THE parents of an Irish girl who drowned in a Costa del Sol swimming pool have paid tribute to their 'tiny Wonder Woman.'

It comes after four-year-old Georgia Anne Callan drowned at a rented villa on Calle San Joaquin, just off Marbella's Golden Mile.

The youngster from Ardclough, Co Kildare, is believed to have climbed out of a paddling pool before falling into the adult pool.

One of the victim's parents was with her at the time and well-placed sources said she was briefly distracted while talking with other adults who are believed to be friends.

They are understood to have been coming to the end of a month-long family holiday when the tragedy struck.

The alarm was raised at 10.30 in the morning on Saturday July 28, but medics were unable to resuscitate her.

TRAGEDY: Georgia Anne Callan died after falling into a swimming pool.

Mums Emeline Callan and Jacqueline Russell said in a statement they are "devastated by her loss."

They added: "Georgia was our own tiny Wonder Woman. "A happy, playful, brave, gentle and funny girl, she loved nothing more than making new friends and wearing princess dresses everywhere. "Georgia loved everyone, and her pets were amongst her dearest friends.

"She sought beauty, goodness and fun wherever she was. She brought immense joy to our lives and to the lives of everyone who knew her.

"We love her deeply. We will miss her more than we can say. We are devastated by her loss.

"We ask that you respect our privacy, and the privacy of our family and friends at this incredibly difficult and sad time."

The family thanked the police, medics, and Irish Embassy staff for 'their professionalism, support and care.'

Georgia's funeral took place last Friday and mourners were asked to 'dress cheerfully' in a bid to ensure her 'bright, sparkling personality lives on.'

Spanish police have confirmed they are treating the death as accidental.

Water trouble

WATER problems in the Marina Baixa have started, with residents of the Altea Hills urbanisation warned not to use their water for cooking or drinking. The inland municipality of Tarbena has now been told to brace itself for cuts every night between 10pm to 7am. It is not known if wider restrictions will be imposed.

Heavy problem

THE family of a 350-kilo man is complaining that he is being discharged from a Valencia hospital even though they do not have the facilities to care for him at home. They say he has unhealed sores, and the ambulance services do not even have a stretcher capable of taking his weight.

Tremors

AN earthquake of magnitude 4.2 was felt in Alicante City on Monday afternoon. According to the National Geographic Institute, it occurred 10km deep in the town of Albatera in the province of Alicante. but was felt throughout the whole province and in the community of Murcia at 4.40pm.

THIS is Barcelona, but not as you know it.

Iakov Filimonov's picture shows one of the city's streets decked out in glorious colour bunting for its annual Fiesta Mayor de Gracia in 2015. This year's edition kicked off yesterday (Wednesday).

The festival, which includes concerts, dances and model displays, pays homage to the Catalan capital's Gracia district.

The area was once a town until Barcelona incorporated it in 1897. The fiesta has been used to assert the district's identity since the early 19th century.

Local monks chose to throw a festival on August 15, the day of the assumption of the Virgin Mary, after a convent was demolished in 1812.

When Gracia briefly became an independent entity with its own town hall in 1850 it adopted the celebration as an annual event. The decking of streets in a variety of multicoloured styles also began around this time.

The festival took on a rebellious nature during the dictatorship of Francisco France who attempted to repress Catalan culture. Fiesta goers used it as a means to demonstrate against his regime.

It began to fall out of fashion in the 1970's until Cataluña's regional government declared it a festival of national interest in 1997.

Mafia gangs plan

POLICE have blamed Georgian mafia for a spate of burglaries in Valencia.

They have put a special plan into operation and ordered uniformed patrols to keep a special look out for signs of break-ins after an 80 per cent rise in burglaries so far this summer.

In the last week of June alone 9 per cent more burglaries were recorded in the city.

And the problem is said to be affecting the whole of the coast as well as regions as far away as Andalucia, Madrid and Barcelona as Eastern European gangs have moved in to Spain using Valencia as their HO.

So far dozens of police officers have been assigned to the anti-burglary squad, with immigration officers also brought in to check the paperwork of suspicious individuals and vehicles.

So far 30 alleged members of two separate crime syndicates have been arrested.

UNPUBLISHED: Hemingway's (inset) book is set in the Paris Ritz hotel.

Story surfaces

AN unpublished short story from American author Ernest Hemingway about life in Paris after the Second World War is set to be released for the first time.

A Room on the Garden Side was written in 1956. The author, who spent much of his life in Spain as well as France, talks about his affection for both countries through the story's narrator and main character, Robert.

"I loved France and Spain next to my own country. I loved other countries too but the debt was paid and I thought that the account was closed, not knowing the accounts are never closed," Robert says.

The story has until now only been seen by a handful of scholars and academics. It sees characters debating 'the dirty trade of war' in one of Hemingway's favourite haunts, the Paris Ritz hotel.

Andrew F Gulli, an editor at Strand which is publishing the short story, said in a note introducing the work that Hemingway was paying homage to Paris in it.

"Hemingway's deep love for his favourite city as it just emerging from Nazi occupation is on full display, as are the hallmarks of his prose," Strand said.

The author sent the story along with several others to his publisher Charles Scibner Jr and told him they were 'a little shocking' due to their themes of war.

'Anyway, you can always publish them after I'm dead,' he said in a note to Scribner.

War and travel were prominent themes in many of Hemingway's books. The Sun Also Rises, one of his first successes, centres on the protagonist Jake Barnes and his friends who journey to Pamplona to witness the Running of the Bulls.

Hemingway lived in various places across Spain in the 1930's. He travelled to Madrid in 1937 following the outbreak of the Spanish Civil War the previous year to make The Spanish Earth, a documentary about the Republican war effort.

The experience went on to inspire Hemingway's novel For Whom The Bell Tolls. The story follows an American volunteer named Robert Jordan who is sent behind fascist lines near Segovia to fight with Republican guerrillas.

Baby left in car dies

A BABY girl has died after being left in a scorching car for eight hours in 30C heat in Mallorca.

The 10-month-old's grandfather told police he forgot she was in the back of his car when he went for a coffee at 7am

He only discovered his mistake when he returned to his vehicle at 3pm

Police questioned the 56year-old on suspicion of manslaughter, but released him without charges pending an ongoing investigation.

A passing doctor is said to have tried to revive the child but as in the case of paramedics who attended, could not save the youngster's life.

The first officers called to the tragic scene are believed to have broken down in tears after it was confirmed she was dead

Police confirmed today an investigation into the circumstances surrounding the TRAGEDY: Grandad forgot he had the baby in the back of his car.

baby girl's death was underway and a local judge would now have to decide whether to press charges.

The child is understood to have been asleep when her grandfather left her in the back of a Renault Megane Scenic in s'Hort des Cabre Street in the Mallorcan town of Manacor.

He suffered an anxiety attack after realising what he had done and had to be treated at Manacor Hospital before being questioned by police

It's not yet been revealed where he had gone after having a coffee.

An autopsy is due to take place.

Riot squad chief held

LOCAL POLICE in Benidorm have arrested a senior National Police officer in connection with an alleged scuffle with a taxi driver in the city's 'guiri zone' on Friday.

Two Local Police officers were left with slight injuries as a result of the arrest. The incident took place on Calle Ibiza at around 11pm and went on until the early hours of Saturday morning, according to police sources.

The arrested officer is the chief of the Valencia region's riot police.

He was taken to a police station in Benidorm before being released on charges of assault and resisting arrest.

Monica Cruz turns heads on beach

MONICA CRUZ, younger sister of Hollywood star Penelope, turned heads in a bright yellow swimsuit when she soaked up the rays in Zahara De Los Atunes, Spain, last weekend.

The actress, 41, guaranteed that all eyes were on her in the eye-catching one-piece, which complemented her bronzed complexion perfectly.

Monica looked stunning in the simple yet stylish swimwear as she reclined on the sand to top up her tan.

The beautiful star's figure-hugging swimsuit showed off her hourglass physique and cleavage thanks to its low-cut neckline.

The Spanish siren went make-up free for her beach outing, and her natural beauty was there for all to see.

Monica made the decision to have a child alone in 2013, using an anonymous sperm donor, saying:

"It was not a decision I took on a whim, it was five years in the making."

Sanchez Merkel meeting

By Joe Gerrard

SPAIN'S Prime Minister and the German Chancellor have said they have found 'European solutions' to migrant arrivals on Spain's and the continent's southern frontiers following a meeting last Saturday.

Pedro Sanchez and Angela Merkel held a joint press conference following talks at Sanlucar de Barrameda in Cadiz Province. Merkel was staying at the Prime Minister's summer residence in the Doñana National Park in Huelva Province.

Sanchez said the two had agreed to push for more dialogue and co-operation with countries such as Morocco which many migrants travel through in order to reach Spain.

He added he and the German Chancellor had agreed to begin talks with the European Union (EU) with a view to making more aid available for border security in Morocco.

PRESS CONFERENCE: Sanchez and Merkel met last weekend.

The Spanish enclaves of Ceuta and Melilla share a land border with the North African country.

Merkel said the EU's existing Dublin system, which states that each member state is required to process asylum requests for those arriving on its soil, was not working.

She added her and Sanchez had spoken about trying to

The meeting comes as an agreement between Germany and Spain on migrant transfers came into force yesterday.

The deal means migrants arriving in Germany but who are already registered in Spain will be returned within 48 hours.

There have been no cases since mid-June where the arrangement would apply, according to German media reports.

EU leaders are now set to meet in Salzburg in Austria for a summit on migration in September. Sanchez and Merkel are expected to take their proposals from last weekend's meeting to the talks. They are expected to be backed by the leaders of France and Portugal but they could face opposition from countries such as Italy, Austria and Hungary. Anti-immigration feelings hold sway among senior officials in the latter states.

At least around 23,500 migrants arrived in Spain since the start of this year, more than arrived in 2017 and a larger amount than Italy and Greece have taken in.

Many of the migrants coming to Europe are refugees fleeing war and conflict in sub-Saharan Africa, according to United Nations officials.

YES! We have a lovely dog, a Schnauzer called Max, and he was neutered after six months. You have to do right by them and it's the best thing.

Name: Chris and Alison Age: 58 and 57 On holiday: Yes Where from: England Chris: I don't like dogs or cats! But neutering should not be legally forced. The strays should be collected and neutered, then maybe given to pet charities. Alison: We haven't seen any abandoned pets in Fuengirola. A friend in Torreblanca saw a stray attacking a bird in his garden, and that's not nice!

course not! No surgery, no. I have a dog, a female, they behave better. She is in heat at the moment though!

I don't think abandoned pets are a problem here, but it is a cruel thing to do and not fair on animals.

Pet owners would not like to be abandoned themselves, would they?

Name: Anonymous Age: X On holiday: Yes

Where from: Ireland Yes, pets should be neutered. Otherwise there is a risk that they will breed and breed and breed. In Greece there are also public animal centres, where you can feed and water your pets, maybe there should be more of those here. Name: Muriel Age: 49 On holiday: Live here

Where from: Belgium

The key thing to remember is that it's a big responsibility to keep a pet for life. It doesn't matter if it is neutered or not.

When you take on a pet it's like having a child! It's life changing. Neutering is a choice, it shouldn't be law. Breeding is a choice too.

I used to have a dog, a Bichon Frise called Ella, she was wonderful. I had her spayed, and maybe had to manage her diet more after that.

Name: Ladonna Murray Age: 55+ On holiday: Yes Where from: County Antram/NI

Yes it's a good idea. I have been coming here for years but haven't seen many abandoned animals though. My cat has been neutered but he's fine. If you haven't much money (eg you're on benefits) the vets will do it for you for free.

My cat hasn't explored as much after the operation, he's happier to stay in the house a bit more, but I don't think he's affected too much.

Exchange of information – what changes in September?

Last September, tax authorities across the world, including Spain and the UK, began sharing and receiving new information on their taxpayers' offshore assets and income.

This is carried out under the Common Reporting Standard (CRS) for automatic exchange of financial account information. More than 100 countries have so far committed to obtain information from their financial institutions and pass it on to the clients' country of residence. Over 45 more countries are in the pipeline.

Forty-nine jurisdictions began collecting data from 2016, making the first exchange in September 2017. Another 53, including Switzerland, Hong Kong, Singapore, United Arab Emirates, Australia, Canada, Panama and many Caribbean jurisdictions, began collecting data last year, ready to share it by the end of this September.

This automatic information exchange will be repeated every year

going forward.

The information being shared about the financial assets you own outside your country of residence includes your name and address, country of tax residence, tax identification number, investment income you earned over the year (interest, dividends, income from certain insurance contracts, annuities, etc), account balances and gross proceeds from the sale of financial assets.

When local tax offices receive this information, they can verify whether the taxpayer has accurately reported their worldwide income and assets on their tax returns. In Spain, the authorities can also compare data with Modelo 720 declarations.

The UK's Requirement to Correct (RTC) - higher penalties from October .

Last year HM Revenue & Customs introduced a statutory requirement requiring UK taxpayers to disclose any undeclared offshore tax liabilities. Under the 'Requirement to Correct' (RTC), the deadline for those affected to get their affairs in order is September 30, 2018. From October 1, the penalties for undeclared offshore income and gains will shoot up to 200 per cent under a much tougher new regime.

This will coincide with the time HMRC will receive its next wave of information from abroad. Once the deadline has passed, tax investigators will use the information received to find those who still have undeclared offshore income. The RTC affects people with outstanding UK tax liabilities on their offshore interests, whether bank accounts, investments, property, etc. It relates to income tax, capital gains tax and inheritance tax, covering non-compliance committed before April 6, 2017.

Note that paying tax in the country where the income is generated (for example, if you paid local tax on rental income from an overseas property) does not automatically excuse you from paying tax in Britain if you are a UK tax resident. You have to follow the double-tax treaty correctly.

HMRC has reportedly sent warning letters to taxpayers it believes have not correctly declared offshore income. The letters remind the recipients of the new penalties and suggest they carry out a 'tax health check.'

Anyone who lives in one country and has assets or earns income in another needs to take care with their tax planning and ensure they are declaring income as required by both country's laws and paying tax correctly. This can vary from country to country, depending on the particular double tax treaty.

Getting it wrong can have serious consequences, and prove costly and time consuming, so take advice from a cross-border tax and wealth management specialist. They can also guide you on the compliant taxefficient arrangements available in Spain and the UK to help you improve your tax liabilities, particularly on your investments and for your heirs in future.

The tax rates, scope and reliefs may change. Any statements concerning taxation are based upon our understanding of current taxation laws and practices which are subject to change. Tax information has been summarised; an individual is advised to seek personalised advice.

Keep up to date on the financial issues that may affect you on the Blevins Franks news page at www.blevinsfranks.com.

Do you live in Spain but pay tax in the UK?

You cannot choose where to pay tax. If you meet the Spanish tax residence criteria you are liable for Spanish tax on your worldwide income and assets. Make sure you are paying tax in the right place, because sorting it out later could prove costly. Take specialist advice to clarify your situation and find out how to use compliant arrangements to lower your tax liabilities.

A FIRE has destroyed an empty first floor flat in Alcoy.

The fire originated at around 8.30 on Monday morning in Calle Sant Mateu. Four fire appliances from La Montaña regional park and Local Police attended the

OUR VIEW Well done councils

ALTHOUGH Spanish councils can have something of a tendency to be bureaucratic they are often very different from UK councils in the way in which they look after residents

The concept in the UK of having an overseas resident's councillor or department (except perhaps in areas where there is large scale immigration from Africa or the sub-continent) would be quite unusual and on the face of things, there are now far more coalition councils in Spain which means that they are in many faces more balanced.

Rubbish collection for purposes of hygiene and the heat is generally daily and in many towns, particularly those near to the coast, there is a daily watering of the streets and cleaning of the beaches.

Apart from the regular fairs and fiestas, councils go out of their way to provide entertainment with many towns now offering weekly or one off music events and they don't just bring in local amateur groups, but often pay quite high amounts for some well-known Spanish bands.

In some ways, there is almost too much entertainment and it can be quite irritating to neighbours who are disturbed by the noise of the music and the coming and going of the crowds.

All in all however, we have to admire the way in which so many councils endeavour to look after their residents and hopefully the days of corrupt local politicians are in the past so the money collected through tax will be used on the people rather than disappearing into a small number of pockets.

Alicante's ship sails in as cruise numbers soar

ALICANTE is cruising to success. The city has seen a big rise in the number of cruise passengers stopping off for a tour.

In the first six months of the year 42,201 people arrived according to Puertos de Estados (Spanish ports Association) - that is 8.8 per cent higher than the same period last year.

Across the Valencian Community as a whole, the ports of Alicante, Valencia and Castellon surpassed 199,000 passengers, or 5 per cent higher than the first semester of last year.

Cruise tourism has become a highly important industry in many Spanish ports, with more than 4.4 million passengers arriving at 46 locations between January and June.

This is an increase of 23.5 per cent year-on-year and, according to figures supplied by the International Association of Cruise Lines (CLIA), it boosts the Spanish economy by  $\in 1.4$ billion and employs 31,233 people.

President of Ports of the State, Ornella Chacon, has highlighted the work of the Port Authorities to enhance the cruise market. "Cruise passengers also generate indirect jobs and boost the local economy, which helps the quality of life of thousands of families," he explained.

Spain takes second place in Europe when it comes to receiving cruise passengers. Barcelona alone handled more than 2.7 million cruise passengers in 2017, making it the biggest cruise attraction in Europe.

Second biggest is Civitavecchia in Italy (2.2 million) and the ports of the Balearic Islands with 2.1 million.

The 'spectacular' rise in cruise ship traffic in Spanish ports has been driven. particularly, by the good performance of the ports of the Canary archipelago that have grown more than 35.6 per cent, from 960,848 passengers in the first half of 2017 to 1.3 million in 2018.

The ports of the Mediterranean, with 2.76 million passengers, grew by 19.9 per cent, while those of the peninsular Atlantic, with 404,278 passengers, by 14.8 per cent.

THE number of tourists paying a visit to Spain's cultural sites and attractions has risen by 23 per cent this summer compared to last year, according to a study.

The total number of holidaymakers who arrived in Spain was about 8.5 million during June, according to the latest statistics from tourism officials.

Data showed that those holidaying in Spain still tended to opt for beach holidays in areas such as the Costa del

Sol and Costa Blanca.

The figures also showed the share of tourists taking in the country's culture offering was rising as a share of the total, according to the Weekenddesk website's study.

The Guggenheim Museum in Bilbao in the Basque County was one of the most popular. The gallery displays modern and contemporary art and is also famous for its avant-garde architecture.

Cultural tourism rises

Visits to aquariums, zoos and areas such as national parks have risen by 20 per cent so far this summer in comparison to the same time last year. The Cabarceno Nature Park in Cantabria was the most popular of its type of attraction.

Data analysts said statistics from Cantabria and elsewhere in the north of Spain showed growth in off-beach holidays in those areas. Figures also showed beach tourism continued to grow during June in comparison to last year. The number of travellers expected to travel to the Costa del Sol between June and September numbers more than seven million, a 1.5 per cent increase on summer 2017.

Elias Bendodo, the head of the Costa del Sol tourist board, said the authority estimated tourists would bring an extra €7.4 billion to the region's economy. The southern destination is currently the most popular with tourists out of those in Spain.

Women attacked in street

TWO women walking down the street were attacked by a total stranger who started beating them for no reason.

A 55-year-old woman and her daughter, 24, ended up in Valencia's Hospital Clinico for minor injuries and the attacker was arrested.

But just a day later he was released by a judge despite the 43-year-old from Galicia having a history of similar acts.

The defendant admitted the facts in a quick trial for a minor offence of injury. The two women were walking along Calle Padre Tomas Montañana when the assailant approached them and said: "Do you know what this is?" while showing them his fist.

He then started hitting them, only stopping when a young man came to their aid.

He told the judge he did what he did because voices told him to - he would even destroy Galicia if they ordered him to.

The judge released him without asking for a psychological assessment.

Valencia wild fire extinguished

A FIRE that burned 3,270 hectares of land, destroyed or damaged 40 homes and forced the evacuation of 2,620 people was finally put out a week after it started.

At its height the blaze which was started by a lightning strike in the Llutxent area of Valencia threatened the seaside resort town of Gandia.

More than 700 ground-based personnel and 31 helicopters and planes were drafted in from Valencia, Castellon and Alicante, as well as from the forestry service and military units to contain the fire which had been whipped up by strong gusts of winds.

By Friday the blaze, which had started in the early hours of Monday morning, was declared 'stabilised' and it was finally extinguished by 8pm on Sunday.

The municipal districts of Gandia, Llutxent, Pinet, Ador, Barx and Quatretonda were affected, with 120 people from Pinet joining 2,500 evacuees from La Drova and the Montesol and Montepino urbanisations.

EXTINGUISHED: Blaze put out before it reached Gandia.

Those people evacuated have been allowed back to their homes to assess any damage, with the national government pledging to support those affected with grants to repair damage.

Local authorities may also be helped with cash to reforest affected areas. So far this summer, fire has destroyed a total of 11,722.90 hectares in Spain, according to the Ministry of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food, but these figures do not include the latest blazes in Nerva, Moguer, Almonaster Huelva, or Llutxent.

It is still 84.63 per cent less than in the same period of the previous year (76,625 hectares).

Spain remains on high alert as authorities claim several plots foiled

by Joe Gerrard

AUTHORITIES in Spain remain concerned about possible terrorist attacks in the country as Cataluña approaches the one-year anniversary of strikes there today (Thursday) and tomorrow (Friday).

Senior police officials said they had foiled around a dozen plots over the past four years which included gun raids and a plan to poison water supplies in major cities

The plotters were linked in most cases to the Islamic State and other fundamentalist terror organisations, they added.

The attacks in Barcelona and Cambrils and explosions in Alcanar on August 16 and 17 in 2017 claimed the lives of 24 people including eight attackers. More than 152 people were iniured.

Spain's Interior Ministry has kept the country's terror threat level at four out of five since last year, meaning the risk of an attack is high.

Francisco Jose Vazquez, a senior Guardia Civil officer, said the threat level was justified given the amount of plots uncovered.

"We can assure the public that jihadist activity is currently latent in Spain. Recently we have investigated and raided cells that were plotting attacks similar to the ones seen in Berlin in 2016 and on Westminster Bridge in London in 2017," Vazquez said.

OUTCRY: Protestors took to La Rambla the day after the attack.

The Berlin attack saw several people run over by a truck at a Christmas market in the city. Khalid Masood ran over pedestrians on Westminster Bridge before stabbing a police officer as he attempted to get onto the Houses of Parliament estate in March last year.

> Plotters were linked mostly to the Islamic State and other fundamental terror organisations.

The Cataluña incidents saw one house explode on August 16. The cause is believed to have been a stockpile of explosives accidently going off and a second blast occurred during evacuation efforts.

Younes Abouyaaqoub drove a Fiat Talento van down the pavement of Barcelona's La Rambla the following day at high speed before fleeing on foot.

He hijacked a car in the city's university quarter, stabbed the driver to death and fled before being killed in a shootout with police in Subirats on August 21.

Houssaine Abouyaaqoup, Omar Hichamy, Mohamed Hichamy, Moussa Oukabir and Said Aalla bought four knives and an axe and donned fake bomb vests before ramming pedestrians in Cambrils on August 18.

Four of the attackers were shot and killed on site and a fifth died in hospital. A 63year-old Spanish woman was stabbed to death in the strike and six other people were injured.

Police later said the five were linked to the attacker in Barcelona. The motives in all cases were said to be support for the Islamic State and other terror groups.

Others cited Western intervention in countries such as Syria and Iraq which Spain has played a minor role in.

Does your Spanish investment bond have you tied up in knots?? By Sam Kelly, Managing Partner, Chorus Financial.

I'm a big believer in investment bonds, and many of my clients here in Spain hold them, in particular Spanish compliant investment bonds created by companies including The Prudential, SEB and Old Mutual.

Investment bonds offer great tax efficiency – as an example, a net return of 7% per annum would actually double your investment over 10 years thanks to the gross roll-up (compound growth) these bonds allow you to benefit from. (As always, returns aren't guaranteed, and the figures given are for illustration purposes only).

Alongside that, if your bond is appropriately advised and designed for you as a resident here in Spain, it will also be fully tax compliant, meaning it is effectively taxed at source, and under most circumstances you won't have to declare the bond itself on the Modelo 720, or indeed your annual gains or income.

Within a bond you can hold a fully diversified portfolio, and if that portfolio is advised through Chorus you will also benefit from our promise that we only use FCA regulated funds, that guarantee no hidden fees or commissions.

So, with all these advantages, where can a bond fail to provide what you'd expect as an investor?

Firstly, the annual charges. Did you know that you could be paying more for exactly the same bond depending on which firm you sign up through? I've seen people commit to annual charges of over 1% a year for as long as 10 years on a bond. That's an unnecessarily high charge, and if you'd taken that exact same plan through Chorus, you would be paying far less.

Secondly, and probably worst of all, there are certain bonds offered here in Spain which not only commit clients to incredibly high charges for a very long period of time, but also have exclusive agreements in place with particular financial advisories. This means if you become dissatisfied with your financial advisor you could be effectively forced to stay with them or face heavy exit penalties. This really isn't how the market should operate and would be illegal in the UK.

Chorus only use investment bonds that are openly available to all licensed advisors (such as the 3 I mentioned previously), so this means that if we fail to provide the service we've promised you, you can simply cancel our ongoing fee and appoint another advisor. For us this is the only fair way for the relationship between an advisor and their client to operate.

The final element comes down to the investment funds your advisor uses within your bond. As I've been saying for many years here in Spain, the use of commission paying funds is prolific, and can mean your portfolio is loaded with low quality investments and high hidden fees that you may be unaware of for many, many years.

A well put together Spanish investment bond can offer so many advantages and can be a fantastic long-term investment solution, but sadly many advisors here in Spain fail to put them together with their client's needs at the forefront of the advice.

Your long-term financial security is simply too important to risk not asking enough questions or signing paperwork until you're 100% sure you're getting the best possible deal and the best possible investment advice. Never be afraid to get a second opinion, whether it's on a new application or an existing plan.

SPAIN'S arms industry sold more than €361 million in armaments last year to states that are part of a coalition led by Saudi Arabia currently fighting in Yemen's civil war. The sales figures, from an annual Spanish government report sent to the country's Parliament, show the Saudis were the leaders in the exports. About €270.2 million in arms was sold to the Saudi state including a transport plane, drones, mortar shells, artillery, ammunition and other equipment.

The figures come as Spain saw a record year last year in terms of arms sales. Around €4.4 billion in weapons was bought from the country, an increase of 7.3 per cent on 2016 levels.

They also come as two political parties in Granada called on public prosecutors to investigate the alleged illegal shipment of arms from the port of Motril ARMS SALES: Saudi Arabia's air force has conducted airstrikes in Yemen.

The parties claimed the shipping of weapons from the civilian port broke a number of Spanish and European Union (EU) regulations.

NGOs including Oxfam and Amnesty International called on Spain to halt weapons shipments to the Saudis earlier this year.

They claimed the weapons were being used in strikes that cause civilian deaths in Yemen. which has been gripped by civil war since 2015.

The war has seen the involvement of Saudi Arabia. as well as the United Arab Emirates, Oatar, Morocco and Sudan, on the side of the

There have been around 17,062 civilians killed and injured in Yemen from March 2015 to last August 10, according to estimates from the United Nations High Commission for Refugees. A total of 6.592 of those lay dead and 10,470 have been wounded.

The High Commission estimates that the majority of casualties, about 10,471, were as a result of Saudi-led coalition airstrikes.

Stony reaction to extension

THE company that extracts limestone from the Gata quarry has applied to exploit another 40,000 square metres.

Despite the quarry's name, it is located inside Denia's boundaries and the land is municipally-owned. It is now up to Denia Town Hall to make an environmental report regarding the proposal, which initially did not have the support of neighbouring Gata and Teulada.

Minera de Extraccion de Aridos Zona Garganta, the Teulada-based company which took over the concession from Cantera Femenia in February 2017, hopes to extend the quarry that already covers an area of 16.93 hectares.

The extra 40,000 square metres - four hectares - are located on an adjoining plot of land and part of another.

Cantera Femenia obtained the concession to quarry stone in 1994 and later applied to extend this to land, also belonging to Denia and originally classed as protected woodland, which adjoins Gata, Javea and Teulada.

This land was reclassified in 2013 and the new concessionary hopes to carry through the extension while carrying out a comprehensive rehabilitation of the quarried area.

A geotechnical study of the area confirmed that this would be viable as the quarry's terraces are stable.

Teulada and Gata opposed the 2013 reclassification on the grounds of air pollution, noise from the quarry and the impact of heavy lorries on the N-332 main road, particularly in Gata which still lacks a bypass.

Not long for promised Paseo

VILLAJOYOSA Town Hall is to spend €538,041 on a new seafront promenade for La Cala and repaying the parking area.

"In a few months' time we shall have complied with residents' requests and La Cala de Villajoyosa will have a new Paseo," announced La Vila's mayor, Andreu Verdu.

"At the same time we shall have improved the pedestrian area in this part of town," he added.

Urban Development councillor Jaime Ramis explained that his department had focused on the quality and durability of the granite construction materials that will be used, together with the street furniture chosen.

"This will be an improvement visually but will also make the Paseo safer and more accessible," Ramis said.

LA CALA: Go-ahead given for new beach.

The exclusively pedestrian Paseo is to be 5.5-metres wide, extending from the termination of Finestrat's section of La Cala as far as the Casa Modesto restaurant at the end of the beach. A MAN who robbed an Alicante bar was swiftly tracked down by police after he left his rucksack at the scene.

The 58-year-old Spaniard was arrested in the centre of Alicante and soon confessed to the crime after being confronted with video evidence that placed him squarely on the scene.

This was backed up by the fact he had fled the scene when disturbed and left his rucksack with personal belongings behind.

National Police had arrived on the scene within minutes of the alarm being raised, and found a shutter had been forced to break an entry.

The owner of the bar was alerted and he was immediately able to show National Police security footage. Police were able to identify a suspect, although he did try to escape when they subsequently arrested him, before admitting his culpability.

Bather's tragic discovery

A NIGHT at the discotheque turned to tragedy when a party-goer decided to go for an early morning swim despite strong winds and powerful waves.

The 20-year-old man from Albacete disappeared into the waves and failed to reappear, leading a friend to call police at 7.40am last Sunday.

A search and rescue operation was launched at Valencia's Malvarrosa beach including a helicopter, a maritime rescue boat and numerous Local and National Police officers.

Divers from the Underwater Activities Special Group (GEAS) of the Guardia Civil later joined the search.

Sea conditions were dangerous, with the red flag flying, and it was not until the sea calmed that the body of the young man was found.

But it was not one of the myriad of searchers who found him - at about 1pm a bather stumbled upon the body as it lay half buried on the seabed and under water.

Hydro Vitalitas hits the Costa Blanca!

Hydro Vitalitas IV Therapy arrives in Spain. The ever-popular intravenous revitalising therapy treatment which started in the USA and now sweeping across Europe, and found in high end clinics is now available here on the Costa Blanca, launched by the British Altea Medical Centre. This new product comes with four different combinations, Blue, Bronze, Silver, and Gold. All have special ingredients, including high dosages of vitamins, and their special blend of amino acids along with cell repairing co-enzymes.

With each infusion treatment other medications can be added to meet individual specific patient's requirements. The Therapy treatment hydrates the body quickly, circulating the blood volume, and so the effects of dehydration – headache, nausea, lethargy disappear very quickly.

CUSTODY: The Brit allegedly beat and raped his victim in her home.

HEAD BOWED Suspected rapist Dylan Rogers is led into court.

Brit held for rape

A BRITISH man has been arrested after allegedly 'tying up, raping and beating' a woman in her flat in Mallorca.

Dylan Rogers, 26, who apparently lives and works in the resort of Magaluf, is alleged to have attacked the 22-year-old victim at an apartment in s'Arenal, near the island's airport.

She was taken to hospital after her ordeal with bruising to her arms, legs and face.

Police sources confirmed the victim appeared to have been physically assaulted as well as sexually attacked.

Officers were called to the crime scene around 4.30pm last Wednesday and made the arrest in the early hours of the following morning

A source said: "She was bound with insulating tape and had bruises on her legs, arms and face

"The suspect was located in a neighbouring flat and arrested several hours later after officers obtained a key and a warrant to access the property.'

The victim, believed to be 'foreign' is said to have alerted police after freeing herself from her binds.

Rogers has not been charged with a crime yet, as is normal in Spain where charges are only laid shortly before trial.

Led into the courts in shorts and t-shirt on Friday, he was questioned by a judge as part of an ongoing criminal investigation. It's reported that he was remanded in custody.

DENIA Town Hall's beach cleaning service removed a total of 1,100 tons of seaweed from the town's beaches during two night-time sessions, clearing 370 tons from Marineta beach alone.

Red Cross forgot woman in ambulance

AN elderly wheelchair-bound woman with Alzheimer's was left in the back of an ambulance for nearly three hours after staff forgot her and parked up for the night.

Anxious relatives who had expected the Red Cross to drop her off from her daily visit to a day care centre at 6pm contacted Local Police at 8.38pm.

They had already tried calling the centre in Aldaia, Valencia, and the Red Cross, but no one answered the phone.

A police patrol went to the centre and found it locked up so staff were called out to open the doors and search the building.

Fears grew as police, local town councillor José Zapata and centre personnel conducted a fruitless search for the woman.

But those fears turned to relief when they got a call from the Red Cross to say she had been found in the back of the ambulance, which was parked in Plaza de Europa. The pensioner finally arrived home just after 9pm.

The Red Cross is said to have apologised to the family, who do not wish to make any official complaint.

Councillor Zapata said that the people who provided the service that day were new and replacing those who do it normally. A new protocol has been put in place to make sure this CLAMPDOWN: No cocktails on the beach.

Sun sets on sundowners

THIRSTY sun worshippers in Benidorm used to the sight of 'mojiteros' selling illicit cocktails on the town's beaches will have to slake their thirst elsewhere.

The police have been enforcing a crackdown on the unlicensed drinks sellers; it has been so effective many have decided to find easier places to ply their illegal trade.

The real death knell came when a court agreed to fine one of the mojiteros - also known as cuberos - for a crime of disobedience.

This was the first effective punishment for a group of people that has in recent years grown hugely, offering everything from cans of drinks to alcoholic cocktails of dubious origin.

But now their numbers have started to fall steeply, says the City Council.

The reason is that until the courts started fining people for disobedience, Local Police could only issue a fixed penalty of  $\notin$  300 and this was hardly ever paid.

22 abandoned dogs rescued

TEN dogs and 12 abandoned puppies have been rescued from 'lamentable' conditions in Alicante.

Local Police found the animals in a ramshackle warehouse on the Pla de la Vallonga industrial estate.

It appeared that they had been abandoned in the warehouse that was filled with debris. A local resident had alerted police after hearing incessant barking.

Police had to force locks to enter the building. There they found the dogs living amongst rubble and other debris, and in a very poor condition.

According to officers the animals - which were various breeds of hunting dog - showed signs of abuse. They were all riddled with fleas and ticks, and some showed deformities and other physical problems.

The dogs and 12 puppies were taken to an animal shelter and are receiving veterinary care.

Police have traced the owner to Santa Pola through information on an embedded microchip and have now opened proceedings against them.

LAMENTABLE: Rescued dogs were in a poor condition.

Taking flight?

PROMISING: The aircraft museum is looking increasingly likely for San Javier.

SAN JAVIER Airport has been given fresh hope in its bid to become the permanent headquarters of the historic aircraft museum, operated by the Infante de Orleans Foundation. Last week the President of the Murcia Community, councillors, the mayor, and head of the foundation met to draw up a list of specifications that will need to be met if the move is to be carried out. The project has been approved by the Regional Assembly, and a further meeting is scheduled with the head of the regional executive, Minister of Defence Margarita Robles, which owns the airport, and other parties involved to try to confirm the move from Madrid.

A spokesperson said the project would be a major tourist attraction for the area.

Probe grounds fighters

by Joe Gerrard

SPANISH fighter jets stationed in Estonia have had their flights suspended after Spain's Ministry of Defence and NATO opened probes into the misfiring of a missile. Juri Luik, Estonia's Defence Minister, said the launch of the air-to-air missile from a Spanish Eurofighter was "extremely rare" and "regrettable."

Luik added the Estonian government's priority was to guarantee security and continue to work in co-operation with NATO allies.

Estonia's Prime Minister Juri Ratas spoke with NATO Secretary General Jens Stoltenberg about the incident which took place on Tuesday August 7. He has asked the head of the alliance for an explanation.

Ratas said no one was injured and added he had asked NATO to clarify how the projectile was fired in Estonian airspace 'without delay.'

"I told Jens Stoltenberg that it was a serious incident and that we are understandably worried," Ratas said in a statement.

Spain's Ministry of Defence said the incident took place when two Spanish Eurofighters were taking part in an exercise with two French Mirage 2000 warplanes. One of the Spanish planes ple fired an air-to-air missile pos during the manoeuvres. All In the planes later returned to plo the Siauliai air base in Jog Lithuania without incident. Est

The cause remains unknown but it is suspected to have being accidental, according to Spain's Ministry of Defence.

Estonian media has speculated as to the location of the missile, with almost 60 people alerting authorities to possible sites.

GROUNDED: A Spanish Eurofighter accidentally launched the projectile.

It is believed to have exploded in mid air over Jogvera County in central Estonia, according to the country's air force commander Riivo Valge.

Valge said his team were almost certain the missile was destroyed but they would be 'cautious' while they confirmed this. Estonia's Prime Minister said the missile caused no damage and repeated his country's commitment to NATO.

"The NATO mission makes an important contribution to the security of Estonia and the entire alliance," Ratas said.

The Eurofighter, from the Vilkas Bap-47 squadron, was taking part in NATO's wider operations in the Baltic.

Spain is breaking all the Records

As the Spanish news headlines tell us that 2017 is set to break all of the previous tourism records, it is a good time to reflect on why, and what is so good about Spain in 2017 that makes it possible.

The Travel & Tourism Competitiveness Index for 2017 produced for the World Economic Forum, shows us that for the second time in a row the tourism sector was ranked as the most competitive in the world. Spain received a top score of 5.4 out of 7 on its Competitiveness Index, over France and Germany, which ranked second and third respectively. The report pointed out Spain's good infrastructure, security and wealth of cultural and natural resources, a world class aviation infrastructure and a modern transport system. This is the reward for successive Spanish governments prioritising a solid transport and tourism infrastructure, created with strong policy support. Spain has been climbing the tourism competitiveness scale: In 2011 it ranked 8th; by 2013 it was 4th, and in 2015 it was awarded with the world title and won again in 2016, when 68 million people arrived and spent 52 billion Euros.

There is more; the baby boomers, the richest and best educated generation ever, are drawing the biggest pensions, and leaving the cold wet north for a new home in the sun. Fibre optic broadband is covering Spain in a highly competitive telecoms environment, at a time when working from home allows more people to choose their ideal location. In a virtuous circle a percentage of visitors decide to become residents, and an increasing number of visitors results to more residents. We are seeing a new age of growth in Spain where 50 years of vision, planning, and work, meet the need of an age when holiday and residential tourism are at their most popular.

At Pellicer & Heredia we can help you become a Spanish resident and assist you in all your legal needs while living in Spain, offering you and your family peace of mind, so that you can get on with enjoying your life in the sunshine.

Heist murder rap

CONVICTED: Gonzalo Andreas Gomez-Remolina has been on trial at the Old Bailey.

By Rhys Adam

AN international jewel thief has been convicted of murdering a 28-year-old Spanish man and his friend.

Colombian-born Gonzalo Andreas Gomez-Remolina, aged 36, and his brother Christian - who killed himself in prison before his own murder trial - stabbed Ruben Fuente and Carlos Ayala in Clapham, south London, in 2007.

Mr Ayala had helped the defendant in at least one burglary and named his killer with his dying breath, the Old Bailey heard.

Spaniard Mr Fuente was in the 'wrong place at the wrong time' and stabbed eight times as he tried to escape, the jury were told.

Prosecutor Brian O'Neill QC said Mr Ayala and the Gomez-Remolinas brothers had 'fallen out... over dividing the spoils.' It escalated when Mr Ayala got some friends to break into the brothers' flat and the Colombians were beaten, their girlfriends tied up and watches and cash stolen.

The Gomez-Remolinas retaliated by attempting to run over Mr Ayala and Mr Fuente in a car park.

During his trial, the defendant denied being involved in the killings, saying he had bolted when Mr Ayala produced a knife and that his brother had confessed to the killings whilst the brothers fled on a Eurostar service to Paris.

However, the jury did not believe him and convicted him of both murders.

After the trial, Mr Fuente's family said they had 'endured the greatest heartache.'

KINGPIN: Manuel Charlin was held in Vilanove de Arousa.

€170m coke bust sees drug lord, 85, held

by Matt Ford

A NOTORIOUS drugs kingpin has been held in a cocaine smuggling crackdown during police raids across Spain.

Manuel Charlin, 85, was arrested after armed officers swooped on his palatial mansion in Vilanova de Arousa, Galicia.

It comes after 2.5 tonnes of the drug worth more than  $\in$  170 million was seized from a boat near the Azores archipelago, Portugal.

At least 18 other suspects have been held in connection with the probe, including his son Melchor Charlin, as investigators stormed properties in four other villages in the northern region plus private homes in Toledo, Huelva and Marbella.

Charlin is among the most powerful drugs lords in the country and in 1999 received a 20year sentence for sailing 600 kilos of cocaine from Colombia to Galicia.

His Charlines clan is described by local media as 'without a doubt the most violent organisation' operating in Galicia.

In 2003, he and 13 others were jailed for 15 years and fined more than  $\in 2.9$  million for money laundering and tax fraud.

The sentence was later reduced to 13 years and he was freed in 2010.

Market rules made clear

ALTEA Town Hall has reinstated street trading bylaws that were revoked six years ago.

"I'm proud of the work that Commerce and Markets has carried out over the last two years," said Councillor Anna Alvado.

Alvado thanked the people who contributed ideas and helped to compose a definitive text of regulations for market trading that should have been approved in 2012 when the regional government repealed the existing regulations.

The reinstated by-laws prioritise associativity, training and items of local, national or European manufacture. The environment, sustainability, recycling, safety and job creation have also been taken into account.

"With input from the Local Police as well as the Public Sector and Commerce departments we shall make an effort to ensure that the bylaws create a market that is more attractive, varied and environmentally-friendly," Alvado said.

Stalls will once again be available to vendors without a licence when a regular stallholder fails to turn up. Regarding objections from two stallholders who sell second-hand clothing, Alvado explained that her department would allow them to continue trading.

"They have been carrying out this type of activity for many years and are the only two with existing licences," she said.

"As the new regulations veto new licences for this sector, there is no danger of a proliferation of stalls that deteriorate the image of so many open-air markets," concluded Alvado, who added that the town hall was still looking for a better, and alternative site for the market.

Help for

HOUSEHOLDERS in Altea and Altea la Vieja's Old Towns have until September 7 to apply for subsidies for exterior renovations.

Help is available for anti-damp treatment as well as painting or repairing façades in both localities, announced Town Planning councillor Imma Orozco.

"We want, as far as we are able, to help conserve listed properties and assist owners in making a financial effort to meet the requirements and protection regulations for these buildings," the councillor said.

"We mustn't forget that the Old Town in Altea - part of which is listed as an Asset of Cultural Interest

On plan

ALTEA'S new General Plan, the outcome of participation by the public, proposals from the town hall and municipal reports, is to be put on public display for 45 days. Town Planning councillor Imma Orozo said the current Plan was an improvement on the town plan the current council had 'inherited' from the Partido Popular and Cipal.

"The town hall has set aside  $\in$  15,000 for these grants," Orozco said, "and we are confident that the initiative will be as successful as in other years."

There are  $\in 300$  subsidies for painting façades, with  $\in 300$  for anti-damp treatment, meaning owners in both old quarters could receive  $\in 600$  per house. THE Red Cross chose the Raco de l'Albir beach for another edition of its 'Mediterrani deixa que et cuide' campaign.

It was organised with the cooperation of Alfaz's town hall and Health councillor Marisa Cortes explained that the campaign entitled the 'Mediterranean lets you look after yourself' shows the public how best to enjoy "our jewel, the Mediterranean."

The Red Cross initiative promotes respect for the marine environment while advising swimmers and sunbathers how to avoid the worst effects of hot weather and the sun.

The Red Cross is visiting the region's principal resorts, encouraging the public to enjoy the Valencian Community's beaches in a safe, sustainable and healthy way.

The group's pitch was located near to the Anchor on the promenade with several displays and talks on preventing sunburn, enduring the heatwave, the

The Red Cross members also impressed on the public the meaning of the different flags flown on the beaches and the need to respect them with advice of coping with sea currents, jellyfish stings and carrying out CPR.

Top-brand rip-offs impounded

TWO women were arrested and another is under suspicion for selling counterfeit clothing in Albir and Altea.

The arrested women and the suspect have Chinese nationality and run shops in both locations.

The Altea Guardia Civil carried out inspections after receiving complaints from local shopkeepers about the 'excessive' offer of fake clothing on sale in Chinese shops. They impounded a total of 1,057 items, which were all copies of wellknown makes. In one of the two Albir shops, the Guardia Civil found 412 t-shirts, 102 caps, 57 watches, 52 wallets, 40 handbags and five bags. T-shirts selling at €10 cost  $\in$  400 when genuine and the firms involved would have lost around  $\in 250,000$  in revenue, Guardia Civil sources revealed.

Work and training combined

PUPILS on Alfaz's Escoles d'Ocupacion Et Formem course have been working on the Parque Escandinavia.

The course, which means 'We train you' combines work with instruction for persons who have difficulty in entering the labour market or belong to vulnerable groups. It was made possible thanks to a  $\in$  199,830 grant from the Generalitat Valenciana.

Work at the park has centred on clearing and cleaning deteriorated areas so that the rains, when they arrive at the end of the summer or in September, will have an unimpeded runoff.

The Parque Escandinavia tidy-up is Alfaz's second Et Formem project and follows on from work that 10 pupils carried out on municipal land in Albir. They were employed for four months following a  $\in$  64,843 Generalitat subsidy, during which time they obtained a Level Two vocational training diploma.

Cyclist crashes on steep road

A 36-YEAR-OLD Belgian cyclist died after crashing into a roadside electricity registry cabinet in Calpe's Girasoles II urbanisation.

The accident occurred at mid-day when visibility was good but the urbanisation is located on the slopes of Morro de Toix, near Mascarat where the roads are extremely steep and the cyclist is believed to have lost control of her bike as she descended.

She collided violently with the brickbuilt electricity installation which is situated on a bend, according to the police report. Police from Calpe and Altea, the Guardia Civil and a SAMU ambulance's medical team were called to the scene but nothing could be done to save her life.

THIRTY-SEVEN young people are working at Calpe Town Hall thanks to the regional government's AVALEM programme.

This is the second year that the town hall has joined the scheme which is funded by the Generalitat and the Valencian Youth Employment and Training Service (SERVEF) and aims to help young people enter the labour market.

The majority of the young employees are from Calpe and they will work on a year's

Bulls get their own back

A PARTICIPANT in the first bull-running session of the Calpe fiestas was gored because he was wearing flipflops.

The bull climbed up to the 'pyramid' platform and the aficionado was unable to avoid

Farewell to outstanding chef

THE French chef Joel Robuchon, who died recently of cancer, had strong links to Calpe and the Marina Alta.

Robuchon, considered one of the world's best chefs, was awarded 32 Michelin stars throughout his career, had a house in Calpe and had made good friends there.

In 1999, on receiving the Jaume Pastor I Fluixa-9 d'Octubre prize, he spoke of his affection for Calpe and the Peñon de Ifach, which he said gave him strength and inspiration.

ELEVEN-YEAR-OLD Mara Serrano Monte from San Vicente, and a contestant on Masterchef Junior last Christmas, will be appearing in the next Dolia event in September at the Teulada-Moraira Auditorium alongside three Michelinstarred chefs. Mara plans to prepare a dish aimed at children and whose hero will be fish from the Mediterranean.

Pristine beach now reopened

MORAIRA'S El Portet beach reopened 26 hours after it was closed to the public on health and safety grounds.

Analysis of the seawater by the regional government's Environment department showed that it was once again safe to swim at the beach, announced Teulada-Moraira mayor Carlos Linares

The fact that the water was found to be 'excellent' after only 24 hours demonstrated that the pollution was an "extraordinary one-off situation," Linares said, as the green flag that permitted swimming was hoisted on the El Portet beach.

EL PORTET: Blue flag, safe again.

This was borne out by the previous day's analysis, which was entirely normal, the mayor pointed out. The Blue Flag beach was

MORAIRA MARINA: More August visitors expected this year.

TEULADA-MORAIRA climbers Carolina Trapaga and Jose Villegas and three others recently climbed Mount Kazbek in Georgia.

They belong to the local Club Centre Excursionista I de Muntanya, and have scaled mountains in the Himalayas as well as Europe's highest mountain, the 5,640-metre Elbrus, and also traversed the 57-kilometre Baltoro glacier in the 5,600-metre Karakorum mountain range.

With them as they scaled the 5,047 Mount Kazbek were Casto Juan Recio and Irene Javaloves from Elche and Ivan Ponce from Alicante.

Mount Kazbek is one of the highest peaks in the Caucasus and as on other climbs, Trapaga and Villegas displayed the name of Teulada-Moraira on reaching the top

"Although we had to delay the ascent owing to the weather conditions, the climate was kind to us although mist descended as we were nearing the summit," Trapaga explained via social media.

"We almost turned back but luckily the weather was very changeable and as it cleared all five of us were able to reach the top."

They returned to the town of Kazbege, tired and much thinner from the gruelling ascent and the days of acclimatisation prior to the climb, not to mention carrying their equipment which required a 'titanic effort' they told an interviewer.

But the effort had its rewards, the mountaineers explained. "This country has marvellous mountains," they said. "At almost 3,000 metres above sea level they are still green, and it is a paradise for climbers."

THE Teulada-Moraira Local Police recently presented their new launch.

It was provided with a provisional permit last month so that the launch could take part in the maritime procession in honour of the Virgen del Carmen, patroness of seafarers.

The town hall has now received definitive documentation and authorisation for the boat which will be used to check moorings and advise boat owners about the environmentally-friendly buoys that protect the vast meadows of Posidonia (Neptune Grass) off the Moraira beaches.

The Local Police will also find it much easier to control unwelcome spillages, like the episode that recently closed El Portet beach for 26 hours.

MARITIME SAFETY: Carlos Linares with Gonzalo Mengual, who donated the boat.

Above all, Teulada-Moraira Town Hall, together with the police, will be on hand to control incidents in the bay and safeguard public safety.

Celebrating homegrown muscatel

THIS year's edition of the Festa del Moscatell starts next Wednesday and continues until August 25.

Teulada-Moraira Town Hall and the Amics de Teulada Association are organising the fiesta to maintain an old custom, as this is one of the few municipalities which still produces muscatel wine on a significant scale.

The celebrations begin on Wednesday with the inauguration of the Photography exhibition and wine tasting at l'Almassera.

On August 23 and 24 there will be a showing in the Auditorium of Curts de muscatel with shot films chosen from more than 200 submitted by local filmmakers as well as those from 10 countries including the US, Brazil and Afghanistan.

The town hall is providing  $a \in 1,000$ prize for the best film on muscatel and the Sant Vicent Ferrer Cooperative is presenting  $\in 500$  for the best general film.

OLD CUSTOM: Teulada-Moraira's mayor announcing the Festa del Moscatell.

For the first time there will be an award for the best short film in Valenciano.

Teulada-Moraira mayor Carlos Linares said that he hoped as many people as possible will join in the celebrations "so that we don't lose sight of our forebears and ensure that future generations can see them, too."

Saint with a local past

TEULADA'S historic Old Town, a protected Asset of Cultural Interest, now has a permanent exhibition dedicated to Saint Vincent Ferrer.

Three hundred items connected to the saint are on show at the Centro de Estudios Vicentinos, housed in the home of his sister, Constanza Ferrer.

The Centro's extensive library details the life and works of the Dominican friar who was born in Valencia on January 23, 1350 and died in Vannes (France) on April 5, 1419.

The exhibits include prints, paintings and decorated tiles donated by Vicente Valles, president of the VI Centenary Association, as well as a facsimile copy of the saint's bible.

'Sant Vicent Ferrer. Vida I llegenda d'un predicador' can be visited between 10am-1.30pm from Monday to Saturday and between 7.15pm and 8.45pm from Wednesday to Friday.

A safe space for youth

YOUNG people from several European countries celebrated International Youth Day by performing a play on the Castle Esplanade.

The European project was organised by the Marina Alta-based association De Amicitia, also known as the Donkey Caravan recalling the days when they rode donkeys to the different towns they visited.

Although this is no longer viable, this project bringing together young people of different nationalities to prepare and create street theatre remains the same.

The theme for this year's International Youth Day was 'Safe spaces for Youth' where young people can participate in sports and other leisure activities in the community. This includes digital spaces enabling them to interact virtually across borders as well as access to physical spaces adapted to the needs of diverse youth, particularly those who are vulnerable to marginalisation or violence.

With this in mind, Teulada-Moraira's town hall offered De Amicitia the use of the Explanada del Castillo.

The times they are a'changing

VICENTE BOLUFER, owner and editor of the Spanishlanguage Teulada-Moraira digital publication maintained that the town needed to reinvent itself.

circumstances is a grave error." The professional tourist

"Times change," he wrote,

"and not adapting to new sector learnt the importance of this maxim when the Club Nautico yacht club opened in the 80's, Bolufer wrote.

Businesses and, therefore, their owners adapted to the demand for what was then known as 'quality tourism.'

There was a proliferation of restaurants, estate agents and banks in a 'golden age' which coincided with the building boom.

"Those times won't return and we should not look back," the editor warned. "We have to concentrate on the present and prepare for the future."

It was necessary to be realistic and recognise that as the municipality has few hotel beds Teulada-Moraira tourists tended to rent villas, with entire families holidaying there.

"An average family can't spend its budget on eating breakfast, lunch and dinner at restaurants each day, especially as the villas they rent are equipped with everything required to cook their own meals."

Tourists still spend money on restaurants, leisure and culture and this money was part of the cash injection that boosted the municipality's economy.

But the 'quality tourism' mantra was outworn, Bolufer said. "The sector has to adjust, come what may, to the tourism that visits us now. We all know the saying: adapt or perish."

JAVEA'S Red Cross lifesavers were kept busy on two consecutive days with beach-related incidents.

No sooner had they arrived at the Arenal beach on a day with two-metre high waves than they had to rescue a family of five who were struggling to return to the shore.

The beach is notorious for its strong currents and undertow and in previous years those ignoring the Red Flag and lifesavers' warnings have had to pay fines of up to  $\in$  700.

The following day, a 28-yearold tombstoning from Javea's Cap Negre cliffs was badly injured with a suspected broken collarbone and arm as well as multiple bruising after diving from a height of eight metres.

The Red Cross lifesavers evacuated him by boat to the better-communicated La Barraca beach although the ambulance and another emergency vehicle were held up for several minutes before they could access the beach owing to badly parked cars

The third incident involved a 56-year-old woman who hit her chest on the handlebars of a hired jet-ski who received first aid from the Red Cross but was transferred to hospital as she had difficulty in breathing.

NEWS

JAVEA Town Hall, with the collaboration of Alicante's provincial council, the Diputacion, will again be offering free Spanish classes.

The intensive courses for foreign residents who want to improve their knowledge of the language begin next September.

There will be two levels, explained Javea's Residens' councillor Doris Courcelles, with Basic and Intermediate courses held between September 3 and 27.

Places are limited, so those who wish to enrol are advised to ask for further information as soon as possible at the Help Desk located in the Citizens' Information Office (OAC) adjoining the Portal del Clot car park.

The basic classes will be held at the Biblioteca del Puerto library between 10am and 12 noon on Mondays and Wednesday. Intermediate classes will be held in the same building, also between 10am and 12 noon, each Tuesday and Thursday.

Enrolment and textbooks are free, but it is necessary to be registered on the municipal padron and have an NIE number.

Within range

A LA PLANA resident complained that the Javea firing range in the Montgo national park was a noisy nuisance and a danger to the public as cartridges are routinely left in rubbish containers. She also said that it was so badly signposted that anyone passing by ran the risk of getting a gunshot wound.

Wish upon a star instead

DESPITE hefty fines, members of the public continue to launch burning wish lanterns on the Costa Blanca.

The paper lanterns fill with hot air once the combustible material in the base is lighted and they can travel hundreds of metres, supposedly releasing the launcher's fears and desires.

A group of Spanish tourists in Javea now face fines of up to  $\leq 500$  after the Local Police discovered them setting off lanterns from La Grava beach at 2am in the morning.

They soared high into the sky and were lost to sight almost immediately, police sources said afterwards.

La Grava is located near heavily-wooded Cabo San Antonio inside Montgo national park, which has been badly affected by fires in the past, most recently in 2014 when 444 hectares were lost.

Javea Town Hall has stressed during fire prevention campaigns that these lanterns are prohibited in the municipality owing to the risks they pose.

An Irish-American house party started a minor forest fire on Montgo in 2013 after launching wish lanterns from the terrace of their Denia villa, but although there have been incidents with the lanterns in Javea, the fires have been extinguished before they could take hold.

A Guide for tourists who want to stop being one

The famous 'Red Prawns of Denia'

HAVE you ever tried the exquisite and unique 'Red Prawns of Denia'? Today we want to pay homage to one of the bestknown ambassadors of Dénia. Found along the Mediterranean coast, and the Gulf of Alicante, they capture the very essence of the Mediterranean

Denia was originally believed to be their natural habitat according to popular belief and the devotion of those who had tried them. Their name developed over generations. However, despite their name, they are not actually to be found on the shores of Denia, a fact confirmed by Paco Alonso, in La Vanguardia newspaper less than a year ago: "The red prawns don't live off the coast of Dénia... The species is located on the continental and insular slopes, such as off the Balearic Islands, in depths ranging from 200m to depths above 1,000m, concentrating in muddy sea beds between 350 and 550m deep."

They are a natural and succulent dish that requires little or no elaboration. Connoisseurs say that the flavour of the Mediterranean resides within them, and one really only has to taste them to know what they mean. The red prawns really are that good, and quite unlike other prawns. Finding the red prawns is a test of fire for the most seasoned sailors, since their banks tend to change locations over time. And the secret to their whereabouts is closely guarded by those who have continuously been successful, like hidden treasures of the Mediterranean Sea.

A couple of minutes in boiling sea or salted mineral water will suffice to let the incredible taste of this amazing crustacean be enjoyed. They will have to be cooled before serving and then they will be ready to enjoy. They are a plate highly prized by every true Dianense, and one that is best enjoyed eating with your hands, no matter how fine the restaurant.

There are many places in Dénia where you can enjoy the Red Prawns of Denia, but one of the most beautiful and cosy enclaves to enjoy these and almost anything else, is the Restaurante Primera Linea:

Restaurante Primera Linea

They say there is no second chance for a first impression. Restaurante Primer Linea doesn't need one. The gentle sea breeze, the fresh smell of the Mediterranean, a colourful and carefree atmosphere, fabulous windows and views, all make the restaurant a relaxing place where it is simply pleasant to sit, contemplate, relax

Whilst one enjoys the first line location on the coast, they serve a small glass of fresh wine and red prawns from Dénia on your table

The sensory experience multiplies, reaching something similar to gastronomic ecstasy. Restaurante Primer Linea is one of the doorways one enters to fully experience the gastronomy of Dénia and the Marina Alta.

Filled with good energy, it is a place that awakens your senses

From the moment you arrive you can feel that beautiful memories are being made. A village from the beginning of the century cradles the cuisine of this emblematic restaurant that year after year earns more devotees of its paellas, cocas and typical dishes of the Marina Alta cuisine.

Fresh and local products plus respect for the culinary tradition of our region are the markers of an outstanding dining experience, to be repeatedly enjoyed and remembered.

The risk of not having an independent lawyer in the purchase or sale of a property in Spain

WE occasionally receive enquiries from clients who have suffered wrong advice and even abuse from professionals who have been involved in the process of buying or selling their properties in Spain, including agents, consultants, and banks, etc.

To ensure the legality of the transaction, we believe that it is essential to hire the services of an independent lawyer, so if there is any problem you would be able to take action against them.

Always remember to ask your lawyer to confirm their registration number within the Law Society they belong to.

You can check if a lawyer is properly registered via website: www.abogacia.es/servicios-abogacia/censo-de-letrados/

You should also know that to register with the Spanish Law Society, lawyers must have proCarlos Baos We can help you.

fessional liability insurance.

A number of clients have informed us that on occasion they have been recommended a lawyer by the real estate agent or the seller or promoter of a property. We believe in these cases there can be a clear conflict of interest.

It is essential that the lawyer chosen only looks after the client's interest and rights. Here at White Baos Lawyers we advise against contracting a lawyer who has a professional relationship or represents any of the other parties of the transaction.

In addition, an independent lawyer can help you avoid unnecessary economic loss

We recently warned an expatriate client buyer of an abuse that a bank wanted to commit against him, as he had been informed by this bank that as a necessary part of the mortgage loan, the client had to sign up for a life insurance, which was unique and carried a pre-paid premium of  $\leq 30,000$ more than 10 times the normal cost of a premium in the open market. Clearly, this was a case of real abuse. Apparently the client was introduced to the bank by the estate agent who claimed this was the best bank in Spain to approach for a mortgage loan.

An independent lawyer will tell you that you should compare different banks' offers, before agreeing a mortgage loan, or opening an account and even if the lawyer can recommend some banks they will advise you to compare as many as possible, to be able to contract the most suitable for you, the same applies to insurance companies, currency exchange companies, etc.

An independent expert lawyer can provide you with information about the process of buying or selling in Spain, drawing up the contract that best suits your circumstances and protects your rights, and will ensure the property you want to buy has the correct land registry, urban, planning, cadastral status etc. What's more, they will also warn you about risks of purchase or sale.

Contact us and we will help you in this important area.

The information provided in this article is not intended to be legal advice, but merely conveys general information related to legal issues.

France asylum offer | Illegal renters warned

ASYLUM OFFER: France has offered to take around 20 of the migrants

Joe Gerrard

THE French government has said it would be prepared to take migrants from a rescue boat that picked up migrants near Libya and docked in Algeciras last Thursday.

The French Presidency said it would offer to accommodate around 20 of the people from the Open Arms rescue ship in a show of 'European solidarity.'

The announcement from French officials and the decision by Prime Minister Pedro Sanchez to allow the ship to dock follows its turning away by both Italy and Malta.

The people from the boat, including 12 youths, are now set to face an asylum application process which could take them up to two years to complete, according to reports. It includes health tests, interviews and identity checks.

French officials are due to travel to Spain to begin speaking to the migrants about their potential applications to seek asylum in the former country. The news comes as Spain opened its first refugee camp in Cadiz Province earlier this week to accommodate the growing number of arrivals.

Pedro Sanchez said Madrid was also planning to open a new Migrant Processing Centre in Algeciras at a cost of around € 30 million.

More than 23,000 migrants, many of which are refugees fleeing war in sub Saharan Africa, have arrived in Spain since the start of this year according to United Nations figures

Getting caught would mean having to withdraw the property from the market and could mean facing a fine of up to €40,000 with reductions for early payment.

Bar and restaurant sales up

SALES at bars and restaurants in Spain rose by 2.5 per cent last year with a total of more than  $\in$  3.6 billion made by the sector, according to industry data.

Figures show there was a total of 277,539 food and drinks establishments in Spain by the end of last year. That is the equivlant of one for every 175 people in the country.

There is a total of 49.642 food and drinks establishments in Andalucia. The region has the highest number of bars and restaurants of any in Spain.

Cataluña came second with a total of 43,859, followed by Valencia with 32,104 and Madrid with 30,882.

Migration ship

refused docking

By Joe Gerrard

SPAIN has rejected an appeal from a boat carrying 141 migrants picked up in the Mediterranean that previously sent out an SOS docking request to European Union (EU) countries.

The Aquarius, which rescued the 84 men and boys and 57 women and girls off the coast of Libya last Friday, has had other requests rejected by Malta and Italy. Spain's ports were not the nearest for the vessel and were therefore not the safest, according to sources from the government in Madrid.

The Italian transport minister said the British should take responsibility for letting the vessel dock due to it flying the flag of Gibraltar.

"The ship is now in Maltese waters and under the flag of Gibraltar, at which point Britain must take responsibility for it and its passengers," he said on Twitter.

Local officials in Barcelona said the city's council would be willing to take the boat despite Madrid's refusal.

Laia Oritz, a council social rights spokesperson, said Barcelona would always be committed to saving lives.

"Members of the European Union need to take responsibility because these people are fleeing dire circumstances and need to be rescued," she said.

Jean-Claude Gayssot, the head of the port of Sete in France, said he would be willing to allow the boat to dock there.

"The only condition is getting the green light from French authorities," he said.

Gayssot said he understood there were concerns about smuggling and trafficking which crossed over into the issue but added that was secondary to saving lives.

"Everything must be second in relation to saving the lives of families, women and children. This is about human lives and the problem is first and foremost a humanitarian one," he said.

French authorities did not rule out allowing the boat to dock earlier this week but they also did not state they would do so.

Spain allowed the Aquarius and one other boat to dock in Valencia City in June and authorities arranged for the 629 passengers to be granted asylum in the country.

The news comes as Amnesty International accused the EU of presiding over migration policies that have led to rising deaths in the Mediterranean.

Matteo de Bellis, an asylum specialist with the group, said the number of deaths had increased 'significantly' in recent months.

"The responsibility for these growing numbers rests with European governments who are more concerned with keeping migrants and refugees out of their borders than saving lives," De Bellis said.

"European governments are in cahoots with the Libyan government to contain refugees and migrations there despite the terrible violations they are enduring from coastguards and in detention centres," he added.

TURNED DOWN: The Aquarius remains at sea after Spain's decision.

Hundreds injured in stage collapse at Vigo

accident are treated in a makeshift tent.

A SECTION of wooden jetty collapsed at a sports and music festival in Spain, injuring more than 330 people, five seriously.

The stage was right on the seafront of the north-west city of Vigo, Galicia, and was crowded with people watching a rap artist at the O Marisquiño event.

Police stated that there were no known fatalities, but witnesses described chaotic scenes as people - many of them teenagers - tried to claw themselves to safety. Some fell into the sea and people's belongings eg mobile phones and handbags were left strewn on the ground.

Emergency services attended to the injured, and divers were deployed to the sea to check for people, as the wooden boards had cracked along a central section.

Reports suggest that the incident happened shortly before midnight on Sunday during the performance of Mallorcan rapper Rels B.

In a tweet Rels B wished 'strength' to the injured and told concerned relatives or friends to contact the emergency help desk set up by festival organisers.

It is not clear why the platform collapsed, and Vigo's mayor Abel Caballero has confirmed an investigation is underway.

A week earlier Elena Muñoz Fonteriz, President of the Vigo Popular Party, had warned on social media that the jetty was unsound and that officials should examine it before the concert went ahead.

TWITTER STORM: The closure sparked an outcry.

Account closure outcry

A DECISION from the Twitter social network site to shut down an account which posted tweets in favour of a united Spain has caused uproar on the platform.

The hashtag #Twitter-RompeEspaña (Twitter breaks Spain in English) was trending on the site from last weekend.

Many users have tweeted that the move was unfair Some have said Twitter's decision to close the account but allow ones in favour of Catalan independence smacks of hypocrisy from the social network.

'What will Twitter do with all the fascist-separatist-Catalanist accounts?' One user wrote.

Others have said opposition to the closure has been an overreaction. Some have argued that in a few cases accounts dedicated to Spanish unity have masked an undercurrent of fascist and nationalist sentiments that have no place on the social network.

'Apparently if you are not right-wing or nationalist or if you do not have the features of the right then you break a piece of land. You have to

Brit complains about too many locals in Benidorm hotel

SPOILT HOLIDAY: Freda has demanded a full refund or a free trip from tour operator Thomas Cook.

A PENSIONER has complained that her Benidorm holiday was spoiled by 'too many Spanish people in her hotel' and suggested they should go somewhere else for their holidays.

Eighty-one-year-old Freda Jackson, who suffers from mobility issues, said her accommodation on the Costa Blanca was teeming with 'rude' Spaniards.

"The entertainment in the hotel was all focused and catered for the Spanish - why can't they go somewhere else for their holidays?"

Grandmother Freda and her 61-year-old friend paid a total of over £1,000 for the holiday and have demanded a full refund or a free trip from tour operator Thomas Cook.

Freda, who lives in Blackburn, Lancashire, had booked to stay at the threestar hotel with a friend in April 2017.

She said, "I have never complained about a holiday before - but this one was a disaster from start to finish." Her list of complaints included that she had asked for accommodation on flat land and found herself in a hillside hotel; in negotiating a high step from the coach she banged an arthritic knee; there were no reps from Thomas Cook to help and their flight had been brought forward a day with only a few days notice given.

Thomas Cook initially offered Freda and her friend a £75 goodwill gesture voucher as compensation for the trip, but later made an improved offer to be split between the pair.

Freda says she has not yet decided whether or not to accept the £566.

Clean up your act!

HOTEL cleaners in Benidorm will take to the streets next week demanding better treatment and working conditions.

Pressure group Las Kellys will demonstrate in front of some of the resort's hotels on Thursday August 23 between 7pm and 9pm.

They are calling it a day when the whistle will be blown about hotel bosses who do not respect their rights. Their slogan 'Not Everything Goes' is aimed at the attitudes of some hoteliers in the Costa Blanca resort that force them to overwork.

A spokesperson said: "We demand forceful and rapid measures by labour inspectors to end these practices."

That sinking feeling

SIX crew had to be rescued when their luxury yacht sank off Javea.

Other recreational boats, the Red Cross, Maritime rescue and police raced to the scene as the drama unfolded.

The 19-metre boat started to slip beneath the waves from its stern at Portitxol de Xabia, between the cove of Barraca and the Isla del Portitxol on Monday afternoon.

All crew were rescued safely with no reports of any injuries.

A call went out to Denia for a larger salvage boat to be sent to help haul the boat to safety as the local lifeboat was not big enough for the job.

Harrison

THE new Editor of the EWN Media Group has the savvy nous and sheer common sense, hard won through careers in media and public relations, as well as many years as a hard-bitten policeman.

Such a wide-ranging wealth of experience should serve Dean Harrison (just call him Harrison) well in his new role as hands-on editor of the six editions of the Euro Weekly News (EWN), as well as his position overseeing the three-strong RTN family of papers and the Sol Times in Almeria.

Harrison, who has previously worked for the EWN as head of its digital media team, has been in Spain for five years now and says he plans to approach the job with diligence, openness and with a team mindset.

"I want to ensure we deliver the best results for all our editions and ultimately for our readers and clients," he said.

He added that he will work hard to build on the success of the company following its winning of the Spanish Press Association's Professional Trajectory Award this year and the Best Free Publication award in 2017.

"I'm conscious that the EWN has achieved great things recently and I can't wait to take it to greater heights," he said. "The group has gone from strength to strength under my predecessors and under the guidance of owners and publishers Steven and Michel Euesden. Let's see how far we can take it going forward," he said.

Harrison's background in the police gives him an attention to detail and a hunger for facts that serves him well in sniffing out the news, plus the organisational skills to put his ideas into practice.

He is committed to delivering the quality combination of hard-hitting news and community and human interest stories that readers have come to associate with the EWN.

"I've been back here for a short time to prep for my new role and I've already seen a wide array of well researched local stories. Our excellent ream of young reporters have been interviewing residents and holidaymakers, as well as covering national news, which our loyal readers come back to us for time and again.

"I'd like to take this opportunity to ask all readers of the EWN to keep getting in touch with us and letting us know about the issues that are affecting them in their local areas," he said.

Harrison has until recently spent much of his time on the Costa del Sol. Now he is looking forward to getting to know other areas popular with expatriates I want to ensure we deliver the best results for all our editions and ultimately for our readers and clients."

through his work at the EWN.

"I've spent time in our other areas but not as much as I would like. I feel our readers want to have the opportunity to learn about what's going on where their fellow expats are based.

"Now I have the opportunity to join our readers on that and to learn more about places which I've not had the chance to see," he said.

Harrison believes that in today's testing times for both Spain and the world the EWN can continue to be an informative, interesting and entertaining read for anyone interested in news and current affairs.

"I would like to thank everyone in the office for welcoming me on board and having the chance to give the best to our readers. I'm looking forward to hearing everyone's feedback on how my tenure as editor goes," he said.

HARRISON: New editor.

Activist banned from travelling

A MEMBER of the Pussy Riot rock band has been barred from leaving Russia over allegations of dodging community service handed down for protests. Maria 'Masha' Alyokhina tweeted airport security had stopped her from flying to London for the Edinburgh Fringe Festival where she was scheduled to perform last week. The ban could reportedly last up to six months.

Prisoner 'barely alive'

A JAILED Ukrainian filmmaker who went on hunger strike more than 90 days ago in protest against alleged political detentions claimed he was 'barely' alive in a letter. Oleg Sentsov, from Crimea, is in a prison north of the Arctic Circle serving a 20-year sentence on terror convictions.

Petition gets backing

ELECTION authorities in Russia have approved a petition for a referendum on whether to raise the country's retirement age. The Central Election Commission (CEC) gave the go ahead to petitions which called for a poll on plans to raise

Off the rails

A LONDON-BASED media company has produced a guide to Moscow's metro network in an effort to give visitors all the information needed to track down its architectural gems. The Moscow Metro Architecture and Design Map comes in a yellow on red Soviet style booklet reminiscent of the era that spawned the 'People's Palaces,' or stations, of the 1930's. It highlights 43 out of 214 stops.

retirement ages to 65 for men and 63 for women.

Policy support slump

A TOTAL of 16 per cent of Russians back President Vladimir Putin's foreign policy amidst domestic initiatives such as plans to raise the retirement age, according to a survey. Denis Volkov, of the Centre, said many Russians wanted politicians to put their country first instead of intervening abroad. Support stood at 22 per cent two years ago.

Sanctions slammed

DIPLOMATS at Russia's Washington DC embassy have claimed new United States sanctions targeting their country in the wake of the alleged poisoning of Sergei and Yulia Skripal are 'draconian.' The penalties, the news of which caused Russian stock and currency prices to tumble last week, follow claims that Russia targeted the Skripals. The embassy branded the accusations 'farfetched.3

STAT OF WEEK

€2.8bn state aid plunge revealed

SPAIN has placed third bottom in a European Union-wide ranking of financial support offered to companies

A new report by the National Commission of Markets and Competition has revealed how state aid to firms based in the country has been slashed by €2.8 billion - almost half - since 2009

This represents just 0.26 per cent of gross domestic product with only Italy (0.22 per cent) and Ireland (0.2) contributing less.

And the UK (0.36) also fares badly, falling below the EU average 0.7 per cent.

Mango losses reduced

ALTHOUGH at one time the Mango fashion chain was pushing Inditex (owner of Zara and other high street names) for financial dominance, recently it has been in the doldrums.

than  $\in 2$  billion which produced significant profits, its 2017 report shows that it has reduced losses by 45 per cent to €33 million, although sales have dropped €2.194 billion.

At least its gross operating profit has increased by some €115 million which is 50 per cent up on 2016, but this would have been much higher had it not been for a very hot second half of the year in its main markets which saw overall sales depressed

Indeed according to the company, had the results of the first half of the year carried through to the second half, then it would have seen a return to profit.

Interim figures for 2018 are encouraging and if they continue to follow the trend of the first six months then final results should be encouraging, especially as the company has reduced its debt €617 million to  $\in$  415 million.

Mango now has 2,190 stores in 110 countries.

National bank's crypto scheme

SPAIN'S central bank has claimed that cryptocurrency and blockchain technology could help the country's economy.

It comes after the Banco de España (BDE) released a report probing the pros and cons of introducing a virtual version of the state currency.

And according to industry boffins, digital coins and ledgers would particularly benefit monetary policy and financial infrastructure.

BDE senior economist Galo Nuño was the man behind the study, and he argues that blockchain technology could help track the nation's money supply.

It's still cheaper to live in Spain

A RECENT report suggests that although prices have increased, it is still much cheaper to live in Spain than in the United Kingdom.

Naturally there are regional differences in both countries and there may be a negative affect for new arrivals following Brexit but overall, there are some significant savings to be made for any Brits who want to emigrate to the Iberian Peninsula.

The company thinkSpain highlights the main savings that can be made, with the most striking being in the cost of property with average prices per square metre as much as five times cheaper in Spain with certain costs such as heating also significantly lower.

Public transport is cheaper as well and there are special discounts which can be obtained for pensioners who are looking to travel relatively long journeys by train.

Petrol is still cheaper although by only a few per cent, but if you are lucky enough to live near to Gibraltar, you can pop in there and fill up saving up to a stunning Good news for expats

SIGNIFICANT SAVINGS: Enjoy cheaper food and drink in Spain.

20 per cent on Spanish prices.

Eating out is generally much cheaper with a choice of set menus at prices that may astound the tourist used to London prices and although the Spanish have increased the margins on wines and spirits sold in restaurants and bars, it is still possible to buy a decent bottle of wine in a store for around  $\in 3$  and something drinkable can be as cheap as  $\in 1.50$ .

Whilst looking at 'vices,' beer, spirits and cigarettes are generally cheaper than the UK and apart from Gibraltar, there are also bargains to be had in both Andorra and the Canary Islands.

There are some negatives, especially with regards to inheritance tax for foreigners and the fact that a spouse may not be able to be left the family property if there are children or other family members in the country, but a good lawyer will be able to advise on the best form of Will and which country it should be prepared in.

If you decide to take up work and are registered with Spanish Social Security then you and your family will be able to take advantage of the health care system and for expatriate pensioners, the UK will currently advise the Spanish health service of your eligibility to be included.

So life (including most 'council taxes') is cheaper, but there is also the added bonus of the warm weather which suits many, although it would be a good idea to check average temperatures across the year as some areas can see exceptional heat in the summer months.

Mercadona phases out plastic bags

AFTER introducing a trial in 66 of its supermarkets throughout Spain, the Mercadona group has announced that with effect from 2019 it will cease to supply new plastic bags to customers.

The company declared that it supported a sustainable policy as early as 2011 and for the future it will be offering consumers the opportunity to purchase recycled plastic, paper or at a slightly higher cost a raffia basket.

The basket in particular has been quite popular with shoppers and has seen an overall reduction in consumption of other types of bags.

Another part of its strategy will be to phase in new household goods such as buckets and brooms also made from recycled plastic.

Both Golden Leaves and the funeral director were amazing throughout the process, guiding me through everything and getting everything prepared. Keith

Are our values being threatened?

LEAPY LEE SAYS IT OTHERS THINK IT

"DADDY," says the little boy, looking enquiringly up at his Father. "Why do we wear these long white robes?"

"Well my son," replies his Dad. "That's to keep the flies away and the mosquitoes from biting our arms and legs." "Oh I see," says the boy. "And Dad, why do we wear these wide sandals?" "To stop us from sinking into the sand," explains his Father. "Also," he adds, "this cloth over our head is to protect us from the sun and the dust of the desert." The boy appears somewhat puzzled. "Dad" he says; "why are we dressed like this in the middle of Luton!?"

This oldie but goodie, just about sums up the burka controversy that has been wasting so much of our precious time over the last couple of weeks. Basically it demonstrates that there is simply no valid reason whatsoever for any woman to walk around in this garment of utterly depressing Draconian diversity.

Not only is it is an affront to European society, it is yet another weapon in the cultural war that is being raged against us by people who have no interest in any integration or acceptance of Western values at all. This foreboding garment is confrontational, intimidating and, as there is no mention of it in any 'holy book,' bears no religious significance whatsoever.

For the women who dress in this manner to consider themselves 'upset' or 'offended' by Boris referring to them as resembling 'letterboxes' and 'bank robbers' is pretty rich, when many of them have been utterly scathing and downright insulting with their public accusations of 'sluts' and 'whores' toward any Western women who deems to wear clothing that may reveal some part of their anatomy slightly above the knee or elbow.

Most of these women wear this shapeless attire at the behest of their men, who are so insecure in their relationships, and so jealous and distrustful of their peers, they simply can't risk any randy rival taking a shine and delivering the ultimate insult by possibly running off with their missus. To my way of thinking, as long as it doesn't incite rioting or undue hardship, we should be allowed to voice any opinions we desire.

Our Western values are slowly but surely being eroded and gagged by this ridiculous political correctness, which to me increasingly appears to be totally one sided and biased against our Western communities.

This is how we are all being thanked for extending the hand of friendship and welcome to the diversity and cultures of distant lands. Well I've got another phobia which is moving nearer to my heart by the day. It's called Westernophobia. And I for one am utterly sick and tired of it.

The sooner those, who think they can change our society and proud historical heritage by running slip shod over all we hold near and dear, begin to realise we will never succumb to their endeavours, the better it will be for all concerned.

Many happy returns to my wonderful twins David and Rebecca who reached the ripe old age of 18 this week. Where did it all go I ask myself? Have a great day. Love ya both to bits.

One of the most traditional restaurants in Oliva

SOMETIMES it can be difficult to find a restaurant which embodies the true spirit of Andalucia, but the Restaurante Viva España in Oliva does this in a big way whilst ensuring that guests have a most enjoyable visit.

It has been offering visitors a superb experience since 1977 when it was opened by a Valencian family, along with their two daughters following their return to Spain from South Africa, where they set up the first Viva España in Johannesburg.

Some people may be worried about the fact that this is a large and busy restaurant which puts on a number of shows, including equestrian in the car park and flamenco in the restaurant, but the number of very positive reviews and 5* notices on TripAdvisor make it clear that this is not a 'tourist trap,' but an establishment that goes out of its way to supply great entertainment and good quality food at affordable prices.

Whatever your taste, Viva España will have something for you.

This is the ideal venue for any special celebration as there is plenty of room for family groups to get together, but it is also perfect for small groups who just want to enjoy exceptional cooking in typically Spanish surroundings.

In creating Viva España the aim was to give customers the best quality food and entertainment in a relaxed and comfortable environment and they succeeded, so much so that now, some 40 years later, the restaurant is more popular than ever.

The Restaurant regularly hosts unique equestrian events which feature Spanish purebred horses performing in the grounds which is then followed by meal ending with the main show from the Ballet Viva España, a perfect opportunity to bring your friends or children. The next shows are on Friday, August 24, Friday September 7 and Sunday September 23.

All of these events are always popular and reservations are essential, so call 962 850 018 or 695 161 207 to arrange everything with Jacqueline, a member of the family that runs the restaurant. If you can't make one of the calabration nights, then don't forget

If you can't make one of the celebration nights, then don't forget that there is a Menu del Dia which costs just  $\in$  9.50 plus IVA on Monday to Friday at lunchtime and every Saturday they have a dinner and dance night with a Spanish band and a menu for just  $\in$  16 plus IVA (or of course you can dine a la carte).

Sunday nights see the full flamenco show with two different meal choices priced at  $\in 28$  or  $\in 38$  plus IVA and finally on Sunday early evening there is a buffet with music, so you can enjoy a snack and dance for just €10 plus IVA.

Perfect for couples and larger parties, Viva España is easy to locate, has ample free parking and is child friendly.

Cassandra Nash

A weekly look - and not entirely impartial reaction - to the Spanish political scene

PABLO CASADO, the Partido Popular's wunderkind could turn out to be not so wonderful after all.

Like the Madrid Community's defenestrated regional president, he has a very dubious Master's degree in Autonomous Law to explain away.

And it's not only his political opponents inside and outside the party who believe there is something dodgy about the way he obtained the degree, as the investigating judge thinks there's something fishy, too.

Fishy enough to decide that there could be a case against Casado to pass on the case to the Supreme Court. Not because it's such a heinous crime but as an MP he has the privilege of being tried there and not in a common or garden High Court.

Casado wasn't too bright a student at the demanding Jesuit-run ICADE Business School in Madrid by all accounts, and squeaked through with Law but didn't manage the degree in Business Administration.

Never mind, he is remembered as being very active in the Hall of Residence and for organising debates, all of which was good practice for his future calling. Being a convincing orator is all that a politician needs, regardless of what he is saying although it looks as though Casado could soon be called on to do some very fast talking indeed.

Bleeding heart

OH boo-hoo. Diddums. Should our hearts bleed for poor victimised Pablo Casado who could face prosecution for an irregularly-awarded Master's degree.

"What they've done to me they haven't done to anyone else in the country," he fumed recently.

Well actually, Pablo, they did exactly the same thing to Cristina Cifuentes. Just don't go and shoplift two jars of anti-ageing face cream, that's all.

The seven-year hitch

The fast talker

CATALUÑA'S secession fanatics are never going to change their tune but there will be less discord even if there's no harmony, so long as lines of communication remain open between Madrid and Barcelona.

The president of Spain's government Pedro Sanchez recently met Cataluña's regional president Quim Torra and as expected they emerged without reaching any kind of agreement.

This was the first meeting between a Spanish and a Catalan president for seven years but as Sanchez mildly pointed out, he was only doing what Spain's constitutional and autonomous laws require.

But Sanchez has pledged that until Torra's government does anything downright illegal, there will be no more of Mariano Rajoy's 'this is in the hands of the courts' handwashing

Regarding Gurtel and corruption, that attitude

Honey v Vinegar

THERE were no concessions from the national government following the Sanchez-Torra meeting although after listening to Pablo Casado and Ciudadanos' leader Albert Rivera you'd think that Sanchez had sold off the family silver, not to mention the crown jewels.

Predictably Casado followed the official Partido Popular line but Rivera's reaction could turn out to be self-defeating.

Roughly half of Cataluña does not want independence and Rivera, who is itching for a fight on their behalf, fears that Sanchez's softly-softly approach could get better results. You catch more flies with honey than vinegar but Rivera wants vinegar all the way.

lost him the government and it almost lost him Cataluña

The Catalan problem has never been the legal issue that Rajoy and his government turned it into. It requires, as Pedro Sanchez said, a political solution.

What that solution is, heaven only knows and it could be as elusive as the crock of gold at the foot of the rainbow. At least Sanchez's looking for it, which is more than can be said for Rajoy.

Bring on the Dragons

by Adam Whalley-Lewis

SO, the dragons are back. No breathing fire please, remember we are under a Wild Fire Order, but they burst back onto our screens on Sunday evening, BBC2. I'm not sure where said Dragons got their studio from. I think they pinched from Channel 4's Four Rooms - you know, the show where you turn up with bit of old tat and the rich people in the rooms tell you it's lovely, but just not for them.

Back to the Dragons. Just how tall is Peter Jones and does he live in Sloane Square? I don't know, but it must deflate your ego something terrible when Peter tells you 'I just don't like vou' as he did on Sunday. I really liked the new model tuk-tuk and even though the Dragons were concerned that the entire project was doomed (which it was, Dad's Army style doomed) I might have risked a Euro or two just to see where the idea might have gotten to. The Dragons continue to deflate bubbly entrepreneurs on BBC2, Sunday evenings.

Fans of BBC1's Strictly Come Dancing, please place your feet firmly on the floor, return your tray table to the upright position and brace yourselves. Auntie has started to release the names of the celebrities who will appear on this year's show. I really don't like the trickle approach to telling us who will be waltzing across our screens in a few weeks' time. Just tell us. We can stand it and we won't inflate our life vests until we are clear of the aircraft, promise Auntie. It will be difficult for hard core Strictly fans across the Costas not to wish the summer heat away and chair dance to the theme tune, but be careful what you wish for guys, remember last winter?

How are you getting on with BBC1's Age Before Beauty on Tuesday nights? I know there are a lot of Robson Green fans out there, but we haven't yet spotted any river monsters or even a suggestion of a rowing boat, never mind deep sea fishing.

I think the first few episodes have done far too much scene setting and haven't netted me yet. To be honest I'm just not sure that Teddy (Robson) would want to break up Wesley and Bel (James Murray and Polly Walker) and this could be the lobster pot in the plot, why is Teddy going to all that trouble when he could be out catching monster fish?

The cast is solid enough though and I won't give up on this one just yet.

BBC1 is currently dishing up another helping of The Real Marigold Hotel on Wednesday nights. The celebrities are, in theory, experiencing life in India with a view to possibly retiring there. I smell a rat. I don't know how many celebs have visited nice places in the name of possibly retiring there, only to go home and think it over in the final episode and actually never think about it ever again - like those folk on A Place in the Sun who you know just aren't going to buy the villa on the coast although it is perfect for them. It is worth dipping in via BBC iPlayer, just for Selina Scott and Stanley Johnson.

Celebrity Big Brother launches today (Thursday) on Channel 5. You just know I can't wait for next week's column.

Move over Mrs May - amid Tory turmoil and a possible 'no-deal Brexit'!

IT'S really hard to understand why Theresa May's leadership hasn't been challenged. If the milk's gone off, don't you throw it out of the fridge? The idea that some miraculous Brexit whiterabbit deal will be pulled out of the hat at the last minute is sheer wishful thinking. Even the infamous Chequers deal's been rejected by Brussels.

Theresa May's been given plenty of time to show leadership skills. She excels in hand-wringing, feet-dragging and kow-towing to the EU. But her heart isn't in Brexit.

Advertising Feature

And her poor negotiating skills seem to be a deliberate act. She sidles into negotiations with an apologetic expression on her face like some bit-part actor in a gloomy pantomime as though all's lost - maybe geared towards boring everyone into submission?

But this isn't a play or a game. This is about the future of the UK. This accidental PM has nothing to offer, no vision for the future and is totally frozen in pow> er due to the warring Tory tribes and the nightmare proposition of a Marxist Labour opposition. As divisions within the Tory Party deepen, the prospect of a leadership challenge increases. As Enoch Powell put it: 'all political life ends in failure,' but the problem is that ******* leading politicians never know when the party's over and it's time to leave the stage.

The one thing Brexit negotiations have demonstrated is we simply don't have the calibre of politician who can deal efficiently with this vital, complex task. They cope with insignificant matters, but when it comes to the 'biggies,' they're out of their depth.

None of them have any conviction. They just say what they think people want to hear in the hope of winning and then proceed to do what their donors tell them. Like ferrets in a sack. The country deserves better. 'BIT-PART ACTOR' : Theresa May has come under fire for her role in Brexit negotiations.

LEGALLY SPEAKING Can he sue the mechanic?

My neighbour, a mechanic, offered to repair my car for an hourly rate. He stripped down the piece involved and I bought the necessary parts. He spent seven hours working on it, for which I paid him.

He then decided he didn't want to work on it any more because he is too busy with other jobs. I said that I could wait until he had time, but he said I should find somebody else. Do we have a verbal contract? Can I seriously threaten to denounce him if he doesn't complete the job?

WC (Costa del Sol)

David Searl You and the Law in Spain

ic, but your prospects are not good. First, what does your contract actually say? Did your mechanic promise to finish the job, or only to work on it? Do you have a witness? You cannot 'denounce' him because he has not committed any crime. You would have to sue him for your financial loss. Your legal expenses would surely come to more than you can reasonably claim from him, and your chances of winning are small.

How to give yourself peace of mind

Q. Why should Richard and Tony be the busiest people on the Costa Blanca?

CHILDREN are the greatest gift life can bestow on you, and the loss of a child is an almost unimaginable tragedy.

Yet every year throughout Spain there are, on average, 200,000 recorded incidents of children needing medical treatment after nearly drowning. These can range from an on-site check up by an ambulance crew, to a full medical emergency resulting in life changing illnesses for the child and its family. Most of these occur in swimming pools.

Unfortunately, and tragically, around a hundred of these children will die.

The greatest tragedy is that, like most accidents, the vast majority of these incidents are preventable. In the 1980's road deaths in the UK had an alarming statistic: 100 lives every week, over 400 every month.

The equivalent loss of life of having a 'Hillsborough' every week, and a 'Lockerbie' every month. The majority of these deaths would have been prevented by the use of seatbelts, yet people were reluctant to use them. When seatbelt use became the law, these numbers were more than halved. Nowadays, no sane person would ever use a car without belting up, and would definitely never allow children to travel without seatbelts.

Richard and Tony are the owners of Neater Pool Safety Fence. They supply and fit removable swimming Pool Safety Fences that comply with EU Regulations.

Once installed, they can prevent your children accessing the pool during those brief moments of distraction that you will inevitably have, maybe not today, but one day. With a Neater Pool Safety Fence installed, you will have the peace of mind of knowing that, when that heart-wrenching moment does eventually come, the one place you won't have to look for your child is the bottom of your pool.

That is why Richard and Tony should be the busiest people on The Costa Blanca.

Amazing help when needed from Benalmadena hospital

TWO weeks ago I collapsed in Arroyo and the receptionist in the pensioners building of Mosquito Plaza phoned for a doctor and ambulance.

I gave my HIC card and passport to them and 10 minutes later I was in the Benalmadena hospital being attended by doctors. They said it was very serious and we were sent by ambulance to Virgin de la Victoria hospital Malaga.

In great pain I told the doctors and surgeon I had a pacemaker and was refused an operation in the UK, long before it become an emergency. They laughed, saying "no problem we do these ops every day," they spoke English as do many nurses.

It was a successful operation, by an amazing team of doctors and as it was 4am my wife was offered a bed to sleep and given updates on me.

I enjoyed eight days of high standard care with voluntary translators if needed and I thank everyone for their kindness to us both.

I then spent eight days in the Torrequebrada clinic again with voluntary translators on hand if needed.

Money grabbing reds are taking fans to cleaners

THIS season, it will cost a supporter a staggering £110 ( $\in$  123) to buy a replica Manchester United shirt... utterly outrageous!

The weekly salary of the Cambodian textile workers who make the shirts is just  $\pm 31$ -a-week ( $\pm 34.70$ ).

The money-grabbing Premiership club - the most hated football club in the world by the way - already has £3.6 billion ( $\leq$  4.1bn) in the bank from its American owners, the Glazers, plus an annual income of £70m ( $\leq$  78.5m) from Adidas.

There's also a  $\pm 429m (\in 481m)$  seven-year shirt sponsorship with Chevrolet,  $\pm 285m (\in 32m)$  per annum comes in from various commercial deals and almost  $\pm 200m (\in 224m)$  from broadcasting rights.

The club pays out around £275m ( $\notin$  308m) in annual wages (including salaries of £23m ( $\notin$  25.8m) to

WELL PAID: Jose Mourinho using fans' money.

Alexis Sanchez and £15m ( $\in$  16.8m) to manager Jose Mourinho and to add insult to injury, an adult season ticket at Old Trafford for this current campaign is £532 (almost  $\in$  600).

WATCH: 'Cowards' kick, hit and throw broken glasses at injured bull

Why are these heinous events still allowed. What sort of tradition is this. To cause pain and suffering to a living being? People who support these events, or even worse, torture an animal at them, are not fit to be in human society! Next kicks for them to be from torturing a child in the street then, maybe???? ### Tale of two cities

AS far back as 2003, a UN Sponsored Conference affirmed the importance of citizens having ready access to the 'information society.'

Recently, a number of EU countries, including Spain have gone further and declared internet access to be a basic right of citizens.

Unfortunately, in the year 2018, access to 'reliable' internet services in Spain seems to be a postcode lottery. For example, if you are a Movistar customer in the village of Orxeta, in the hills just above Villajoyosa, you can expect 4G wireless internet at download speeds in excess of 20 mbps. If you live just over the hill, as I do, in the village of Relleu you have to make do with a grossly over-subscribed 3G service, very often returning speeds less than 1 mbps.

That just can't be right. Yes we have access to the internet, but often we can't use it! It's 2018 Movistar, get your act together and give all your customers the level of service they were promised and are paying for!

A MacDonald Thompson, Relleu

Thanks Dr Jones

I WOULD like to give thanks and praise to Dr Jones and his staff at Clinica Dental in Alfaz del Pi. I had cause to have some unusual and quite difficult dental surgery recently and this was carried out very professionally with the minimum of discomfort. If you are not yet fluent in Spanish, you need not worry as they speak perfect English. I recommend them to you.

Peter, Alfaz

Sharia law

I ALWAYS read your paper with great appreciation, but Leapy says it all for me this week when quoting what our High Court have decided in relation to accepting Sharia Law.

I worked in the Courts for many years, and that is the worst decision in my lifetime. It opens up a can of worms and where will it end?

I conclude by congratulating you on a most interesting and informative newspaper. Carry on the good work.

HAVE NOTS: A fraction of billionaires' wealth could end global extreme poverty.

Trivia from around the world

*** The French army is the only one in Europe that still employs carrier pigeons. The birds are stationed at Mount Valerien, near Paris, and are intended for use during major natural disasters.

*** Women from the Kayan Lahwi tribe in the Shan state of Myanmar wear a series of neck rings to lengthen them. *** Bolivia's San Pedro prison allows inmates to live with their families, work and rent and buy their cells.

*** Eritrea has scheduled elections regularly but all have been cancelled and none have ever been held.

*** The United Arab Emirates is made up of seven kingdoms, or Emirates, each of which is ruled by a different royal family. The Emirates decided to unite in 1971.

*** Madagascar was discovered by humans relatively recently in 500 CE. That is about 300,000 years after the appearance of Homo sapiens in Africa.

DID YOU KNOW?

Billionaires around the world made €656 billion last year, enough money on top of their existing funds to end extreme poverty across the globe seven times over, according to Oxfam. Winnie Byanyima, of the charity, said the rising number of the super rich was not a sign of a thriving economy, but a symptom of a 'failing' system. The world has at least 2,043 billionaires.

OVE YOUR CAL 902 123 309

(January 21 - February 19)

You like to do your own things in your own way and in your own time. That certainly shows this week. It can cause a bit of a stir with family. Even so, it will inspire someone close to step forward and make their own stand. Put someone straight when they step out of line.

The kind nature that is so much a part of you is only too evident this week. A situation makes you feel frustrated and you need to find a way forward. A bit of expert advice goes a long way even if it does mean that you still have to go it alone. Be strong and remind yourself that this is for someone else.

ARIES (March 21 - April 20) As you prefer living in the here and now, you find it difficult to understand and tolerate people who plot and plan in advance. It is tedious in the extreme to consider every little detail of something which may never happen. Because there is this relaxed attitude, you have developed a larger-than-life personality

This time of year reminds you just how much you enjoy home comforts. Plan ahead now for those chilly winter nights when the air is crisp and the wine is mulled. The urge is to work with others this week and that in itself throws up plans for evenings ahead. Having planned a romantic weekend there may need to be some adjustments

Your mind, as ever, is changeable. This is a fun time to dabble at this and that to bring a bit of variety to your life and work. Meeting new people and starting new projects means that it is a busy time at work but the rewards are high.

This is an emotional week, when it is difficult to keep things to vourself. Get together with others and do a bit of social networking. Talk, and if you cannot bring yourself to confess to a problem, say that it is a friend of yours who has it. Certainly, you need to share this concern to get a balanced picture.

There is a highly social week ahead with social gatherings here and there. A trip means that finances start to look brighter. You may find it necessary, if you are to progress, to consider a move to another job or area. Get involved with people who have been in the same situation.

There is a great impatience this week when someone flatly refuses to see something through to the end. You do not admire sloppiness and your reaction shows this. It may be necessary for you to sort out a situation which has been going on far too long. As you dislike loose ends in any respect, your patience may come to an end.

Energy is high and there is a lot of fun to be had. An invitation sent out brings an old friend to your table. This is not as straightforward as you think it will be. Odd stirrings make you confused.

(October 24 - November 22)

You feel like a fish out of water in a confused and noisy situation. Perhaps you are not making the right kind of friends, so take control of the quality of people who you associate with. Maybe it is relatives that are causing concern. You cannot choose your relatives, but it is possible to see less of them.

This is a great social week Your puppy-like enthusiasm attracts others and a barrage of good vibes comes your way. Indeed, your relaxed attitude allows someone close to get their own life a bit more into perspective.

People look to you to auide them through the maze of right and wrong this week. Your talent for bringing humour into the most tense situations is invaluable midweek. Summer is a socialising time for you and it is all steam ahead as you issue invitations and receive some back.

Each number in the Code Breaker grid represents a different letter of the alphabet. In this week's puzzle, 7 represents D and 13 represents W, so fill in D every time the figure 7 appears and W every time the figure 13 appears. Now, using your knowledge of the English language, work out which letters should go in the missing squares. As you discover the letters, fill in other squares with the same number in the main grid and the control grid.

Sleeping in the heat

HEALTH &

WHEN it's hot outside and you don't have air conditioning, it can be a nightmare getting off to asleep. But there are ways to get and stay cool for long enough to drift off.

It's advisable to do any exercise a few hours before getting into bed, and to drink plenty of water.

Body temperature is raised during strenuous activity and you retain heat. It's also a good idea to keep a glass of room temperature water by your bedside. Ice cold water slows down digestion and metabolism by constricting blood vessels, thereby decreasing the body's ability to cool off.

Eating a heavy meal or spicy food before bedtime may make you feel hotter, so eat a light dinner at least two or three hours before bed. And contrary to popular belief, avoid a very cold shower before hitting the sack as it can have a rebound effect. Tepid shower or bath is best. Another idea is to soak your hands and feet - the body's radiators in tepid water to cool down.

Heat rises, so the lower to the ground or in the house you are, the more comfortable you will be.

And avoid heavy bedding, light cotton or bamboo mats are preferable. If possible, put bedding in the freezer 30 minutes before bedtime.

Don't sleep naked as this does not allow moisture to evaporate between your body and the sleeping surface. Cotton is best.

Circulate air with a fan, avoiding the face and neck, and flip your pillow a couple of times during the night.

Luscious locks

SUMMER sun, hot dry air, salty water and chlorine are a heady cocktail of trouble for our tresses. So it's no wonder we are constantly battling split ends, oily scalps and dull and lifeless locks. But healthy locks can be maintained all summer long.

EWN 69

Messy buns and braids as opposed to a coifed or blow dried hair are the norm during the summer, but it's important to have regular trims. Like any other part of the body, hair and the scalp needs protection from damaging UV rays.

Coconut oil is an antioxidant that keeps harmful rays at bay as well as being a natural SPF. It can be lathered onto damp hair as a deep conditioner, repairing and protecting your crowning glory.

Unless you are washing the coconut oil out, cleaning your hair daily is not recommended. Frequent washing increases oil production leading to a greasier scalp and brittle hair. Instead use a dry shampoo which helps to reduce scalp oil.

Or try mixing two to three tablespoons of coconut water with the juice of a lemon, massaging the mixture into your scalp for five minutes and rinse with cold water. For best results, do this weekly.

Facing the sun

FACIAL skincare is an all-yearround commitment, and even more so in the summer.

But despite the well-publicised dangers and negative effects of UV rays, just under half of the 1,008 women surveyed by leading market researcher Mintel use facial skincare products containing SPF.

It also found that 40 per cent of female facial skincare users find it difficult to know which level of sun protection to use.

While sun exposure is considered the biggest external factor impacting the skin, usage of SPF on the face is fairly low.

Heat can cause traffic accidents

THE August holiday police operation 'salida' sees around 150,000 injuries per year in Spain due to traffic accidents, with young people particularly at risk.

In fact, 17 per cent of traffic accidents may be due to excessive temperatures, according to studies conducted by Prevensis, a company specialised in the analysis of driver behaviour.

When a car's interior temperature reaches 30°C, it increases the risk of driver error by 20 per cent and reduces reaction time by 22 per cent.

Experts from the hospitals Quironsalud Torrevieja and Valencia warn that heat affects the capabilities and behaviour of the driver.

According to Dr Ignacio Garcia, Traffic Unit specialist and assistant to the medical management at Hospital Ouironsalud Valencia, "the excess of temperature that we capture in our body surface is transmitted to an area of our brain, the hypothalamus.

This gland, in addition to regulating our body temperature, fulfills other functions as a control of our moods, it modulates sleep and allows the ability to react to certain unexpected circumstances.'

The heat excess affects the functions of said gland and is capable of causing failures in driving, which manifest as fatigue, drowsiness, aggression and even diminishes the ability to concentrate and the attention, reducing the re-

Tips for safe driving

• Sufficient rest: do not start the trip if you have not rested properly. It is also recommended to take a break every hour and a half to stretch. Stop as soon as you feel tired.

• Eat light meals and do not drink any type of alcoholic beverage, including low alcohol.

• Wheel right position: the legs should be slightly flexed and the backrest adjusted for the wrists to reach the top of the steering wheel.

• Use comfortable and loose clothing as well as adequate footwear.

action times before a certain circumstance.

Dr Alfredo Perez Cortada, Traffic Unit specialist at Hospital Quironsalud Torrevieja warns, "we should avoid travel in the hottest hours, it is better to do it early in the morning or at the end of the afternoon."

but always with daylight."

In addition, an interior car temperature between 35 and 40° is just as dangerous as having drunk five beers. With this heat, the driver stops perceiving between 15 and 20 per cent of traffic signals and the chance of error increases up to 35 per cent.

The seeds of life

THE humble pumpkin could be a man's best friend when it comes to improving sexual health.

Visiting the doctor, going to the gym and regular medical check-ups are imperative, but there are natural foods equally important for a healthy lifestyle.

And the pumpkin, 'pepita de calabaz' in Spanish, is one of them, in particular its seeds.

An ideal snack, the seeds, or 'pipas,' are available all-yearround and packed with nutrients

According to a study published in Indian Journal of Urology, they are commonly used to strengthen the prostate gland and promote healthy hormone function in men. It claims they may help with benign prostatic hyperplasia, a condition that causes problems with urination due to an enlarged prostate gland.

It's also believed that reduced sperm quality and even infertility in men may be associated with low zinc levels, a mineral found in abundance in the seeds.

According to the book 'Healing Foods' by DK Publishing, the antioxidant content may play a role in healthy testosterone levels.

Pumpkin seeds are also rich in protein, essential for building and repairing muscle, and phosphorous, which speeds up the metabolism.

After finding initial fame with Spanish rock band Héroes del Silencio, he decided to change direction and his solo work, whilst keeping a background in rock music, has flirted with a whole range of different genres ranging from electronic music to the Middle East with blues, flamenco and tango in between.

His current tour sees him promoting last year's new album Expectativos in which he takes time out to think has been developing policies, for many years, to promote knowledge and respect for this spectacularly interesting, yet neglected area.

As an aid to spreading knowledge about the park, the Frax Foundation is hosting a photographic exhibition featuring the work of Jaume Fuster which will be open until September 9.

The exhibition, which is being held in the Sala Pedro Delso in l'Albir, consists of 50 panoramic photographs each one and a half metres long, together with a number of larger and smaller photos.

In addition there are valuable historical documents, such as old maps of the area and aerial photographs from 1940.

THIS week I will continue the discussion about B group vitamins:

Niacin (Vitamin B3). Niacin helps the body utilise the energy that is present in food and keeps the skin and nervous system in good order. Good sources are: mushrooms, cereals, eggs, meat, green vegetables, nuts and beans. Symptoms of mild niacin deficiency include fatigue, canker sores, vomiting, depression, poor circulation and indigestion.

Pantothenic Acid (Vitamin B5). Pantothenic acid, like the rest of the B complex vitamins, helps turn carbohydrates into glucose. Glucose is the only carbohydrate that the human body can use directly, starch and sucrose have to be converted to glucose. B5 is also is necessary for creating red blood cells, various hormones and maintain healthy digestion. Sources include; mushrooms, legumes and lentils, avocados, milk, eggs, and cabbage. Deficiency is very rare and only found in the severely malnourished.

Pyridoxene (Vitamin B6). Vitamin B6 is important in maintaining a healthy body and developing a healthy brain, so it is essential to make sure high levels are maintained during pregnancy and infancy. Sources of B6 include beans, poultry, fish, fortified cereals, dark leafy greens, papayas, oranges and Cantaloupe melons. Severe deficiency is rare, but if slight can produce the following: A weak immune system, anaemia, rashes, scaly skin on the lips, cracks at the corners of the mouth and a swollen tongue.

Biotin (Vitamin B7, AKA, Vitamin H: Confused? So am I!) This split-personality vitamin is synthesised by the bacteria in the gut but is also found in organ meats (liver, kidneys), eggs, fish, meat, seeds, nuts, it helps to keep the skin, nails and hair healthy. Biotin deficiency is rare.

This week's recipe is a Caribbean Curry, Curries are normally associated with India, Pakistan, Thailand and to a lesser extent, China. I am not a great fan of adding fruit (except for the citrus varieties) to savoury dishes, but fruits like mango and pineapple can be added to this recipe five minutes before serving.

Caribbean Chicken Curry

Serves 4

- 1 kg chicken breast meat skinned, boned and cubed
- 2 tablespoons of rapeseed or sunflower seed oil
- 1 large onion, chopped
- 4 garlic cloves, chopped
- 1 teaspoon allspice, ground
- 1 teaspoon cayenne pepper
- 1 tablespoon curry powder 2 chicken stock cubes
- 1 teaspoon celery salt
- 2 bay leaves
- 1 teaspoon of ground mace
- 2 tablespoons dried coconut
- 2 tablespoons mango powder
- 1 can of tomatoes
- 1 jjøger dark rum
- 200ml orange juice

1 bunch cilantro leaf, chopped 2 teaspoons cornstarch, mixed with a little water

Fry chicken in oil until browned. Add onion and garlic and fry until both golden. Add curry powder, fry for two minutes on a very low heat. Add all the other ingredients, except for the cornstarch.

Simmer for 15 minutes or until chicken cooked. Add cornstarch/water mix slowly and constantly stirring, to thicken the sauce. Serve with steamed rice.

RICKY MARTIN: Knows how to thrill a crowd.

THE incredibly popular Ricky Martin has left his regular spot in Las Vegas and is touring Spain, arriving in Benidorm next Wednesday at 10pm.

Tickets for the concert in the Estadio Futball Guillermo Amor reflect the cost of staging this performance and are priced from €49.90 to €107.90 (including online commission charges) although if you want early access and a VIP seat then you will have to fork out €210.90. Recently it has become very popular for artists to charge even more for a 'meet and greet' session which gives fans the opportunity to talk to their favourite star and have pictures taken with them, but the Benidorm allocation is already sold out although tickets at  $\in$  296.50 are available for his concert the following night in Alicante City.

Fans who visit the Fuengirola concert will have the chance to see the Puerto Rican singer appear with La Mari of Chambao who recorded Tu Recuerdo with him in 2007, which has become one of his classic numbers.

Even without La Mari, there is no doubt that the Benidorm show will be very well worth attending as he is a master performer who can keep an audience spell bound one minute and dancing in the aisles the next with his interpretation of his biggest hits including She Bangs, Livin' the Vida Loca and I Don't Care.

No 'get you home tyre'

Views of a Grumpy Old Man

LOOKED at my tyre and it was flat. No big deal - I can phone the grua or change it myself. So I opened the boot of the car to see what's what and, to my surprise, there was nothing there. No jack, no spare wheel, not even the 'get you home tyre.'

There was a bottle of some kind of gooey stuff and a contraption that you plug into the ciggy lighter and then fix to the tyre and blow it up which is useless if the tyre has got a gaping hole in. I didn't even bother to try and read what you do with the gooey stuff. So why have they stopped putting spares into cars?

To make them lighter, which in turn saves fuel apparently, and a few other BS reasons. I was happy with the skinny 'get you home chap' that you used to get but to be stranded with nothing is a bit dumb if you ask me. I liked having that option. Why does everyone know better than the consumer? Because no one I've asked thinks it's a good idea. If you do, please let me know why.

Although I have a house phone, I use my mobile for nearly all my calls. When I got my bill this month I had a few Spanish calls that I had to pay for which is unusual because I have a contract that includes all Spanish land lines for free. But of course, that doesn't include 901 or 902 numbers, which is a nuisance because my car insurance company and many other services I use have those numbers.

My tip is to go online and find the alternative number, which they all have, that you can then use your mobile to call them. Why don't companies just change to a 'normal' number which would seem logical? However, phone companies offer incentives in order to avoid this happening. In this way the phone company can offer their flat rate tariffs to the public, but know that the majority of people will need to call a 901 or 902 number from time to time. Conned again!

Here is another thing to watch out for that happened to me. I got a call from an 8xx number. It rang a couple of times then stopped. Now as I've been round the block a few times I didn't do what a lot of people would do and ring it back because, somewhere in the back of my mind, I remembered reading about a scam where this happens and you call it back and get put on hold after being told some cock and bull story and finish getting charged  $\in$  3-400 for calling this premium number. As Shaw Taylor would say on Police 5 'keep 'em peeled' and if you remember that, well done.

THE Statistical Information Centre of Notaries in Spain has recently released its latest report on the activity of foreign buyers in the country's property market for 2017.

Which nationalities are the most proactive? Are they resident in Spain? Where are the most popular areas to buy? All will be revealed...

The year 2017 was the best for property purchases since the economic crisis began to grip Spain in 2008, and both Spanish nationals and foreign buyers are now very active in the market.

During last year, there were 513,814 property transactions recorded, representing a 17 per cent growth against 2016. Foreign buyers accounted for 100,095 of those and showed a year-onyear acceleration of 14.2 per cent.

For countries within the European Union (EU), during the second half of 2017, the most active nationalities were British (14 per cent of buyers), French (8.6), Germans

The only country that showed a decrease in their property purchasing was the United Kingdom, but that was only for the first half of 2017 before seeing an improvement in the second half.

A rock-solid housing investment

ROCK STEADY: Demand for housing in Gibraltar is as strong as ever.

ANY concerns that Gibraltar might end up outside any EU-UK trade deal is not harming the lively buy-to-let market.

A growing workforce - dominated by financial tech, e-gaming and block chain-based start-ups - is putting pressure on the supply of housing, which is putting up property prices.

For the past 10 years, prices have been rising between 2 and 5 per cent a year.

Mike Nicholls, Managing Director of Chesterton Gibraltar, an estate agency, said:

"There is a shortage of homes for sale and a chronic shortage of rental properties for the army of more than 12,000 workers who commute across the border each day.

"Many of them would much rather live in Gibraltar if the right property at the right price was available."

Unemployment in La Linea, on the Spanish side, is at 35 per cent, but only 1 per cent in Gibraltar.

Nicholls believes that the area of Gibraltar near the airport runway will see housing development on a similar scale to London's Isle of Dogs 30 years ago.

A 15-storey block of 143 studio apartments close to the runway sold 99 of them in the first week of their release.

Properties are also selling fast at Bentley Investments Group's Eurocity, an €89 million scheme of 366 apartments in the central business district.

No new tax to be paid on second homes

REPORTS that the Spanish Ministry of Development wants to increase the tax second home owners pay have been dismissed by the government.

The department has been looking at ways of slowing down the rate of rent hikes that are starting to price people out of areas they may have lived in for generations.

Much attention has been focused on holiday homes and in particular web letting agencies like AirBnB. But the ministry is not planning on putting up the tax of 1.1 per cent of the cadastral value of second homes to the 5 per cent on empty homes mentioned in an internal report. It may still increase taxes on people with 10 or more properties, although this is not certain either.

The ministry is focused on ways of increasing the number of homes available to let. And to help tenants there may be a return to the days when they could put 10.05 per cent of the rent they paid against their annual personal tax bill - although it is not clear how this would help keep rents down.

The main plan is to create a stock of affordable housing for rentals, with money already being pledged to buy up homes from individuals and companies to use as social housing.

TECH FOR THE TIMID

THE astonishing thing about last month's headlines is not that Spain's new submarines initially couldn't float, nor that they won't fit in their dock.

It's that the darn things work at all, given the squintillions of technical calculations which go into designing them, and the tendency of Murphy's Law to work overtime in our utterly techno-dependent world.

Spain's minor maritime mishap almost pales into insignificance compared to just how badly NASA screwed up and lost their $125 million Mars orbiter spacecraft in 1999 - because contractor Lockheed Martin was using imperial measurements while NASA was on metric. Oops.

How about the Italian ocean liner which couldn't get out of the shipyard a while back because someone forgot a bridge was in the way?

There was Microsoft's catastrophic Windows ME, consistently voted one of the worst tech products of all time (and let's not mention Windows Vista).

Sillier than a chocolate teapot

To err is human, but computers do it better, says Terence Kennedy

NOPHONE: World's most pointless tech product?

Or the utterly ill-conceived Amstrad E-mailer in 2000, apparently so bad that rather than wait to hear Alan Sugar's famous words, 'You're fired!,' Amstrad CEO Bob Watkins actually fired himself.

More recently we've had the €400 Juicero which flopped so unsurprisingly when users found they could squeeze the juice better themselves by hand. Or the electronic spaghetti fork which disappeared from sale last year just before I could add it to my Christmas list.

Take the appalling Magellan GPS (please!) that I bought at a bargain price in London's Tottenham Court Road back at the turn of the century.

Never mind something fishy about the price; I should have smelled a whole aquarium. I can still hardly believe that a major manufacturer would put a product on the market which did not, and could not, actually work - as a browbeaten technician finally admitted to me after weeks of badgering their Customer (Dis)Service department.

But the all-time useless-tech product simply has to be the No-Phone Zero. It's not a phone. It just resembles a phone. It's a rectangular block of plastic that does absolutely sod-all.

Apparently it's a comfort blanket for phone addicts, who feel that familiar weight in their pocket, but aren't tempted to pick it up and play with it because they'd get bored pretty quickly.

There's also a NoPhone Selfie which has a mirror strapped to the front, and the very latest just off the production line: the NoPhone Air which is literally just an empty bag of packaging.

If you're among the 15,000 people so far who have shelled out around  $\in$  15 for one of these revolutionary non-gadgets, well, let me talk to you about that bridge I'm still trying to sell.

The $25m laptop

LITTLE did the American civil servant realise when his work laptop was burgled from his home in 2006, that it would cost his government over $25 million.

The laptop held all the details of 17.5 million veterans. In a desperate scramble to contain the data breach the authorities set up call-centres, mailed millions of notifications, engaged creditmonitoring services for those affected, and paid $20 million to the victims.

By contrast, the bill for ensuring that Hawaii never again suffers the mass panic induced by last January's incoming-missile false alarm, came to just over $200.

That's what it cost for a programmer to add a few lines of code asking the duty operator if he was really, REALLY sure he wanted to press that big red button.

Benefits of reducing watering in the garden

GRAEME TYRRELL

HOMES

ONCE summer is here the effects of the heat on the garden becomes apparent. It is usually too late to save poorly designed gardens without the need to apply a lot of water.

Sometimes it is better to just let the garden survive the best it can and learn from the experience. What has enabled plants to survive the summer is what can be replicated to have a more successful garden the next year.

One of the biggest problems is the incompatibility of the plants we like with the ability of the garden environment to grow the plants we want. The best solution is to learn to like the plants that grow naturally in the Mediterranean climate. They are many and varied.

If you do some research to find the Mediterranean plants that suit your garden environment and the effect you want from your garden then you have the easiest of work to make a garden. If you have natural soil in your garden and the plants are native, preparation and maintenance of a garden is minimal. The need to water the garden will be greatly reduced.

In a truly native garden the watering would principally be to establish new plants that have been introduced to the garden and assist some plants during extended dry and hot periods. Water use in the garden is minimal.

CONTROLLING WATER: Is important for the benefit of everyone.

Normally we garden though to enjoy caring for plants and benefiting from the flowers, fruits and other produce which are not native to the region. We also like to attract and support wildlife in our garden environment. This increases the need to have more water available in the garden.

To minimise this need, soil improvement is the most important issue to retain moisture in the soil. Soil protection is also very helpful so a good mulch and appropriate shading of zones to reduce direct sun exposure of the soil and plants will also make a big difference to water retention.

É.

Application of water is also very important to regulate the amount of water needed to keep the root zone of plants moist. Well designed drip irrigation is the most effective way to apply water just where it is needed with minimal time and effort.

There is always a place for a hose to water just what you want and to ensure plants get what they need. The best times to apply water in summer is in the early morning and late evening to reduce evaporation.

Capturing water for the garden can also make a big difference to supply and availability. If you can channel water into storage containers for the garden it will reduce the need for water from other sources. A large container can be enough to supply water for birds for weeks.

Even hilling up ridges around the garden plants and trees can allow the capture of summer storm rain water so it does not just run off into drainage systems. In winter the ridges can be raked out if they are not necessary.

The value of water as a resource needs to be measured against the value of the garden to provide the environmental benefits and produce to support our quality of lifestyle. Gardens are a haven for wildlife so providing water and moisture in a garden can make it an oasis for many birds and beneficial insects.

Reducing the need for water however allows the benefits of water to be shared more widely. Responsible conservation of water allows us to have gardens for the benefit of everyone.

Enjoy shade in the sun

FINDING a shady space to enjoy the balmy summer evenings can prove difficult, but there are ways to create shade in gardens of all sizes making outdoor dining or seating a pleasure on scorching Spanish days.

Timber structures have long made favourite garden shelters, and there is a vast choice of styles beyond the standard summerhouse. Modern pergolas offer a private place to sit away from the gaze of neighbours. Slatted-framed versions provide a light and airy space and depending on the design and colour choice, can appear to float in the space.

Enclosing patio seating in lush green planting not only cools the area, but has an enveloping effect that will fill the space in scent, colour and the sound of breeze through the leaves.

Free standing sails can be incorporated for fine-tuning the shade depending on the time of day.

A solid parasol likes those used in hotels and restaurants are practical and solid. With decent bases, preferably concrete, they won't wobble or blow over when the winds pick up later in the evening.

Simple fabric canopies create shade wherever and whenever needed. Choosing a bright colour and pattern will also make it a pratical feature in larger gardens.

Outdoor fabrics have the benefit of being showerproof, stain-resistant, UV and fade-resistant, but an improvised shade in a sturdy interiors fabric will stand up to occasional use too.

If space is an issue, small patios or courtyards can benefit from a wall mounted parasol, freeing up floor space. They also offer flexibility for angling to protect from the sun. A variety of sizes, shapes and colours are available, but it's advisable to get a professional to install these parasols as they are generally placed above seating areas or sunbeds.

Watch out, wasps about

AS temperatures continue to soar, a dip in the pool has never been more appealing.

But one thing sure to ruin those long summer afternoons is a sharp sting from a wasp or bee that happens to have the same idea.

While it's tempting to kill them, they are good for the environment, and there are other ways to rid your sanctuary of the little invaders.

Wasps love raw meat! So hanging a small piece of leftover cheap steak or beef in an area away from your pool can help entice them away.

Relatively cheap fake wasp nests are available and can be hung around the pool area. Be sure to place them early in the season before they start building their own nests.

But if a large group of the insects have moved in, call in a removal pro. Bees are a bit easier to remove without having to destroy them. They are basically looking for a drink, so set up an alternative water Keep it going all summer and put a small stone inside in case a bee falls in.

source.

It's important to set it up before you open your pool for the season so they already have an established water source. While tumble dryer sheets smell nice to us, bees hate them.

Arrange them around your pool in BUZZ OFF: Stinging insects can be a pain.

baskets or use underneath other objects to keep the bees at bay, but change them weekly.

Again, if these solutions don't work, call an exterminator who can humanely remove the nest.

16 - 22 August 2018 www.housesitmatch.com Tel. 0044(0) 777 214 2742 SPONSORED BY How dogs could give you a killer disease: Superbugs. Parasites.

THEY are mankind's loyal companions. But according to a new study, dogs could be a serious risk to our lives.

Last week, vets warned that many people are overlooking the potentially deadly diseases we could catch from our pets. They carry and spread salmonella, and can infect us with parasites, fungal infections, tapeworm, roundworm and superbugs.

Furious pet owners say the benefits of a dog far outweigh any health risks. So are the vets right?

Tuberculosis

David

THE Dogman columnists@ewnmediagroup.com

If dogs come into contact with an infected cow. get into a fight with a diseased badger or eat meat infected with the bacteria, they can develop tuberculosis - and pass the potentially deadly lung disease on to you.

The risks are tiny, but real. In 2013, a child caught TB from a family dog in Gloucestershire. The child, who was under 10, made a full recovery, but the dog was put down.

Roundworms

Two-thirds of public playgrounds are thought to be contaminated with roundworm eggs - stomach-churning parasites that grow up to 14in long in canine guts.

'REVOLTING': Tapeworms.

The eggs are shed in dog mess and survive for months on the ground. If you garden without gloves or eat food you've dropped on the floor, the eggs can end up inside you.

Once inside the human body, the larvae cannot grow into adult worms, but migrate to the lungs, liver, eyes and brain, potentially causing serious internal damage and even blindness.

"Roundworm look like cooked spaghetti and are probably the most common intestinal parasite in dogs," says Vicki Larkham, a vet with the People's Dispensary for Sick Animals.

'You know if you dog has them because they will be vomiting or you will see the worms.'

Most dog owners have had to remove a tick

The voracious eight-legged insects live in bracken and tall grass and jump onto an animal and bury their jaws into the skin.

They can be as small as a poppy seed, but swell to the size of a pea as they gorge on blood.

Getting them out quickly without squeezing their bodies or leaving their mouths behind is essential because many carry the bacteria for Lyme disease, which causes joint pain, lameness and a high fever.

Dogs can't spread Lyme disease directly to owners, but they can bring ticks into your home. Tapeworms Tapeworms are revolting. Some varieties grow 30ft long inside your intestines and live for 20 years. While most are harmless, one potentially deadly species called echinococcosis is putting people at risk in hotspots in Wales, the Welsh borders and the Western Isles.

After dogs eat echinococcosis eggs in infected animal carcasses, the worms grow to adulthood in their guts and shed eggs in dog faeces. Dogs spread the eggs to people by licking their faces after cleaning themselves.

In people the tapeworm causes cysts on the liver, lungs or brain, which can grow 12in across and cause organ failure and even death.

It can take years after infection for symptoms to show

Caroline Reay, veterinary surgeon at the animal charity Blue Cross, said: "You can prevent tapeworm by the regular use of wormers. If you have a dog in an echinococcosis hotspot you want to worm it every six weeks."

Serious food poisoning

Dogs don't just use their tongues to clean themselves, they happily shove their faces into anything smelly - including dead birds, animal carcasses and fox droppings.

As a result their mouths and guts can be a breeding ground for salmonella and campylobacter - the food poisoning bacteria that can be dangerous for young children and the elderly.

People often ask if I use HouseSitMatch myself? I can honestly say that I do. While we no longer have pets at home we still use house-sitters to care for our garden while on holiday - some call it tomatositting!

Recently, I helped clients close to my own home in Buckinghamshire, UK to care for their dog 'Nuka.' They had a wedding overseas and a lastminute arrangement between neighbours had fallen through. They registered with HouseSit-Match and I offered to help. I discovered new and exquisite dog walks in woodlands not five miles from my home.

duced me to their favourite local places to visit and shops of nearby food artisans, bakers, cheese makers, honey producers all working locally with organic materials producing delicious food.

I had my own personal tour guide in Nuka the dog, walking me to stunning vista points in the Chiltern Hills, I followed her down the footpaths her owners favoured and she was my local expert guide. It was a wonderful experience, an authentic holiday literally walking in the footsteps of the home owners showing me new vistas

McQueen's Hudson up for sale

A HUGE convertible that Hollywood legend Steve Mc-Queen used as his day-to-day car has emerged for sale for

The Hudson Commodore Six dates back to 1950 and actor for several decades until his death in 1980. One of the most famous car collectors of all time, the Great Escape star had a soft spot for Hudsons and actually owned four of them.

This model is thought to # have been his favourite, and was his daily runabout ride.

After the King of Cool's death in November 1980, the Hudson was sold to one of McOueen's friends, before it fell into the hands of the current owner in 2015.

It has barely been driven in the last few years, spending a significant amount of time in storage.

The open topped coupe has a white and brown Americana-style body with chrome trim and a beige folding roof.

The interior has been perfectly kept and maintained, including plum-coloured seats and a vintage chrome stereo.

Under the bonnet, the motor boasts a six-cylinder 170 bhp engine, which was upgraded during McQueen's ownership.

The classic motor is now set to go under the hammer with Bonhams Auctions in California on August 24.

Auctioneers have given it a pre-sale estimate of between  $\in$  51.000 and  $\in$  69.000.

MANE EVENT: Sadio Mane celebrates his second goal in Liverpool's win.

Liverpool off to a flyer

JURGEN KLOPP described Liverpool's emphatic 4-0 victory over West Ham as "better than I could have expected," as Mohamed Salah's goal set Liverpool on their way to their biggest opening home league win since 1932.

The Reds' superiority was clear from the start and they doubled their advantage when Sadio Mane turned in James Milner's cut-back from six yards.

The Senegalese forward added his second early in the second half when he latched onto Roberto Firminho's clever through pass and guided the ball into the bottom corner.

In a game which saw Naby Keita impress in midfield for Liverpool, substitute Daniel Sturridge rounded off the scoring from a corner with his first touch, seconds after coming on.

Liverpool will travel to Crystal Palace on Monday, while West Ham host Bournemouth on Saturday.

Arsenal were comfortably beaten 2-0 by Manchester City in the Gunners' first competitive game without Arsene Wenger in charge since 1996.

Raheem Sterling put City ahead in the 14th minute when he rifled home from the edge of the area, and Arsenal rarely threatened afterwards.

City appeared to be able to shift gears at will, and killed off the game when Benjamin Mendy, who assisted both goals, pulled the ball back for Bernardo Silva to blast in a second.

Arsenal have another tough game at Chelsea on Saturday, while City will entertain Huddersfield on Sunday.

For their part Chelsea enjoyed a comfortable 3-0 win over Huddersfield, despite leaving World Cup heroes Eden Hazard and Olivier Giroud on the bench.

A volley from N'Golo Kante, a penalty from debutant Jorginho and a late third from Pedro gave new manager Maurizio Sarri an ideal start to the campaign.

Manchester United praised 'monster' Paul Pogba after he scored the opening goal and controlled the game in the 2-1 win over Leicester City.

Left back Luke Shaw then scored the first senior goal of his career after converting Juan Mata's aerial pass to double their lead.

Substitute Jamie Vardy headed a late consolation for the Foxes, after Ricardo Perreira's cross had hit a post.

United will head to Brighton on Sunday, with Leicester hosting Wolves on Saturday.

Other fixtures this weekend will see Fulham head to Tottenham on Saturday, Everton host Southampton, and West Ham entertain Bournemouth.

India beaten at Lord's | US PGA Championship:

ENGLAND completed an emphatic innings and 159-run victory over India at Lord's to take a 2-0 series lead.

James Anderson took 4-23 to finish with nine wickets in the match and Stuart Broad shone with 4-44 as India were bowled out for 130

The hosts had declared on 396-7, with Chris Woakes finishing on 137 not out, before Anderson reduced India to 17-2.

Rain delayed play twice but India lost wickets regularly and Woakes took the final scalp to secure a crushing win.

England enjoyed the better of the bowling conditions in the match, but India produced two dismal batting performances.

Ravichandran Ashwin and Hardik Pandya's 55-run partnership for the seventh wicket was India's only real stand of the innings and the tourists never looked comfortable under grey skies at Lord's

Only once has a team come back to overturn a 2-0 deficit to win a Test series, and that was an Australia side that contained Donald Bradman in the 1936-37

Ashes. There are also concerns for India over the fitness of captain Virat Kohli, who received treatment on the field for a sore back after missing much of the morning session.

Questions still remain over England's top order - they were struggling at 89-4 on Saturday but Woakes' all-round performance is a promising sign for the hosts.

Koepka holds off Tiger charge

AMERICAN Brooks Koepka won his second major of 2018 by fending off a resurgent Tiger Woods to claim the US PGA Championship.

The US Open champion, 28, had led by two shots overnight and shot a four-under 66 to win by two on 16 under par.

Excitement grew at Bellerive as Woods pushed for a first major since 2008, falling short despite a final-day 64.

Koepka made birdies on the 14th and 15th to keep clear of Woods and Adam Scott (67), who finished on 13 under.

It was 14-time major winner Woods' lowest final round at either the Masters. US Open, The Open or US PGA.

However, his efforts were still not enough as Koepka became the first man since Woods in 2000 to win the US Open and US PGA in the same season.

Koepka, watched by his mother and girlfriend from the side of the 18th green, fought back tears after tapping in a par to set a new 72-hole PGA Championship scoring record of 264.

European player on 11 under after a 68, a shot ahead of Belgium's Thomas Peters.

Their performances will have encouraged European captain Thomas Bjorn in the run-up to next month's Ryder Cup in Paris, along with Spaniard Rafa Cabrera Bello's final round of 64.
