simple to be of significance, to someone. Here are some of the ideas submitted on 'post its' during previous events to give you an idea of what came up on these particular subjects:

Communication and promotion 12 months a year income

*Event calendars *Join art and culture groups ie inter-nations art.org *Protect people and animals working in tourism, rides, and carriages * Talk to each other *Update event calendars already exist, plus inform the press *Present Marbella as more than just beaches, Sierra Nevada also *Collaborate with tourists offering year round packages *Plant 'Dama de Noche' everywhere and make it our 'national' flower/fragrance

*Promote the 32 golf courses in and around Marbella - unique service *Make Marbella a centre for conferences, events, expand 'palacio de congresos.' *Work with the Spanish community *Give Marbella a rebrand to be more sustainable, focused to attract different people *Use music to bring people together as international language, festival like Eisteddfod. *Learn Spanish and don't isolate yourself within the 'guiris.'

Take the merits of all the culture of Marbella to make it even better.

Integration:

*Learn Spanish *Start with the kids, help them to be a part of the community *Face racism within the community *Start to change, teach and change *Don't think about them plus us *Embrace the culture of Spain plus learn about the politics and what's happening here *Love Marbella and remember why we moved here

*Be grateful that we've been so well received and not frustrated by it not being like back home *Take the merits of all the culture of Marbella to make it even better celebrated by national society community - art galleries - golf courses. *Learn from the kids, get on our part of the community *Find out what's going on in Spanish community before it happens.

Motorhome owners are generally respectable

WHAT a shame David and Sally have nothing better to do than complain about motorhomes pitching at Aguilas Carolina's.

The car park is not only for cars, it's for all vehicles including motorhomes. Costa's laws do not allow overnight parking, but is tolerated as these vehicles contribute to the local economy.

Most of the motorhome fraternity are elderly and retired, enjoying their new found freedom. We spend vast sums of money for our self-contained vehicles.

We do not leave our rubbish on the ground. Nor do we go behind bushes for a poo or wee, leaving tissue paper and faeces which cannot be said about the general public!

We are of a considerate and responsible age, having high regard for the environment in which we live.

I live locally and enjoy weekend trips to the beaches, something that cannot be experienced in the UK.

Would David and Sally be happy to see chiringuitos and homes demolished as they too are contravening Costa's laws??

LA CALA DE MIJAS may have a new tourist office but they are still behind the times with their time keeping.

asks for €100 million!

Perhaps the huge increase in hotel rates, tourist taxes, tourist protests (in some parts of Spain), villa registration requirements, huge fines to the booking agencies are all contributing to the great general public, looking to the likes of the Azores, Cape Verde, Egypt, Greece, Turkey. There's a fine line in a family budget and Spain should not expect loyalty when the price difference can run into hundreds of pounds.

Gordon Hulme

I think if hotel bookings are down it's because so many come out to holiday homes now, or stay in someone else's or visit grandparents, like my family do, if we didn't live here six families, including us would be looking for hotels, there are many like us now.

Tee'd off

ALTHOUGH not a keen writer I felt it time to put my frustration into words.

Can you imagine my disappointment when a couple of years ago I bought my dream retirement home on the Costa del Sol in beautiful El Faro only a stone's throw away from a great golf course?

Can you imagine how I felt when not only was I told membership is closed as it was at capacity but that the waiting list was also full?

Never in my life have I heard of a waiting list being full, who decides when it's full and why not just extend it?

I must say as a middle aged retired gentleman looking to spend my twilight years enjoying a knock two or three times a week here on the Costa this now looks like a distant dream and I've got to say I feel like I've been left in the ruff!

What's next, a waiting list to get onto the waiting list, but joking apart I find the whole thing pretty annoying! As a local tax paying middle aged gentleman spending my hard earned pension here on the Costa, without the only concession I feel I should be entitled to, this seems pretty rough justice.

Stephen Hamilton, Costa del Sol

Cover up!

THE first official sign of summer for me has just been sighted yesterday - a tourist walking around in shorts without a shirt on. I am not certain, but I think he was British!

Why do the authorities on the Costa del Sol not take a leaf out of the powersthat-be in Barcelona and ban people wearing swimwear and parading around without shirts away from the beaches?

I doubt if this letter will bring about any action as there have been many public complaints each summer without success, but it gets it off my chest. THE MOST RECOMMENDED INDEPENDENT TELECOMS PROVIDER IN SPAIN

Have you been hacked?

Views of a Grumpy Old Man

I GOT an email from MyFitnessPal telling me that they had been hacked and it had affected 150 million people. Firstly, let me tell you what this phone app does. It measures how far you walk, what calories you eat, carbs, fat, salt, etc, are all measured and then it tells you how your weight and healthy eating regime is doing.

My initial reaction was why anyone would be interested if I'd had a crafty Mars bar or hadn't walked as far as I should. But then I read more and began to get a little grumpy.

I was told that I had to change my password and also change the password on any other sites where I might use the same one. So that got me thinking. Why do they need so much information? Why does a site that measures how much weight you are losing have to be passworded in the first place? Then I realised that on all these sites we are not the customer we are the product! Our data is worth fortunes and these companies use us as a currency.

I checked online and was shocked that this hacking was actually very serious as the data includes peoples' whereabouts, your exact location, and this could include military personnel on secret military bases for example. At least this company reacted quickly - not like Uber (that I also have an account with) - who hid it from their punters by paying off the hackers! All your privacy settings go out the window when you are hacked. It's now a case of not what happens if you are hacked; it's what happens when you are hacked.

Our phones, and the apps on them, are gathering millions of data points about our lives on a daily basis. So what you eat and how many steps you take might not seem valuable to a hacker but where you work out and how long you are away from home and your exact location may well be.

I will now be going through all my apps on my phone and getting rid of the ones I do not use and which ask for too much information for, what I consider to be, no reason. I think the first I am going to get rid of is Facebook after what I have read in the last few days. In my opinion what they have done is verging on criminality.

But it's our own fault for mostly believing everything we read. As clever as we think we are these companies are cleverer with their data gathering. Big Brother is definitely watching us and so are his little sister, his mum and dad, and even the little innocent looking Granny too!

planning."

Awkward situations usually bring out the best in you and this week proves that. In the longer term, you will be grateful to those making things difficult now.

Get out in the fresh air as much as possible and be kind to your body. You may have neglected yourself because you have been such a busy bee of late. What about a trip to the seaside or a walk in the hills? Maybe a trip to the local cocktail bar is more vour style! Whatever puts a spring in your step will be good.

A fleeting meeting stirs feelings that you thought were dead.

This could be good if it reminds you of how life can be, or bad if it makes you think of missed opportunities. It is never too late to make a fresh start. Why not go on that painting holiday or stamp-collecting weekend? Pole dancing anyone?

Someone really has rattled your tree, but try to refrain from throwing coconuts on their head. It is much more effective to be charming and get them confused.

Are you feeling that you have been dealt a rough hand? Consider this: there are some who are not dealt a hand at all. Many are missing those few cards that mean they are never really in with a chance. Instead of lurking on the shady side, walk out into the sun.

(August 24 - September 23) A chance remark opens a can of worms. Trying to get them back in could turn out to be very messy. We all open our mouth and put our foot in it sometime. However, overreacting won't help. You will need help with something this week.

(September 24 - October 23) Someone who is usually quite the opposite to you will surprise with an offer. Although you are naturally suspicious, give them the benefit of the doubt. Leopards do not change their spots but they are capable of behaving for the bigger good.

An intimate meeting is less exciting than anticipated. This should not bother you because time could yet change that. You need to be in the right place at the right time, so don't give up hope, just have a little patience. A change of plans will be more beneficial than irksome, at least in the longer term.

(November 23 - December 21)

While counting your pennies, also count your blessings. Money can be a big problem or merely an irritation but the lack of it must be kept in perspective. You are right to think twice about accepting something that seems to be for nothing.

The goat in you is keen to find pastures new. It isn't a nibble that is needed at the moment, but a feast. Accepting anything less would be a mistake because someone is watching your reaction to an offer.

Slap on some cream

AS temperatures begin to soar and layers of clothing begin to be shredded, spare some thought for your skin and remember to cover yourself in sun cream.

Protecting yourself from the sun could be one of the most important things you do for yourself this year as the incidence of skin cancer continues to rise, particularly among voung adults.

Even if your skin tans easily, don't think you don't need sun protection. Skin turning brown is actually a sign of sun damage, even if there is no redness or peeling. It does this as a way of trying to protect itself because the UV rays are damaging living cells. And don't shy away from using a high sun protection factor. Even SPF 50 only blocks up to 98 per cent of UV radiation.

Remember, skin cancer is serious and was the direct cause of over 2,500 deaths in each of Spain and the UK last year. Treatment for skin cancer involves much more than simply having a lesion removed.

It can include major surgery, chemotherapy and can result in permanent scarring. Skin cancer can also spread to other parts of your body. The good news is that it is almost totally preventable, so follow the advice of the Aussies and take these five steps to protect yourself: 'Slip, Slop, Slap, Seek and Slide!'

Military training - support

those who have served

ONE of the defining events in who I am and the kind of physiotherapist I am was my training in the UK Military specifically the Royal Air Force (RAF).

Military Physio

Without the opportunity the RAF gave me I couldn't have become a physiotherapist at all.

The fact the training I received, the people I had the opportunity to work with, were so unbelievably excellent is a huge dollop of icing on an already fabulous cake!

We had opportunities and experience that aren't available to civilians and many of the people who I trained with or taught us have gone on to be physiotherapy superstars! The RAF touch

Shake up your muscles

WITH summer drawing ever closer, many people are starting to think about getting lean and muscular to swagger with confidence along the seafront.

Of course, in addition to watching your diet and attending the gym as much as possible, there are other things you can do - or rather take - to help you achieve your goals. And all you need is some protein powder, a shaker bottle and some water.

Protein supplements are an ever-popular option that can improve lean body mass and muscle strength. Fundamentally, they are shakes that consist of whey protein, although milk, soy, casein, egg, hemp, rice, and pea protein powders are also popular. Taken after a strenuous workout, protein shakes deliver amino acids to muscle cells and help them to recover. In addition to this, they manufacture hormones, enzymes, cellular messengers, nucleic acids and immune-system components, so they can be very beneficial for the body as a whole. Without adequate protein, our bodies can't put together the structures that make up every cell, tissue, and organ in our body, nor can it generate the substances needed for cardiovascular function, muscle contraction, growth, and healing. Absorbing enough protein is important as without an adequate amount our muscles wouldn't heal up as quickly, which could lead to overtraining vour muscle and causing injury.

Downing a protein shake is an easy way to get your protein if you work a full time job and don't always have time to prepare meals. However, do bear in mind that protein shakes can only make a small contribution. You will also need to train properly and eat right to get the results you're after.

> PROTEIN SUPPLEMENTS: Down a protein shake after a sweaty session.

Tackling the problem head on

WHERE once the only solution to a balding head was the dreaded toupee, now men of all ages can consider the much more convincing option of a hair transplant. In fact, some of our most loved - or hated - footballers and politicians, such as Wavne Rooney and Silvio Berlusconi, have tackled their receding hairline problem head on.

The surgery itself is becoming less expensive and less intrusive and the results can bring vigour and confidence back into a man's life. The process involves removing hair from elsewhere in your body, usually the back of your head, to fill a specific balding area. This can be achieved by one of two methods, follicular unit strip surgery (FUSS) or follicular unit extraction (FUE). Which type you choose depends on your hair type, quality, colour and the size of the area where you're getting the transplant. As the name suggests, FUSS involves a 15-25cm strip of skin being removed. This strip is divided into hundreds or thousands of tiny grafts, each with an individual hair or just a few hairs. The FUE procedure, involves individual hair follicles being removed one by one.

After either process, the tiny grafts or individual hair follicles are carefully inserted into tiny holes or slits which have been opened up where the hair is needed. The whole process can take up to eight hours, depending on the size of the transplant you're having. A few weeks after your surgery, the transplanted hair will fall out but new growth should start to appear within a few months. Within nine months your balding spot will have about 60 per cent more hair and vou will feel a new man

Music for all in Mijas Pueblo

FOUR national and international bands will be playing in Mijas Pueblo during April and May at the Casa Museo.

Entitled Music in the Courtyard, the initiative is being promoted by Mijas Council and complements last year's free performances in La Cala de Miias.

It is the intention of the councillor for Culture Hipólito Zapico to ensure that the Casa Museo becomes a dynamic structure which will attract visitors to the village and the museum.

Each of the four concerts will start at 8pm in the courtyard of the Casa Museo and entry will be free of charge.

Next Friday, April 20, sees the arrival of painter and musician Victor Coyote who first came to notice with his band The Coyotes which was part of what became known as the 'Madrid Madrileña' during the 1980s.

After going solo in the 1990s, his performances are considered to be quite eccentric yet guaranteed to entertain.

Next on Friday May 18, the almost legendary Los Brisks who were formed in Ceuta in the 1960s have reformed and are touring the country. The band began its journey in the 1960s, touring Spain, Portugal, Morocco and even playing the Star Club in Hamburg.

Tuesday May 22 will be when Finnish group, Avonia Quarteto de Guitarra will perform a selection of both Spanish and Finnish music.

Mayor Ana Mula (centre) announces the event.

International Day of Dance

THE six dance groups in Fuengirola will be celebrating the International Day of Dance in Fuengirola on Friday April 20.

A range of ages and sexes will appear on stage at the Palacio de la Paz from 8.30pm in anticipation of the actual day which is April 29.

Previous events have been based on different themes including the Earth and the Sea, but this year the groups will have a free rein to present what they believe most embodies the theme of Dance.

Whilst each group will perform separately, there will be a very special, surprise finale where all of the groups will work together to present an interpretation of a topic that should be very close to the hearts of all who see it.

Admission to the event is free until all seats are taken.

Delicious home-made Yorkshire puddings

PRECISE ingredient quantities and times are not always necessary in home cooking, but there are always exceptions and this is one of them:

Yorkshire puddings (Serves four)

15ml cooking oil 285ml milk (whole, semi-skimmed, skimmed are all fine)

115 grams flour (all purpose)

2 eggs

1 pinch of salt

Preheat the oven to 200 Celsius for a fan oven, 220 Celsius for a conventional oven

Take a Yorkshire pudding tin that will hold six-eight puddings and evenly distribute in the indentations of the tray. Using a finger, wipe the oil so it covers the indentations with a thin film of oil.

Tips:

From experience using a finger to coat the tray works better than using kitchen roll.

If the flour is added before the milk all of it will not be incorporated into the mix and the quantities will be incorrect.

A hand blender is ideal, but anything that beats the mixture to a uniform consistency will work just as well, the se-

Place the tray in the preheated oven for at least 10 minutes so it gets hot enough.

When the tray is hot enough add the ingredients to a mixing bowl or a blender, but it's very important to add them in the above order with the milk first. Blend the mixture.

Take the tray out of the oven and immediately pour the mixture into the tray indentations and put back in the oven. Cook for 20-25 minutes.

The mixture must go into the oven ASAP, the air trapped in the mix is essential for good Yorkshire puddings.

After placing in the oven, keep an eye on the puddings through the glass but do not open the door, until cooking is complete or the puddings will sag.

They should be crisp on the outside and soft in the middle. Any leftover batter can be used to thicken the gravy.

Art Gaucin Open Studios 2018

THE Art Gaucin Open Studios weekends have become a well-known fixture of the art scene in Andalucia, with exhibitions of work by several Spanish and foreign artists.

Now well into its second decade, the Art Gaucin Open Studios event is an opportunity to meet the artists, learn more about their work and techniques. and see and buy their paintings, sculptures, prints, photographs and ceramics.

The event is set in the picturesque village of Gaucin, one of the famous white pueblos near Estepona and Ronda.

This year, the event will take place over two long weekends - Friday May 25 to Sunday May 27, and Friday June 1 to Sunday June 3 - and will showcase new work by Art Gaucin's member artists as well as by guest artists Javier Machimbarrena from Spain and Gerrit Oppelland-Hampel from Germany.

It has ancient castle ruins, offers spectacular views across the coast and towards Africa, and provides plenty of places to linger over a coffee, tapas or something more substantial while enjoying those panoramas as the village has several popular and celebrated restaurants.

Local artisans will also be showing a selection of jewellery, blankets and other handmade crafts.

The Geeks are back in town

THIS weekend, from Friday to Sunday players, developers and lovers of technology and information will descend on the El Limón Pavilion in Alhaurin de la Torre.

This is the first time that Ultralan (www.ultralan.es) the festival of geek culture, computer science and videogame has visited the town, but it looks as if those who enjoy this culture and want to play games, enter tournaments and attend workshops will be arriving from far and wide.

The event offers a programme of conferences and workshops given by professionals from the videogame sector, technology and creative industries.

Perhaps surprisingly, many of these activities are either physical or sports based in order to persuade some of the geeks to avoid too sedentary a lifestyle. Cosplay, video game creation contest, video and illustration contests, videogame tournaments and art workshops are other attractions.

Some of the events will continue overnight as various teams will be competing which means that it is even possible for those attending to set up tents within the area and in view of this, a number of food trucks, stalls and vending machines will be present to meet the demand of visitors and participants on a 24-hour basis.

Entry for visitors is free and access to the LAN party which can often cost up to \in 70 will be just \in 29 thanks to support from the council and sponsors. This reduced price allows for camping and connection for their personal computer to the high speed Ultralan network.

This young and vibrant orchestra will be performing at the Teatro Canovas, Plaza del Ejido 5, 29013 Malaga at 6.30pm on Saturday

DA BRUNO

April 21 and noon on Sunday April 22 with admission costing just €6 plus 40c handling fee from the El Corte Ingles website

The orchestra is particularly praiseworthy as older students help as volunteers in the training of the youngest children, creating a very special relationship between all of the participants.

Promúsica has become one of the most important new projects for young musicians who are interested in playing stringed instruments in the country and Malaga is one of the main cities in which training takes place.

The kitchen garden, a quality extension of the food pantry

GRAEME TYRRELL

THROUGHOUT history, even as far back as the ancient Egyptians, a place to grow fresh vegetables, herbs and medicinal flowers with easy access to the home was considered an important aspect of a quality lifestyle.

HOMES SU www.euroweeklynews.co SPONSORED BY

www.euroweeklynews.com

A kitchen garden is distinct from agricultural production in that it is much more up close and personal to the specific needs of the home. No matter how small or big, it was a place that gave fresh additions to the family fare.

Its main attribute is that it can bring joy to the home as the plants are cared for so they flourish until the harvest after which they can be enjoyed in your meal.

No matter whether you live in an apartment or on a farm you can grow at least a few of your favourite fresh herbs and some of the compact vegetables that you love to use regularly.

My mother grew tomatoes in her living room by a sunlit corner window and had abundant crops. It was a great point of interest and can look as attractive as many other indoor plants.

If you have some land to put a kitchen garden you are fortunate. It is a good idea to have it enclosed by a wall or fence to provide shelter from the wind, restrict access from unwanted animals that may damage the garden and to establish it as a special place just for its pur-

Usually a countryside kitchen garden is not linearly designed like in agriculture. It becomes more special by having a theme such as an informal cottage garden or an elaborate symmetrical formal garden design to make it interesting Many restaurants now have kitchen gardens to provide the best of quality produce and add to the meals for patrons with discerning taste. Nothing tastes as good as produce freshly picked and prepared immediately for the table.

A kitchen garden can be grown in a restricted space such as a balcony or terrace using attractive terracotta containers, or you can build raised bed constructions out of a variety of interesting materials to blend in or stand out as a landscape feature

Simply fill it with some quality potting mixture and add some nutrient fertilisers and you can have a kitchen garden growing in just a short time.

I find that fresh herbs can really make the most difference to a meal. If you have only a small space, some chives, parsley, oregano and basil planted around some tomatoes and capsicums in a large pot is a great basis for many Mediterranean meals. They all give a longterm harvest with minimal extra work.

The kitchen garden is a space you can visit daily to provide care and watch over the plants growing and provide you with your own choice of produce, adding flavour and nourishment to your kitchen preparations.

There are loads of possibilities to improve the quality of your lifestyle, if you decide to make your own kitchen garden it will enhance your prospects.

Proper propagation

NOW is the perfect time of year to propagate softwood cuttings from some of your favourite plants around your balcony or garden.

Apart from the joy it brings to see your new plants grow, this is the cheapest way to multiply your flora and attract more pollinators this summer.

To grow a new plant from a cutting, use scissors or a knife to cut just below the leaf joint or node to create a cutting of about 5-10cm.

Remove the lower leaves, pinch out the soft tip and dip two-thirds of this cutting into some hormone rooting powder.

Then bury this length of the stem into a pot full of soil, leaving the first pair of leaves just above the level of the compost.

Cover the pot with a plastic bag and place this somewhere warm.

Remove the bag for a few minutes at least twice a week to allow the cutting to breathe.

Within three to five weeks your cutting will produce new roots

Once these roots have taken hold, your softwood will eventually grow into a firm stem.

The new plant will be an identical clone of the parent plant, producing new versions of your favourite flowers for years to come.

> IDEAL START: Plant the softwood in moist soil.

THE RAF, the first independent Air Force in the world, is celebrating a century of service in 2018

Last year inspired by and in anticipation, luxury sports car manufacturer, Aston Martin commissioned a unique series of sports cars to mark that service, a limited edition of 10 Vanquish S Red Arrows editions.

The Vanquish S Red Arrows is the result of collaboration between Q by Aston Martin, the Royal Air Force and Aston Martin Cambridge with approval from the Ministry of Defence, resulting in one of the most exclusive Aston Martins ever built.

Just 10 of the Red Arrows inspired cars were constructed, each with special design features, hand crafted interiors and graphic elements drawn from the language of aviation as well as the skill and agility of the RAF's acclaimed official aerobatic unit, the Red Arrows.

Why 10 cars when the Red Arrows perform in a diamond formation of nine Hawk jets? Because the 10th was gifted to the RAF Benevolent Fund

The Aston Martin Red10 was raffled in support of the fund, and more than 70,000 tickets were sold, raising more than £1.5 million. The winner of the raffle and lucky owner of the Aston Martin Red10 supercar, Humphry Bradley said: "I was totally shocked to win such an incredible prize, absolutely gobsmacked. I am honoured to have supported a service charity and the RAF Benevolent Fund undertakes some truly incredible work supporting the RAF family. As an ex-service man myself I know how important the work of charities like the fund is."

> The Vanquish Special Edition is finished in striking Eclat Red, mirroring the livery of the Hawk jets and referencing the word 'Eclat,' the Red Arrows' motto. Subtle details enhance the body work and interior from white and blue carbon detailing to the white smoke

Exposed carbon fibre roof panels include a 'charge pattern' imitating the design of a fast jet with Union Jack enamel wing badges and a titanium exhaust complete the exterior design.

Inside Red Arrows and RAF inspired details abound, Pinewood green inserts evoke the classic flight suit and Martin Baker ejection seat fabric together with the green webbing seatbelts.

The signature Red Arrows emblem of nine aircraft in a classic diamond formation is embroidered on the seat backs, together with unique sill and engine inspection plaques. Each car is signed by the equivalent Red Arrows pilots, one through to 10.

The cabin is finished in a 2+0 configuration allowing for rear mounted stowage of twin racing helmets, both finished in the Red Arrows livery. Each Vanquish S Red Arrows owner also receives bespoke accessories including racing helmets, racing suits, embroidered bomber jackets and bespoke luggage.

Editions one to nine are available for £275,000 (\in 315,400) on the road, while the raffle winner owns Aston Martin Red10.

IRENE MONTERO, partner of Podemos supremo Pablo Iglesias announced on Facebook that she was expecting twins, addressing her followers as vosotras y vosotros. The wordiness is inevitable in someone who insists on using the hybrid portavoza for spokeswoman instead of portavoz which does for both males and females

The twins' sex has not been announced but if there's one of each, doubtless she will have to use twice as many words as any other mother.

Jailhouse rock

ONE of the Catalans' greatest disfavours to Spain is claiming that they are persecuted democrats in an undemocratic state.

This wasn't the view taken by the Schlewig-Holstein's Public Prosecutor who requested the extradition of self-exiled, former regional president of Cataluña, Carles Puigdemont for rebellion and misappropriation of public funds.

It was rebellion, according to the Germans, because he insisted on going ahead with the vetoed October 1 referendum, knowing it would spark violence.

There was a risk that Puigdemont, who had been swanning around in Denmark, would scarper, the German Public Prosecutor decided.

It was up to the Schleswig-Holstein court to

> It doesn't add up

MANCHESTER CITY manager Pep Guardiola appears to be all in favour of the Proces towards Catalan independence.

He has worn his yellow ribbon with pride and felt that paying the equivalent of €22,925 for wearing it at FA matches was cheap at the price.

"This isn't about independence, it's about democracy," insisted Guardiola who wears the ribbon to demonstrate his support for the separatist politicians who have been remanded since last October.

"All that we six million have achieved in these years, taking the streets, we have achieved peacefully," the ex-footballer told an interviewer not long ago.

Years before separatism gained its present momentum, he might have been right but the Catalan police, the Mossos d'Esquadra, admitted there were 250 violent acts during the Proces, often targeting the Constitutionalist parties and politicians.

Pep minimised that one, but definitely maximised the six million who took to the streets, considering that Cataluña has a population of 7.5 million.

He might be a pretty good trainer but he's lousy at arithmetic.

aratist's ears, but the sort they can expect to hear, possibly to the tune of 'Jailhouse Rock'.

When in Rome

PABLO IGLESIAS visited the former Argentinian president, Cristina Kirchner. She is due to stand trial for an alleged cover-up of Iran's involvement in the 1994 bombing of a Jewish community centre in Buenos Aires.

Not a problem for our Pablo who stressed the Peronista roots of Podemos, buttering up Kirchner, who is a Peronista. And there were we, thinking the party had Bolivarian roots, thanks to the Venezuela connection when Iglesias and other party founders were Hugo Chavez's assessors.

In Cataluña Iglesias flirts with independence because he needs the votes and does a reverse turn anywhere else because he needs the votes. Peronista, Bolivarian, Separatist, Constitutionalist - seems Iglesias either likes doing as the Romans do, or can't make up his mind.

Compassionate care

THE treatment of humans requires at least 21 specialists to look after somebody from prenatal days to post-mortem. Yet there is only one person who must be everything for a dog. That is the vet or, as the Americans say with deeper respect, veterinarian.

Much progress in many directions of pet care has been made in the last few years and many vets have invested in modern equipment to enable your dog to benefit from new techniques.

So, with a good, modern vet you are paying not just for the examination, but also for the time they have spent keeping up with the latest developments and for the equipment they have installed in their surgery.

Prepare your dog to visit the vet. It should have inoculations and boosters every year, worming tablets every three months, the only effective worming products being available from the vet.

A visit can be a problem if the dog does not like to be examined. It helps if, from an early age, you have accustomed your dog to be handled by yourself and different people. Reassure the dog and reward with praise and tit-bits.

Most vets will examine the dog on a table. So train your dog by lifting it onto a suitable table to get it used to the idea. Hold the dog in a comfortable position for a few seconds, praising and reassuring, then give it a tit-bit and gently lift it off. Never let a dog jump off the table by itself. Put a mat or cover on the table so that it is not slippery.

After a visit to your vet you may have to continue a course of treatment at home. This can include giving pills or liquid medicine (or ally), applying ointments to eyes, ears and skin, giving eye or ear drops. Again, if the dog has been accustomed to being handled, all these tasks will be a lot easier. Pills can by disguised inside a small piece of butter, margarine or cheese.

Do not give dogs any medicine unless prescribed by a vet. Never accept advice from unqualified people including pet shop staff, dog breeders, dog trainers, behaviourists and the person a friend knows who had a dog with the same sort of symptoms.

Never put anything in your dog's ears. Look, but don't poke. If there are discharges or smells, go to your vet. Do not put any drops or ointment into your dog's eyes unless told to do so by a vet. Do not interfere with any lumps, bumps, wounds, cysts, rashes or anything else on your dog's body. Consult your yet.

After surgery, it can be a problem to get a dog to rest and recuperate, especially if there are other dogs in the house. As soon as a dog starts feeling better, it will want to return to normal activity. Supervision and crating are the only answers while remembering that, unlike humans, sick dogs do not want to be pampered.

Need vetted live-in pet-sitters for your holiday?

MAXI from Fuengirola is still young and needs home-sitters

When your pets are young, just as when they are old, we prefer to have someone at home caring for them as we would want ourselves. Holidays and planning for holidays can be a challenge when we have pets, regardless of their age. As they get older, they become less flexible and more prone to stress in new surroundings or meeting a constant flow of new people.

Does this apply to you?

Maxi's owner contacted us to help find someone to care for her one-year-old pup at home. Enter Kristen, our new house-sitter from Iceland. The two met a day before the owners were due to fly on holiday and a friendship was formed.

How do you benefit as a home and pet owner? By joining the HouseSitMatch network you can meet experienced and checked sitters safely online. For a small annual fee you can be part of the managed network that allows you to meet sitters online, and make arrangements for them to look after your pets and property. What is more is that the sitters do not charge a penny, they look af-so choose wisely!

TO keep a high-maintenance dog happy and healthy, they deserve a bit of TLC just as much as everyone else. And what better way than a haircut to keep their locks clean and mat-free.

Trimming things down can also keep your dog cool in the summer and can make grooming a little easier depending on the style you choose.

In vogue this year is the Lion cut.

This cut is defined by a short trim all over the body, with long hair left around the head and jaw to create the look of a Lion's mane. The tail is trimmed short until the end with a small tuft of hair left at the end.

Also, popular this year is the teddy bear cut. To ach- ieve this look, groomers will trim the hair around your dog's head and face evenly and leave it

MOTORING FACT

AUDI has turned a dream into reality for Gran Turismo video game racers after revealing the Audi e-tron Vision Gran Turismo, a new electric powered supercar.

The supercar will serve as a race taxi at selected Formula E events and will also offer high-speed passenger rides to lucky guests. Its first outing will be at the Rome Formula E race this Saturday.

As the name suggests, the Audi e-tron Vision Gran Turismo is based on a virtual race car that features in the 15th anniversary of the Gran Turismo video game on Sony's PlayStation 4. The marketing stunt by Audi forms part of its wider effort to strengthen its new e-tron electric car subbrand. The sub-brand also includes three other battery propelled e-tron models: the e-tron Quattro, the e-tron Sportback and the e-tron GT. The former is set for release in the second half of 2018 and the latter, more exclusive model, has its first deliveries scheduled for 2020. This most recent addition to the electric which can accelerate from 0 to 62mph in 2.5 seconds swiftly chips away at the long-held Clarksonite belief that electric vehicles will never be able to rival its combustion engine counterparts.

But the success of the electric supercar in overturning this notion rests largely on the continued progress of electric batteries. Audi has not yet provided information on the battery used by e-tron Vision Gran Turismo. However, car review website, Autocar reports that the supercar will share the lithium-ion unit set to be used in the production version of the e-tron Quattro due to be rolled out later this year.

SEAT joins electric bandwagon

SPANISH carmaker, SEAT has announced plans to launch its first fully electric hatchback model, which is set to hit the market in 2020.

The move confirms that electrification is at the heart of the Spanish car manufacturer's plans for the foreseeable future. While full specification of the eco-vehicle has vet to be revealed, the model will be a five-door hatchback, similar in size and price to its popular Leon model and will be based on Volkswagen's ID Neo car, a company with whom its research endeavours are closely tied.

SEAT's bold electrification strategy indicates that car manufacturers are paying close attention to the EU's strict new CO2 emission targets. The EU's tough regulation champions a double pronged approach: on the one hand, fining heavily for exceeding carbon dioxide limits, and on the other, using an incentivesbased credit system to reward companies choosing to produce electric vehicles.

SEAT bagged record post-tax profits of €281min 2017, up 21.3 per cent on 2016's results.

La Liga Preview

Barca march on

BARCELONA entertain third placed Valencia on Saturday looking to set a La Liga record of 39 games unbeaten.

Lionel Messi scored a hat-trick last Saturday as the runaway leaders defeated Leganes 3-1 to share the incredible unbeaten streak with Real Sociedad.

Not to be outdone, Cristiano Ronaldo scored in a 10th straight game for Real Madrid, although they were held to a 1-1 derby draw by Atletico Madrid.

The two rival teams will continue to battle for second place until the end of the season.

Elsewhere, Malaga's battle to beat the drop took a major blow last Friday as direct rivals Deportivo La Coruña scored late to make it 3-2, giving manager Clarence Seedorf his first win (in 16 games).

Deportivo have now leapfrogged Las Palmas into 18th place, six points

Malaga will host Real Madrid on Sunday which is a daunting enough task aside from the fact that they are 11 points from safety.

On Saturday Sevilla will look to get back into the Europa League spots against Villarreal, who are only one place (sixth) and one point above them in the league.

Former Sevilla striker Iago Aspas scored a hat-trick last Saturday as Celta Vigo recorded a thumping 4-0 victory over the Andalucian side.

Other fixtures this weekend will see Girona take on Real Betis, in Friday's fixture, Real Sociedad will travel to Las Palmas on Saturday, and Atletico Madrid will host Levante on Sunday.

City head to London in title hunt

MANCHESTER CITY'S dramatic 3-2 loss to Manchester United last Saturday has put their title aspirations on ice.

The Citizens have a difficult game at Tottenham on Saturday and even if they win, Manchester United would have to lose at home against West Brom on Sunday for them to be crowned champions.

Pep Guardiola's side had put on a first-half masterclass with captain Vincent Kompany scoring with a powerful header and Ilkay Gundogan seemingly settling matters with a smart turn and finish five minutes later.

However, Paul Pogba scored two goals in two minutes after the break to wipe out City's lead, before Chris Smalling's volley completed the stunning turnaround.

Elsewhere, Liverpool will host Bournemouth on Saturday as they look to stay in second placed Manchester United's rear-view mirror.

The Reds were held to a forgettable goalless draw at Everton, although Premier League top scorer Mohamed Salah (29) was rested among five changes to the team.

Fifth placed Chelsea will travel to Southampton on Saturday, hoping to keep their slim hopes of a top four (and Champions league) finish alive.

The Blues played out a frustrating 1-1 draw against West Ham last Sunday as Javier Hernandez's 73rd minute strike cancelled out Cesar Azpilicueta's first-half opener.

Tottenham are the only side yet to lose in 2018 in the Premier League and remain level on points with thirdplaced Liverpool after a 2-1 win at Stoke.

Bottom of the table West Brom remain 10 points from safety after their 1-1 draw against Swansea, while Crystal Palace remain one place above the relegation zone having conceded an 89th minute goal to Bournemouth in a 2-2 draw last Saturday.

Among the weekend's fixtures will be Palace hosting Brighton, Leicester travelling to Burnley, and Newcastle entertaining Arsenal.

Resolute Reed claims Masters title

PATRICK REED held off an incredible final-round surge from Jordan Spieth and a late attack from Rickie Fowler to clinch Masters glory at Augusta.

Rory McIlroy's day never really got off the ground and he failed to pose a threat after missing a series of short putts.

Spieth however, came from nine shots behind to fire himself level with Read when he drained his ninth birdie of a stunning round at the 16th hole.

But an agonising bogey at the last gave overnight leader Reed the break he needed and while not setting the world alight, Reed's one under 71 card was enough to claim the green jacket.

Reed became the fourth first-time major winner in succession at Augusta, finishing 15 under and one shot ahead of Rickie Fowler.

Spieth's last-hole shank into the trees cost him second place, but even finishing the day in third represented a remarkable achievement.

In contract, Fowler sank a six-foot birdie at the 18th to pip him, while Reed made a crucial par putt at 17 and held his nerve at the last from three feet to claim golfing immortali-

World number 24 Reed is the ninth first-time major winner in the past 12 Masters and all four major championships are now held by Americans.

Garcia suffers Masters meltdown

DEFENDING Masters Champion Sergio Garcia had a Masters to forget as he suffered a nightmare in Thursday's opening round before missing the cut with the highest ever cumulative score for a defending champion.

The Spaniard saw all hopes of defending the green jacket disappear on the 15th hole in the first round, as he hit a 13 on the par 5, finding the water five times, before finishing the day nine-over par.

Garcia then posted a six over 78 in the second round which saw him finish at 15 over, a full 10 shots adrift from the weekend's cut mark.

The 38-year-old had eagled the iconic 15th during last year's memorable play-off with Justin Rose en route to securing his maiden major, but capitulated on the hole during his year's opening round.

Having come into the hole on two-over par, Garcia had set himself up nicely off the tee, finding the middle of the fairway, and chose to try and hit the green in two, but his shot ended up in the hazard.

He returned to the drop zone and saw his next attempt end in similar circumstances, before he managed to find the green on his next shot, but saw the ball roll back into the water.

The Spaniard saw another two attempts end up in the hazard before eventually finding the green on his 12th attempt, before rolling in a 10-foot putt as he tied the highest ever score for a single hole at Augusta.

"It's one of those things," Garcia told Sky Sports following the first round.

"It's the first time in my career where I make a 13 without missing a shot. Simple as that.

"I felt like I hit a lot of good shots and unfortunately the ball just didn't want to stop. It's just unlucky, but that's what it is.

"I had 206 [yards]. I had a six-iron. I thought it was perfect. Straight at the flag. I don't know, if it carries two more feet, it's probably good. And if it carries a foot less, it probably doesn't go off the green, but unfortunately I flew it on the perfect spot for it to come back.

"And then I kept hitting good shots with the sand wedge and unfortunately I don't know why, the ball just wouldn't stop."

A six-over 78 in the second round saw the defending champion finish third bottom overall in the standing, while he also joined a list of nine other defending champions to have missed out on the weekend's play.

bottom in the standings.

RUGBY'S leading governing body World Rugby has ordered an emergency review into European qualification for next year's World Cup amid Spain's complaints following their controversial defeat to Belgium.

Norma del Sol

Spain's 18-10 defeat to Belgium in the final match of qualification, overseen by Romanian referee Vlad Iordachescu, meant that Spain missed out on automatic qualification to next year's World Cup instead allowing Romania to qualify.

Following the defeat, a complaint was submitted to Rugby Europe by the Spanish Rugby Federation (FER), who felt aggrieved by 19 separate decisions from the referee, while it was also revealed that the FER had asked Rugby Europe for the referees to be changed prior to the match.

Following an investigation from both World Rugby and Rugby Europe, World Rugby had said that a replay of the match would be 'in the best in-

In light of the new allegations, World Rugby have now set up an 'independent disputes committee' to look into the different issues now surrounding the qualifying process.

A World Rugby statement said: "World Rugby was deeply concerned about the circumstances surrounding the Belgium versus Spain Rugby Europe Championship match, a match that was decisive in the context of Rugby World Cup 2019 qualification.

Nadal and Ferrer inspire Davis Cup comeback

RAFAEL NADAL and David Ferrer led the Spanish fight back on the final day of their Davis Cup quarter-final as they secured a 3-2 victory over Germany.

The Germans had taken a shock 2-1 lead coming into the final day with Tim Puetz and Jan-Lennard Struff, stunning Feliciano Lopez and Mark Lopesz in the doubles after Nadal's victory over Philipp Kohlschreiber had cancelled out Alexander Zverev's opening win against David Ferrer

But Nadal, who has not lost at the Davis Cup since 2005, picked up his 24th consecutive victory in the Davis Cup as he swept aside Alexander Zverev in straight sets 6-1, 6-4, 6-4 to force a fifth deciding rubber between Ferrer and Kohlschreiber

And 36-year-old Ferrer completed the comeback as he produced an emphatic five-set victory over World Number 34 Kohlschreiber taking the match 7-6 (7-1) 3-6 7-6 (7-4) 4-6 7-5 after five hours.

Spain will now face holders France in the next round in September after they beat Italy 3-1 to reach their third semi-final in a row, while Croatia will play the USA in the other semi-final.
